Spokane Police Search For Mass Slayer

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 15.—(AP)—Spokane police were searching today for a crazed mass slayer who wielded a hatchet in a Spokane home sometime during the night, leaving two persons dead and two critically injured.

The brutally slashed bodies were found in living quarters behind a small sign painting shop. All four of the victims were lying on the bed, two of them still breathing but expected to die.

Police listed as dead, T. P. Gilson, a sign painting shop operator, an unidentified woman, Dillon's wife and an unidentified man whose condition was pronounced grave.

The bodies were discovered about 10:35 a. m. by Arthur Brown who worked for Dillon as a sign letterer. Brown came to work and found the door locked. He went around to the back door, which he found open, and discovered the four victims lying on the bed in the bedroom. A blood-stained hatchet was found in the kitchen.

Plywood Houses Being Tried Out

VANCOUVER, B. C.—(AP)—British Columbia's vast plywood industry, seeking new uses for its product when it will no longer be needed for warplanes, is experimenting with prefabricated plywood houses.

C. Bentall, head of the New Building Finance Ltd., a subsidiary of the Dominion Construction company, revealed that his company is building six four-room cottages here from sections of plywood measuring 8 by 12 feet.

"It is purely a test of the cost and of building homes of B. C. plywoods," Bentall said. "We are not in a position, owing to priorities on plywood, to start a general prefabricated home construction campaign until after the war."

"But we hope to have details of cost and methods ironed out when construction begins."
