

Eugene Register-Guard

LANE COUNTY HOME NEWSPAPER
EUGENE, OREGON, SUNDAY, JANUARY 2, 1944

J. Warren Teier photo, Wiltshire engraving.

PRIVATE AND MRS. A. T. GOODWIN, JR.

The wedding of Private and Mrs. A. Theodore Goodwin, Jr., (Marjorie Major) was an event of Dec. 24.

Miss Smith, Miss Brown Tell Betrothals at Parties

By MARIAN LOWRY

Romantic announcements are very much in the social news again, several engagements and weddings being revealed.

Atwood-Smith Betrothal

At a dinner at the Pi Beta Phi house Friday evening and later at a party given at her home, Miss Phoebe Smith, daughter of Dr. Warren D. Smith of the university, announced her engagement to Wayne R. Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Atwood of Eugene.

Miniature newspapers told of the betrothal at the sorority dinner. Names of the couple were written on the cake at the party at the bride-elect's home, Miss Catherine Ross being assistant hostess for the latter party.

No date is set for the wedding. The bride-to-be is a junior on the campus and a member of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Atwood is in training with the navy V-12 program at the university of California at Los Angeles. He attended the university here and is affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity.

Attending the announcement party at the Smith home were Miss Carolyn McKinley, Miss Joyce Clark, Mrs. John L. Tyner, Miss Katherine Korn, Miss Mary Ross, Miss Lottie McDonald, Mrs. William Shoun, Miss Dorothy Glese, Miss Dorothy Roome, Miss Louise Baker, Miss Mary Aldrich, Miss Yvonne Umphlette, Miss Elizabeth Edmunds, Miss Janie Ruegger, and the hostesses, Miss Ross and Miss Smith.

Robertson-Brown

Miss Leith Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Brown, was hostess for a luncheon party in the mirror room of the Eugene hotel Thursday afternoon at which time she told of her engagement to Robert M. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson of Eugene. Betrothal cards were left at each place to reveal the news.

Date for the wedding has not been set.

Miss Brown attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. She also is active in the Eugene Splinters club. Mr. Robertson, now a private with the ASTU at the university, attended the university also and was a junior when called for army training.

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. R. L. Robertson, Miss Joyce Robertson, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Miss Anita Simons, Miss Margaret Sleeper, Miss Marjorie Sawyer, Miss Helen Ann Robertson, Mrs. Thomas J. Fox, Miss Rosalie Ann Aclaf, Miss Peggy McGill, Miss Sally Fletcher, Mrs. Arthur J. Miner, Miss Enid Moor, Miss Martha Jane Switzer, Mrs. Natalie Giustina, Miss Norma Lundstrom, Miss Mona Verum, and the hostess.

Miss Walker Engaged

On the occasion of her birthday anniversary, Tuesday, Miss Betty Jean Walker that evening gave a dessert party for a small group and announced her engagement to Theodore (Ted) Rutledge.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Walker and is a senior at the University of Oregon where she is president of the Ordes club this year. Mr. Rutledge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Rutledge, and is also a student on the campus.

Date for the wedding has not been revealed. News of the betrothal was told on gift cards with miniature rings attached, arranged in the nut cups at the guests' places.

At the announcement party were Mrs. K. E. Rutledge, Mrs. James H. Walker, Miss Charlotte Calder, Miss Janet Carpenter, Miss Lucille Bryant, Miss Jeanne Smith, Miss Irene Mason, Miss Genevieve Eaton, Miss Lois Christopher, and the hostess.

At a simple ceremony held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Tugman was solemnized the marriage of their niece, Miss Marie G. Lewis, Portland, to Sergeant Kenneth Thompson, U. S. army. The service was held in front of the fireplace, yellow daffodils and white candles being used for decorating. Dr. Leavitt O. Wright reading the Congregational church ceremony. About forty were present for the wedding.

For the music, Miss Joyce Davis sang and Miss Luella Prescott played the marches.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Tugman. She wore a floor length dress of white jersey. Astrid Hart was flower girl.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. Mrs. Alton F. Baker, Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Mrs. Ben P. Dorris, Mrs. Lance Hart, and Miss Helen Thompson, sister of the bridegroom, assisted about the rooms. Assisting with the serving were Misses Louise Baker, Barbara Huntington, Ann Wright, Betty Bushman, Katherine Mallory, and Gerd Hansen.

Sergeant Thompson recently returned from service in Alaska. The bride, who attended schools in Eugene, is a supervisor of nurses at Doernbecher hospital in Portland. Sergeant Thompson is the son of Mrs. Anna Thompson, Eugene.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.

MISS PHOEBE SMITH

Several engagements were announced the past week. Miss Phoebe Smith, at left, has told of her betrothal to Wayne R. Atwood, and Miss Leith Brown, at right, has announced her engagement to Robert M. Robertson.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.

MISS LEITH BROWN

Several sorority alumnae clubs have meetings slated this week.

Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae will be guests of Mrs. Charles D. Thompson and Miss Brownell Frasier, at the Thompson home, Monday evening, seven-thirty o'clock.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae are meeting Tuesday evening, seven-thirty o'clock, home of Mrs. Glenn Byrnes.

Two groups have set their meetings off until Jan. 10, Delta Delta Delta alumnae to meet that evening; Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae also to meet then, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Randall, 951 Patterson street.

Alpha Delta Pi alumnae will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. V. C. May, eight o'clock.

Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae are to gather for dessert at seven-thirty o'clock Monday evening, home of Mrs. Martha Baker, Mrs. Thomas I. Chapman assisting.

A formal dance, known as "stardust ball," is to be given next Saturday evening, January 8, by and for the Eugene Girl Reserves. The party will be in the downtown Masonic temple, Carl Gutmann's orchestra to play. University of Oregon YWCA members are invited to attend. Miss Betty Jones is in charge of arrangements for the dance.

Mrs. J. Murray Wiltse will be hostess to Phi Mu alumnae for dessert on Wednesday evening at the Lovall Rugh residence, 1491 Willamette street.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Barbara Crosland, daughter of Dr. Harold R. Crosland and Mrs. Lillian P. Crosland of Eugene, to William S. Lind of Portland.

The wedding was an event of November 8 in Boston, Mass. Mr. Lind, an ensign in the navy, is to be a radio operator on a ship with the merchant marine. He and Mrs. Lind are now in Boston awaiting his call to duty.

The bride attended the University of Oregon and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority on the campus.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.

MISS AILEEN GUY

Leaving soon for Boston, Mass., will be Miss Aileen Guy, who is to wed Ensign Arthur K. McNett, U.S.N.R.

Wiltshire engraving.

MRS. WILLIAM COMPART

Wed recently at a ceremony in the chapel at Camp Adair was Mrs. William Compart, the former Violet Carlson of Eugene.

Wiltshire engraving.

MRS. WILLIAM S. LIND

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. William S. Lind, who was Barbara Crosland of Eugene, the wedding being in November in Boston.

Miss Marie Cole Bride Here On New Year's Day

At an impressive ceremony held at four o'clock in the afternoon New Year's day, Saturday, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Miss Marie Myra Cole, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Cole of Eugene, was married to Sgt. Gwynne H. Vaughan, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne H. Vaughan of Jamestown, New York. Rev. Francis P. Lepzig officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin with long bodice, scalloped at the neckline. The skirt was fashioned with an insert of lace worn in the wedding dress of the bride's mother and the long pointed sleeves were trimmed with lace worn in the wedding dress of both the bride's grandmother and mother. The fingertip veil was held in place on either side by pearly orange blossoms. The bride carried a satin covered prayer book topped with small white butterfly orchids.

Attendant in Blue

Miss Dorothy Barthelmy, of Portland, acting as maid-of-honor, wore a gown of periwinkle blue brocaded taffeta. The bridesmaids, all cousins of the bride, included Miss Patricia Leahy of Astoria, wearing pale green brocaded taffeta, Miss Rosemary Leahy of Portland, wearing rose brocaded taffeta, and Miss Pauline Friedrich of Astoria, wearing pink brocaded taffeta. All of the dresses were fashioned similar to that of the bride, and all of the bridesmaids carried nosegays of mixed flowers in shades of blue, pink, green, and white.

John Leahy of Portland, cousin of the bride, was best man, and Danny Cole, brother of the bride, Don Blythe, and Mark Schreiner were ushers.

Reception Held

Mrs. Dale Cooley, organist, played Schubert's "Ave Maria" and the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Assisting at the reception held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents were Miss Marie Germann, Mrs. Joseph J. Leahy, Mrs. F. J. Friedrich, all of Astoria, Mrs. James Leahy, of Portland, all aunts of the bride's; Miss Shirley Gray of Camp Adair, and Mrs. R. L. Moon.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a dark blue dressmaker suit, with wild grape and blue accessories.

The couple left for a trip to the coast, after which Mrs. Vaughan will remain in Eugene temporarily, planning to join her husband later. He is on duty in California.

Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary is to meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Norman Stefarrh, 447 Twenty-second Avenue west, eight o'clock. Mrs. Peter Whitney and Mrs. Alex Atterbury are assistant hostesses.

Bide-a-Wee club members will meet Monday afternoon, two o'clock, home of Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Coleman as the hostess.

Alpha Iota sorority is meeting Monday noon, for luncheon, Wills cafe.

Mrs. William Preston is to be hostess to the Sunshine club next Friday, one o'clock, Osburn hotel.

Marjorie Major and Ted Goodwin Wed Here

A holiday wedding of interest to campus and town was that of Miss Marjorie E. Major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Major, Eugene, to Private A. Theodore Goodwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Goodwin, Prineville. The ceremony was solemnized at four o'clock, Christmas eve, in St. Mary's Episcopal church, Rev. E. S. Barham officiating.

Only the immediate families attended. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The couple are at home in Eugene for the present in an apartment at the home of Dean Eric W. Allen.

Mrs. Goodwin, senior at the University of Oregon, is prominent on the campus, being editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald, student newspaper, this year. She is a member of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, of Theta Sigma Phi journalism honorary, of Psi and Quill writing group, and of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority.

Private Goodwin, who recently returned to the campus with the senior ROTC students, is former president of Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity, is a member of Ye Scabbard Inn, men's writing honorary, and of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity.