PORTRAIT OF SOME PEOPLE WHO SAID:
can't afford to buy an extra War Bond!

NIGHT CLUBS JAMMED to the doors... theater tickets sold out 10 weeks in advance... stores packed with eager shoppers... and still you hear people say, "I simply can't afford to buy an extra War Bond!"
 There's more money being made... and spent on entertainment... than ever before in history! So instead of pretending

710 West 13th Ave.
 Church Dedication Tues. Eve., Jan. 25, 1944

This fine building is located on West 13th Avenue just across the street south of Woodrow Wilson junior high school, and in a part of the city where there is no other church.
 It offers a Sunday school and church home for any who do not attend church elsewhere.

Rev. Roy K. Reed, well known aviator and minister, is the pastor.

We have inspected the new Assembly of God church building, and hereby congratulate the congregation for their achievement in its erection. Our hats are off to your pastor who donned foreman's uniform, and engineered the design and construction of your building, even to the installation of heating and electrical equipment.
