Fan Fare

By Glenn Hasselroth

READY AND RECOMMENDED:

THE MALE ANIMAL—Henry Fonda, Olivia De Havilland, and Jack Carson in the comic story of what happens when old college pals get together. HANGMEN ALSO DIE—Brian Donlevy plays Heydrich's killer, but intelligent direction by Fritz Lang tempers the grimness. Nice balance on this bill at the Rex.

FIRED WIFE—Marriage complicates the fishbowl lives of Louise Allbritton, Robert Paige, Diana Barrymore, and Walter Abel, and giddy fun is the result. Heilig-goers seem to be liking it.

SERGEANT YORK — Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie, and Walter Brennan in the impressive biography of the World War I hero. Thank the State theater for bringing it back.

THE RAINS CAME — Tyrone Power in a turban makes love to Myrna Loy, despite interference of George Brent, Brenda Joyce, a flood, an earthquake, an epidemic, and perplexing customs in India. UNDER TWO FLAGS — Sandy Africa of last century the scene here. Claudette Colbert saves Ronald Colman's life in the Ouida romance, only to lose him to Rosalind Russell. Both on the McDonald screen.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Dec. 21—(AP)—Financial markets today generally shifted gears into reverse.

Stocks, after five successive sessions without an average loss, turned irregularly lower following a fairly steady opening and, while scattered specialties managed to contest the trend with moderate success, losses of fractions to a point or so were widely distributed near the close. Transfers approximated 700,000 shares.

Most bonds and commodities trailed with stocks.

Profit taking on the lengthy unewing in securities was a retarding influence. Speculative and investment contingents, while still looking for a year-end bulge when commitments liquidated for tax purposes may be reinstated, inclined to step warily as the holidays approached.

Attracting bids were Francisco Sugar, which edged into new high ground for 1943; Cuban-American Sugar, American Telephone, Texas Co., Sears Roebuck and Dow Chemical. Laggards included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Schenley, Du Pont, General Electric and Westinghouse.

GIVE WAR BONDS FOR CHRISTMAS—Bette Davis, screen actress, stresses the value, both to recipient and the nation, of giving war bonds for Christmas 1943. She is shown in a scene from the brief appeal film, "The Present with a Future," now being shown at the McDonald theater under auspices of the war activities committee of the motion picture industry.

POINTS FOR FAT — Mrs. Vincent Astor trades in a pound of salvaged fats and gets two meat points in exchange from Louis Speroni, proprietor of a New York butcher shop. Fats now bring points as well as money when returned to butchers.

Oh, Oh, You Should See What's at the Holland

Featured nightly through Sunday in an all-new floor show at The Holland are the Hazel Mangean Girls, "four corset packin' mamas from the gay 90's." The quartette appears locally direct from a two-year engagement at Billy Rose's diamond horse shoe, in New York. They are presenting a fast moving comedy revue type of entertainment.

Also featured are Paul Dutch, one of the star performers in Madison Square Garden in Barnum and Bailey's circus round-up under the big top; the inimitable Rusty Colman, comedy singing and dancing master of ceremonies; and Elaine Dennis, the diminutive pepper-pot of song. Two complete floor shows are presented nightly.

Busby Berkeley, famed creator of "Gold Diggers" and other musicals, will introduce a dozen new "Cinderella Girls" in "Cinderella Jones."

CHILD CRUELTY CHARGED

MEDFORD, Dec. 21—(AP)—Child cruelty charges faced a 30-year-old prospect mill hand today. The man, Earl Finton, was taken into custody Sunday and arraigned before Justice W. H. Coleman yesterday. His request for more time to plead was granted. He was accused by Robert Elder, county juvenile officer, of beating five-year-old Terry Prather, his wife's nephew.

NAZI ADMIRAL DIES

LONDON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The German DNB agency said today that Vice Admiral Ludwig von Reuter, 75, who ordered thes cutting of the German fleet in Scapa Flow in 1919, died today of heart disease.
