Vandals Beaten in Trainees Defeat Overtime, 52-48

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 12.—The Oregon State college Beavers outlasted the Idaho Vandals to win an overtime thriller, 52-48, Saturday night to sweep their basketball series and climb to the top of the Northern Division, Pacific Coast conference, basement.

Washington, taken over the cellar, 20-19, at half time, compared to a 17-16 lead in last night's battle, and came within eight seconds of winning, 44-43, at the end of the regular playing time.

Little Happy Lee, Chinese guard, saved the game for Oregon State. Idaho, with the one-point margin, started stalling with eight seconds left. Anderson had a chance to throw but missed. Then Lee, fouled by Gano, dropped one through without touching the net.

In the extra period, Anderson, high man for the game with 18 points, scored first for Oregon State. Gano, fouled by Puddy, converted. Lee dribbled through the Vandals to tip in an underhand shot. Pyne converted a free toss.

Puddy scored to make it 50-46 in favor of the Beavers. Olson tallied, but Lee dribbled in for another lay-in to complete the scoring. Oregon State played keep-away the remaining minute and a half.

Engineers Dump Flyers, 50-40

By RED Q. GATES
Coach John Warren's ASTU boys had a very tough time of it Saturday night to down a scrappy Oregon Air-Corps quintet 50-40. The game played at McArthur court before some 600 soldier fans, was one of the more "rugged" games staged on the map of the court in recent seasons.

It was "dog-eat-dog" in the first half, with neither team wanting to give the other a "bite." First the taller and more experienced Engineers would score, then the scrappier Air-Corps boys would come right back.

The Air-Corps jumped into an early lead, and throughout the first half it looked as though the Meteorologists would surprise the critics and upset the appraiser.

Engineers Ball
But as the game progressed the Engineers strength became more apparent and they began to look like the better ball team. Of considerable interest was the performance of Quentin Sidesinger, former Oregon player, who played a good game under the backboards as well as made a nice contribution in the scoring column.

Late in the half the Engineers began to roll with little Bob Kramme potting long one handers, and they were ahead 22-18 at the intermission.

With their height advantage beginning to show on the Air-Corps, the ASTU built up a bigger lead and finally wound up with the 10 points separating the teams.

Kramme High With 13
The Air-Corps were always in the game, mostly by the unceasing efforts of Billy Mitchell, former Kansas State freshman player, and bespectacled Dick Medlin.

Nail and Kramme, along with Bill Moylan and Sidesinger all turned in fine games for the Army ASTU. Kramme was high point man for the evening with 13, followed by Nail with 12. Mitchell was high for the Air-Corps with 8.

The G. I. Ducks were scheduled to play a game with the Florence Coast Guard Station, at Florence Sunday afternoon.

Ex-Duck Grid Mentor Dies

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12.—W. J. Warner, 63, University of Oregon football coach in 1910-11 and brother of Stanford ex-quarterback Glenn "Pop" Warner, died Saturday at St. Vincent's hospital.

At the time of his death he was city attorney at Hermiston, Ore., where he had practiced law for 33 years.

After starting on the gridiron at Cornell university, Warner coached at Carlisle before he came to Oregon. His brother, now residing in San Francisco, visited him here last month.

Surviving besides his brother are his widow, Charlotte, a daughter, Mrs. Ed Schottel, Vancouver, Wash., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Vancouver Monday.

Nelson Shoots 63; Revolta Leads Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 12.—Long-hitting Johnny Revolta, the Evanston, Ill., professional who found his short game Saturday, chopped his way into a fivestroke lead over the field at the halfway point of the $5000 Texas Open with a seven-under par 64.

At that, Revolta had to take back seat today to red-hot Byron Nelson, the former Texas caddy now at Toledo, O., who seared the pitch-and-putt Brackenridge Park course with 63, eight under the regulations figures.

Nelson's fine round pulled him from the also rans into second place and gave him a one-stroke advantage over his bitter rival of the current winter tour, Harold "Jug" McSpaden, Philadelphia.

Wind Bothers Golfers
McSpaden, who had won three of the four winter tournaments and who led here after yesterday's first round with a 67, faded badly Saturday and went one over par for a 72 and a 139 total which was good for no better than fifth place.

Only seven professionals managed to even or break par as a chilling norther swept the course for the second straight day.

Revolta's 64, coupled with his 60 yesterday, gave him a 133, five strokes better than three of his rivals—Nelson, P. Chick Harbert, the defending champion, and Sam Byrd.

Cooper in All 17 Opens
Nelson had a 75 yesterday, while Harbert, on leave from the Lincoln, Neb., army air base, put together a 67 today with a 71 of yesterday, and Byrd fashioned a 68 today to go with his 70 yesterday.

After McSpaden in sixth place was Henry Hanson, the merchant mariner from Galveston, Tex., the tourney "dark horse," with a steady 71-70-141.

Lighthorse Harry Cooper, who has played in each of the 17 Texas opens, and who now hails from Minneapolis, lopped two strokes off par today for a 69-74-143 to share eighth and ninth place with Claude Harmon, Houston, Tex.

Scratch Bowling Meat At U-Bowl Sunday
The scratch singles bowling championship of Eugene will be at stake Sunday night at the U-Bowl alleys where at least a dozen of the city's top-flight rollers will vie in a 12-game match. Virgil Jones, champion for the past two years, will make a title defense. The hostilities open at 7:30 o'clock.

In the meantime plans are going ahead for the annual state-wide eight-game singles sweepstakes to be held in mid-March with $100 guaranteed as the first cash prize.

Marshfield Youth Signs With Birmingham Club

MARSHFIELD, Feb. 12.—Nineteen-year-old Fred L. Murray, who learned to wield a bat on Coos Bay sandlots, will join the Birmingham, Ala. Barons on the Southern Association for the 1944 baseball season.

Ed Curran, sponsor of the American Legion team here, announced that Murray had been signed by the Barons. He will report for spring training March 5.
