

Hostesses Unite With USO Set-Up

Conforming with instructions given by C. W. Reynolds, regional executive of the national USO upon his recent visit to the local unit, Dr. Orville Waller, chairman of the program and activities committee, called a meeting of this committee and the junior hostesses together with their advisory council the past week.

The junior hostesses president, Miss Genevieve Hallin, and the council voted to become members of the USO organization as set up by Reynolds, after which the following board was selected to coordinate their activities as a USO unit: Mrs. Jack Foster, chairman; Mrs. Victor P. Morris, Miss Juliette C. Gibson, Mrs. Frances W. Kelly, Jr., Mrs. Julio W. Silva, Mrs. Dorothea Ford, Mrs. Marion Kinder.

The junior hostess group has been exceedingly active and its members have made many trips to the camps which are located within traveling distance, where they have acted as dancing partners, and have become expert in many types of games which are enjoyed by the non-commissioned men in the armed forces. They also serve daily at the local USO.

All activities of this group will be channeled through the office of Mrs. Omar Fendall, USO secretary, who as executive manager, becomes an ex-officio member of all committees.

Two Assigned to ASTP

Charles V. Liles, son of Virgil Liles, Crow Stage route, Eugene, and Paul C. Anderson, of Cottage Grove, have been assigned by the army to specialized training at Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind., where approximately 2,500 men are being prepared through intensive instruction for officer and technical services. The Indiana University unit is one of 200 established at colleges and universities under the war department's army specialized training program.

Boy Scouts Distribute Christmas Seal Posters

Boy Scouts of Willamet council took on another one of their many community service jobs Saturday. This time they put up the posters announcing the annual sale of Christmas seals, which opens Monday, Nov. 22, when everyone on the regular mailing list should receive his seals. This is one of the projects of the boy scouts all over the nation. Posters will be placed in prominent places throughout the county, according to K. A. Wells, scout executive.

Eugene troops helping in the work are: troop 5, scoutmaster, Francis L. Cook; troop 12, scoutmaster, Dr. E. D. Furrer; troop 66, scoutmaster, R. J. Radabaugh; troop 67, scoutmaster, Howard Kneadham; troop 101, scoutmaster, Stanley Summers; troop 103, scoutmaster, William Joe Nee.

Troops outside of Eugene who are helping in the work are: troop 13, from Dorena, Frank Bloomer, scoutmaster; troop 21, Lowell, Rev. E. W. Johnson, scoutmaster; troop 28, Creswell, L. E. Zinkler, scoutmaster; troop 40, Alvadora, E. F. Boggs, scoutmaster; troop 50, Trent, William Barber, scoutmaster; troop 100, Mohawk, Arthur Baugh, scoutmaster.

The following seal sale chairman in the larger districts will call upon the troops in their territory to handle the posters wherever there are troops organized: W. C. Evans, Junction City; Stewart Carlson, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Genevieve Morgan, Florence; Mrs. Bonnie Jensen, Mapleton; Mrs. Bessie Miller, Oakridge.

California Coed Is Oregon Dream Girl

Janet Marugg, Monrovia, Cal., was chosen "Oregon's Dream Girl" from six freshman finalists at the annual Coed Capers, women's frolic, held Friday evening in Gerlinger hall on the campus.

Delta Delta Delta, social sorority, won the first prize of an inscribed silver globe presented upside down, in keeping with the slogan "When Women Reverse the Universe," for their costumes. The Tri Deltas were dressed as red-hooded robots. The activity girls won first prize of a rolling pin for their skit, "Masterpieces Revolt."

Judges were Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women; Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women; Mrs. Kathryn Barrett; Betty Bennett, girls' league president of University high school; and Joyce Davis, girls' league president of Eugene high school.

Mistress of Ceremonies Shirley Huntington, Salem, and Janet Ross, Medford, Stooze "Peewee" enlivened the affair with their adlibbing. A faculty skit, with individual take-offs of their professional selves, was successfully presented by Mrs. Schwering, Mrs. Macduff, Dr. Leona E. Tyler, Miss Mabel Wood, Dr. Marian G. Hayes Miller, Dr. Helen M. Petroskey, Mrs. Mary S. Huser, and Mrs. Kathryn Barrett, who won applause with her characterization of a cafe singer and dancer.

Bob Smith and Jim Lund, Eugene, crashed the gates, and were chased and caught by the Coed Caps, dressed in khaki and armed with clubs (members of Mortar Board). The show was stopped twice when rumor went around that two other fellows were impersonating girls. However, a thorough search failed to reveal them, but it was learned Saturday that one was hidden among the Angel group.

Proceeds from the capers exceed $300, it was announced Saturday by Gerd Hansen, Marshfield, general chairman. Profits will go toward the purchase of a bomber, which the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is buying in November. AWS is affiliated with the state federation.

Nine philanthropic groups in Eugene will support their 1944 programs with funds from the Lane county war chest.

The Great Virgil Challenges Mediums

By BILL BUELL

Challenges to those who claim to establish contact with spirits has always been a major activity of The Great Virgil, nationally famous magician who will appear in McArthur court at 8 p. m., Monday, November 22, under the auspices of the University of Oregon. Virgil has a standing offer of $1,000 to any spirit medium who can present a seance that he cannot duplicate by scientific means.

A special feature of The Great Virgil's program will be Julie, psychic enigma, with her act of "human television." While blindfolded and without any previous contact or information, she can call people throughout the audience by name; describe them; answer their questions; and apparently tell them their exact thoughts at the moment of mental contact with them.

In one of his most sensational mysteries The Great Virgil has one of his girl assistants tied in a strong sack and locked and tied in a trunk. Then, while being watched from all sides, he

Maj. Roy M. Morse Visiting in Eugene

Maj. Roy M. Morse, who spent three years with the armed forces in Alaska, and who now is stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., has arrived in Eugene accompanied by his wife and son, Victor. They will spend several days with relatives and friends before returning to Fort Lewis.

Maj. Morse, after attending special officer training courses at Fort Benning, Ga., was assigned to the 4th Infantry and immediately proceeded to the Alaska area for active duty with the defense command. He served as company lieutenant, later as captain and personnel officer, and still later as adjutant of his regiment. For one year he served on Lt. Gen. Buckner's staff in G-3 operations. He now commands a battalion of the 4th Infantry.

Northwest Exempt From Fuel Order

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Oregon, Washington and the 10 northern Idaho counties have been exempted from the stringent national fuel rationing order of November 9, fuel rationing officials announced.

At the same time, however, stated the consumer-driven rationing plan which has been in effect for two months will be continued.

Under the plan, announced by Roscoe A. Day, chief of the rationing program, the dealer fixes his delivery priority on the basis of the quantity of a year's needs which he has on hand.
