New residents of Eugene are Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Michel, recently of Chicago Heights, Ill., where Dr. Michel practiced for 13 years as an ophthalmist.

Dr. Michel is a graduate of Bradley Technical college, and received his degree of doctor of optometry at Northern Illinois college. He also received an honorary degree of ophthalmic science for research.

He is a member of the professional fraternity of Omega Delta, a 32nd degree Mason, and a past commander of the American Legion.

Eugene High News

Officers of the class of '46 are: Art Janson, president; Willard Dodd, vice-president; and Harriet Vannatta, secretary-treasurer.

Others nominated were: Dick Moll, Dick Cramer, Michael Callahan, for president; Alex Rlasanovsk, Stew Brunton, vice-president, and Joanne Frydenlund, for secretary-treasurer.

All candidates were suggested and voted upon by a nominating committee composed of students selected from each roll room.

The final list was presented to the activities committee, which must judge each individual on such qualities as scholarship, leadership, and ability, before they can be put before the students for election.

Sophomore class advisors are: Mrs. Nora Robertson and O. M. Mickelson.

Margaret Kingman, Eugenean editor, called the newly chosen staff together at a meeting last Tuesday, November 9.

Associate editor is Jeanne Bingham; Amy Lou Ware heads administration. Bev Wolff and Jerry Holland will take care of the senior section, Barbara Bennett will handle the juniors and Joanne Frydenlund, the sophomores.

Sports editors are Leon Lay in charge of major sports, and Brian Graves, minor sports. Anne Cassidy manages the girls sports.

Activities are covered by Bea Hall, Bob Goodlin, and Bobbie Lloyd; features by Jeanne Wiltshire, Cal Hersey and Joan Beckman.

Artists, chosen by Bob Bannister, art instructor, will be Helen Forsythe, and Anne Marshall.

Typing is an essential though unglamorous part of putting out the annual. Good typists are needed.

Miss Mae D. Kinsey, English instructor, is the staff's advisor.

The capella choir sang at Eugene high last Sunday for an American education week program, sponsored by the Masonic lodge. They sang several numbers.

'Frying Pan' Farce Is Fired for Friday

The comical, entertaining story of a group of kids trying to break into the New York stage is told in "Out of the Frying Pan," farce by Frances Swann which will open the University Theatre's new season Friday night, November 26 on the stage of Johnson hall.

Subsequent performances will be given Saturday night, and again on Friday and Saturday of the following weekend, December 3 and 4.

The three-act production is under direction of Horace W. Robinson, acting head of the University drama department, who also appears in a small role. Dr. Robert D. Horn of the English department also has a part. The bulk of the cast consists of students.

These include Dorothy Rosenburg, Ed Mickel, Erwin Webb, all of Eugene; Bob Forman, Dorothy Weyant, Sue Welch, all of Portland; Lewis Vogler, Klamath Falls; Jean McClanathan, Silverthorn; Pat McCormack, Banks.

Katherine Korn, active in both campus and Very Little Theatre drama, is assistant director of "Out of the Frying Pan."

Tickets will be available starting Monday from 10 a. m. to noon, and from 1 to 5 p. m. at the Johnson hall boxoffice, telephone 3500, extension 216.

ning, November 16, at the home of Margaret McAdams. The date was set for December 20, with Colleen Mariott as hostess at her home, assisted by Dave Stone, committee chairman.

Social meetings for the club were planned for each month. Hostesses were named and dates set.

The girls' athletic association held its monthly meeting and pot-luck Thursday evening, November 18. The sophomores were in charge of the clean up and in keeping with the practice of last year, the class that is on clean up gets to eat first.

Volleyball and games were played during the remainder of the evening.

An organization meeting of boys interested in wrestling was held in room 217 at 4 p. m. last Wednesday. About 30 boys attended.

The team plans to have wrestling matches with other high schools and to sponsor smokers. The wrestling will be in cooperation with the physical education program and rigid training will be required.

Eight students from the commercial art class helped with the window display, show cases and merchandise display at Montgomery Ward last Tuesday night.

The students participating were Don Starr, Frances Townsend, Beverly Bealstro, Betty Steele, Peggy Jonsrud, Don Hassard, Iral Nelson and Arla Witte.

Reta Fry Preparing To Be Storekeeper

Reta M. Fry, 33, daughter of Mrs. Ruth A. Fry, 1932 Villard, was enrolled recently at the naval training school for storekeepers on the Indiana University campus at Bloomington, Ind., and is now preparing to replace a shore-stationed male storekeeper.

At Indiana she is receiving expert instruction in storing, recording, reporting, requisitioning and invoicing stocks. Classroom curriculum is supplemented with physical training and recreation periods.
