

Daughter Banquet at Wendling

WENDLING—The Wendling family sponsored a father-daughter banquet at the hall recently. Sixty-six persons were present. A short program was given, as follows: a play, by the Wendling girls; Christmas carols; and a play, by the Wendling girls. The senior girls gave a typical father-daughter banquet. The two senior girls were Lucille Blackman and Mary Lou Blackman. The others included: Mrs. R. T. Ruthven, received recently of the death of her father, H. O. Bonderud, Grace N. D.

Clyde Starr received a head injury when he fell while working on the dry kiln, recently. He was taken to the hospital. Mrs. R. T. Ruthven, received recently of the death of her father, H. O. Bonderud, Grace N. D.

STAFFORD ITEMS

STAFFORD—A large crowd attended the penny supper and bazaar held at the Mohawk Grange hall sponsored by the ladies of the Home Economics club of Mohawk-McKenzie grange. Members of the Sunshine club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Grant McGinnis Thursday afternoon. At the same time the members honored Mrs. Bert Windham with a shower. In the contest Mrs. Root received the prize. Refreshments were served by the members, assisted by Carrie Hill.

Members of the Sunshine club will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hills. It will be a Christmas party. Each member is to bring a gift.

TWO STYLES IN ONE

by Anne Adams

This versatile dress may be made up as a becoming shirtwaist or as a frock to wear with a smart skirt. The dickey, in itself, makes a smart gift! Pattern 4603 is lovely in a dark rayon crepe, smart, too, in cotton. There's a new Chart included for easy sewing.

Pattern 4603 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards of fabric.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coins for this pattern. Write plainly in ink. Name, Address, City, State, Zip.

Send your order to Register-Guard Pattern Department.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail loose pieces of pattern larger than 36 inches in length. Do not use staples or staples. Do not use staples or staples. Do not use staples or staples.

WCS Meeting and Election Reported

ELKTON—The Methodist W.S.C.S. held its final meeting of the year this week. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Edith Gates, president; Mrs. Erda Chestnut, vice-president; Mrs. Lorena Binder, sec.-treas.; Mrs. Roy Wells, local church activities; Mrs. Beth Cherry, supplies; Mrs. Edith Adams, missionary education; Miss Kathleen Clemo, young women's girls' and student work; Mrs. Lucille Moore, children's work. The following chairmen were elected: Mrs. Evelyn Binder, quilts, hostess; Mrs. Mabel Binder, fancy work; Mrs. Effa Moore, silver tea; Mrs. Francis Heddon, refreshments, membership; Mrs. Blanche Wade, visiting and gifts. There was a short program followed by games. Christmas presents were exchanged. A handkerchief shower was given the retiring president, Mrs. Erda Chestnut.

In the last football game of the season, at Drain, Elkton high school was defeated by Drain by a score of 37 to 6. Kenneth Stewart made the lone touchdown for Elkton.

Umpqua Rebekah Lodge 173 met last week. The degree team initiated three new members, Mrs. Lucy Haines, Mrs. Anna Bauer, and Frank Kausche. The Odd Fellows were invited to a joint installation of officers Jan. 4. The members decided to send a Christmas gift to the Odd Fellows home in Portland, and also to buy another war bond. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Esther Gates, Mrs. Lois Beckley, and Lawrence Chestnut. Thirty-eight members and one visitor were present.

Iris Haines' store is being redecorated. Miss Betty Bridges of Fort Wayne, Ind., spent several days with Miss Bertha Leitner. Miss Bridges is a former student of Miss Leitner.

Mrs. Anna Bauer is spending extra time at the high school now, working on music for the Christmas program.

An A. W. S. meeting was held recently at the town hall. Capt. Joe Richards spoke and showed army films on the fighting in Russia and at Buna.

Rev. G. K. Gilluly, who has lived here for the past month, has returned to Eugene.

Officers Named By Drain OES

DRAIN—The following officers were elected, at the Eastern Star meeting held recently: worthy matron, Ruby Holloway; worthy patron, H. A. Woolman; associate matron, Golda Woolman; associate patron, Flen Henderer; secretary, Elma Pfister; treasurer, H. L. Goodman; conductress, Lucia Mattin; associate conductress, Helen Griswold.

PARTY GIVEN

YONCALLA. The annual Christmas party of the Scotts Valley Willing Workers club was held at the Victor hall recently. A potluck dinner was served at noon. The afternoon was spent with visiting and sewing, after which the gifts were exchanged.

Members of the Yoncalla Junior and Senior Euodia clubs and members from the Roseburg and Oakland clubs were guests at a banquet held in the Epworth hall of the Methodist church recently, with the Yoncalla mothers hostesses for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkle decorated the auditorium and dining table. A chicken pie dinner was served. Miss Wilda Miller was toastmistress. Miss Miller, a returned missionary from China told many things about the Chinese people. Miss Verla Highley gave a reading. Miss Barbara Houser sang three solos. She also led the singing in many choruses. Mrs. R. Mrs. R. Feenstra, wife of the Methodist minister at Roseburg, was the guest speaker. Those present from away were Misses Pauline and Joanne Bovington, Betty Musgrove, and Mary Baird of Oakland, Francis Inwing, Freta Hendrickson, Floramary Spencer, Eugene Wolsk, and Mrs. Funstra of Roseburg. Twenty-four members were present from Yoncalla. The mothers preparing banquet were Mrs. Luther Daugherty, Mrs. Roy Brant, Mrs. Gertrude Stoute, Mrs. Russell Loyd, Mrs. Tom Watson, Mrs. Dan Wright, Mrs. Harvey Cockeram, Mrs. Ray Atkinson, and Mrs. Hallie Gelder.

CLUB TO MEET

WALTERVILLE—The Walterville school service club will hold its regular meeting for Dec. 17, due to the school holidays coming on the regular meeting night. Refreshments of sandwiches and salad will be served.

At the last meeting of the club the membership decided to drop the hot lunch project for the year. The Christmas program to be given by the school children will be held at the schoolhouse Thursday evening, Dec. 23. Parents and patrons are invited to attend. Mrs. LaShott was appointed to buy the Christmas treats for the children.

A coast guard-manned patrol virtually every one of New York's hundreds of piers that handle war shipping.

Home Extension Unit Meets at Lorane

LORANE—Lorane home extension unit met last week with Mrs. Gladys Lynch. Roll call was answered with suggestions for building morale. It was voted to serve hot lunches to school children to raise money for 4-H scholarships. Mrs. Gladys Lynch, Mrs. Lottie Mitchell and Mrs. Muriel Peterson were appointed on this committee. The next unit meeting will be Jan. 28 at the home of Alice Warnock. The project "File it Now" will be demonstrated by Mrs. Lottie Mitchell and Mrs. Gladys Lynch. Roll call will be "an incident of misplacement." Each lady is to take scissors, a cup or saucer, and a piece of wallpaper or print 13 by 15 inches. Miss Nellie Lyle led the discussion on "Building Morale." Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Ralph Lynch has left for a two months visit in California. She will visit relatives at San Francisco and Mrs. Harry Farrar at Goleta, Calif.

T. Sgt. Ira Baker, from Indio, Calif., visited his father, Talbert Baker, here this week. Sgt. Baker's home is in Arkansas.

Mrs. Dave Cullen has gone to Pendleton to meet her husband, Lt. Dave Cullen. From there they will go to Kansas City.

The Ugo Igo club will meet Dec. 17, with Mrs. Ella Schneider. This will be the annual Christmas party. Each member is to take a gift for exchange. Roll call will be answered with a Christmas poem or story.

A Christmas program will be given at the Christian church Sunday morning, Dec. 19.

The Ladies Aid and Red Cross sewing unit will have a Christmas dinner and exchange of gifts in the church kitchen, Dec. 22. The Red Cross group are meeting with the Ladies Aid on Wednesdays.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Crader, Dec. 7, at Sacred Heart hospital. This is their first boy. They have three girls.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Durbin, nee Dorothy Addison, Dec. 6, at Sacred Heart hospital.

AT FRANKLIN

FRANKLIN—The C. I. Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, for a potluck supper. Husbands of the members are to be guests of the evening.

Robert Allen is again at the Sacred Heart Hospital, the result of complications following an operation.

Carl Christensen of the U. S. navy is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Christensen. This is his first visit in a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips have traded their property at Franklin for property near Penn.

SNAPPY TWOSOME

by Laura Wheeler

New, nifty and right on the beam is this shell-stitched pillow with smart envelope bag to match. Right with any costume you have, be it sports or dressy. Make in jiffy time with bright knitting worsted. Pattern 674 contains directions for hat and purse; illustrations of stitches; list of materials required.

Send ELEVEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly in ink. Name, Address, City, State, Zip.

Fifteen cents more brings you our New 32-page Needlecraft Catalog... 133 illustrations of designs for embroidery, knitting, crochet, quilts, home decoration, toys.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail loose pieces of pattern larger than 36 inches in length. Do not use staples or staples. Do not use staples or staples. Do not use staples or staples.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use cash, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Helping Hand Club Planning Meeting

TRENT—Helping Hand club meeting will be held at the Frank Kimball home Wednesday, with potluck dinner at noon. This is the Christmas meeting and election of officers.

Ladies' Aid met recently all day, with potluck at noon. Mrs. Viva Smith and Mrs. Evelyn Casey were hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Lathrop, Mrs. Bernice Parker read a Christmas poem, and Mrs. Eileen Lawson and Mrs. Pearl Hutton sang a duet. "Birth-day Sisters" were made known, and new ones drawn. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Myrl Williams chosen president; Mrs. Minnie Lantz, vice-president and social president; and Mrs. Ila Jacobs, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Roy Lantz was called to Portland this past week, to be with her husband, who is to have an operation. Mr. Lantz has been there the past two weeks.

Lewis West is refinishing the inside of his house, just vacated by the Austins.

At Willagillespie

WILLAGILLESPIE—The Victory Gals club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Kingsley recently for a potluck dinner. The afternoon was spent quilting for Mrs. Kingsley. Mrs. Mae Cummins' birthday was also observed. She was presented with a teapot. Those present were Mrs. William James, Mrs. E. L. Cox, Mrs. Dale Kingsley, Mrs. Clem Howell, Mrs. LeMarion Howell and Mrs. Grace Wilson. Mrs. Scharen was a guest. The club will have a Christmas party the evening of Dec. 15 in the Kingsley cabin for the families with a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts. The next meeting will be in January at the home of Mrs. Clem Howell.

The program at the P.-T. A. Friday evening was; song representing first and second grades, by the primary room; song by Sandra Marose and Dickie Gardner; patriotic drill by intermediate girls; song by four eighth grade girls, Virginia Bellows, Ginny Simmons, Deloris Caswell, and Gloria Elliott; song by the boys led by Joe Vincenzie; and play by Girl Scouts. At the business meeting Mrs. Harper resigned as secretary and Mrs. Maude Vaughan was elected to take her place. At this time there was a discussion about a Christmas program and treats and a committee was appointed, Cecil Buckingham chairman; Mr. Hammock and Mr. Nestell. In the membership contest, the Blues won over the Reds; the Reds will serve a chicken dinner on Jan. 7 to all members who joined during the contest.

Mrs. E. L. Cox fell, injuring her knee badly.

Mrs. C. Peirano of Pittsburg, Cal. is spending the winter with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Orme.

Miss Dorothy DeTienne of Bainsville, Mont. is visiting at the Julius Nelson home.

At Halsey

HALSEY—Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Smith and family were surprised recently by a wire from their daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Smith of Los Angeles, Cal., saying her husband, their son, was being given a leave and they would be home for Christmas and after the leave he would be stationed in Portland, Lt. (j.g.) Smith has been in the navy for many months.

Purity Rebekah lodge No. 130 recently elected its new officers who are: Mrs. Lella Norton, noble grand; Mrs. Vernita Kirk, vice grand; Mrs. Grace Sicksle, re-elected secretary; and Balf M. Bond, re-elected treasurer. Installation of officers will be held the first regular meeting in January, the second Wednesday, at which time the appointive officers will be announced. Mrs. Dorothy Leeper, district deputy president, will install the officers assisted by several past noble grands.

Wilday lodge No. 65, I.O.O.F. has elected the following new officers: James Kirk, noble grand; William Patapoff, vice-grand; Fred Robbs, re-elected secretary; and Balf M. Bond, re-elected treasurer. Deputy grand master Francis Kirk will install the officers, assisted by several past grands the first Thursday in January. James Gregoroff is the outgoing noble grand.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Danner are the parents of a son born Wednesday at the Albany general hospital. He is the first child in the family and is a grandson of Mrs. Dora Danner of Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Trill, formerly of Halsey.

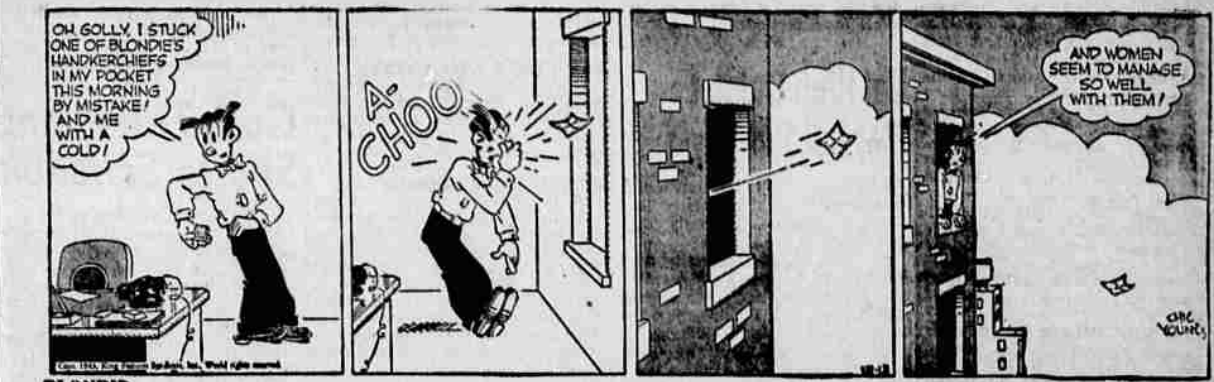

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held an all-day meeting Thursday with a potluck dinner at noon. Mrs. Gertrude Smith, president, presided over the business session which followed. Mrs. Mary McWilliams had charge of the devotion and was assisted by several members in the presentation. Special music in the form of a vocal solo by Miss Margaret Standish was given. She was accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Houck at the piano. The annual mite box opening was held with appropriate services. Mrs. Smith had the lesson which was on the subject of "Need for Christian Literature in Foreign Lands." The nomination committee reported as follows for new officers for next year: Mrs. Gertrude Smith, re-nominated for president; Mrs. Rosa Carey, re-nominated for vice president; Miss Mary Smith, re-nominated for recording secretary; Mrs. Ruby Standish, re-nominated for corresponding secretary; Mrs. Adah Taylor, re-nominated for treasurer; and Mrs. Mary McWilliams, re-nominated for spiritual life secretary. Mrs. Smith also appointed

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WA'

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

her committees for next year's work. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Mrs. Ethel Commons and Mrs. J. S. Northrop. Mrs. Lee Jarnigan and Mrs. Ball were guests of the society.

Saginaw Items

SAGINAW—The Friendly Neighbors club met at the home of Mrs. Jim Abbott last week. Mrs. Frank Chapman of Thornton Corners was a visitor. It was voted to sell sandwiches at the dance at Walker Saturday night. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bart Johnston Dec. 16. At this time there will be exchange of Christmas presents and a short program. Also the club will celebrate its fifth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Neat of Wecoma visited recently at the home of Mrs. Neat's brother, William Sharon.

MERCER LAKE

MERCER LAKE—E. A. Mitchell is installing a new water system for his house and barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boddy and Mrs. O. S. Speers spent several days this week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Costello of Marshfield visited this week with his father, John Costello.

The Ada group of the Home Extension unit met recently with Mrs. Ruby Miles, now living near Mercer Lake. Miss Nellie Lyle, county demonstration agent, was present. Seventeen members, one visitor and four children, were in attendance.