

Property Change at River Road Reported

RIVER ROAD—Mr. and Mrs. H. Autenrieth of Paulina, have purchased the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Moll on River Road at G. Ave. The Molls have purchased a semi-suburban home at 1885 Franklin Blvd. where Dr. Moll will be nearer his work at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Autenrieth and their three daughters are moving to their new home and are elated over the climate and country.

The River Road Women's club held its potluck last week after school spoke and showed the members of the club.

The bus station on Howard street has been finished for some time but not yet painted. Mr. Duckworth was the builder.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bishop of Norwalk, Iowa, visited their cousin, Mrs. Glenn Harnden, they left for Los Angeles via Camp Roberts.

The home nursing class is doing nicely and is well attended under the leadership of Miss Gille.

Frances Marie Rasmussen entertained the following friends at a party at her home celebrating her fourth birthday: Cheryl Butts, Richard Robley, David Stein, Betty and Bobby Faust, Korleene and Sandra Kraft, Mary Haworth, Snipper Hulegaard, Michael and Diane Woods, Ronnie and Frances Marie Rasmussen.

Mrs. James Haworth and daughter, Mary, spent a few days in Spokane visiting her husband, Jim Haworth, machinist mate 2-c.

Who is one of the eight chosen to be a class of 250 to stay at Farragut.

Mrs. Robert Lea Folgedalen, wife of PFC R. L. Folgedalen of the air force, has left for Tampa, Fla. to be with her husband who is stationed there.

NEWS OF SHEDD

SHEDD—W. H. McConnel, 78, died Thursday afternoon at his home near Shedd, following several weeks' illness. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

A meeting of the Oakville mission society was held Thursday afternoon in the Willamette church parlors. Hostesses were Mrs. Ed Keyes, Miss Eleanor Dunlap and Mrs. Harold Coop.

The Oakville United Presbyterian church recently sent six testaments to local men in service. This makes 26 testaments sent to service men by this church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson and family of Newport are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oran Jacobson.

The Priscilla club met recently at the home of Mrs. Dale Thompson with 14 members present. The club is to sponsor the Red Cross drive. Mrs. Rose Daggett was in charge of the contest. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ellen Zimmerman and Mrs. Vida Dawson. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

AT PHILOMATH

PHILOMATH—Mrs. Beulah Hunter has received word that her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, is seriously ill. Mrs. Hunter left immediately for Snohomish, Wash., where Mrs. Lewis lives. Mr. Lewis was reported missing in action in the South Pacific several months ago.

Cpl. Albert Vanderveer writes he has arrived safely overseas. The town where he is stationed is about the size of Philomath.

Mrs. Roy Thornton of Billings, Montana, and Mrs. Morris Goodrich of Portland are visiting their mother, Mrs. Alice White.

Mrs. Avery and six children have left to return to their former home in Kansas. Mr. Avery was killed in a mill accident some time ago.

The senior class of Philomath high school had pictures taken last week.

Roy Scott is installing another plane at the north end of the plant.

Mrs. Charline Edwards attended the Willamette district conference of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, held in Portland.

The farthest advance of the Germans into Russia encompassed roughly one-sixteenth of all the Soviet Union's territory.

MAKE UNCLE SAM YOUR BANKER!
He's The Best There Is!
Invest in WAR BONDS and STAMPS

Church Groups at Drain List Meetings

DRAIN—The Women's Council and Missionary group of the Christian church met at the parsonage last week. Mrs. May Gardner, vice-president, presided at the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Powell. The next meeting will be at the Gardner home with Frankie Coons as leader.

Mrs. Hazel Woods was hostess at a luncheon recently, honoring Mrs. Floy V. Bostel of Kent, state president of the American Legion auxiliary, who was on a tour of inspection of the unit.

The members of the Drain unit attending the luncheon were: Margaret Le Grand, Maude Cowles, Elva Spalding, Jane Asker, Myrtle Miller, Viola Booker, Edna Kenney, Viva Marchion, Elva Sneed, Mrs. Bostel, home guest, and the hostess, Mrs. Woods is president of the local auxiliary.

Mrs. Ed Shirley has returned from Wenatchee, Wash., where she was called by the death of a brother-in-law.

Mrs. H. A. Woolman has gone to Portland to attend a regional conference by the leaders of the motion picture industry.

Mrs. J. E. Spayde, who visited several days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Madison, and family, has left for Pecos, Texas to join her husband, who is an instructor in the army air forces there.

Grocery Store at Alpine Is Sold

ALPINE—Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Bales recently sold their grocery store to Mr. and Mrs. Waller. The new owners took over the business on March 1. Mr. and Mrs. Waller and family came to Alpine last summer and make their home in one of the McCallum apartments.

A girl scout troop was organized recently at the Eachus home. Mrs. Guy Eachus is leader of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Larkin and family moved last week from the Wirth place west of Alpine to the South place in the Mt. Home community. Mr. Larkin purchased the Lear place, just across the road from the South place, some time ago and is now building a house on his new property. The family plans to move to their new home as soon as the house is completed.

Alpine grade school basketball team played the Monroe grade school team at Monroe recently. The Monroe team won.

The girls' 4-H Sewing club met at the home of Shirley Waller last week. Nadene Furlong will entertain the group at her home on March 11.

Donald Furnish, who is stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., recently spent a seven-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Furnish, at their home near Glenbrook.

Leslie Rhodes and Earl Kyle have left for Portland where they will enter service in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton of Portland were recent visitors at the T. Rowe home in Alpine. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton lived in this community for a number of years.

Twelve women met in the church basement this week and folded surgical dressings. A covered dish lunch was eaten at noon and the work was continued until 4 p. m. A total of 650 dressings was folded. This is the best record for a single day's work the group has made so far. Mrs. Marvin Foster, secretary of the group, reports 4060 dressings made during the month of February. Helen Davidson has been appointed as an instructor and will be in charge of some of the work on Tuesdays. The group also meets Tuesday afternoons.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White and granddaughters, Eunice and Evelyn, have moved from the Walden house to the house recently vacated by Mrs. Mary Peck.

Phyllis Irvin had the cast removed from her leg early last week and can walk now with the aid of only one crutch.

AT BIG FALL CREEK

BIG FALL CREEK—Mrs. Charles C. Sprague, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt, with her two children, Charles Jr. and Deana Lorrain, from Los Angeles, have been visiting with her parents on Big Fall Creek for several weeks, since her husband was inducted into the army air force. She left for Salem to visit friends, and word has been received that her little daughter was taken to the hospital with pneumonia.

Delmar Vaughan who lives with his parents near the Winberry bridge, broke his arm Thursday while cranking a tractor.

Mr. McInroe who was associated with Mr. Gurrier in the logging mill here on Big Fall Creek, has bought Mr. Gurrier's interest and is sole owner now. He has made James O'Connor boss of the mill crew.

This week two trucks passing, one empty and the other loaded, were unable to pass, and both trucks were ditched, the loaded truck losing its trailer over the edge. Both trucks had to be pulled out. This stretch of road is between the logging mill and Harvey's store. In about the same place a loaded truck crowded the school bus off the road and the children were forced to use the emergency door to get out of the bus. Another empty truck hauled the school bus out.

Mr. Jeffries' logging crew put out 27 loads of logs Thursday. They have been running from 21 loads up per day all last week and this week.

The county has been grading this district but more gravel is needed and they will begin soon to put more on.

Coburg P-TA Sets Meeting Wednesday

COBURG—The Coburg Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular monthly meeting, at 2:30 p. m., Wednesday, in the school auditorium.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Coburg school will hold a rummage and white elephant sale at the Coburg school, Friday afternoon, March 10th, at 3:30 o'clock.

The honor roll for the fifth and sixth grade room includes the following names: William Reese, June Bedortha, Kermit Stoneberg and Patricia Swango.

PFC Eugene Courtwright, of the U. S. marine, who is back from overseas and is on a 30-day furlough, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harbert and daughter, Katherine. Private Courtwright, who is a paratrooper, was with Dwin Harbert when he met his death in the South Pacific. His home is in Glendale, Calif., and he plans to take more training at San Diego.

Lodge Meets
Diamond Rebekah lodge met in the IOOF building Thursday evening, following a potluck supper for Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their families. The committee in charge included: Mrs. John Knott, Mrs. Orville Wiggins, Mrs. Nellie Edwards, Mrs. Arthur Roach, Mrs. Hal Harrington and Mrs. Charles Harrison. Following the Rebekah meeting, Charles P. Poole, of Eugene, showed motion pictures to the group. The committee in charge of entertainment included: Mrs. Stuart Hurd, Mrs. Cleve Deffenbacher and Mrs. Edward Gravelle. Mr. and Mrs. John Starr and Charles P. Poole were visitors for the evening.

Initiation of 13 candidates will be held at the next meeting, which will be on Thursday evening, March 16. The refreshment committee for the evening will include: Mrs. R. P. Stolsig, Mrs. Gilbert Simmons, Mrs. Roy Stallings, Mrs. Otto Schwartz, Mrs. Harold Woodruff, Mrs. Verna Tyler, Mrs. R. L. Stoneberg and Mrs. Charles Vogel.

AT BAILEY HILL
BAILEY HILL—The American Red Cross war fund drive will get underway in the Bailey Hill district on Tuesday, March 7. Mrs. Mary McCallum is district chairman assisted by Mrs. George F. Schaefer, Mrs. Harry Orr, Mrs. E. H. Moore, and Mrs. Carl R. Pfeiffer. These workers will attend all community meetings and those attending are asked to bring their contributions. House to house canvass will also be made for those not attending meetings.

CLUB MEETS
FERGUSON—Mrs. Monty Moffett was hostess to P. U. L. L. club last week. During the regular business meeting it was decided that the membership committee call on all of the ladies in the community inviting them as guests at the next meeting. Mrs. Walter Hildebrand is to be in charge of the program. The crib quilt will be finished and each member is to apply a 12½-inch block for a large quilt.

AT FOX HOLLOW

FOX HOLLOW—The Helping Hand club held its regular all-day meeting at Bertha Toll's home recently. Eight members were present. Lap robes were pieced at this meeting for Camp Adair. A guessing game was also held in the afternoon. Olive McBeth won the prize in this game. Elsie Morris won the hostess prize. Next meeting will be at Elsie Morris home on April 6.

A bridal shower is to be given for Doris Johnson, bride-elect of John McLarrin, at the home of Mrs. Leila Taylor on Sunday, March 12.

PARTY GIVEN

FALL CREEK—A leap year party was given by Wilma Farrier at her home in Fall Creek recently. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rogers, Sonja, Vernon and Marion; Mr. and Mrs. John McGilvrey, Evelyn, Jean & Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parkton, Gene, Ralph, Keith and Leonard; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Farrier; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dymond, Dale and Arlene; Mrs. Clyde Hogrefe, Wayne and Owen; Mr. Claude Gregory and Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson and Euna May; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrier, Lois and Eddie; Mrs. Al Siffell and Bobby; Mrs. June Rich, Lila and Larry; and the hostess, Wilma Farrier.

News Notes from High School Given

COTTAGE GROVE—Letter points were discussed in a recent Lettergirls club meeting. Mary Gasper with 223 points is the senior girl with the highest number of points; Dottie Ann Clark, second with 194 points; Kay Taylor and Velma Pollack, third both with 184. Out of the juniors Chloris Roberts is highest with 165 points. Helen Smith ranks highest out of the sophomores with 86 points.

Senior girls are required to have 200 points before they are eligible for their pins; juniors must have 150 points to get their large letters and the sophomores must have 100 points to get their small letters.

COMING ATTRACTION

Dr. D. U. Poling, co-ordinator of higher education of the state of Oregon, spoke to the students on "Student Problems during War Time" this week. He plans to spend the entire day in Cottage Grove talking to both high school and grade school students.

The Newsette point contest is becoming closer and closer. At last count, the three highest were: Bernadene Loomis, leading with 791 seconds; second, Jo Anne Premazzi with 688 points; third, Mary Gasper with 513 points. The question is, who will win the awards which are an old pin, a silver pin, and a certificate. Of the boys who volunteered to carry on for sports the second semester Ray Land is easily in the lead.

The seniors led the stamp and bond sales for the previous week with a total of $7.15. Coming next were the juniors and freshmen, each with $8.20 and the sophomores with $3.00, making a grand total of $22.30.

Miss Kahlhagen state supervisor of homemaking brought Miss Rae Vernon to visit the homemaking department, Thursday. Miss Vernon is an exchange student at Oregon State college from New Zealand and is making a survey of homemaking departments in Oregon.

Elmira Notes

ELMIRA—Elmira Better Homes club meets at the home of Marie Eaves for an all day meeting, March 7. Sewing is to be done for the hostess. A potluck dinner to be served at noon, each member to bring a friend. Election of officers is to be held at this time.

Word has been received that James Elvin Bryan, and Ivan Howard Parker, who are in the armed service, are somewhere in north Africa.

Ben Inman who is in the navy and has been in training at Farragut, Idaho, is home on a short furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bromsley received a telegram from their son, Dan, saying he had arrived safely in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Verneal Faulhaber are home. He is on furlough. He expects to be sent overseas, so is leaving his wife with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher.

The story on the Sunday school convention, announced to meet at Elmira Church of Christ, March 6, was a mistake. It is to be the same place, but March 13.

IN SAGINAW

SAGINAW—The Friendly Neighbors club met at the home of Mrs. Hazel Grimes Thursday afternoon. It was voted on to make several wool wheel chair robes for the Red Cross. They will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Inez Monthle to make the robes. A report was given from the sick and visiting committee by the chairman of that committee, Mrs. Helen Williams. Mrs. Iris Gersbach won the prize in the contest.

Joe Getty, who had been attending school at Seattle, is here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Getty.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Maugh of Scio visited recently at the home of Mrs. Maugh's mother, Mrs. Lottie Kirkendall.

Jimmy Stewart, seaman 2/c, has left for Farragut, Idaho, after spending a two weeks leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stewart.

MRS. RUBY MAE GAST

PHILOMATH—Mrs. Ruby Mae Gast, 40, died Feb. 25 at the family home west of Philomath. She is survived by her husband, David Gast, also three daughters and three sons. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Keeney mortuary. Rev. Jesse Bunch officiating. Interment in the family plot in Oaklawn Memorial park.

For each 500 pound bale of cotton lint there are 900 pounds of cottonseeds.

