LI. R. F. Burnett Here From South Pacific

Li. Robert Foster Burnett, (AG) USN, former Eugene dentist, is at home on 30-day leave, from the south Pacific. He is here to visit his family, Mrs. Burnett and their little daughter, Judith, four, and also his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Burnett.

Lieutenant Burnett has spent 19 months in the south seas. He was at Guadalcanal the month of September, 1943, during action there, having charge of the dental corps. He wears a ribbon for the presidential citation received by his unit for their service at that time. During that month, the lieutenant lost 38 pounds, because of lack of food on the island. At one time, he says, they had only a little rice that had captured from the Japanese.

He flew to this country from New Zealand, reporting first to the Alameda naval base in California. He is to report at the Tongue Point naval base for reassignment, before leaving.

Prior to enlistment, Lieutenant Burnett was a dentist in practice here with his father.

Pvt. Joan Seavey Now Serves in Italy, WAC

Now in Italy, WAC Private M. Joan Seavey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess A. Seavey, 1245 Onyx, is serving in the peninsular base section with the command group section.

She attended the Springfield high school and the University of Oregon. Before entering military service, Private Seavey was a secretary in the school of physical education at the university and was a teacher at the Cloverdale high school. She has been in the WAC eight months.

Prior to going overseas, she was stationed at Fort Devens, Mass., and Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

David Serves Navy On Submarine Tender

Keith David, 27, machinist's mate 1-c, USN, has returned to San Francisco to report for duty. After three weeks' leave spent with relatives and friends in Eugene and Coburg. He joined the navy in December, 1938, and for four and a half years has been stationed on a submarine tender, serving both in the Atlantic and Pacific. He spent nearly a year in Scotland, and liked people there. He now is being transferred to further duty in the Pacific.

The eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James David of Coburg, he has three brothers, Howard, Verlin and Dale, in the navy. Another brother, Fred, was killed in action last year.

Mrs. David, the former Mary Frances Spencer, accompanied her husband to San Francisco to visit friends and relatives there and at Vallejo. She is a daughter of Mrs. Hallie Spencer of 1209 Emerald.

Soldier Sons Visit at L. J. Schoen Home Here

Staff Sergeant Robert E. Schoen, who cooks for the officers' mess at military headquarters in San Francisco, recently spent a two-week furlough in Eugene with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Schoen, and his sister, Mrs. George Foster, all of 728 Fifth Avenue west.

His eldest brother, PFC George L. Schoen, stationed in the reconnaissance company, demonstration regiment, at the Fort Knox, Ky., armored school, was a visitor at home during the holidays, while the youngest son, Pvt. Kenneth P. Schoen, was home shortly before that. The latter was en route, on transfer from Camp Roberts, Calif., to Fort Meade, Md. He has since gone overseas.

Their brother-in-law, Lt. George G. Foster, has been in England for the past five months, flying a B-17 bomber.

Mills Made Captain

Lt. Leonard J. Mills, son of Mrs. Fannie Mills of 1891 Olive, has been promoted to rank of captain, and has been assigned to duty at Blythe, Calif. He formerly was at Pueblo, Colo. He enlisted in September, 1941.

Captain Mills is a statistical officer, and also has been made personnel officer, on order from Washington, D. C. He is a graduate of the Miami officer candidate school, and also studied at Harvard.

Enrolled at School

Preparing to take over the important duties of a shore-stationed male yeoman, Darline F. Curfman, 20, daughter of Mrs. Edith S. Curfman, 1542 Eleventh Avenue west, has enrolled in the naval training school for women reservist yeomen on the Iowa State Teachers College campus at Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The yeomen course includes shorthand, typing, naval correspondence, records and forms, and current events. The college-slanted 12 weeks course is complete with physical education and pleasant university social functions.

Get Purple Heart

Mr. and Mrs. Kestner H. Wallace of Monroe, Route 1, have received the Order of the Purple Heart, awarded posthumously to their son, Ralph LeRoy Wallace, navy man lost on the Arizona at Pearl Harbor's bombing.

SELECTION FOR COURSE

Fred Thorn, aviation machinist's mate, 2-c, the son of Mrs. Chloe Slaughter of Route 3, recently has been home on leave. Formerly stationed at Sand Point naval air station, at Sand Point, Wash., Thorn has been selected for the navy V-12 college training program, and will report at San Diego for orders. Prior to enlistment in September, 1942, he was employed with the Boeing Aircraft corporation.

Ernest Kersgaard, 22, left above, carpenter's mate 1-c, entered the navy in January, 1942. He was at Midway during the attack, and has been for more than a year at Pearl Harbor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Kersgaard, Route 5, Eugene.

SGT. ALFRED D. CLAASSEN, right, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Claassen of Route 3, is an aerial gunner and assistant radio operator, in the army air forces. His wife lives at Coburg.

MORTON MASON, right, seaman 1-c, who attended school in Eugene when living here with his grandmother, Mrs. Luella Bristow, has recently gone overseas. He spent twelve weeks in electrical study before sailing, and will continue an advanced course for two months longer.
