Rebekahs, IOOF Plan Tuesday Party

JUNCTION CITY—Thursday evening, Dec. 23 at 7:00 the Rebekah lodge No. 42 will hold a regular meeting in the I.O.O.F. hall. The Rebekah and Odd Fellow annual Christmas tree and party will follow beginning at 8 o'clock. Rebekah committee in charge of the evening is Malissa Purkerson, chairman; Mabel Cox, Maxine Hartman, Edna Jensen, and Lucile Junck. William Jensen heads the Odd Fellows committee for the evening and is assisted by Anton Rasmussen, Harold Kennedy, J. C. Larsen, and H. C. Christofferson.

A regular meeting of the Luther League was held last week. Plans were discussed for the young peoples' Christmas tree program to be held Monday, Dec. 27 in the Danish hall at 8:00.

Scout Troop

A Boy Scout troop committee meeting was held Friday evening at the home of Lee Murphy, chairman. Other committeemen are Ernest Kennedy, finance; Howard Ashby, secretary; Haven Potterf, scout relations and Eyner Hentze, transportation and camping. The entire committee will act as the board of review. The committee voted to purchase a set of scoutmaster's handbook and a new scoutmaster's uniform from the troop fund. The troop was re-registered and plans were discussed for a paper drive to be held on Jan. 15. The next meeting of the committee will be held Jan. 4 and on the first Monday of every month thereafter.

Cubs Organize

The Cub Scout troop of Junction City has been re-organized under the leadership of Rev. Carl Mason. Twenty cubs were registered Thursday of last week. The Cubs are sponsored by the American Legion. Cub committeemen are D. D. Horton, William Hansen, and Harold Kennedy.

M-Sgt. V. Nelson and Mrs. Nelson have arrived from Fort Columbia, Wash., to spend the holidays with Sgt. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson, other relatives and friends. Sgt. Nelson and Mrs. Nelson will return to Fort Columbia Dec. 29.

Tuesday Calendar

Lions club meeting in the cafeteria of the union high school at 6:30.

Benefit basketball games for polio fund in the gymnasium of the Union high school. Junction B. team vs. Oakridge at 7:00; Junction City A. team vs. Oakridge high, at 8:00 and Junrtion City business men vs. Monroe town team at 9:00.

Friendship club meeting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Rafoth. Potluck dinner at 12:30 and exchange of gifts.

Wednesday Events

Oasis lodge meeting in the I.O.O.F. hall at 8:00.

Red Cross surgical dressings meeting in rooms 1 and 2 over the United States National bank building from 7:00 to 9:30.

Civil Air Patrol meeting in the music room of the grade school at 7:30.

Luther League meeting in the Danish hall at 8:00.

For Thursday

Firemen meeting in the fire hall at 7:30.

Rebekah and Odd Fellow Christmas tree in the I.O.O.F. at 8:00.

Rebekah lodge No. 42 meeting in the I.O.O.F. hall at 7:00 Saturday.

Grange No. 744 Christmas party in the grange hall at 7:00.

From Shedd

SHEDD—Staff Sergeant Bob White and Lonnie C. Parkeson and families are making their homes in cabins at the Shedd auto camp now under the management of M. J. Fox. The men are stationed at Camp Adair. Mr. Fox expects to open his garage for business early in January.

A basketball game played here recently between the Shedd and Tangent grade teams resulted in victory for the visitors, 21 to 15.

Four members of the Shedd Girl Scout troop enjoyed a skating party recently at the Albany rink. The leader of the troop, Mrs. Doris Latimer, accompanied them.

An airplane school which was held in the school house has completed its course of nine lessons. It was attended by captains of the observation post and those under them. Thirty different planes were studied. Mrs. Bell of Eugene was instructor.

Kenneth Smith and Miss Vida Kifer who is teaching the first and second grades of the Shedd school were married recently.

Arthur Ruckert who is in the army recently made a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ruckert.

NOTI NEWS

NOTI — The Rainbow Health club enjoyed a party at the school house recently. Following a short business meeting, the game committee, Rozella Roush, Ordella Harrington, and Delores Berens, led an afternoon of games. Later refreshments were served. The refreshment committee was Kieth Harper, Wanda Ware, Marie Clark and Kay Kayser. Mrs. L. R. Adkison is club leader.

Mrs. Florence Garner has left for Colorado to spend Christmas with her husband, Private Kenneth Garner, who is in the air forces, training at Buckley Field.

IN MARCOLA

MARCOLA — Marcola grade school is giving a Christmas operetta Wednesday evening, Dec. 22, at the grade school. The operetta, "The Magi's Gift," is in two acts and has a cast of about 50 pupils. The public is invited. Vacation at the grade school begins Friday, Dec. 24, and runs to Jan. 5.

Parents Club Sets Meeting Thursday

CRESWELL — The regular meeting of the Parents club will be held Thursday afternoon of this week instead of on Friday as the school closes that day for the holidays. The teachers will be in charge of the program and the home economics class will serve the refreshments.

Mrs. J. P. Kuni and Mrs. G. N. McDonah entertained the Royal Neighbors club of Eugene at a luncheon, Friday, followed by a Christmas party and an exchange of gifts. "Secret sister" gifts were also presented. Carols were sung around a lighted tree. Twenty guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Powell have received word that their son, Finess, has completed his boot training and has been transferred to a basic training school at Detroit, Mich., where he will attend a school preparing him as a machinist mate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plank of Oakridge and baby daughter are visiting with her people Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stott and family. Mr. Plank responds to his service call next month. The family plans to locate here.

Pfc. Earl Smith arrived home Friday from camp at Tacoma where he is a member of a medical detachment. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith.

Mrs. Mabel Sly left Monday to spend the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hanford at Boise, Idaho.

Home From Seattle

Ralph Black of the navy was home for the week-end from Seattle, Wash.

Due to illness, the Christmas program and mothers' tea scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, by the grade school teachers has been dispensed with.

Mrs. Ernest Syphers arrived here Friday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Redding, and with Seaman Syphers' mother, Mrs. Lela Syphers. She plans to be here two weeks.

Lambing Starts Early At Shedd

SHEDD — Apparently lambing has started early this year. A new lamb was added to L. N. Starnes' flock of sheep last week. Pastures are better than they were at this time last year but would be benefited by more warm rains. Ewes in most flocks are in good condition.

Mrs. Allen Madsen from Port Angeles, Wash., has been visiting Miss Fay Williams.

The regular meeting of the Priscilla club was postponed until next Wednesday on account of the illness of Mrs. Bertha Elliott.

The United Presbyterian Missionary society met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Gregory for the annual Christmas meeting. Mrs. Herbert McDonald conducted the devotional services. Mrs. C. E. Berton read the minutes of last month's meeting and called the roll. Mrs. Willard Brown conducted the business meeting. Numbers were drawn and gifts bearing corresponding numbers were distributed. A lighted Christmas tree was an attractive feature. Refreshments were served.

The Potter club met recently at the home of Mrs. Porter. A clever contest was held. Mrs. E. E. Awbrey won the prize by guessing most nearly the number of berries on bunches of holly. Refreshments were served.

Deerhorn School Lists Program

DEERHORN — The Christmas program will be held Thursday evening at the Deerhorn school house. The pupils of the school will present the program. Those interested may attend the program at the Walterville Presbyterian (Anderson Memorial) church on Christmas eve.

Walt Rauch Jr., seaman first-class, USN, formerly of Deerhorn, is at home on a short furlough. Walt was badly injured several months ago but has recovered considerably. His sister, Goldie, also was home at the same time. She is a nurse in Portland.

Grange Installs

NORTH FORK—North Fork grange met recently to install its officers and those of the juvenile grange. D. E. Severy acted as installing officer, with W. J. Meadows acting as marshall and Mrs. Ben Shirley and Mrs. George Chapman amblem and regalia bearers. During the business meeting Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Akerley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Waldo, and Miss Fay Waldo were voted into the grange and will receive the degrees in January. A gift exchange and refreshments are planned for the next meeting, which will be on December 25.

CLUB ELECTS

CLOVERDALE—The Christmas meeting of the Ladies' club was held at the clubhouse Thursday. A no-hostess dinner was sreved at noon. Quilting for Mrs. L. J. Quigley was done during the afternoon. At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the pew year: president, Mrs. W. O. Shoop; vice-president, Mrs. Olive James; secretary--treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Roberts. The visitors were Mrs. Wilma Mitchell, and Mrs. Paul Bishop of Eugene, Mrs. Carrie Lord and Mrs. T. H. Conboy. Christmas carols were sung and gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were also served during the afternoon.

Missionary Group Elects Officers

SANTA CLARA — The Santa Clara Women's Missionary society met recently in the church parlor with Mrs. W. E. Barbee in charge of the program. The topic was "Peace." Election of officers for the new year resulted as follows: Mrs. W. E. Barbee, President; Mrs. Arthur Guthrie, vice-president; Mrs. Lee Adkins, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Cliff Abram song leader; Mrs. H. Jeppesen, assistant; Mrs. E. A. Conont, pianist; Mrs. James B. Chapman assistant.

PFC. Joe Taubenkrau, home on furlough, left recently for his station in California after a visit with his parents and old friends. He also visited with Pvt. Fred Emerson at Camp Adair and other friends in Portland. Joe has finished his school of radio work.

Staff Sgt. Ed Burger of Camp Adair visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barker in Santa Clara recently.

Mrs. H. R. Emerson returned home recently from Camp Adair where she visited her son, Pvt. Fred Emerson, who underwent an operation on his eye Nov. 30. Pvt. Fred is getting along nicely but will be operated on again this week.

Noti Program Set Next Thursday

NOTI—There will be a Christmas program at the grade school Dec. 23 at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited.

The Home Extension Unit met recently at the home of Mrs. Mae Pilon, Miss Nellie Lyle, county home demonstration agent, was speaker of the day, leading a discussion on "Building Morale." Roll call was answered by a Christmas poem. A planned luncheon was served at noon. Afternoon was taken up by singing, games and the exchange of gifts. Birthday greetings were extended to members having birthdays in December. Twenty members and seven visitors were present.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jay were called to Vancouver, Wash., recently because of the death of Mrs. Jay's brother-in-law, Bob Carson. Mr. and Mrs. Carson were former residents of Noti. They were living at Oakland, Cal., at the time of Mr. Carson's accidental death.

Miss Avril Drinkwater has finished her training at Western Union's school in Santa Cruz, Cal., and has been placed in a Western Union office in Medford.

RUFFLES OR RIC-RAC

Cute as a cupcake, is this sassy pinafore-type frock. Pattern 4584 may, of course, be either pinafore-ruffled or accented with ric-rac. It depends on your darling's fancy. It's snappy as can be in cotton . . . becoming and warm in wool, a good style for school or red-letter days! Best of all . . . it's easy to make.

Pattern 4584 is available in girls' sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 10 takes 2 3-8 yards 35-inch.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coins for this pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

Add TEN CENTS for our Pattern Book of smart fashions and useful gifts. Free glove and handbag pattern printed right in the book.

Send your order to Register-Guard, Pattern Department.

by Anne Adams

PLEASE DON'T . . . Mail loose coins or stamps larger than 3c denominations with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO . . . Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Creswell Grange Planning Meeting

CRESWELL — Creswell grange will meet in regular session Thursday evening. A Christmas program in charge of the lecturer, Mrs. Earl Petty will be given. "Santa Claus" will be there and each member is to bring a gift for exchange.

The Home Economics club of Creswell grange will hold its meeting Tuesday afternoon at the hall. "Pollyanna gifts" will be presented and a no-hostess luncheon will be served.

The regular meeting of Honor Rebekah lodge will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 22. Each member will give a number in keeping with the holiday season for the good of the order. Gifts will be exchanged.

Mrs. V. E. Grousbeck assisted by Mrs. E. D. Grousbeck entertained the Neighborhood club Thursday afternoon at the annual Christmas party. Carols were sung, Mrs. Frank Sly gave a reading and Mrs. E. D. Grousbeck sang a solo. Gifts were exchanged. The eighty-first birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jennings was observed.

The Christmas party of the Camas Swale club was held last week at the club house in their district. Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Vern McCluskey, and Mrs. Frank Gardner were the hostesses at the potluck dinner at noon. Visitors were Mrs. Eunice Dugas and Mrs. Mona Hendricksen and they became members of the club. "Pollyanna names" were drawn for next year. Gifts were exchanged and a social afternoon was spent. Plans were made for a watch night party. Hostesses for the next meeting are Mrs. E. E. Allen, Mrs. Zelta Gool, and Mrs. Bernice Zimmerman.

Mrs. E. H. Heaton entertained her 4-H sewing club at a Christmas party Thursday afternoon at her home. Gifts were exchanged and treats were dispensed by the leader. Twenty-three girls were present. Mrs. C. I. Kent and Mabel Heaton, recently of Alabama, were guests.

School Programs Are Announced

CROW — Crow high school is having an exchange of gifts on Dec.23. The other schools also have their tree and programs on the evening of that date. These will clean up on Dec. 24 and all will have vacation until Monday after New Year's.

Henry Rieck caught a large coyote in a trap on his place the past week. The coyotes are quite numerous in that vicinity. They caught most all of Mr. Rieck's lambs and kid goats during the summer and fall, and have killed sheep and goats for several others. Gene Holland and John McDaniel went to see the government trapper, but he was ill and not able to trap them just now.

Sgt. Glen Harwood from Denver, Colo., was guest of honor at a dinner Sunday at his mother's home. Several friends and relatives attended.

At Wendling

WENDLING—Mrs. Cecil Hammond, the first grade teacher, gave a Christmas program in her room recently. The mothers of the first grade pupils were invited. The following program was given: "Jingle Bells," by all the children; recitation, "The Kindergarten;" song, "Upon the House-top;" recitation, "Old Santa Is Coming," by Patrick Kelley, George Steinberger and Keith Quigley; recitation, "Christmas Bells," by Naomi Whitaker, Carolyn Prickett, Carol Ann Gard, and Marjory Metzger; songs, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear" and "Away In a Manger;" Christmas acrostic, by all; "A Chinese Scene" by Patrick Kelly, George Steinberger, Neil Callison, Floyd Bumby, and Gerald Swofford; "Rastus and Mandy at Home," by Naomi Whitaker, Carolyn Prickett, Melvin Craiger, Albert Sansom, Vern Sansom, Keith Quigley and George Steinberger; recitation, Larry Hobhood.

Pvt. Leighton Jones of San Luis Obispo, Cal., has a ten-day furlough and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jones. Another son, Silver Jones, has recently enlisted in the navy and has gone to Portland. From there he will be sent to a camp for basic training.

Mrs. Eugene Howd has returned from Alameda, Calif., after a three weeks' visit with her son, Clinton Howd.

Central Notes

CENTRAL—The Willing Workers' club of Central held its annual Christmas party last week at the home of Mrs. Burr Fitch. A brief business session was held and it was voted to give $5 to the USO. Each member and guest responded to rollcall with a verse from the Bible or something pertaining to Christmas. Gifts were then distributed from beneath the Christmas tree to all present, after which lunch was served to 35.

School closed Friday for a two weeks' vacation. The children presented a play "A Soldier in Bethlehem," at the Grange hall Thursday evening and had a Christmas tree with treats for the children.

The women of Central will start making surgical dressings and plan on meeting each Wednesday at 1 o'clock at the Grange hall, beginning January 5. All women are urged to be present and assist in this much needed work.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS and HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

News of Deerhorn

DEERHORN—The White Elephant club met at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Koozer recently. Work was done on a quilt. Mrs. Lloyd Currant, Mrs. Dick Potter and Mrs. Everett Wearin were remembered with birthday gifts, however, all 3 were absent. The Christmas exchange was held. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Watson on Jan. 26. Mrs. Raymond Bates and Mrs. Cecil Johnson's birthday will be observed. A potluck luncheon was served at noon to the regular members.

The Deerhorn home demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. Emmett Rauch with Mrs. Bob Marquardt as a joint hostess. Mrs. Lowell Hubbard and Mrs. Harry Deckert led the project lesson entitled "File It Now." Each member made a file out of envelopes, wall paper, and cardboard. Mrs. Mecum, who is president of the club, presided at the business meeting. Roll call was answered by a short story or a cute saying. Miss Nellie Lye will be present at the next meeting and will be in charge of the project. Mrs. Tanner will be hostess for the next meeting which will be held Jan. 21, starting at 11:00 o'clock. Mrs. Cecil Johnson received the prize for being the first one present. A Christmas gift exchange was held in the afternoon. Luncheon was served to the regular members and Mrs. Hallie Dunston who was the only new member.

Mrs. Ruby Koozer has returned to her home after a visit with her son, Dale, who is an air student at Santa Ana, Cal.

Leroy Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stone, has returned to his home here after a six week stay in the hospital because of infantile paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Dunston formerly of Washington have moved into the Marquardt [illegible] which was occupied by Tanners before they purchased their home.

INSURANCE MAN DIES

GRANTS PASS, Dec. 21—(AP)—A. B. Cornell, 74, Grants Pass insurance man, died of a heart attack here Sunday evening.