Medical Groups To Follow Armies

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—(AP)—The United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration will send life-saving teams of doctors and nurses into Europe behind the armies to fight disease and starvation, Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general of the U.S. public health service, said.

Chairman of UNRA's commission on medical care for civilians in war zones, Dr. Parran said at a press conference that reports gathered from France and Poland indicated the UNRRA must move rapidly to prevent a world-wide spread of epidemics. Typhus and tuberculosis already are taking thousands of lives, he said.

Dr. Parran said that to accomplish its task UNRRA would have a chief medical officer, a staff of doctors and technicians gathered from all the nations and stocks of medical supplies which already are being assembled.

Personnel units which can care for groups of 10,000 people will move into any area where needed.

Dr. Parran said the entire problem would be complicated by an estimated 21,000,000 persons who will be anxious to return to their homes in the greatest migration in the history of the world. Under UNRRA plans, he said, these people will be funneled through centers where they will receive food, be checked for contagious disease, be vaccinated and quarantined, if need be.

Before Dr. Parran revealed the plans to counteract disease, a high source said that it had been decided that title to the relief supplies would pass, at the post of entry, into the hands of whatever existing government controls the territory.

Rev. Burns Accepts Call to Reedsport

REEDSPORT — Reedsport friends have learned that Rev. Ted Burns, former pastor of the local Community Presbyterian church, has accepted the call of the board of directors and will return to the local pastorate. He will be accompanied by his family. Rev. Burns occupied the local pulpit until two years ago. He then moved to Cottage Grove, and later to Huntsville, Ark., where he has been serving six communities.

A shower of food products, tea towels and money was given by members and friends of the Reedsport Parent-Teacher association at its recent meeting in the high school building. Plans were made for opening the cafeteria and other business was transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gibbons were hosts Friday evening for the meeting of the Gardiner-Reedsport Lions club, at which time a venison dinner was served. During the business meeting which was conducted by M. H. Durbin, vice-president of the club, S. T. Brannock, superintendent of the Reedsport schools, was admitted to membership and a committee consisting of Berge Borrevik, S. T. Brannock, and Fred Wright, was appointed to meet with the Parent-Teacher association to discuss the possibility of assisting that body in securing funds for conducting the school cafeteria during the present school year. A beautiful silk American flag recently purchased for the Reedsport high school was displayed and will soon be presented to the school at a fitting ceremony. Following the business meeting colored slides of the lower Umpqua valley, Reedsport and Gardiner were exhibited by Mr. Durbin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Webb entertained employes of the First National bank of Gardiner and their families at dinner recently, guests including Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gerhard and daughter, Marilyn, Mrs. Gazelle Niespo and daughters, Penny, Louise and Alice, and the Misses Mary Smith and Mavis Tapp. A social evening followed.

Members of the Tuesday Bridge club and their husbands were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foster recently. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bernhardt, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. John Dye, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lyster and the host and hostess.

The second of the fall series of Discussion club meetings of St. Ann's church was held Wednesday at the William Andrews residence. Mrs. Waldamer Knutsen will be hostess for the December 1 meeting.

Sgt. Allen Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Peck, has left Reedsport for Santa Ana, Cal., where he is an instructor in the decompression chamber of the U.S. army air forces, and Bruce Courtney, of the U.S. army, former Reedsport barber, has returned to his post following a visit with local relatives.

Nursing Classes Held For Walterville Women

WALTERVILLE — The first meeting of the Red Cross nurses class was held recently at the home of Mrs. A. T. Easton with eight ladies present for the class. Miss Lula Geil of Eugene is the nurse giving the course. Miss Geil is remembered here in this work, having had charge of the class of nursing in World War I. The first lesson was on sick care, arranging pillows and making the bed.

Eight were present and several others have signed for the course. In order to get their credits, the women must attend ten of the twelve lessons. The next lesson will be on the first five chapters in the nursing book.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watson are announcing the arrival of a daughter, Barbara, born Nov. 12 in Eugene.

The Walterville Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Ed Schwering for quilting.

N. C. Weist has returned home from the hospital where he received treatment following an accident in which he broke five ribs and a collar bone.

The Walterville Ladies' Aid society met recently all day at the social room of the church, for quilting. Three more meetings are alloted for the work on this quilt. The society will not meet next Thursday as that is Thanksgiving day, but will hold the regular meeting Friday, Nov. 26.

Smith Taylor of McKenzie Bridge was in the Walterville vicinity recently contacting people on the Community War fund and leaving necessary material for contributions to be solicited. House to house canvass is in the hands of the grade school children and they were out the same evening calling at the different homes in this interest. The Walterville Grange and the Walterville Ladies' Aid society each pledged $5.00; the Community club pledged $2.50; and other organizations will pledge later in the drive when the matter is placed before them. Mrs. A. T. Easton and Mrs. Clarence Potter have been asked to speak to the organizations.

Observers Get Awards At Lorane Meeting

LORANE—A potluck dinner was held at the grange hall recently for aircraft ground corps observers. Talks were made by Capt. Joe Richards and Lieut. Taggit, and the new alert system was explained. Mrs. T. P. Addison sang "When the Lights Go On Again," accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Cunningham. Captain Richards presented arm bands for 100 hours' service to Rex Keep, Dalene Mitchell and Bill Brady. A five hundred hour pin was presented to Beverly Schurger and five hundred hour bars were presented to Donna Davis and Mrs. Edith Dunn for 1500 hours' service. A silver star was presented Mrs. E. C. Herendeen, chief observer, for one and a half year's service. Slides and moving pictures of ground observers' work were shown by Sgt. Edward Perkins. Those who finished the aircraft observers school and earned diplomas are: Mrs. Della Schurger, Beverly Schurger, Donna Davis, Mrs. Lottie Mitchell, Dalene Mitchell, Mrs. Edith Dunn and Bill Brady. Mrs. Marzetta Smith now is conducting a school each Thursday afternoon at the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hasten of Hutchinson, Kan., visited recently with a daughter, Mrs. Bob Oatney and family. The Oatneys accompanied them to Dallas for a short visit with another daughter. Mrs. Oatney's brother, Dale Dutton, and family also of Hutchinson, Kan., returned home with them. Mr. Dutton has secured employment with Addison and Sons.

Meetings Listed

The Lorane Red Cross sewing unit will meet with Mrs. H. A. Mitchell Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 23.

No school will be held next Thursday or Friday as this will be the Thanksgiving vacation.

A list of boys in service and their addresses has been posted at the high school. Some addresses have not been obtained. If relatives will list addresses or changes of address it will keep the list up-to-date so friends may write to the boys. The list is posted in the hall where relatives may go and make changes at any time.

Harry C. Kenney

Harry C. Kenney, 77, Route 2, died Saturday morning. He was born April 26, 1866, in Indiana.

Surviving are his wife, Ella; one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson, Eugene; a son, Cpl. Fred H. Kenney, U. S. army; also one brother and one sister.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later in the week by the Branstetter-Simon funeral home.

WE ARE VERY MAD

PEOPLE WON'T do as we tell them. Here we spend umpety dollars telling them what to buy and where to list, and they go right on doing as they please. We simply can't understand it. Now for instance here we have:

A DANDY big house, close in on the West Side—one of those built to stand the tides of time—which has been converted into 4 apartments; two up and two down. These apartments are always full, and very little renewing will stepup the income to justify considerable more than the $6000 we are authorized to accept for the property. IT'S A REALLY GOOD BUY, folks. See Mrs. Sober.

PERHAPS YOU are one of those disgusted people who have worn their nerves to a frazzle trying to find a three bedroom modern home. If so take an aspirin and call Darrell Shelley about this East Side offering with three bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen, fireplace, basement, furnace and a lovely lot for $6250 on good terms.

AND RIGHT HERE we have a honey of a farm right on top of Pleasant Hill of 90 acres with good buildings, electricity, fruit and berries, all in cultivation for $12000 that should belong to some new owner right after this add appears. See the office boy.

WHOA BOY! We almost overlooked this lovely 2 bedroom River Road home for $7000. Right in the very heart of this Suburban Aristocracy with spacious ground, surrounded by lovely homes, near school and market we doubt if you will find another like it anywhere. Oh yes, it is exclusive with this office. See Mr. Knight.

DAG NAB IT, a lot of folk have been looking for a small place where they could make a modest beginning and we didn't have it. Well, here's one for $2000 bucks with a pretty good 4-room plastered house and five lots. Gosh, in these days of rising prices this is like a drink of water to a man lost on the desert.
