Ben Kendall, Leaburg, was fined $25 Saturday morning in police court after being arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. Lester Beeson, proprietor of Oasis Tavern, 89 Eighth Avenue west, told officers that Kendall kicked the plate glass out of the front door of the tavern Friday night.

Theft of their bicycles has been reported to city police by Eugene Harris, 1160 Pearl, and Mrs. J. T.
Rosen, 922 Polk.

The car of Mrs. L. C. Ackerman, 1048 Lincoln, which was stolen Friday, was recovered Saturday.

Harry Hearne, executive secretary, Eugene war price and rationing board, will leave for Klamath Falls Wednesday to take over special work in the office there. He will return to the local office in about a month.

Forrest Cooper, Lakeview, was here Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Cooper. He is deputy manager of the state war bond staff, in charge of the program for 19 counties in eastern and southern Oregon.

Applications for the position of recruiting representative for the U. S. civil service commission for the Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington region are being sought. Salary for the position is $3825 a year. There is no written examination or age limit. Further information can be secured at the postal savings window, Eugene post office.

Miss Marian Bristow, Springfield, has returned from Gallup, N. M. where she visited an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Ketter. Miss Bristow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Bristow.

City police have been informed of the theft of the bicycles of Dwight Newman, Newman's market; Constance Lowery, 236 Thirteenth Avenue east; and William Gerald Huff, 1141 Madison.

Mrs. Lundgren, 33514 Pearl, told police Saturday that her purse was snatched while she was walking near Seventh and Pearl Friday night. The purse contained $22 cash and three ration books.
She claimed that the thief was a soldier wearing a steel helmet who ran down the alley," according to the record.

The civil case of Frank A.
Briggs against Leo Diesburg and Thelma Diesburg, in which the plaintiff is seeking possession of certain property at 795 High street in Eugene, was heard in justice court Friday afternoon and Justice Brownell continued it until further evidence could be obtained from witnesses for both the plaintiff and defendants.

Leonard Godel, 27, was fined $50 and sentenced to 60 days in jail by Justice of the Peace Howard M. Brownell Saturday on a charge of vagrancy, after he had pleaded guilty. The jail sentence was suspended upon condition that he let liquor alone. The evidence in court showed that Godel, while intoxicated and without permission, entered a cabin belonging to Doris Brewer near Creswell and while there broke a lock off the door.

Institute to Open

Home nursing groups and nurses aides under the Red Cross program and homemaking teachers of the county are reminded of the home nursing institute to be held in Eugene, Tuesday through Friday.

The home nursing division for the institute comes Tuesday, 1-4 p.m. and Wednesday, 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., all sessions in the Red Cross class room, Eighth Avenue west.

Tuesday evening, a lecture will be given at 7 o'clock for homemaking teachers, and all teachers of the county in such work are invited to attend, this event being at the Red Cross rooms.

The nurses aides institute is listed for 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m., Thursday, and at the same hours on Friday, also at the Red Cross rooms.

Miss Mary Gray, Red Cross nurse consultant for the state, will be here to conduct the institute.
Those wishing to attend are asked to call the Red Cross office, 229, to make appointments for the days and times they wish to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Glenn A. Harnden, chairman for home nursing for the Red Cross, or Mrs.
John Bell, chairman for the nurses aides program of the Red Cross.
