

Drive, Red Cross, Benefits Keep Women Busy

By MARIAN LOWRY

With the women doing a big share in the fourth war mobilization, work at the Red Cross increasing, and the arranged for many worthy causes, these are very busy days for Eugene women.

Among the benefits listed for the new week is that of the Chamber of Commerce auxiliary next Saturday afternoon, Eugene hotel, one-thirty o'clock. The funds are used in securing furniture for the day room being opened by the auxiliary at Camp Adair. Both auction and contract bridge and pinocle will be played. Entertainment for the afternoon will be announced later. Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Ed Wellnitz, and Mrs. Norman Siefarth are on the committee, and reservations may be made with

ing in South

and Mrs. Alton F. Baker and daughter, Miss Louise Baker, and Miss Maryanna Willoughby are leaving Monday for San Francisco.

Wednesday, Miss Baker will be married to Ralph Petty officer, U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer of Marshfield and for many years residents of Eugene. Wedding will be in Berkeley. Both Miss Baker and Mr. were graduated from high school here and attended university for a time.

ances make up most of the social calendar at the university for the new week. On Wednesday evening, Alder is giving a fireside.

aturday afternoon, the Associated Women Students sponsoring a "heart hop," an all-campus event, at Gerling hall.

cheduled for Saturday evening are the following: Alpha Xi Delta, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Omicron Pi, home lodge, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Laurel lodge, Gamma Delta, Highland house. Also listed that is the all-co-op skating party.

eldians announce a party for all members on Saturday evening next, Jan. 29, at the campus YWCA bungalow located street, eight o'clock. Motion pictures will be shown by Roy A. Elliott of the Willamette forest office. Also, will be Scandinavian music to be presented by T. G. and his Norwegian students. Dancing will be and light refreshments will be served.

he marriage of Miss Marjorie Williams to Clarence was solemnized Thursday afternoon at a simple ceremony held at two o'clock in the study of the First Methodist church, Rev. L. O. Griffith officiating. A small group present for the ceremony.

rs. John McKy and Donald Holbrook attended the reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Meek, following the wedding. The bride made her home with the grandmother. Mr. Ballew is son of Mrs. Effie Ballew.

The couple will be at home in Eugene.

domestic Art club members will gather for a luncheon day afternoon, one o'clock, at the home of Mrs. O. S. ther. On the committee for the event are Mrs. O. K. ell, chairman, Mrs. Hubert Moor, Mrs. Stanley R. Steven, Mrs. Carl Johnson, and Mrs. Fletcher.

ext Thursday evening brings the monthly social meeting for the Eugene Business and Professional Women's club. The group will assemble for dessert at the Osburn hotel, seven-thirty o'clock.

in charge are the music and arts committee, Mrs. G. S. as chairman, and Miss Marie Mitchell, Mrs. Max is. Mrs. Frank Connell, Mrs. Clarence Crocker, Miss a Bittel, Mrs. J. F. White, and Mrs. Buford Roach, assisted by the special committee named for the "march of dimes" from the group, Mrs. Ruth Johnson as chairman. Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is to be speaker on the subject of and disloyal Japanese. There will be special music. There will be a "march of dimes" stunt.

ast Presidents' club of the American Legion auxiliary have its January supper Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Wallace N. Wintler, six-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. P. E. Van Osdel has returned from two and one-months visit at Corpus Christi, Texas, with Mr. Van who is an ART, 2C, in the navy stationed there.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Willshire engraving

MISS GENEVIEVE EATON

engagement of Miss Genevieve Eaton to Corporal Gordon Keavie has been announced.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Willshire engraving

MISS PRISCILLA JEAN GILMORE

Announced recently in Seattle was the engagement of Miss Priscilla Jean Gilmore of Eugene to Carden Wright Hadley.

Newcomers' Tea To Be Held Monday Afternoon

An event for Monday afternoon will be the monthly meeting and tea for the Newcomers' division, University of Oregon Faculty Women's club. The meeting will be from three-thirty until five o'clock, Gerlinger hall.

Last year's members will be guests for the afternoon. Special music is being arranged by Mrs. R. E. Cushman and Mrs. John J. Rowland.

On the tea committee are Mrs. Kenneth S. Wood, Mrs. Howard J. Akers, Mrs. A. R. Poole, Mrs. J. C. Sisson.

Mrs. Wesley C. Ballaine, last year's president, is to pour. A nursery is being arranged for small children accompanying their mothers.

The marriage of Miss Betty Lou Bear of Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Leonard D. Francy, also of Tulsa and now a trainee in the ASTU engineering group at the University of Oregon, was solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Walter J. Ficus, Rev. Mr. Ficus officiating at the double ring service which was held at six o'clock. Both the young people have been active in the Christian church.

Attending the couple were Bill Leonard, also a trainee on the campus, and Mrs. L. S. Whitely.

Preceding the ceremony, a medley of piano music was played, then Miss Ruth Zastro sang "Because," and the wedding marches were played.

The bride wore a white, wool crepe dress, street length, and with it a white hat with shoulder length veil, and brown accessories. She carried a white Bible on which were arranged white orchids. Mrs. Whitely wore a brown velvet dress with brown accessories, and a corsage.

Following the service, a small reception was held at the Osburn hotel, Mrs. Ficus and Mrs. Lorene Bradford assisting.

The couple are at home in Eugene at 1331 Emerald street until Mr. Francy completes his work on the campus. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Francy of Tulsa. He attended Tulsa university and the university of Oklahoma, and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and of Kappa Kappa Psi music honorary. The bride also attended Tulsa university and is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. She came to Eugene recently from Oklahoma and has been the house guest of Mrs. Whitely at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Lammers.

Book group of the Women's City club is to meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Grant Crakes, 695 Twenty-first Avenue west, seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Norman Siefarth is to give the review.

Installation of officers will be held Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Navy Mothers' club, Penney store auditorium. Chief Specialist W. E. Bell will install the officers and will give a talk on enlistment for the WAVES, women's service of the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Goodpasture and son, William, have returned from a visit in Los Angeles.

Nile Club Elects

New officers for the Eugene club, Daughters of the Nile, are announced as follows: Mrs. R. L. Collins, president; Mrs. F. R. Brockschink, vice-president; Mrs. Clair N. Holfich, secretary; Mrs. J. J. Godlove, treasurer.

The group held its January luncheon Wednesday at the Eugene Country club, thirty-three attending. Cards were played, honors going to Mrs. Holfich and Mrs. Fred J. Gerot. Hostesses were Mrs. Elisha Large, Mrs. E. E. Hiltibrand, Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Mrs. C. P. Tillman, Mrs. Charles Wiper, Mrs. W. J. Oglesby, Mrs. M. C. Sult, Mrs. LeRoy Deiting.

An event of interest for the River Road community will be the potluck supper to be given next Thursday evening, six-thirty o'clock, at the River Road Women's clubhouse under the sponsorship of the River Road Women's club. There will be special entertainment. All of the community are invited.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Madsen of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bernice Madsen, to Merrill Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Jensen. No date is set for the wedding.

The Young Business Women's club has arranged a dinner gathering for Wednesday evening of this week at Seymour cafe, six-thirty o'clock. Miss Darleen Wood and Miss Joan Knight are hostesses for the evening.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Willshire engraving

MISS GENEVIEVE McCLAIN

At a recent tea announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Genevieve McClain to Harold Stochett.

Matrix Table Banquet Planned On February 11

Announced for the evening of Friday, February 11, is the annual Matrix Table banquet of the University of Oregon chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary.

Mrs. E. H. Hedrick, Medford writer, is to be speaker. The Matrix Table program honors the achievements of women in journalism, music, and other arts, and is an event given by chapters of Theta Sigma Phi throughout the country each year.

Annually a large group of campus and townswomen is invited. Miss Joan Nichols is president of the campus group of Theta Sigma Phi this year, and Mrs. Gene Leo is chairman for the banquet.

Dinner at Osburn

The dinner will be at the Osburn hotel that evening, six o'clock.

Mrs. Hedrick, known professionally as Helen Norcross Hedrick, has written for the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies Home Journal, and other "slick" paper magazines. She is a former student of the University of Oregon, attending from 1920 to 1923. Her husband, Ercel H. Hedrick, is superintendent of the Medford schools. The eldest of their four children, Miss Eva Elaine Hedrick, is a freshman at the university this year.

Committees Listed

In addition to Mrs. Leo as general chairman, other committees working on the banquet include the following:

Miss Carol Greening, program; Mrs. A. Theodore Goodwin, Jr., Eugene, decorations; Miss Edith Newton, Eugene, flowers; Miss Marge Curtis, Miss Ruth Dozier, Miss Anna Hegstrom, Miss Barbara Lamb, invitations; Miss Marjorie Young, Miss Anne Craven, Miss Utahna Hall, publicity; Miss Margie Robinson, refreshments. Adviser on arrangements is Mrs. George S. Turnbull.

The regular monthly social meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America will be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 26, at eight o'clock in St. Joseph's hall of the Catholic church. Cards will be played. A special silver offering will be taken and the proceeds given to the drive for the funds for infantile paralysis. All members are urged to attend. Guest privileges are extended to all members.

Latest Lane county enlistee in the marine corps women's reserve is Mrs. Roy M. Buchanan of Florence, reports Staff Sergeant L. L. Pittenger, local recruiter.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest O. Funke, of Florence, being the former Edna Funke, she is the wife of Roy M. Buchanan, a coast guardsman. She was graduated from Siuslaw high school in the spring of 1943. Mrs. Buchanan will be transferred to Camp Lejeune, N. C., for training at a later date.

Mothers of Boy Scouts troop, No. 103, are meeting Tuesday evening, eight o'clock, Woodrow Wilson school. All mothers of the troop members are invited.

A meeting for the election of officers will be held Wednesday evening, seven-thirty o'clock, Eugene hotel, by the Junior Hostess club for the USO. All girls are asked to present their membership cards to turn them in. This is an important meeting, officers announce, and all members are expected to attend.

Fourth division of St. Mary's Catholic Altar society met the past week at the home of Mrs. Gale H. Campbell, Mrs. O. W. Spies assisting. Plans were made to entertain at the next parish potluck, Mrs. August Grendler as chairman. Rev. Francis P. Leipzig was a visitor. Mrs. W. F. Norris and Mrs. J. F. Grimes will be hostesses for the next meeting.

Helmetta club will hold a potluck dinner Wednesday evening at six-thirty o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Henderson. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Henderson, chairman; Mrs. Will Grimes, Mrs. Tony Overgard, Mrs. E. C. Hall and Mrs. James Furnish.

Theta Rho girls club will meet Wednesday evening at seven o'clock, at the I.O.O.F. hall, the new officers in charge. Plans for a February formal will be discussed.

Post Office clerks' auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon for onethirty dessert at the home of Mrs. Paul Stivers. A business meeting will be held, and new officers will be installed, including Mrs. Walter Cole, president; Mrs. Alfred Holland, vice president; Mrs. Stivers, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. D. O. Shusy will be the installing officer.

Miss Marian Gibson and Frank Knox Are Betrothed

JUNCTION CITY—Announcement is made by State Senator and Mrs. Angus Gibson of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marian Gibson, to Frank B. Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Knox of Eugene.

No date is set for the wedding. Miss Gibson is a junior at Oregon State college where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Knox, now at officers' candidate school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, was a senior at Oregon State when called to service. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Clara Nasholin and Miss Martha Foster will entertain at the home of the former, Monday evening, for the meeting of Beta Sigma Phi.

Chapter H of P.E.O. Sisterhood is observing the seventy-fifth anniversary of founding of the national organization at the meeting planned for Monday evening. The meeting will begin with a potluck supper, six-thirty o'clock, home of Mrs. D. W. Crites. Miss Frances Elizabeth Baker will assist. Each member attending is asked to take her own dishes.

The other two chapters of P.E.O. here also are meeting this week.

Chapter AM will be entertained at the home of Mrs. H. A. Theda, Fairmount boulevard, one-thirty o'clock, Wednesday.

Chapter AY is to meet also on Wednesday, one o'clock dessert, at the home of Miss Janet Smith.

Sorosis club is meeting next Thursday, one o'clock luncheon, at the home of Mrs. John Baird, 2075 Harris street.

Wednesday Bridge club meets this week at two o'clock, Osburn hotel, Mrs. Ashley Houghton as hostess.

Guild Event

St. Clare guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, is to be entertained Thursday evening in the parish hall of the church, seven forty-five o'clock. Miss Margaret Williams of Tucson, Arizona, provincial secretary for college work in the Episcopal church, is to be a guest and speaker.

Annual installation of officers of Willamette Court No. 2 Order of the Amaranth, will be held Monday evening at the downtown Masonic temple. Regular business meeting will be held at eight o'clock and at eight-thirty will be held the open installation. Mrs. E. C. Hall is the incoming royal matron and Jay B. Hewitt the incoming royal patron.

The following are the installing officers: Frank Sobert, master of ceremonies; marshal, Mrs. Elmer Stone; marshal's aide, Dr. Charles E. Williamson; secretary, Mrs. O. C. Davis; prelate, Mrs. Sam Mosher; musician, Mrs. Robert Wilson; marshal in the east, Mrs. Jay Hewitt; marshal in the west, Mrs. W. A. Cummings.

After the installation, refreshments will be served in the banquet room.

Evangeline Chapter, No. 51, Order of the Eastern Star, met Friday evening, the honored guest of the evening being Mrs. Hazel M. Foster, association grand matron of Oregon, who is also instructor from grand chapter this year.

A luncheon was held in her honor at one o'clock at Seymour's cafe.

A school of instruction was held at two o'clock at the downtown Masonic temple.

At the evening meeting Mrs. H. F. Metcalf, Mrs. Ray E. Allen, Mrs. Laura Sem, Mrs. Ruth Stehn, Mrs. E. F. Craigier, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. H. C. Carver, and Miss Audrey Llewellyn were installed as hospitality girls for the year.

The past matrons held a reception in honor of Mrs. Foster and the chapter officers for 1943 and 1944. Mrs. Harry H. Hobbs is president of the Past Matrons club and Mrs. R. S. Bryson was general chairman for the reception.

Shakespeare club is to be entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Virgil D. Earl for its regular study period, two-thirty o'clock.

Regular meeting for St. Mary's guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, is to be held Wednesday, all day, at the parish house. Each member attending is to take her own lunch.

The book group of the Eugene branch, American Association of University Women, will meet Tuesday evening 1206 Mill. Mrs. Hubert Willoughby will review the book, "Bridge of Heaven," by the Chinese author, Hsuing.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Willshire engraving

MISS NONDA JOHNSON

New worthy adviser for the local Order of Rainbow Girls is Miss Nonda Johnson.