Public Market

Dealers in produce at the public market report a great scarcity of paper bags and egg cartons. They cannot get these at the wholesale houses, they say, and are asking patrons to bring their own bags and cartons. If they have any, until the scarcity is ended.

There were no changes in the prices of fruits, vegetables or eggs at the market Wednesday.

Whole Family Gets in

Rising to the top in defense work in Portland are two Eugene workers, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J.

Murdoch, formerly of Route 3, Murdoch was for years employed as a clerk at the Eugene Fruit Growers plant, and his wife was a vocal teacher. Their three sons entered service, Louis and Victor first, followed by Robert, the youngest of the trio, and the parents decided to "make it unanimous" by entering defense work. Although Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch are grandparents, they have become efficient shipyard welders at a Portland plant.

Soviet Plea Refused

SEATTLE, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Boris Pobjovko, a merchant seaman who left the Russian freighter India here last March, has been placed in protective custody as a "refugee" and will not be turned over to the Russian government. The Post-Intelligencer reported today.

The newspaper quoted a "high authority" as saying that Pobjovko, held by immigration authorities, will be placed in the United Nations ship manning pool when he recovers from a leg injury suffered in an auto accident and will ship out on a neutral vessel which does not touch Russian ports. The Russian government sought Pobjovko's return for punishment as a deserter.

The report said he jumped ship after being "caught" by Russian ship officers attending a white Russian church here. A fellow seaman, Evan Leno, has already been transferred to the manning pool and shipped out.

MRS. A. J. BOYD HURT

Mrs. A. J. Boyd, Rt. 3, received cuts and bruises about the face and neck in a traffic accident Tuesday at 5:10 p. m. at Thirtieth and Mill.

City police said that the car in which Mrs. Boyd was riding, driven by her husband, was knocked 30 paces in collision with a sedan driven by Dorothy M. Madden, Bangs hotel.
