I SAW
Three boys walking along, followed by three soldiers with three girls. On passing a penny weight machine, one boy stopped to read the sign. He read "stop!" The three soldiers and girls promptly stopped. Just as one of the soldiers started on, the boy read "Please stand still." The soldier said "Okay." The boy finished by reading the big "Thank you" painted on the sign, and continued on his way.

Rigid Culling of Poultry Advised

Rigid culling of laying flocks this January will be unusually important as a means of reducing flocks in line with feed supplies and in affording more efficient and profitable production, says County Agent O. S. Fletcher. Poultry producers of Lane coun- ty, as well as those in the entire nation, are faced with an adjust- ment problem this spring, he says.

Information on both the na- tional and state January culling campaign has been received by the county agent from Noel Ben- nien, extension poultry specialist at Oregon State college, who also makes some suggestions on culpital, Sunday, Jan. 2, 1944, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer, Route 1, Junc- tion City, a daughter.

BUSINESS NAME

The certificate of the assumed busi- ness name, Rickard Accounting Service, has been filed in the office of the county clerk by Edgar Rickard of Eugene.

JUSTICE COURT

Arthur Jackson and Earl Leon Grimm each paid a fine of $1 for having im- proper clearance lights.

Lance Herbert Harrington was fined $5 and costs for a combination over- load.

Ezal Barton Reed was fined $5 and costs for a unit overload.

ing procedures.

Oregon has expanded her pro- duction of chickens, eggs and tur- keys to such an extent in re- sponse to national demands that some reduction is suggested in state goals for 1944. These goals call for four per cent fewer eggs, one per cent fewer chickens rais- ed, 28 per cent less broiler pro- duction, and eight per cent fewer turkeys raised for meat.

From the national standpoint it is hoped through January culling to reduce an estimated 520 mil- lion hens and pullets by approxi- mately 50 million. If Oregon pou- ltrymen will reduce flocks to the approximate number on hand in January a year ago, they will ob- tain more efficient egg production and conserve vital feedstuffs, Bennion suggests. This can be done by eliminating older birds not in laying condition and by re- moving undersized, slow maturing pullets. A ready market is avail- able for these as soon as culled and with no further feeding.

Bennion also calls attention to present indications that turkey breeders are planning to carry over even more breeding hens this year than the record number a year ago. The same hold true of other Pacific coast states and even other parts of the country.

While there is a strong demand for hatching eggs from Oregon broad-breasted flocks, which in- sures a good market for early eggs, there is some question about the later season market. Excess breeders can be sold at a profit now, whereas if too many are kept, there may be difficulties with inadequate feed supplies and a possible short season of egg de- mand.

HEALTH QUIZ

Do you have poor digestion? ☐ YES ☐ NO
Do you feel headachy after eating? ☐
Do you get sour or upset easily? ☐
Do you feel tired—listless? ☐

Now everyone knows that to get the good out of the food you eat—you must digest it properly. But what most people don't know is that Nature must produce about two pints of the digestive juice—liver bile—each day to help digest your food. If Nature fails—your food may remain undigested—like sour and heavy in your digestive tract.

Thus, it is simple to see that one way to aid digestion is to increase the flow of liver bile. Now, Carter's Little Liver Pills start to increase this flow quickly for thousands—often in as little as thirty minutes. When bile flow increases, your digestion may improve. And, soon you're on the road to feeling better—which is what you're after.

Don't depend on artificial aids to coun- teract indigestion—when Carter's aid digestion after Nature's own order, when taken as directed. Get Carter's Little Liver Pills today—at any druggist—only 25¢. You will be glad you did.
