VISITORS LEAVE
Lieutenant and Mrs. A. G. Long and daughter, Karen Margaret, left Thursday for their home in Dodge City, Kansas.

The Longs have been visiting here the past several weeks with Mr. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chase, and with Lt. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Long in Grants Pass.

Both Lt. and Mrs. Long are graduates of the University of Oregon. This has been their first visit in the home state in over two years.

Lt. Long, a first lieutenant in the army air forces, is a flying instructor at the Dodge City army air field for B-26 Marauder bombers.

Karen Margaret Long was entertained by a birthday party on Tuesday at the home of Julie Ann Dutton. The occasion was to celebrate the first birthdays of the two little girls who were both born on June 13.

Miss Bingham is Bride on Tuesday
The marriage of Miss Jeanne Bingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham, to Pvt. Wayne A. Callaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Callaway was solemnized on Tuesday evening, June 13, at the First Christian church, Rev. Walter J. Ficus officiating. A large group of relatives and friends attended.

The decorations consisted of baskets of white flowers and white candles, the candles being lighted by two young ladies as all guests were seated.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Jeanne Newhouse sang "Because," accompanied by Glenn Griffith on the organ, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lace and tulle dress, floor length, and fingertip veil, arranged on a bandeau of blue ribbon. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white flowers.

Miss Virginia Bruckart was maid of honor and wore blue. Misses Beverly Britt and Doris Tupper were bridesmaids and wore dresses in blue and rose, respectively. All three carried nosegays.

Misses Marcella Schneider and Stella Borsian were flower girls and wore sheer formal and carried small nosegays.

Philip Edblom was best man, and Cecil Berg and Dean Bond were ushers.

All of the members of the bride party, except the flower girls, were members of the 1944 graduating class of Eugene high school. Mr. Callaway having entered the service last November, was unable to graduate.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony and about one hundred attended. Mrs. Charles Shuck and Mrs. Arthur Schneider, aunts of the bridegroom, cut the cake and the Misses Anne Marshall, Lucille Christofferson, Barbara Williams, and Lorene Hixson served.

Miss Sue Simmons presided over the guest book.

The couple left immediately for a short stay on the McKenzie. The bridegroom leaves in a few days to join his group of paratroopers at Fort Benning, Georgia, and Mrs. Callaway will remain in Eugene for the present.

MRS. ROBERT HICKS

Among brides in May was Mrs. Robert Hicks (Jean Carol Swannett) of Junction City.

Sanderson-Hayes Wedding June 11 At Local Church

St. Mary's Episcopal church was the scene for a charmingly arranged wedding held Sunday afternoon last when Miss Catherine Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Hayes, was married to Mr. Sgt. David J. Sanderson, U. S. marine corps, son of Mrs. Etta Y. Sanderson of Seattle. The service was held at three o'clock, Rev. E. S. Bartlam, church rector, officiating.

Four large baskets of pink-white peonies and blue delphiniums were arranged around the altar, and smaller baskets of the flowers graduated toward the front. Candelabras with lighted tapers also were used in decorating.

Alfred Tyson played the organ and Miss Virginia Hayes, sister of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

In White Satin
Mr. Hayes gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a white satin dress, made with round neckline with a net yoke, long sleeves, fitted bodice shirred at the waistline, and a slight train. The veil of imported net was the one worn by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Allen of Salem, at the latter's wedding. The veil, floor-length, was gathered at the back of the head with a wreath of flowers across the top. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of white, sweet peas and pink rosebuds, pink rosebuds being caught in the shower of ribbons.

Misses Virginia and Jean Hayes, sisters of the bride, were the two bridesmaids. Miss Jean wore an aqua jersey dress, made in style similar to that of the bride except with short sleeves, and her flowers were an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas and yellow rosebuds. Miss Virginia wore yellow jersey, and her flowers were lavender sweet peas and pink rosebuds.

Patrick O'Conner was best man, and the ushers were Albert Dietz and Allan Bean, the latter of Portland.

At Reception
The reception following was held in the church parish hall. The bride's table was arranged in the shape of a V, the wedding cake being in the center, surrounded by lighted tapers, and the silver service was at either end of the V. Mrs. Hart Larsen served the cake. Mrs. Arthur Priaulx and Mrs. Patrick O'Conner poured. Serving were Misses Pauline Sulflow and Mary Ellen Stevens.

Among out-of-town guests were the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Etta Y. Sanderson, and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Raleigh, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Butt and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bean, all of Portland.

For traveling, the bride wore a dressmaker suit in gold with black accessories. The couple will be at home in El Centro, Calif., Sgt. Sanderson being stationed there. He recently returned from service overseas.
