

Club Hears Talks

AGE GROVE—Lions club today at the Rainbow cafe. President, Earl Hill, presided at the meeting in the absence of Otto Bagley, president. Had as guests four representatives of the public speaking club of high school, who each spoke on the subject, "Youth Program for Cottage." The representatives were Leonard, Velma Pollock, Maude, and Robert Moore. Next meeting of the club will be the anniversary of Melvin, founder of the Lions of a Lions education program to be observed.

Horace Hatch was hostess for the evening of the Business and Professional Women's club. A business dinner was held at which time thanks were read from the service members who are sons of members who have served Christmas gifts from the near future from the president, Isabelle Brix, at the close of the evening. A social evening followed with the playing of the next meeting will be 19 and the meeting place announced at a later date. Evening Study club did Tuesday evening but will meet Tuesday, Jan. 11 at the home of Mrs. Joe Smith.

FROM WALDPOR

WALDPOR—The important event of the week in Waldport was the grange installation and the address of Morton Tompkins, state master, telling of his trip to England in the interest of agriculture. Judge H. L. Kelly represented the business men of Waldport at the meeting.

Mrs. Leo Goodman has been employed as substitute teacher during the illness of Mrs. Gladys Rhoades. Charles Henne is attending a meeting of the Coast Fishermen's association at Roseburg. Mr. Henne is secretary of the organization which is affiliated with the National Association of Fishermen.

At Creswell

CRESWELL—The initiatory degree was exemplified for a class of candidates consisting of Olaf Olsen, Victor Hutchinson, and Loren Westrope at the regular meeting of Gilroy Lodge I.O.O.F. Wednesday evening. P. Waldo Davys of the Eugene lodge served as musician. The first degree will be given in Eugene but the lodge planned to give the second degree here. Refreshments were served following the business meeting with C. C. Holleman and Vern McCluskey in charge. The good of the order numbers were given at the table. S. C. Veatch of the Cottage Grove lodge and Herbert Walker of the Springfield lodge were guests and both gave talks. Nineteen members and three visitors were present.

OREGONIAN FIGURES

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—The naval training station here believes it has the first "galley romance" of World War II in the marriage of Wavy Penny Skanse, Glendale, and Wycleff R. Rigby, ships cook from Ontario, Ore. It all began five months ago when Miss Skanse was assigned as master-at-arms of the Waves mess hall where Rigby is a cook. From that point on the traditional routine was reversed.

TO MEET SATURDAY

ELMIRA—Elmira grange will meet in regular session Saturday night. Each family is to bring pie or sandwiches for the lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bown received word from their son, Alton, recently. He is somewhere in England.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

VENETA—Clifford C. Poole, fireman first class, has returned on furlough for 30 days leave from North Africa. His wife, Mrs. Lois Poole, has been running the service station while he has been gone. He enlisted in the Seabees of 54th Battalion in Oct. 1942. He was in training in the United States for three months before leaving for overseas duty. He has been in North

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Mrs. Wayne E. Elliott. Richard L. Stults, petty officer second class, who has been on active duty for some time in the south Pacific, is home on a 30 day convalescent leave. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. W. C. Crone Thursday afternoon. A short business meeting was held and then the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Merle Faulhaber, who had charge of the program study, the subject being "Nicaragua." The refreshments were served by Mrs. Crone.

OAKRIDGE NOTES

OAKRIDGE—Mrs. J. C. Wright has returned to her home after spending two weeks in California. She was a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, in San Francisco and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bodie, in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Williams are the parents of a baby boy born at the Westside hospital. The little fellow has been named Ansel Lawrence. He is the grandson of Mrs. Addie Williams.

Church Societies Meet at Creswell

CRESWELL—The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. H. Heaton with Mrs. K. C. Schwering assisting hostess. Mrs. Schwering presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Floyd E. Dorris conducted the devotions. Reports of the various committees were given. A number of shut-ins were reported remembered at Christmas time. Mrs. Dorris thanked the group for a potted poinsettia given her. Plans were made to make hospital convalescent robes and members are to bring woolen pieces to the next meeting. A pre-Easter food and apron sale was also planned. Mrs. Kelsa became a member. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Ross.

Mrs. Charles Wetzel and Mrs. Dora Martin entertained the Dorcas circle of the Methodist church at the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Wetzel home. Mrs. Wetzel presided at the business meeting and appointed the following standing committees for the year: Ways and means, Mrs. Frank Sly, Mrs. G. N. McDonah, Mrs. Arthur Mogstad, Mrs. A. L. McClure, Mrs. J. A. Coleman; sunshine, Mrs. C. I. Kent, Mrs. J. M. Walkup, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Mrs. F. W. Ogram, Mrs. Dora Martin; property, Mrs. H. A. Howe, Mrs. R. W. Stone, Mrs. H. N. Traxler; work, Mrs. H. L. Stott, Mrs. George W. Ross, Mrs. V. W. Johnston, Mrs. Ben Fox, Mrs. E. E. Rand; membership, Mrs. Louise Land, Mrs. M. C. Redding, Mrs. J. M. Black, Mrs. C. H. Goheen. Mrs. Smith was appointed on the kitchen committee for the month and Mrs. Land on the church decorating committee. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goheen will serve as church hosts for the month. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. C. L. Camp. The calling contest was closed with Mrs. Kent's side as winners. The losing side with Mrs. Walter Bragg as leader will entertain the others. The group voted to send a quilt to the home of a minister and family at Cascade Locks, who recently lost their home by fire. Forty calls were reported. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. N. McDonah with Mrs. E. E. Rand assisting hostess.

At Creswell
CRESWELL—The initiatory degree was exemplified for a class of candidates consisting of Olaf Olsen, Victor Hutchinson, and Loren Westrope at the regular meeting of Gilroy Lodge I.O.O.F. Wednesday evening. P. Waldo Davys of the Eugene lodge served as musician. The first degree will be given in Eugene but the lodge planned to give the second degree here. Refreshments were served following the business meeting with C. C. Holleman and Vern McCluskey in charge. The good of the order numbers were given at the table. S. C. Veatch of the Cottage Grove lodge and Herbert Walker of the Springfield lodge were guests and both gave talks. Nineteen members and three visitors were present.

OREGONIAN FIGURES

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—The naval training station here believes it has the first "galley romance" of World War II in the marriage of Wavy Penny Skanse, Glendale, and Wycleff R. Rigby, ships cook from Ontario, Ore. It all began five months ago when Miss Skanse was assigned as master-at-arms of the Waves mess hall where Rigby is a cook. From that point on the traditional routine was reversed.

TO MEET SATURDAY

ELMIRA—Elmira grange will meet in regular session Saturday night. Each family is to bring pie or sandwiches for the lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bown received word from their son, Alton, recently. He is somewhere in England.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

VENETA—Clifford C. Poole, fireman first class, has returned on furlough for 30 days leave from North Africa. His wife, Mrs. Lois Poole, has been running the service station while he has been gone. He enlisted in the Seabees of 54th Battalion in Oct. 1942. He was in training in the United States for three months before leaving for overseas duty. He has been in North

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Mrs. Wayne E. Elliott. Richard L. Stults, petty officer second class, who has been on active duty for some time in the south Pacific, is home on a 30 day convalescent leave. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. W. C. Crone Thursday afternoon. A short business meeting was held and then the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Merle Faulhaber, who had charge of the program study, the subject being "Nicaragua." The refreshments were served by Mrs. Crone.

OAKRIDGE NOTES

OAKRIDGE—Mrs. J. C. Wright has returned to her home after spending two weeks in California. She was a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, in San Francisco and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bodie, in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Williams are the parents of a baby boy born at the Westside hospital. The little fellow has been named Ansel Lawrence. He is the grandson of Mrs. Addie Williams.

Oakridge Lodge of Rebekahs Installs

OAKRIDGE—The new officers of Elm Rebekah lodge were installed at the regular meeting of the lodge, Tuesday evening. Miss Zoe Strong, district deputy president, was in charge of the installation and she was assisted by the following officers: Mrs. Mabel Eshom, D. D. grand marshal; Mrs. Laura Lee, D. D. grand warden; Mrs. Inez Rogers, D. D. grand chaplain; Mrs. Ida Wert, D. D. grand secretary; Mrs. Charlotte Templeman, D. D. grand treasurer; and Mrs. Mildred Croner, D. D. grand organist.

Officers installed are: Mrs. Nellie Kearns, noble grand; Mrs. Bertha Rehwalt, vice grand; Mrs. Ethel Fox, secretary; Miss Alice Hobson, financial secretary, and Mrs. Minnie Wright, treasurer. Appointive officers taking office were Miss Jean Neff, conductor; Miss Phyllis Lansbery, warden; Mrs. Irene Eldson, chaplain; Mrs. Laura Lee, acting past noble grand; Mrs. Minnie Murphey, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Charlotte Tempelman, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. Mollie Henson, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Jenny McCracken, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Ida Wert, inside guardian, and Mrs. Nora Lansbery, outside guardian. A short business meeting was held, and refreshments were served later.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fredericks, Jr., of Seattle were recent visitors in Oakridge at the home of Mr. Fredericks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fredericks. Mr. Fredericks is in the army and has recently been stationed in Alaska and was on his way to Riverside, Calif. Mrs. Fredericks remained for an additional visit before returning to Seattle.

Mrs. Claude Miller went to Portland recently to meet her son, Jack, who is in the navy. She was taken very ill and has been with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Purdy of Eugene were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Purdy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Tibbets. They were on their way to Bend where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Rorabaugh and family left Wednesday for Preston, Idaho where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Harold Plank and daughter have gone to Creswell to reside while Mr. Plank is in the service. Mrs. Frank O'Connell went to Portland recently to bring her daughter, Eileen, here. Miss O'Connell has been ill.

and Mrs. Earl Benton, has been transferred from Chanute Field, Ill., where he completed the training there, to a B-29 school at Seattle, Wash. His people visited with him in Eugene enroute to his new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plank and daughter have moved in to a cabin at the Wilsie Auto court. They will occupy the Howe estate house on north Second street, recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stott, parents of Mrs. Plank. Mr. Plank leaves soon for army service. He has been stationed at Oakridge for several years while on government fire look-out duty.

Mrs. A. L. Hazzard and daughter, Dee Ann, returned this week from a holiday visit with friends in Portland.

The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone company will be held at the city hall Monday Jan. 10, at 2 p. m.

Hubert Dersham, Jr., whose leg was broken on the grade school grounds five weeks ago, was taken to the hospital Wednesday where part of the cast about his body was removed.

The regular meeting of the Camas Swale club will be held at the Swale club house Tuesday, Jan. 11, with Mrs. E. E. Allen, Mrs. Bernice Zimmerman, and Mrs. Zelta Gool as hostesses.

A special meeting of the Masonic lodge was held Monday evening for initiation. A turkey feed followed the business meeting.

O. T. Sage of the Creswell Trading Post has sold his building and lot on Front street to Charles A. Walker of Eugene. He has a lease on the building, however, and will continue in business. Mr. Walker has also purchased the lot on the corner of Front street and Oregon avenue. The lot was sold through sealed bids.

Mrs. Olive Parlin returned Wednesday from a visit over the holidays with relatives at Boise, Ida.

George Marquart has joined the merchant marine and left the first of the week for Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Marquart and children will remain here.

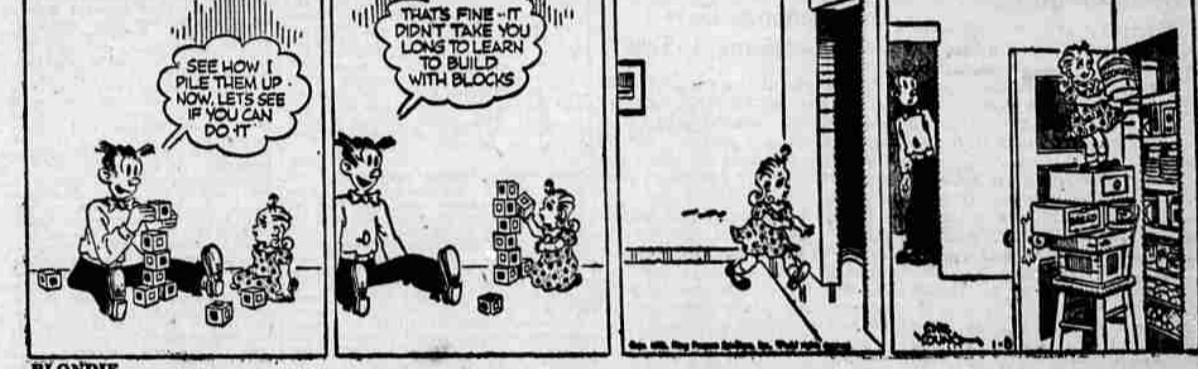

Pvt. Norman Benton, son of Mr.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

POOLE HOME FROM NORTH AFRICA DUTY
VENETA—Clifford C. Poole, fireman first class, has returned on furlough for 30 days leave from North Africa. His wife, Mrs. Lois Poole, has been running the service station while he has been gone. He enlisted in the Seabees of 54th Battalion in Oct. 1942. He was in training in the United States for three months before leaving for overseas duty. He has been in North Africa constantly while overseas, principally in Bizerte. He has been a mechanic fixing jeeps, tanks, guns, and trucks. He was in many air raids and once had dirt thrown in his face from an exploding shell. He went through one storm at sea on the way home. He landed in Rhode Island and came across the continent, arriving home the day before Christmas. June Ellen Elliott and Pauline McCallum of Camp Beale, Calif., spent New Year's at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Elliott. Richard L. Stults, petty officer second class, who has been on active duty for some time in the south Pacific, is home on a 30 day convalescent leave. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. W. C. Crone Thursday afternoon. A short business meeting was held and then the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Merle Faulhaber, who had charge of the program study, the subject being "Nicaragua." The refreshments were served by Mrs. Crone.

Cola Notes

COLA—Corporal J. W. ... returned to his base ... after having spent the ... holidays with his ... Mr. and Mrs. John Hatton ...

COLORFUL EFFECT

Rich color over areas of space is easily and quickly attained by a clever use of cross-stitch to form a gingham-like effect. With the addition of realistic flowers a lovely cloth or scarf results. Pattern 742 contains a transfer pattern of eight 4 1/2 x 5 1/2, and six 2 x 2 1/2-inch motifs; stitches. Send ELEVEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard, Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS. Fifteen cents more brings you our New 32-page Needlecraft Catalog ... 133 illustrations of designs for embroidery, knitting, crochet, quilts, home decoration, toys.

PLEASE DON'T ...

Mail home coins or stamps larger than 10 denominations with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Stars are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO ...

Use stamps or coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

DEERHORN

There were three ... enrolled in the Deerhorn ... of this week. They are: James ... and his two sisters, Lea and ...

COOKING CLUB

The ... cooking club and for ... are changing their ... days from Friday to ... Mrs. Harry Deckert leads the ...

742

by Laura Wheeler

THEATRICAL DOLL—Leticia Veres, Rumanian actress featured in a Broadway musical show, exhibits a gift from a friend—a doll dressed in a miniature copy of one of the costumes she wears on the stage.