

Miss Louise Baker and Ralph Little Are Married Wednesday in Berkeley

By MARIAN LOWRY
Weddings have been much in social prominence for the month of January.

This past Wednesday evening, January 28, at a ceremony in the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Berkeley, Calif., was solemnized the marriage of Miss Louise Baker, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Baker of Eugene, to Ralph Little, petty officer, U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Little of Marshfield and for many years residents of Eugene.

The service was held at seven-thirty o'clock at a candlelight one, Dr. Edwin Forrest Hallenbeck, now of Claremont, Calif., formerly on the faculty at the San Francisco Theological seminary, and an uncle of the bride, officiating.

Miss Maryanna Willoughby of Eugene was maid of honor and Rollin Little, twin brother of the bridegroom and also in the navy, was best man.

Wears Ivory Satin

The bride wore an ivory satin dress with fitted bodice and overskirt of net, the round neckline being shirred at the top, and the long full skirt falling in a train. The bride wore a small Juliette cap with short veil, and for her flowers carried a bouquet of white cyclamens and white orchids.

Miss Willoughby wore a rose taffeta dress fashioned with short puffed sleeves and fitted bodice. Her flowers were an old-fashioned nosegay.

The bride's mother wore a gray chiffon dress with corsage of gardenias.

The traditional wedding marches were played and "Ave Maria" before the service. Mr. Baker gave his daughter in marriage.

Reception Follows

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edwards, cousins of Mrs. Baker, in Berkeley following the church service.

Miss Robin Jones, formerly of Eugene, cut the cake. Mrs. Ralph Edwards presided at the punch bowl.

For the reception the table was decorated with white blooms, carnations, gardenias, and others. The home was decorated with daffodils, snapdragons, and lighted candles.

Going south with Mr. and Mrs. Baker for the wedding were their youngest son, Richard, and Miss Willoughby. Former Eugene residents now living in the Bay area attending the wedding included Mrs. Ivan Duff (Betty Anne Macduff), Miss Mary Elizabeth Earl, Miss Hope Hughes, Miss June Tyler, Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Marlin Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. George Burger and daughter, Miss Beverly Burger.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Baker of Tacoma, uncle and aunt of the bride, also were at the wedding.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a three-piece suit in smoky brown with brown straw hat with veil, brown accessories, and corsage of orchids.

The couple will be living in the Bay area for the present. Both are graduates of high school here and both attended the University of Oregon for a time.

JUNIOR CHAMBER AUXILIARY MEETING

The Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary announces its February meeting for Wednesday evening, eight o'clock, in Skinner Butte park lodge.

Mrs. Clinton Hartman, Mrs. Loren Carmichael, Mrs. Richard Illes, and Mrs. Robert C. Broderick are the committee of hostesses.

Mrs. Hazel Rader and daughter, Mrs. J. R. Breckenridge, and the latter's small daughter, Margaret Ann Breckenridge, left this week-end for Seattle where Breckenridges have located for their new home. Mrs. Rader plans to be gone about two weeks.

Jerry Denslow is Wed in Honolulu

Announcement has reached Eugene of the marriage of Mrs. Jean Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Marshall of Tacoma, Wash., to Lieutenant Jerry Denslow, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Denslow of Eugene.

The wedding was an event of Sunday, January 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindon L. Lynch in Honolulu. Mrs. Lynch is a cousin of Mrs. Lloyd Denslow.

The service was read at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Henry P. Judd officiating, a small group attending. Ties were arranged at either side of the window, before which the service was read, and around the rooms, and palm leaves were arranged in the windows with Hawaiian holly.

Miss Margaret Schrader was maid of honor and John E. (Stew) Milligan of Wahila, formerly of Eugene, was best man.

The couple will be at home at Ewa beach.

The bride attended Montana State college at Bozeman for two years and went to Honolulu three years ago from San Francisco. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority at Montana State. Lieutenant Denslow attended the University of Oregon for two years, being a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity on the campus here, and attended Reed college for a year, also Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has been in the islands for the past nine years.

WED IN LOS ANGELES

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Julia Inez Stanley, daughter of Mrs. Alice Stanley of Palo Alto, Calif., to Captain Robert Boyd Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer of Eugene.

The wedding was an event of November 2 at the Wilshire Crest church in Los Angeles. The couple are now at home in Waco, Texas, Captain Sawyer being stationed at Blackland army flying school. The bride attended Eugene high school one year, graduating from Salem high school then attending the San Jose State college for two years, being a member of Phi Kappa Pi sorority there. Captain Sawyer was graduated from Eugene high school and Iowa State college and is a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Second Lieutenant Marvin Krenk, former instructor of speech at the University of Oregon, is visiting in Eugene this week, awaiting assignment for overseas duty. He taught here from 1939 until September, 1942, when he enlisted in the air forces as a private advancing to staff sergeant and then receiving officer's training at Miami Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Krenk, the former Mary Station, is here with him and she and their small son will remain in Eugene for the duration. Mrs. Krenk is a graduate of the university, where she was active in dramatics.

A potluck luncheon is planned for Thursday, one o'clock, Elks temple, for the Ladies of the Elks, cards to follow the luncheon.

Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Church of the Nazarene will hold a public meeting Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, at the church auditorium, in the interests of missionary work among American Indians. Mrs. Marilyn Meeman and Mrs. E. C. Barham are in charge of the meeting, at which an offering will be taken for the work.

Eleri Mission circle of the First Baptist church will meet Tuesday at the church parlors, with Mrs. Wendell Cross as hostess. Mrs. Gordon Brunton and Mrs. Cross will present a program on Africa, and Mrs. Norman Beck will lead devotions.

Religion in the Home group of the First Congregational church will meet Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Alexis Wheeler. Mrs. Wilbur Dutton will discuss the topic: "Ignatius Loyola."

Unitarian Women's Alliance will hold a no-hostess work session Tuesday afternoon at the church, meeting at two-thirty o'clock.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae are meeting on Monday evening, Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas to be hostess to the group at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin T. Warlick, 1531 Mill street, dessert to be at seven-thirty o'clock.

Phi Beta alumnae and associates are holding their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, one o'clock, Gerlinger hall, University of Oregon campus. The active chapter is to present the program.

Phi Sigma Kappa Mothers' club is meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Morse, at which time plans will be made for a party.

Alpha Gamma Delta Mothers' club will meet on Tuesday evening at the sorority chapter house, seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. H. A. Fair is to be the hostess.

Crescent club of Gamma Phi Beta mothers will meet Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock, chapter house, for dessert, Mrs. Harth Wilson being the hostess.

Phi Mu alumnae are meeting Wednesday evening for dessert at the home of Mrs. W. Ellisworth Hunt.

Wiltshire engraving.
Engagement of Miss Marian Gibson, Junction City, above, to Mr. Knox, Eugene, was announced recently.

Active Party Thursday

Active club members have their February meeting Thursday evening, eight o'clock, Eugene hotel, dessert at seven-thirty o'clock.

For the evening are Wendell Wood, Mrs. Willis Shepard, Mrs. Hale G. Olson, Mrs. Kenneth D. Hirs, Gene Gibson.

Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. E. a group of friends came to the home of Mrs. E. M. Patterson.

Woodward, choir director of Christian church, sang, aided at the organ by Stevens and Mr. Stevens at piano. Songs were given by Stevens and Dr. R. T. Burdick.

Stevens also was played piano and piano and piano. Stevens at the organ. Mrs. Larson wrote verses about the honored guests were read by Mrs. Elmer Olson.

Stevens club is to meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. M. Patterson, 2174 Fairmount, seven-thirty o'clock, Mrs. Clark assisting. Ser-

Adeline Franks and Daisy Davis from the marine reserve office will be guests.

Korner club will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. McIntyre and Mrs. W. Olson at the home of the former at one-fifteen o'clock.

Woman's Study club will meet Wednesday evening, eight o'clock, Eugene hotel. Mrs. E. Childs is leader of the group, on "Science Views the Living World."

Book club members are guests of Mrs. Harry W. tomorrow afternoon at her home, Mrs. J. O. Olson to present the program.

Boys Scouts troop, No. 1, are meeting for a potluck luncheon Wednesday noon at the home of Mrs. Virgil Reese, Moss street. Following the luncheon, the group will go to Roosevelt junior high school for surgical dressings.

Bethesda Lutheran ladies' aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the church, with Mrs. Charles Nelson and Mrs. Ted Juhl as hostesses.

Sans Souci club is to meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Arnitage.

Bethel Community club is meeting Friday evening, eight o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Harry Ray, Mrs. Rika Kingsley assisting.

Women's Missionary groups of First Christian church will meet Tuesday afternoon and evening, as follows:

Group One, Mrs. Myrtle Kidwell, leader; meets with Mrs. A. B. Cromwell, 649 Sixteenth Avenue east, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. G. C. Foster, program leader.

Group Two, Mrs. L. E. George, leader; meets with Mrs. Louisa Kelless, 1189 Mill, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. V. E. Hoven gives book review.

PATRONESSES PLAN MEETING WEDNESDAY

Phi Beta Patronesses are to be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. M. Lundy, dessert to be at one o'clock.

Hostesses with Mrs. Lundy will be Mrs. Claire Kneeland, Mrs. Victor P. Morris, Mrs. C. A. Leighty, Miss Florence Alden.

The marriage of Mrs. Ada B. Healy to Henry Bruce Davidson was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. Harry Benton of the Christian church officiating. Mrs. Susie Douglas and Mrs. Benton were witnesses.

The bride wore a light blue faille silk dress and corsage of gardenias and sweet peas. Refreshments were served following the ceremony.

Amphibians, women's swimming club at the university, pledged six new members this week: Miss Marilyn Sage, Coquille; Miss Mary Jo Geiser, Salem; Miss Dorothy Weygandt, Portland; Miss Jean Sutherland, San Francisco; Miss Doris Trask, and Miss Charlotte Wicke, both of Maui, Hawaii.

Eugene Fortnightly club's regular meeting will be Thursday afternoon, two-thirty o'clock, Osburn hotel, the program on Stalin to be presented by Mrs. N. C. Martinson. The club executive group will meet at two o'clock.

Initiation will be held for three candidates at the meeting of Job's Daughters, Tuesday evening, seven-thirty o'clock, McKenzie River Masonic temple. Those to be initiated are Misses Alice Collins, Beth Petreau, Janice Archambeau.

Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold the regular monthly business meeting Thursday evening at eight o'clock, at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Bethesda Lutheran ladies' aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the church, with Mrs. Charles Nelson and Mrs. Ted Juhl as hostesses.

Sans Souci club is to meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Arnitage.

Bethel Community club is meeting Friday evening, eight o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Harry Ray, Mrs. Rika Kingsley assisting.

Women's Missionary groups of First Christian church will meet Tuesday afternoon and evening, as follows:

Group One, Mrs. Myrtle Kidwell, leader; meets with Mrs. A. B. Cromwell, 649 Sixteenth Avenue east, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. G. C. Foster, program leader.

Group Two, Mrs. L. E. George, leader; meets with Mrs. Louisa Kelless, 1189 Mill, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. V. E. Hoven gives book review.

Group Three, Mrs. Mettie Hockaday, leader; meets with Mrs. Susie Douglas, 1066 Kincaid, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. Edna Whistler, program leader.

Group Four, Mrs. Faye M. Coy, leader; meets with Mrs. R. Elmore, 1281 Washington, at two-thirty o'clock; Mrs. W. F. Bryant will conduct the devotional period.

Group Five, Mrs. Ira Jones, leader; meets at home of Mrs. Jones for one o'clock luncheon; Mrs. Roy Stein, program leader.

Group Six, Mrs. Ella Day, leader; meeting postponed one week.

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving.
Mrs. Bernice Madsen recently announced her engagement to Mr. J. Madsen.

Wiltshire engraving.
A wedding of the fall was that of Mr. and Mrs. Victor P. Moore (Barbara Jean Anderson).

Military Ball Planned Saturday

The annual military ball will be held at the University of Oregon in McArthur court on the evening of February 5. The dance will be formal and corsages may be worn, the committee reports.

Lt. Dwight H. Near, military social adviser, is in charge of arrangements for the affair which is sponsored by the army specialized training units, both engineers and foreign area and language students, and the university members of the reserve officers training corps. Members of the army air forces technical training detachment at the university and civilian students will be guests. Music will be furnished by Owen Bailey's soldier orchestra. Private Tyler Simpson, Austin, Tex., is in charge of publicity.

Although some of the traditions of the military ball, such as the selection of a "Little Colonel" and the "March under the Stars," will not be observed this year, there will be a grand march and surprise entertainment, Lt. Near announces.

The following have been invited as patrons: Chancellor and Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter of the state system of higher education; Acting President and Mrs. Orlando J. Hollis, Col. and Mrs. Charles L. Sampson, Major and Mrs. W. S. Averill, Major and Mrs. C. C. Woodbury, Dean and Mrs. Karl W. Onthank, Dean and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Dedrick, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Horn, Dr. and Mrs. Leavitt O. Wright, and Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed.

Westway club will meet for one o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. T. Merrill, with cards to follow.

Fairmount Guild is meeting Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George Barker.

Rebekahs will meet for potluck dinner at the L.O.O.F. hall Wednesday at six-thirty o'clock, inviting Odd Fellows and their wives to attend as guests. The regular business meeting of the lodge will be held at eight o'clock.

Credit Women's Breakfast club is meeting Tuesday morning, seven-thirty o'clock, Osburn hotel, Miss Winifred Marshall to be in charge of the lesson.

Sonja's Daughters will meet Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George Myrmo, 1415 Villard.

ZONTA TO MEET

The Zonta club's regular dessert meeting will be held Tuesday evening, seven-thirty o'clock, Osburn hotel, Mrs. Frank A. Graham as hostess.

The board of the club will gather for dinner at the Osburn at six o'clock.

At an afternoon ceremony solemnized January 9 in All Saints Catholic church in Portland, Miss Margaret Frances Turner, daughter of Mrs. Lee Turner of Eugene and the late Mr. Turner, was married to Lieutenant Albert Richard Allen, son of Mr. Albert Henry Allen of Portland. Rev. Thomas J. Tobin read the service.

White chrysanthemums and candles decorated the church for the wedding.

Miss Jacqueline Jewett was maid of honor. Eugene Cecchini was best man and the ushers were Alfred E. Allen and Frederick Allsasser.

The bride wore a duchess satin dress, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, and long train. The illusion veil was arranged in a coronet of orange blossoms, and for her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white roses surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Jewett wore a bouffant dress of ice blue net and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

A reception for relatives and close friends was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Cecelia O'Brien. Assisting were Miss Margaret O'Brien, another aunt of the bride, Pocastello, Idaho, Miss Mary Kay Riordan, and Mrs. William R. Jones. Lieutenant and Mrs. Allen have gone to Jacksonville, Florida, he being stationed at Camp Blanding.

The bride is a former student at the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Victory Circle of the First Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Mae Gibson, Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Florence Scott and Miss Fredricka Weatherly will assist the hostess, and Mrs. Scott has charge of the program. Mrs. E. M. Brakel will lead devotions.

Loyal Star of America will meet at the home of Mrs. H. S. Herbranson, Thursday, for noon luncheon, and a business and social meeting in the afternoon.

Eugene Council of Church Women will meet Monday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock, at the Wheeler room in the First Congregational church. Mrs. George Spicer has charge of the program.

Wiltshire engraving.
Wed recently in Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Dean C. Taylor, the bride being the former Betty Elaine Fields of Eugene.

Assembly Club Dance Saturday

Calendared for next Saturday evening is the February dance of the Assembly club, Osburn hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Reisman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Wiltshire, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster are on the committee for the evening.

ORIDES INITIATES

Orides, independent women's organization on the campus, initiated sixteen university women at special ceremonies in Gerlinger hall last week, with Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women; Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, assistant dean of women; and Miss Janet Smith, employment secretary, and the mothers of the initiates as special guests.

New members are: Eugene — Misses Ruth Robertson, Lorraine Cole, Marie Swan, June Fine, Caroline Brockway, Mary Woodhurst, Shirley Rubenstein, Springfield — Misses Norma Woodford and Verda Jackson; Miss Myrtle Church, Portland; Miss Helen Schow, Oakland, Ore.; and Miss Ardath Hutchinson, Taylor, N. D. Dessert was served to those present, and a business meeting followed the initiation.

Dakota Women's club is meeting Wednesday afternoon, two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Edblom, 1576 Charnelton street. Each member is asked to take a nosebag lunch of sandwiches and cookies. All former Dakota women are invited.

Madreitas club is to be entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Heidenreich.

The bird study group of the Eugene Garden club is not meeting on Monday due to the absence of the chairman, Mrs. George Saunders.

Garden club members are planning a rummage sale in March at the Chambers building, and members are asked to bring their contributions for the sale as they come now to meetings at the clubhouse.

All Saints guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, will be entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Caroline Hines and Mrs. A. C. Bouck at the church parish hall, two o'clock.

Phi Beta alumnae and associates are holding their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, one o'clock, Gerlinger hall, University of Oregon campus. The active chapter is to present the program.

Phi Sigma Kappa Mothers' club is meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Morse, at which time plans will be made for a party.

Alpha Gamma Delta Mothers' club will meet on Tuesday evening at the sorority chapter house, seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. H. A. Fair is to be the hostess.

Crescent club of Gamma Phi Beta mothers will meet Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock, chapter house, for dessert, Mrs. Harth Wilson being the hostess.

Phi Mu alumnae are meeting Wednesday evening for dessert at the home of Mrs. W. Ellisworth Hunt.

Romane photo, Wiltshire engraving.
Elected recently as most excellent chief of the Pythian Sisters lodge is Mrs. V. L. Brooks, above.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S COUNCIL TO MEET

Executive council of the Eugene Business and Professional Women's club is to meet Wednesday noon, bamboo room, Eugene hotel.

The club held its social meeting the past Thursday evening. The business session was given over to discussion on the club sponsoring the sale of tickets for the Eugene Gleemen's concert on Feb. 8, all proceeds from this concert to go to the county infantile paralysis fund. Committee members to sell tickets were named as listed in another section of the paper today.

Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor of the First Congregational church, was guest speaker for the group, discussing the Japanese-Americans. He gave a history of the emigration of this group of people, their settlement on the coast, and events leading to their evacuation, as well as on the camps where they are kept.

Next meeting for the club will be the luncheon session on February 10.

The bird study group of the Eugene Garden club is not meeting on Monday due to the absence of the chairman, Mrs. George Saunders.

Garden club members are planning a rummage sale in March at the Chambers building, and members are asked to bring their contributions for the sale as they come now to meetings at the clubhouse.

All Saints guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, will be entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Caroline Hines and Mrs. A. C. Bouck at the church parish hall, two o'clock.

Phi Beta alumnae and associates are holding their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, one o'clock, Gerlinger hall, University of Oregon campus. The active chapter is to present the program.

Phi Sigma Kappa Mothers' club is meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Morse, at which time plans will be made for a party.

Alpha Gamma Delta Mothers' club will meet on Tuesday evening at the sorority chapter house, seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. H. A. Fair is to be the hostess.

Crescent club of Gamma Phi Beta mothers will meet Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock, chapter house, for dessert, Mrs. Harth Wilson being the hostess.

Phi Mu alumnae are meeting Wednesday evening for dessert at the home of Mrs. W. Ellisworth Hunt.

Romane photo, Wiltshire engraving.
Elected recently as most excellent chief of the Pythian Sisters lodge is Mrs. V. L. Brooks, above.

Phi Beta alumnae and associates are holding their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, one o'clock, Gerlinger hall, University of Oregon campus. The active chapter is to present the program.

Phi Sigma Kappa Mothers' club is meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Roy E. Morse, at which time plans will be made for a party.

Alpha Gamma Delta Mothers' club will meet on Tuesday evening at the sorority chapter house, seven-thirty o'clock. Mrs. H. A. Fair is to be the hostess.

Crescent club of Gamma Phi Beta mothers will meet Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock, chapter house, for dessert, Mrs. Harth Wilson being the hostess.