

Officers Take in Chamber

PAGE GROVE—The following officers presided at the meeting of the chamber of commerce, Tuesday at the Rainier. President, Karl K. Miller; vice president, Fred Bressler; secretary, Cleo Morelock.

Meeting of officers was held Tuesday evening by Degree of new officers installed are: Mrs. Lohie Thompson, president; Mrs. Marie Schaffer, second vice president; Mrs. Glenda Bushell; Mrs. Merl King; usher, Wilda King; assistant usher, Eleanor Lemmer; inner secretary, Mrs. Leontine Knicker; outer watch, Mrs. Helen; pianist, Mrs. June Johnson; Bonnie Schaffer acting office officer and Mrs. Helman as installing past president and the installing usher Mrs. Merl King. An announcement was made that the club will meet on the second day of each month, the meeting to be at the home of Mrs. Merl King, on Jan. 24, Bonnie Schaffer as assistant.

The refreshment committee appointed to serve at the meeting which will be on Jan. 24, includes Mrs. Lohie Thompson and Mrs. Bonnie Schaffer.

For Visit—B. Bredelove SIC from Mt. Idara is home visiting only and parents on a nine day order.

Calendar—Women's Society of an Service of the Methodist church will meet at the Culp Creek 4-H Health will meet at the school house the leadership of Mrs. Miller.

Farm machinery will meet at the supervising H. A. Hein.

Cottage Grove Chapter, 4, Order of Eastern Star meet at the Masonic temple.

Two Coburg Lodges Install Officers

COBURG—Diamond Rebekah lodge No. 89 and West Point No. 82, I.O.O.F., held joint installation in the Odd Fellows building, recently. J. W. Maxwell, district deputy grand master, and staff including Paul Bishop, grand marshal; E. H. Ross, district deputy chaplain; Robert Burroughs, district deputy grand secretary; Bart Flanagan, district deputy grand warden; L. C. Ross, district deputy treasurer; and A. H. Hostick, district deputy inside guardian, did the installing for the Odd Fellows.

Officers installed for the Odd Fellows are: Harley Smith, past noble grand; John Lanini, noble grand; Donald Stolsig, vice grand; John Knott, secretary; Carl Hopkins, treasurer; Claude McKibben, R.S.N.G.; Noel Pirtle, L. S. N. G.; Charles Vogel, L. S. V. G.; Charles Swango, L.S.V.G.; R. P. Stolsig, warden; Fred Schwartz, conductor; Clay Whitaker, R. S. S.; Walter E. Drury, L. S. S.; Frank Rice, inside guardian; C. A. Stallings, outside guardian; and J. H. Gundy, chaplain.

Marian Whitaker, district deputy president, and staff, Belle Hurd, Alma Allingham, Bryrie Drury, Daisy Pirtle, and Eva Feulner did the installing for the Rebekahs. Officers installed are: past noble grand, Velma Stolsig; noble grand, Pearl Beebe; Dorothy Stallings, vice grand; Frederick Knott, secretary; Martha Payne, treasurer; Marian Whitaker, R. S. N. G.; Vadura Green, L.S.N.G.; Emily Simmons, R.S. V. G.; Eleanor Gravitte, L. S. V. G.; Nellie Edwards, warden; Jane Gravitte, conductor; Helen Pirtle, inside guardian; Lucy Schwartz, outside guardian; Alma Allingham, chaplain; and Edna Mae Woodruff, musician.

Visitors present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Croson, of Eugene; J. W. Maxwell, Paul Bishop, E. H. Ross, Robert Burroughs, L. C. Ross, Bart Flanagan, A. H. Hostick, Mrs. Charles Stallings, and Harold Woodruff.

Refreshments were served by a committee composed of: Evangeline Hurd, Belle Hurd, Bertha Johns, Frederica Knott, Grace McKibben, Ida O'Neil, Hattie Hurler and Kate Harrington. John Knott was toast master. Talks were given by the guests and some of the members of both lodges.

Committees for Club Announced

CRESWELL—Eighteen members were present at the regular meeting of the Camas Swale club Tuesday. A potluck dinner was followed by a business and social afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Roy Bruce and Mrs. G. R. Miller. Mrs. Miller became a member. The club voted to tax each member $1.00 toward the graveling of the road from the main road to the club building. Mrs. W. L. Scott was elected second vice-president. The club also voted to sponsor a party at the club building the third Saturday evening of each month. Hostesses for the next meeting are Mrs. H. E. Miller, Mrs. J. P. Walker, and Mrs. Susie Mourer. The following standing committees were announced for the new year: flower committee, Mrs. C. Scarborough, Mrs. R. F. Scott, Mrs. Rayburn, Mrs. Elsie Reges; shower committee, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Bernice Zimmerman, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mrs. Ted Ferris; membership, Mrs. W. L. Scott, Mrs. V. W. Johnston, Mrs. Ethel Calloway, Mrs. Frank Gardner; buying, Mrs. O. H. Smith, Mrs. Richard Campbell, Mrs. Zelta Gool, Mrs. E. E. Allen; property, Mrs. Vern McClusky, Mrs. John Napper, Mrs. E. W. Hoagland, Mrs. Robert Franklin.

A potluck supper and a social evening were held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wischmeyer in observance of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Wischmeyer and Mrs. Ralph Robinson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson, C. E. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. L. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. William Epps, and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Nancy A. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hartson, Eugene, and daughter, Kathleen, and Mr. and Mrs. Wischmeyer and son.

The Presbyterian Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. H. Heaton, Mrs. Floyd E. Dorris is leader of the lesson on "China."

A group of Presbyterian women quilted Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Land.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edwards have word that they have sold their mill interests at Coburg and have bought a 47-acre tract west of Salem and have located there. They formerly lived here.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Mrs. Sonia Holcomb of San Diego, Calif., is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. MacCausland, for an indefinite time. Her husband is overseas.

Mrs. James Smith returned recently from Los Angeles.

Miss Wilma Moore of Sunnyvale, Calif., was a guest recently of Miss Kay Taylor.

Methodists to Buy Service Flag Soon

WENDLING—The Methodist board of education met recently at the church. The Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Clyde Starr, presided at the meeting. The group voted to purchase a service flag for the church. A committee was appointed to collect the names of all the boys from this community and of Wendling Camp 8, for the service flag. The committee consisted of Eugene Fisher, Eugene Howd, and Seth Byers. The date for the dedication of the flag will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hobwood announce the birth of a daughter, Jan. 8, at the Walker clinic in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. David McKellop report the birth of a daughter, Jan. 6, at the Sacred Heart general hospital in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Stewart announce the birth of their first grandchild. A son was born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Abell. He is also the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Abell.

The Ladies' auxiliary to the AFL will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Starr Monday, Jan. 17.

Council Takes up Varied Matters

JUNCTION CITY—The council in meeting this week recommended granting of a state license to the North Side Auto Wreckers to wreck automobiles.

Adrian W. Vaaler, civil engineer from Eugene, appeared before the council and offered his services in making a survey of the city and furnishing estimates for a sewage and sewage disposal system. This is a probable project. No action was taken.

Councilman E. M. Carothers was appointed to represent the council on the city library board replacing Councilman C. A. Scott whose term has expired.

The matter of loading zones in the business section was discussed. The recorder was authorized to purchase war bonds in the amount of $500 from the water department funds and $3,000 from the equipment sinking funds.

Meetings Set For Noti Groups

NOTI—The Noti Home Extension unit will meet Friday, all day, in the Christian church annex. Mrs. Grace Whiting and Mrs. Ila Shields will be the project leaders for the topic, "File It Now."

There will be some army motion pictures during the program hour of the next meeting of P. T. C. which is Jan. 14 at 8 p. m. at the schoolhouse. Vegetable salad and sandwiches will be served. It has been announced by Mrs. Mary Christiansen, luncheon chairman.

CONFERENCE HELD

THURSTON—The Walterville district conference was held Sunday at the Thurston church with the president, Seth Byers, of Wendling, presiding. J. B. Endicott was chorister, and Mrs. Vern Cunningham pianist. Rev. Ren Hollister gave the opening prayer. Special numbers were: number by the Thurston choir; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page from Anderson Memorial Sunday school; quartet, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Ritter, Mr. Kester and Mr. Moore from Mable Sunday school; solo, Janice Edmiston, accompanied by Shirley Bonney of Thurston; solo from Wendling M. E. church. The speaker of the afternoon was Al Deltz, Lane county juvenile adviser. Anderson Memorial Sunday school again won the banner for the quarter with a percentage of 84, with Walterville Community second with a percentage of 76. The conference will meet the third Sunday in April at Mabel.

FROM BELLFOUNTAIN

BELLFOUNTAIN—Mrs. Kenneth Holl of Belber, Calif., has arrived in Monroe and was a Tuesday night guest at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Martin. Mrs. Holl accompanied the Martins to Portland Wednesday where they were guests of relatives, attending the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Etta Brandt, of Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ingram moved recently from the W. A. Christian house in Bellfountain to the J. A. Hensyl house west of here. This house had been occupied for several months by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Oakes and family, who have rented the Alva Martin house in the same area.

HOME FOR VISIT

DEERHORN—Earl Thiens USN, who is on an eight-day furlough, is visiting friends in this vicinity. He reports that his twin brother, Carl, is in foreign waters. Earl and Carl were separated when they finished their training. They formerly lived here with their mother.

MEETINGS SET

DEERHORN—The Deerhorn P-TA will meet Thursday evening at the schoolhouse. Mrs. Lloyd Curran, president of the organization, will be in charge of the meeting. Refreshments of cake and jello will be served at the close of the meeting. All members are urged to attend.

AT CENTRAL

CENTRAL—About 20 Central and Crow women met at the grange hall last week and made 400 surgical dressings for the army. All women of the community are urged to attend these meetings each Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Wilson has returned to her home in Long Beach after spending several days at the parental Carl Petzold home here.

Robert MacKenzie left recently for a stay of indefinite length with relatives in Ft. Collins, Colo.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

Year's Committees Named in Grange

CROW—Crow grange met last week with the new officers in the chairs. The county deputy, Lennie Halderson, and wife were present, and helped with suggestions about the floor work. The new master, Carl Boehringer, appointed the new standing committees as follows: Agricultural, D. W. Rankin, R. R. Gibson, and Carl Meer; legislative, Paul Bloom, Virgil Liles, and Tommy Minty; finance, Mrs. Faye Clark, Bob Plouts and Dorothy Boehringer; home economics, Bertha Stephens, Emily Marten, and Neoma Liles; reception, Iola Stephens, Edna Canaday, and Mary Richey; and insurance, Margaret Clair, Stephens, Rebecca Gibson, Maxine Bloom, and Elaine Meer, were appointed on a committee to arrange for a picnic and social to be held in the near future. The H. E. club chairman reported that five of the women attended the class in Red Cross surgical dressings at Central on Wednesday. The name of Mrs. Sadie Peart was proposed for membership, and Frank and Selma Hoekes were voted in as members.

The new lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of songs, piano solo by Norene Mink, cornet solo by Bob Gibson, and humorous three-minute talks by Marian Boehringer, Elaine Meer, Edna Canaday and R. R. Gibson.

IN LYNX HOLLOW—The annual meeting of the Lynx Hollow and Walker Telephone Co., was held recently. Officers elected are: Donald Conner, Clyde Wright, Boyd Walker, Lyle Hauser, Joseph Eppenbaugh, and Mrs. Fred Kinsland.

The Community club met recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eppenbaugh with Mrs. Lyle Taylor assisting. Mrs. J. W. MacCausland was a guest, and accepted the invitation to join the club. The afternoon was spent working on the Red Cross wheel chain robes. The next meeting will be on Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hauser with Mrs. Joseph Tigue assisting.

A son was born on Jan. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Simonsen. He is named Darrel Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Trobridge of California have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn and have moved in.

