

Listed for Sport Library

WEDNESDAY—Reedport library Wednesday and Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock.
New books on the rental list: "The Robe," by
"The Wrath of the Hayden," "Thirty Seconds," by Lawson,
"Remember," by
"The Children's Books
by Fay; "The Saddle,"
"The Tree Hill," by
"The Wind for the Chimney." From the office of the city hall on Friday from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. for a convention of persons to take chauffers or examinations.
Sagas county selective draft paid its monthly report on Saturday.
Bendle, son of Mr. and Bendle, Dale Taverner, Mrs. May Pierpont, Mrs. M. J. Miller, Roy
and Mrs. H. H. H. H. H.
Reedport men reporting last week with the draft.

GIVEN
Mrs. Clarence Gray
at a miscellaneous meeting. Mrs. Dorothea and week. Those attending: Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mrs.
Angela, Mrs. Anna
Cline, Mrs. W. J. Walter, Mrs. Ida Jackson, Mrs. Mable Jackson, Mrs. Mary Lindsay, Mrs. Kivett and sons, Mrs.
Castel, Mrs. Gladys
Mrs. Mary Quinn, Mrs.
Walker, Mrs. Meta Kinston Wright. Visitors Audrey Flanagan and of Eugene; Mrs. Harold Cottage Grove; Mrs.
Miss Hazel Brown, Minnie Calkins of
and the honored guest, Wolford. The afternoon sewing. Refreshments by the hostesses, as-
Mrs. Fred Quinn, Mrs. day, and Mrs. Gladys the next meeting will be Ruth Holiday. and Connor is visiting mother, Mrs. Thomas of Evansville, Indiana.

ular teeth of a veno-are prototypes of the epidemic needle.

DAYS PATTERN

ing frock, both youth-ing in Pattern 4624.
at the diagram will show simple the sewing steps at this neat addition to pattern. When you've up the main pieces set bow in self-fabric or 4624 is available in size 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards fabric.
FIFTY CENTS in coins pattern. Write plainly NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE to: Register-
Department.
FIFTY CENTS more brings the Anne Adams Pattern book, easy-to-make styles, new printed in book.
order to: Register-
Department.

Halsey Groups Aid IP Campaign

HALSEY—At least two programs will be sponsored locally to aid in the "March of Dimes" to swell the infantile paralysis fund.
The local Rebekah lodge voted at its last meeting to sponsor an evening party of games and good fellowship at the local I.O.O.F. hall on January 26 to which all Rebekahs and families and friends are invited, to be followed by a potluck refreshments.

The high school will sell tickets to a public skating party to be held in the local rink January 31.
L. D. Taylor is local chairman and Mrs. Esther F. Bond is woman's chairman.

At the stockholders' meeting of the Halsey State bank the following directors were elected for a term of one year: D. Taylor, Etta M. Taylor, L. D. Taylor, Mrs. Melissa Mahan and B. M. Bond.
The bank has grown to have more than $900,000 deposits and is a member of the federal reserve system. Following the stockholders' meeting the newly elected directors elected the following officers:
D. Taylor, president; B. M.
Bond, cashier; L. D. Taylor, assistant cashier. Miss Jean Work-inger is bookkeeper.

Wellington Bond received a call to ship on Monday afternoon so he spent Monday evening and Tuesday morning with his parents before reporting for duty.

Funeral services for the late Albert C. Minckley were held at the local Methodist church Saturday afternoon, with Rev. Harold Miles, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Alford cemetery. Minckley died Tuesday evening at his home here following a lingering illness. He was born in Albion, New York, on August 18, 1867, where he grew to manhood and received his public school education. He was married to Bertha Holz in Pennsylvania who died May 13, 1936. Several nephews and nieces survive.

The Linn county 4-H club leader has been a visitor at the local school and has organized at least three clubs among the students.
The second year sewing club will have Mrs. W. O. Hammann as leader and it has met and organized. The officers are: Marilyn Bond, president; Alice Peterson, vice-president; and Lila Sloan, secretary. The other two clubs are not completely organized nor have leaders been decided upon.

A new Boy Scout troop has been organized here. Several years ago a very active troop died for lack of a leader. The Woman's Society of Christian Service may sponsor a girls' organization of some type.
Rev. Harold Miles will take the matter up with the executive officers soon. The Men's Brotherhood and church are sponsoring the scouts.

Club Entertained
Mrs. Sidney J. Smith and Mrs.
Elmer Munson were joint hostesses at a dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon for members of the Halsey Study club and several guests. Jerry Muller played a piano solo. Lucille Shedd of Shedd read the play "Harriet."

Mrs. Doris Pittman Ross has left for San Antonio, Texas, to visit her husband, Pvt. Donald Ross, who is ill in a hospital there.

The Lindsey family are moving from Halsey to Lebanon Sunday.
This takes three pupils out of the grade school.

Mrs. Sam T. Ray has been visiting in Portland the last few days.
She was accompanied by Mr.
Ray who is in the army and is stationed at Fort Lewis.

Capt. Karl Dehlinger has received a medical discharge from the army and is coming home soon from Texas where he has been stationed. His wife plans to meet him at her former home in Montana and visit her brother.

News of Shedd

SHEDD—The Potter club met recently at the home of Mrs. Minnie Sprenger. A potluck luncheon was served. Red Cross work was done during the afternoon. Some pleased staphs for hospital use were tied.

The Girl Scouts troop met recently at the home of Mrs. Doris Latimer. A demonstration of work for badges was given and the usual business meeting held. Chocolate fudge was made and served.

Installation for Lodge Florence Event

FLORENCE—The local Sunset Rebekah lodge held its first installation Thursday night. Officers were installed by the district deputy president, Dorothy Elliott, and staff consisting of Uvelde Fuller, deputy warden; Evelyn Peterson, deputy marshal; Mildred Hartzell, deputy secretary-treasurer; Edna Bason, deputy chaplain; Marie Dunn, deputy musician. Installed were: Grace Murray, N. G.; Flora Simons, V.
G.; Mildred Briody, P. N. G.; Mary Andersen, secretary; Edna Peterson, treasurer; Carrie Prescott, warden; Grace Cooper, conductor; Rebecca Hewitt, chaplain; Evelyn Peterson, musician; Uvelde Fuller, RSN; Marie Murray, LSN; Lola Morgan, RSVG; Sarah Miller, LSVG; Norah Brown, OG; Mae Peterson, IG. The retiring secretary, Edna Bason, was presented a piece of pottery in recognition of her 28 terms or 13 years of service. The new secretary was given a vote of thanks for having filled the wall vases with fresh blossoms in many colors. It was decided to have the "revelation" party following the next regular meeting when identity of the 1943 "secret sisters" will be revealed and names drawn for the 1944 sisters.
A late potluck dinner ended the evening.

Surprise Given

Two women of the community were surprised by friends on the occasions of their respective birthdays this week. They were Mrs. Robert M. Waggoner, wife of the Evangelical church minister, and Mrs. Bert E. Greenslitt. The surprise for Mrs. Waggoner was held at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Neff on Monday. The afternoon's enjoyment was furnished by each one present embroidering a design on a piece of cloth which had been given her. Mrs.
W. C. Mardock winning the prize for her landscape scene showing a home in the background. A lunch was served and gifts presented Mrs. Waggoner, including a purse of money. Present were Mesdames K. H. McCormack, Lena Nabb, W. C. Waite, Emma Fos-back, E. A. Westgate, Joe Armstrong, Mardock, George Prescott, D. W. Cooper, Henrietta Cushman, Emma Allen, C. S. Carlson, S.
Schrenk, L. E. Guiley and Mrs.
Neff.

Mrs. L. L. Kottke entertained for her mother Mrs. Greenslitt at the Kottke home. The afternoon was spent in opening and enjoying the many gifts given Mrs.
Greenslitt; also the fortune telling, a song by the honored guest; reading by Mrs. Kottke, and a reading by Miss Gwen Kottke. A luncheon was served to the following: Mesdames C. F. Sines, Christine Lund, Olive Lund, Mae Krouse, A. Gordon Hines, Lucy Herring, Mary Melnk, Daughn Meink and Joe Meink, Hugh Price, Lulu Titus, L. L. Kottke; the Misses Irene Huss and Gwen-dolin Kottke.

Shedd Notes

SHEDD—John Fox who recently joined the marines is leaving for training at San Diego, Calif.

Keith Bault and Glenn Hawkins who are in the navy are going to Farragut, Idaho, after spending their leave at their homes here.

Lieutenant Richard Pimm visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Pimm. He recently graduated as flight engineer at Lowry Field, Colo., after which he was stationed at Denver.

Word has been received that Ward George, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Morris George, is in a San Francisco hospital. He was wounded in action in the south Pacific. His father is principal of the Shedd high school.

The W.S.C.S. met last week at the home of Mrs. George Starr. A covered dish dinner was served after which Mrs. Ellen Zimmerman conducted a business meeting and Mrs. Starr led the devotional service.

AT CENTRAL—Robert Sutherland, radioman 2-C, made a short visit at the home of his parents recently. He is now stationed near Bremerton.

Mrs. John Fountain of Veneta is substituting for Mrs. Buck in the Central school, owing to the illness of Mrs. Buck's mother, Mrs. Swenson.

Fifteen Crow and Central women met at the Grange hall recently. A total of $25 surgical pads was made. Another stove has been installed in the hall so the working conditions are much more comfortable.

All indications point to an early spring; robins and meadowlarks are arriving in large numbers in this locality.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS—Mrs.
Paul Radtke of Hanford, Wash., was a recent guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, and her aunt, Mrs. A. M.
Brown.

Pfc. Melvin Tonole of Fort Lewis, who recently visited here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Pete Tonole, accompanied them to Roseburg to visit his brother Harold, before leaving to report for duty at Palm Springs, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. William Habinck of Klamath Falls, and Miss Dorothy Gierau of Pasco, Wash., recently visited a week with the Habinck's daughter and Miss Gierau's mother, Mrs. Frank Gierau.

Saginaw-Walker Club Lists Officers

SAGINAW—Election of officers was held recently at the old high school at Walker for the Saginaw-Walker Community club district.
Several directors were elected to fill the unexpired term of others who had moved out of the district.
Mrs. Susie Walker was elected clerk for one year. D. Connor is chairman of the directors and is still in office for two years. Kenneth Zumwalt was elected for one year; Lawrence Monteith for three years; Mrs. Ruby Benston for four years; and Boyd Walker for five years.

Jess Burleson has returned from Oklahoma where he had spent two months visiting relatives.

Delmer Benston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Benston, passed his final examinations at Portland this week to enter the navy. He will report back to Portland next Wednesday to be sent to Idaho to start training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backtel and baby daughter left recently for California after spending several weeks at the home of Mrs. Backtel's mother, Mrs. Ray Stewart.

Bellfountain Man Missing in Action

BELLFOUNTAIN—Mrs. John Barnett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lamb, recently received word from the government, that her husband, Lieutenant John Barnett is missing in action in the European sector. Lieutenant Barnett was pilot of a bomber and has been overseas for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Androus and family have moved to a house at the Arthur Holter mill north of Bell-fountain, and Delores, Dorothy and Arnold Androus have registered at the Bellfountain grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Larkin, their daughter, Miss Wanda Larkin, and their sons, Deane and his wife, and Larry Lester, all of Parma, Idaho, and E. P. Larkin of Glenbrook were recent callers at the home of Miss Edith Larkin. E.
P. Larkin accompanied his son and family to their home in Idaho for a visit.

The new school kitchen has been completed and the school youngsters enjoyed their first dinner last week in the kitchen, which has been equipped with two long tables, 16 and 18 feet in length, with benches for each, and a new set of built-ins along the south side of the room. It is planned to have hot and cold water installed in the room in the near future.
There are about 40 students enrolled in the school. Mrs. Ivan Hinton is cook and also janitor of the school.

Mrs. Ray Redmond of Portland is visiting for a fortnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bath, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Rickard, and her daughter, Nancy Kaye Redmond, who is spending the winter with her aunt and uncle and attending the Bellfountain school.

At Drain

DRAIN—Mrs. Arch Alford was surprised recently when Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Patchen gave a dinner at her home, honoring her birthday anniversary. Guests were Mrs.
Alford, Mrs. Burdett, Arch Alford, Mrs. Ida Patchen, Mrs. Edna Kenney, and Doris Bartlett.

Announcements have been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Flagg of Kalamazoo, Mich. The baby was named Barbara Kay.
Mrs. Flagg will be remembered as Nona Watson, before her marriage.
The following group went to Eugene recently and offered their services as blood donors: Mary Carter and daughter, Marie, Jane Asker, Opal Perkins, Bill Griswold, Phil Varley, Ray Harlan, Howard Woolman. Mrs. Alfred Blumberg drove the car to Eugene.
Floyd Craig has gone to Spokane, Wash., to join his wife, who has been visiting their son, Odell, and wife for several weeks.

The WCTU will meet at the home of Mrs. Madeline Russell on Wednesday, Jan. 26. All who are interested in the work are invited to attend.

FROM WALTON

WALTON—The Walton club met with Ruth Stevens recently.
Emma Jean Surcamp was a visitor. Melissa Smith will entertain the club Feb. 18.

George Bloomquist's mother, Mrs. Olga Nygren from Portland, is visiting her son and his wife.
Emma Jean Surcamp sustained a serious ankle sprain while at work and is home for a few days.

Friends of the Walton master will be glad to hear that Mr. Fegles is now up and around, since his illness with the flu the past two weeks.

Mrs. Dale Cunningham returned from a trip to California, recently.
Mrs. Cunningham and young son visited Dale where he is in training at Camp Roberts.

LeRoy Pettit and Harold Olson are in Portland taking their exams for Uncle Sam this week.

Mae Sommerville went to Seattle to attend the loggers' convention.

Richard Murphy slipped on a knoll, fell and broke his arm this week.

Mrs. W. Gray completes the trio of women now working on the green chain at the mill.
Wyle Haynes escaped possible death this week by receiving immediate aid when he severed an artery while splitting wood. Donald rushed him to town for treatment, and aside from his arm being in a cast, Haynes is none the worse for his accident.

Waldport Items

WALDPOR—Lincoln granite met recently. County Agent H. G.
Smith has been invited to attend the meeting of Feb. 19 for the purpose of organizing a calf club which will be under the leadership of Archie Zeek. The lecture hour was made interesting by a display of pictures some of which were taken more than 50 years ago.
These pictures are the "hobby" of E. L. Wilson who is still adding to his collection. By a unanimous vote it was decided not to raise the monthly dues during 1944.
The Harry Johnson family has returned to Richmond, Calif.
Johnson has been employed in Alaska and while there the family has lived in Waldport and the children have attended school here.
G. G. Rohrer died at Portland last week. Mr. Rohrer spent several years in Waldport operating the Jon's Auto court which recently was almost destroyed by fire.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Mrs. Ruth Montgomery has been taking the school census for Lincoln county. There were 290 children of school age enumerated in the Waldport district.
During a recent storm an 80 foot radio pole was blown down at the A. P. Johnson place north of Waldport. Fortunately it did not fall toward the house.
Claude Hall has been elected a director of the National Security bank of Toledo.
Harry Matheson will soon move to Portland where he has accepted a position at the Rainier hotel.
Leo Swazey will have charge of the Waldport property during Harry's absence.
Just a year ago we were in the midst of an unusual snow storm.
This year we counted 17 varieties of flowers in bloom in one Waldport yard.
Paul Butterfield is preparing a crab outfit and will engage in this business on Alsea Bay.
More than forty per cent of the world's gold is produced in Africa.