

Worship Group Meeting

Worship group will meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Whitaker next Sunday, February 9, at 2 p. m. Refreshments met last week. The group will be initiated at the next meeting and potluck lunch will be served.

The club met at the grange last week. After the business meeting, four lap robes for the Red Cross were completed. The next meeting will be an all-day one at the home of Mrs. Archie O. Ogram and work on more robes will be done. After refreshments, the group will receive from Mrs. Knoll, who is from his son, Bob, and he is from Ireland. Rev. Mr. Knoll has Seattle this week attending a conference.

At 20 lap robes and a few more were sent in to the local Red Cross Friday. These were by the ladies of Indian and the H. E. club at Odd Fellows met Thursday. The second degree was CRESWELL—An hour of fun is planned for all patrons of the school who attended the regular meeting of the Parents club schoolhouse Saturday evening of this week. The program is charge of H. N. Traxler, J. A. Miles, Wicks, C. C. Holle, C. C. Williamson, and J. T. Refreshments will be served by S. Gillenwater, Arthur Denning, C. Redding, A. E. Tennis, E. Allen.

Mrs. O. G. Walling of Walling shoo circuit, have used the WOW hall on Oregon and plan to make complete improvement in the building. The second floor used the erection of the building will be continued meeting place of the Neighborhood Woodcraft. Shows will be held each Monday evening Tuesday evening as previous.

A contribution of $15.80 was given to Mr. and Mrs. Walling for the regular use of the hall for the Red Cross fund. They also cooperated in all war efforts.

Mrs. L. A. Whitney and Mrs. J. E. Whitney have returned from the hospital and will be home again to make their home at a mechanic. The family living in the Ferguson residence.

McClure has taken over territory for the Raleigh company. He and Mrs. McClure have recently returned from and have bought a home and a here.

TODAY'S PATTERN

These are the pet love of any woman... especially if you are a little high waist... and skirt that gives plenty of the assertive tom-boy legs. Right this week with spanking or give it the chic, ric-rac point.

Pattern 4552 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12. Size 10 is 35 inches and 2 1/4 inches.

SIXTEEN CENTS in coins with the name, address, style and your order to Register-Post Pattern Department.

NEW PATTERNS more brings new Anne Adams Pattern. Smart, easy-to-make styles. Pattern printed in book. Send your order to Register-Post Pattern Department.

PLEASE NOTE—Mail money or stamps larger than 10 cents. Do not use stamps less than 10 cents. Do not use stamps less than 10 cents. Do not use stamps less than 10 cents.

These are the pet love of any woman... especially if you are a little high waist... and skirt that gives plenty of the assertive tom-boy legs. Right this week with spanking or give it the chic, ric-rac point.

Creswell Church Societies Meet

CRESWELL—The Dorcas Circle of the Methodist church met last week at the home of Mrs. G. N. McDonald with Mrs. E. E. Rand and Mrs. Ben Fox assisting hostesses. Mrs. Charles Wetzel presided at the business meeting. Mrs. C. L. Camp conducted the devotion. Plans were made for surprise visitations among the members who will go in groups of five. A contribution was voted toward the polio fund. The annual world's day of prayer was announced for Feb. 25 at the Presbyterian church, other churches assisting with the program. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ogram were appointed church hosts for the month. Greetings were brought from Miss Doris Treffen, member of the local church, now a missionary in China. Seventy-two calls were reported. Guests were Miss Esther Fixsen, Miss Frances King, Mrs. H. L. Wright, and Miss Alleyne Spencer. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Valentine emblems were used. Those to serve in March are Mrs. George W. Ross, Mrs. Louise Land, and Mrs. F. A. Everson. Eighteen members were present. Work was done on bazaar articles.

The Presbyterian Aid society was entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Kenneth McCoy. Seventeen members were present. Mrs. H. H. Dersham presided at the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. K. C. Scherwing who is ill. Mrs. Floyd E. Dorris conducted the devotion and chose as her subject "With malice toward none, with charity for all." Work was done on blocks for quilts for convalescing service men. Four quilts were reported completed. The aid voted to purchase another $100 war bond, also new song books for the church. A contribution was voted toward the polio fund. The world's day of prayer was announced for Feb. 25 at the Presbyterian church with other churches taking a part. An invitation was received to meet at a convenient date with Mrs. Arthur Olson in Eugene. A large birthday cake was included in the refreshments. Seventeen members were served.

The Sisterhood of the Christian church were entertained by Mrs. Ed Brown and Mrs. F. B. Good at the Brown home this week. Thirteen members were present. Mrs. James Wilson's birthday anniversary was observed. The group voted a contribution to the county polio fund. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Loyd Wheeler.

At Waldport

WALDPOR—The Waldport postoffice is sometimes out of war savings stamps. The postmaster cannot order more than $100 worth of stamps at any one time and is limited to two orders a month. Each Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Hood buys stamps for the school. Last week the school order was $60 and that cleaned up all the small stamps in the office. The bond sale is the biggest in the history of the local office. Waldport has sold more than $35,000 so far and hopes to reach the quota of $50,000.

E. M. Nerhaugen has sold the Edgewater property below Waldport to F. J. Fehrenbocher of Portland who will operate the hotel. Ben Twombly has bought the Guy Lewis place at Seal Rock and will take over the property immediately. He will still operate the school bus from that location.

The Waldport Lions club is sponsoring a contest on "Why I Want to Fly." This is open to girls and boys from 15 to 18 years of age. The prize is $5.00 which is advanced by Claude Hall, president of the club. A second prize of $2.50 is also offered. The winner of first prize also has a chance on four other prizes offered by Portland citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Elman Overlander and daughter of Reimond are visiting Mrs. Daisy Overlander. Elman expects to be called to the service in the very near future. A brother, Adrian, is now in the service, somewhere in Australia.

Mrs. Lizzie Lyndon who has lived on Drift Creek for many years has bought the Mary E. Willis place just across the bay from Waldport.

William Stewart is building two cottages on Yaquina John Point.

EXTENSION UNIT

VIDA—The McKenzie River Home Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Barfoot the past week. Miss Nellie Lyle gave a demonstration on the making and use of several kinds of cheese. A potluck lunch was served at noon. In the afternoon a short business meeting was held. The members answered roll call by giving their favorite cheese recipes. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Grant March Sr. and Mrs. March Jr. will be assistant hostesses. Mrs. Walter Carter was co-hostess with Mrs. Barfoot.

LOWER CAMP CREEK

LOWER CAMP CREEK—There was a community meeting held at the hall recently for the election of trustees. Those elected were: Mrs. Guy Stephens, for three years; Mrs. Hester Fisher for two years; Walt Ebert for one year; Mrs. Chas. Haden for secretary-treasurer. The retiring trustees were Jack Whalley, C. H. Drake, and Earl Barkeley. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served.

The Community club will meet at the hall Feb. 9 with Mrs. Hannah Miller and Mrs. Lawrence Crabtree serving. The work is to be quilting on the club quilt. Don Swearingen reported Thursday for the army.

Home Extension Unit Meets Monday

JUNCTION CITY—A meeting of the North Lane Home Extension club will be held Tuesday, February 7, at the home of Mrs. Warne Empey at 10:30 a. m. A planned luncheon will be served at noon following the business meeting. In the afternoon, Miss Nellie Lyle, home extension agent, will present the lesson on "Short Cuts in Sewing." Roll call will be answered with hints on saving time in sewing.

Monday Calendar

City council meeting in the City hall at 8:00 p. m.
Girl Scout meeting in the social hall of the Methodist church at 4:00 p. m.
Red Cross surgical dressings meeting in rooms 1 and 2 over the United States National bank from 1:00 to 4:30 p. m.
Businessmen's volleyball and basketball games in the Junction City grade school at 8:00 p. m.
North Lane Home Extension club meeting at the home of Mrs. Warne Empey at 10:30 a. m.

Tuesday Events

Meeting of chapter No. 111, Order of The Eastern Star in the Masonic hall at 8:00 p. m.
Women's Council of the Christian church meeting in the social hall of the Christian church at 2:00 p. m.
National American Denmark association meeting in the Danish hall at 2:00 p. m.
Cub scout meeting in the social room of the Methodist church at 4:00 p. m.
Grade school board meeting in the grade school at 7:30 p. m.
Grange Home Economics club all day meeting in the Junction City grange hall.

Wednesday

Future Farmers of America public speaking contest in the Franklin grange hall at 8:00 p. m.
Oasis lodge meeting in the IOOF hall at 8:00 p. m.
Red Cross surgical dressings meetings in rooms 1 and 2 over the United States National bank from 7:00 to 9:30 p. m.
Women's Society of the Christian Service meeting in the social hall of the Methodist church at 2:00 p. m.

Civil Air Patrol meeting in the music room of the grade school at 7:30 p. m.
Boy Scout troop 15 meeting in the social hall of the Christian church at 7:30 p. m.

On Thursday

Rebekah lodge No. 42 meeting in the IOOF hall at 7:30 p. m.
Firemen meeting in the fire hall at 7:30 p. m.

Friday Events

Junction City grange meeting in the grange hall at 8:00.
The Junction City grange Home Economics club will hold an all day meeting Tuesday, February 8, in the Junction City grange hall. A potluck dinner will be served at noon.

At Saginaw

SAGINAW—Mrs. Iris Gersbach entertained the Friendly Neighbors club at the home of her mother, Mrs. Inez Montleth, Thursday afternoon. There were nineteen members present and two visitors, Mrs. Hanson of Eugene and Mrs. Sells. The visiting committee appointed includes Mrs. Helen Williams, Mrs. Noreen Sells and Mrs. Margaret Keene. Two contests were held with Mrs. Johnston winning the "Guessing" contest and Mrs. Hanson winning the "music" contest. They exchanged valentines. A feature of the luncheon was a large birthday cake which Mrs. Gersbach had made for her mother whose birthday was that day. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Getty.

Frank Clark and Keith Korstjens of Babbitt, Nevada, called on friends here recently. Clark had to report in Portland Thursday to have his examination into the armed forces.

Duane Borts of Corona, Calif., and Irvin Fehlfater of Elkader, Iowa, both seamen last class who had finished seven months training at Farragut, Idaho, and their wives were breakfast guests at the Lowell Benston home recently. They were enroute to California.

Mrs. R. W. Hill left Saturday for Oregon City where she will visit a sister.

Walton Notes

WALTON—Mrs. Bedell's big Manx cat, Bob, became too curious for his own good over a baited trap on the creek, and was imprisoned in a trap for two or three days. Beyond a swollen foot he withstood the ordeal very well.

Grant Kirk is now stationed in England.

Bert Harkness, who has been attending vocational school in Spokane, is now working at the mill. Ross Martin is driving truck again, and Ed Brewer is at the mill also.

Three Phillips children enrolled at Lyons school this week. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have moved into the Preston Cobb place on Penn road.

The Lloyd Malcolmes, who at one time operated the Chickahomly store, surprised their friends by dropping into church services recently. The Malcolmes are visiting their relatives at Monroe, during Lloyd's furlough. He has been stationed at Long Prairie, Texas. Mrs. Malcome has also been working there while Mr. Malcome was in camp.

Polio Fund Goes Well at Junction

JUNCTION CITY—Generous contributions to the polio fund wishing wells placed in city business houses and public buildings have helped to almost triple the $150.00 quota set for Junction City, reports Mayor Homer Dixon. Donations made to date are as follows: High school basketball, $127.50; wishing well, $110.10; Jeannette Star club, $43.00; Junction City grange, $26.20; grade school tag sale, $26.05; Danish Brotherhood, $24.25; grade school room donations, $17.45; American Legion auxiliary, $5.00. There are one or two wishing wells that have not yet been opened.

Clarence Mortensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mortensen, is home from the Barnes hospital in Vancouver, Wash. Clarence has a medical discharge from the army as the result of an attack of rheumatic fever which has kept him hospitalized for the past six months.

Oakridge Helps County Polio Fund

OAKRIDGE—The infantile paralysis drive conducted in Oakridge netted $395.70, due to the support and co-operation of everyone in the community. The largest donation came from the Cascade Post of the American Legion of West-Oakridge, who turned in $156.00. The Oakridge high and grade schools raised $120.91 through benefit basketball games and solicitation among the students and faculty. A sum of $71.54 was taken up at the Uptown theater operated by Noel and Leon Nelson. A good share of this collection was no doubt donated by Westfir patrons of the theater. The balance of the amount was collected through wishing wells placed at the following stores: Vincent Yunc's, Art Wick Highway cafe, post-office, Croner's Drug store, Clark's garage, Val Lee Service station, Starr's highway store, Clark's hardware store, J. E. Paddock Hardware, and E. E. Smith general store. The chairman for this district, Mrs. Charles Croner, thanks all who gave and all who helped in any way with the drive.

From Oakridge

OAKRIDGE—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morris were recent visitors in Oakridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Tibbets. Mr. Morris is a physical instructor in the navy and has been stationed at Pasadena, Calif. They were on their way to The Dalles to visit Mrs. Lloyd's parents. Mrs. Lloyd will remain with her parents and Mr. Lloyd will go to Tucson, Arizona for further assignment.

Mrs. Myrtle Stanley of West Sacramento, Calif. has arrived here to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Kissinger. Word has been received from Jesse Smith that he is a member of the coast guard and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, former Oakridge residents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elsom and daughter, Muriel, have returned to Oakridge to make their home after spending some time in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. E. J. Spatz has returned to her home here after a two months' trip to Atlanta, Georgia, where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. Gerald Murray, and son. She also visited at Garden City, Kansas with her sister, Mrs. Jasper Morgan, whom she had not seen for forty years.

Mrs. Joanna Ream has gone to Crescent Lake to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Randall were called to Portland the first of the week by the seriousness illness and death of Mrs. Randall's father.

Mrs. Anna Allen Stevens has gone to Eugene, where she has accepted a position in Will's cafe.

Mrs. Florence Briscoe, R. N., who will conduct the Red Cross home nursing class, asks that everyone attending bring a pencil and notebook to class.

Word has been received from Wilfred "Lefty" Kissinger that he is now stationed somewhere in Hawaii. He is a member of the navy.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Umprey at their home, Thursday morning.

Miss Violet Lucke, a member of the senior class of the Oakridge high school, was given a farewell party by the seniors at the school Friday afternoon. She was presented with a cosmetic case. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Miss Lucke is leaving to make her home in Powell.

AT ALPINE

ALPINE—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Whitaker recently sold their farm located just east of Alpine, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barth of Pendleton. The Barths have three children, two of whom will attend Alpine school. They plan to take possession of their new home about Feb. 25.

Leslie Rhodes, Earl Kyle and Garth Larkin went to Portland this week to take physical examinations, prior to entering army service.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Home Nursing Group

THURSTON—The Red Cross Home Nursing class held a potluck luncheon at the close of the final meeting, Miss L. Geil, instructor, was presented with a gift in appreciation of her work. Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Chas. Taylor, Mrs. Harve Hadley, Mrs. Ira Gray and Mrs. H. E. Phetteplace.

Only a few of the members of the class were unable to attend the final meeting and luncheon. The class included the following ladies: Mrs. Laurence Gosler, Mrs. Joe Wicks, Mrs. Johnny Wicks, Mrs. Arch Shough, Mrs. Maude Alford, Mrs. Vernon Hansen, Mrs. Farrell McQuinn, Mrs. Brown Ziolkowski, Mrs. John Edmeston, Mrs. Verna Stanback, Mrs. Doris Calahan, Mrs. Ray Baugh, Mrs. Ren Hollister, Mrs. Fred Russell, Mrs. Bert Weaver, Mrs. Goldie Connelly, Mrs. Maude Culens, Mrs. Bill Platt, Mrs. William Hansen, Mrs. Elsie Smith, Mrs. Sylvia Hickson, Mrs. G. Courtright, Mrs. Percy Lewis,

Mrs. Pat Soward, Mrs. Letha Robinson, and Mrs. William Ebner.

MOTHERS MEET

COTTAGE GROVE—The London 4-H Mothers club held an all-day meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Funk at which time it was voted to donate 10 cents per member from the club treasury for the infantile paralysis drive. Arrangements have been made to rent a small house in London to be used as a clubhouse. Members are meeting Wednesday afternoon to arrange furnishings. It was decided to hold a social with a pie and cake walk and other amusements to raise funds for the club and school. No definite date has been set. New members are Mrs. Harry Simmons, Mrs. Henry Hess, and Mrs. Lillian Stimmel. Mrs. C. E. Fisher of Portland was a guest and was honored at the tea hour with a birthday cake. The afternoon was spent working on a hospital scrap book. The next meeting will be held at the new clubhouse Feb. 14.