Effective pitching by Earl Torgeson in the late innings and a two-run sixth-inning scoring spree gave the Snellstrom Braves a 3-1 upset decision over the Giustina Reds at Civic Stadium park Sunday afternoon. It was the first defeat of the season for Manager Ed Brauner's talented Reds who still hold a half game lead over the Miller Lumbermen who walloped the Hill Creek Hillbillies 6-1 in the second game of a doubleheader program.

Brauner filed a protest following Sunday's game with Secretary Dick Strite, claiming that Torgeson, former Seattle Rainier who is now stationed at Camp Adair, was not eligible to play under the eight-day league ruling for new players.

The victorious Braves will have a chance to advance into a second-place tie with the Lumbermen Tuesday night at the Stadium where a game postponed from last week will be played. Regular league games are on the schedule for Wednesday and Friday nights, and a twin bill next Sunday.

Sunday Attendance Small

Both of Sunday's games were interesting contests for the comparatively small crowd of optimistic fans who shunned an early shower and a heavy rain that failed to materialize until well after the final out in the nightcap.

Manager Frank Fassett was forced to send his ace hurler Torgeson, to the mound cold. But after two shaky innnings Torgeson settled down to send the Reds swinging wildly as his blistering speed ball that was hard to control in the early stages.

Kenny King opened the game with a sharp single to center, but was forced out at second by Johnny Dunn who was safe on a fielder's choice. Dunn stole second and scored when Gord Bailey's deep pop fly fell away from Second-baseman Ves Greenfield. Jule Faubion walked and Bailey was cut down at third on an attempt steal. Burt Avery also walked, but Elvan Pitney flied to third for the final out.

Doc Taylor and King both collected singles in the second inning, but failed to score. The Reds failed to hit Torgeson in the next three frames, Taylor collecting his second hit after two were away in the sixth.

Snellstrom Ties Score

In the meantime Harold Wilson virtually handcuffed the Braves with one hit in the first three innings. With one away in the fourth, Norv Libby singled and went to third on Torgeson's one-bagger through second. Torgeson stole second before Charley Mickelson grounded out to second, scoring Libby and sending Torgeson to third. Jay Mercer popped to second to retire the side.

The Braves threatened in the fifth when Ranny Smith led off with a single, stole second, and Greenfield walked. But it wasn't until the sixth, after Wilson had retired with a sore arm, that the Braves hit pay dirt with their two-run winning margin. With one out, Torgeson's grounder went through Avery at second for an error and the runner advanced to third. Mickelson came through with a clean single to center, scoring Torgeson with the winning run. Mickelson went to second when Pitney bobbled the grounder in center. Mercer grounded out, sending Mickelson to third from where he scored on Smith's one-bagger to center. John Warren ended the spree by fanning Ernie Danner for the third out.

The Reds threatened in the seventh, King collecting his third hit with a single down the third-base line. He stole second and third, but Dunn flied out to Mickelson and Torgeson struck out the next two men to end the ball game.

Although he struck out seven, Torgeson walked five while allowing no earned runs. The Braves scored their lone earned run off Wilson in the fourth.

Grover Kelsay Has Field Day

Bud Brewer, aided by extra-base slugging, had the champion Hillbillies on his hip as his Miller teammates copped the second game. Although the Lumbermen filled the bags in the first inning on a hit, walk and error, they failed to score when Grover Kelsay handled three batted balls at third base and cut off one runner at the plate and another at second.

First "blood" came in the second frame after two were away. Brewer doubled across the third sack and scored on Zed Merrill's single off Donovan Kimball's glove at short. Two more runs came in the third—both earned. With one out, Bud N[illegible]gled to right and went to [illegible] on Jack Walton's Texas-le[illegible]gle behind short. Dan Moran grounded to short, but Lawrence Granger dropped Kimballs force-out throw at second, filling the bases. Bill Reeves hit to short and Moran was forced out at second while Nurre scored what proved to be the winning run, and Walton went to third. Chet Simpson hit to short, but Kimball threw wild to first, allowing Walton to score and Reeves to advance to third. Brewer grounded out to retire the side.

Singles by Grover Kelsay and Glen Cox failed to produce a score for the Billies in the fourth after the lineup had been altered.

Katonen Carried From Mat But Retains Coast Crown

By DON MOTTER

The Pacific coast wrestling championship bout between the Titleholder Paavo Katonen and the contender, George Wagner, played to a capacity house at the Pearl Street arena Saturday night. The air was tense as the two men entered the ring, Katonen carrying his belt in a case and handing it to the judges. Wagner displayed a robe that tops everything he has worn to date—black satin, lined with pale blue satin, and for the first time of his career Wagner wore tights.

Strange as it may sound, the two men shook hands before the battle started. There was nothing but clean fighting for the first five minutes. But when Wagner "forgot" and began pulling hair, from there on out it was truly a battle-royal.

Referee Elton Owen cautioned Wagner several times about pulling hair and edging over into the ropes. The caution was wasted because both men slapped, kicked and wrestled like mad, in general. Wagner took the first fall in 19 wild minutes with an Australian grapevine. In the second fall Katonen poured on his leg-stomper and several times it seemed as though Wagner could take no more. But he always got out of it and displayed some lightning-fast foot work. But Paavo Katonen took the second fall in 8 minutes with his famous hangman's deathlock.

Both men were then ready for the "kill," and apparently no holds were barred. In and out of the ropes and over the ropes the matmen moved, with Referee Owen in there pitching with everything he had to keep the bout from ending up in a bloody massacre. Well, it all happened so fast that no one quite knew just what happened. But, it looked like Katonen received a low blow. Anyway, he was unable to get up, in fact he couldn't move, and Referee Owen would not let Wagner touch him, and stopped the fight.

Wagner yelled over and over again to let him have a chance to pin Katonen's shoulders, and thus take the belt. But no soap. Referee Owen finally had to place the Champ on his shoulders and carry him out of the ring. The opinion in general, is that the foul blow was an accident and could not be helped. Nevertehless, Katonen is still the Champion.

The semi-final featured Jack Lipscomb and Ben Sherman, formerly Pacific coast champ for six years. This bout was equally as wild as the main event and produced just as many thrills. Lipscomb took the first fall in 14 minutes with a half Boston crab. Sherman took the second fall in 11 minutes with a body press. The bout started off with a bang, by that we mean plenty of the rough stuff, and it continued all through the bout and up to the 30 minute time limit. Only one fall apiece was secured, so the semi-final match was pronounced a draw.

In the opening bout, Herb Parks and Billy McEuin put on a swell show for the wrestling fans. Parks took the one and only fall in 19 minutes with a leg stomper. And, incidentally, Parks has challenged the winner of the championship bout. He wants a crack at the belt before he returns to Canada.

Brewer Collects Two Doubles

Although Walton doubled with one gone in the fifth, he failed to score when Centerfielder Bill Lane took Reeves' low fly and doubled Walter off second. The Miller's virtually sewed up the contest in the sixth when Simpson punched a single through short to open the inning. He scored on Brewer's second double. Merrill flied out, but Elbert Dixon tripled to push Brewer across. Bill Moye flied out to left, Dixon scoring after the catch for the final run—No. 6.

The Billies never quit. Dutch White tripled in the sixth with one away, but was left stranded. In the seventh, however, Cox opened with a triple and scored on Virg Gross single. Bud Maunney, pinch-hitting, fanned for the first out. Del Hoff sacrificed Gross to second, but Earl Chalfan, another pinch-hitter, grounded to second to end the ball game.

Brewer, in allowing one earned run, struck out eight and issued but one free base.

Johnny Dawson Cops California Golf Title

HOLLYWOOD, June 19.—(U.P.)—Johnny Dawson donned the Southern California amateur golf championship crown again today, repeating his 1942 triumph over ex-public links champ Bruce McCormick with a six-foot putt on the 37th of the scheduled 36-hole finals at Lakeside Country club. Dawson garnered three birdies in the closing nine holes, earning a tie with McCormick who was five up at the end of the 27th hole.

Larry Jansen Pitches No-Hitter In Portland

Texas Prep Sprinter Highlights AAU Meet

NEW YORK, June 19 —(U.P.)— With the eyes of Texas and the rest of the sports world upon him, Charley Parker, streamlined high school kid from San Antonio, Tex., prevented the Amateur Athletic Union outdoor track and field championships over the week-end from being a complete floperoo.

This 17-year-old running sensation lived up to his advance publicity by winning the featured races of the meet, while other big-name performers failed to provide even a single meet record before the sprinkling of fans in the Randall's Island stadium.

Parker won the tourney's "big" race Sunday, hurtling to the tape with a blazing stretch finish that gave him an 11-inch victory in the 200-meter senior run. He had taken the junior 100-meter crown on Saturday.

Clarence "Buddy" Young, stocky negro from the University of Illinois, won the 100.

Elore Harris of Long Branch, N. J., was the only double winner in the senior events, taking the 400-meter run and the 200-meter hurdles.

Eight individuals retained their championships, and the New York A. C. kept its team championship with an over-powering 109 points, against 24 for the New York Pioneer club, its nearest competitor.

Bob Kelley, a wiry negro from Illinois, dethroned Bill Hulse of the New York A. C. in the 800-meter run, and prevented Hulse from scoring a rare double after he had won the 1500-meter race.

Hal Newhouser Posts 10th Win

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press)

Hal Newhouser, of the Detroit Tigers, finally is fulfilling the promise he gave five years ago of becoming the finest lefthander in the American league.

The 23-year-old southpaw Sunday became the first pitcher in the league to win 10 games, helping the Tigers take both games of a doubleheader from the league-leading St. Louis Browns, 7-3 and 7-5.

He joins Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati Reds as the only 10-game winners in the majors.

A home run by Rudy York with one on in the ninth gave the Tigers a clean sweep.

A's Defeat Yanks Twice

The New York Giants took both ends of a twin bill from the Boston Braves, 9-2 and 7-1, to climb into third place in the National league. Phil Weintraub homered in the first game, but had to leave in the third inning because of a strained muscle, Cliff Melton was the winner in the nightcap.

The Philadelphia Athletics downed the New York Yankees twice, 4-0 and 8-6, to drop the world champions into sixth place. Luke Hamlin blanked the Yankees with four hits in the opener, with Frank Hayes hitting his eighth homer to tie Roy Culenbine for the league lead. A six-run first inning enabled the A's to win the second 8-6.

The Chicago White Sox took two close games from the Cleveland Indians, 3-2 in ten innings and 6-5. A home run by Wally Moses in the 10th won the opener for relief pitcher Gordon Maltzberger, his sixth win of the year against one loss. Moses' triple and Leroy Schalk's single in the ninth gave the White Sox the second game.

40,222 Fans Watch Cubs Win

The Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Phillies divided their two games, The Dodgers winning the first 7-3 and the Phillies taking the second 6-2.

The St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates split a doubleheader, Mort Cooper won his sixth game in the opener 12-2, and Fritz Stermueller tamed the Cards 3-1 with three hits in the nightcap. Stan Musial connected for two triples and a double in the opener.

After losing the opener to the Boston Red Sox 9-6, Washington took the nightcap 1-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the first game of a doubleheader before 40,222 fans, the largest crowd of the season at Wrigley field. Harry Gumbert, making his first start for the Reds, was the winner. The second game ended in a 6-6 tie called after 13 innings on account of darkness. Bill Nicholson hit two homers for the Cubs.

Portland Football Team in Pro League

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—The traditional rivalry between Portland and Seattle moves into professional football this fall.

The Rose City entered the pay-for-play gridiron ranks Saturday when Henry J. Sandberg, northwest hockey sportsman, announced purchase of a franchise in the new American professional football league which also includes Seattle, San Francisco, Oakland, San Diego, Hollywood and two Los Angeles entries.

The Portland entry will be operated by local businessmen with Sandberg as president and Bobby Rowe, former owner of the Portland Pacific coast hockey league club, as business manager.

Sandberg said he anticipated "little difficulty" in obtaining the 24 men allowed under contract to each club, although signing of players will not be undertaken until after the league meeting in Los Angeles Thursday.

Neither was there a scarcity of possible coaches, with speculation taking in Glenn "Pop," Warner; Jimmy Phelan, former Washington mentor now with St. Mary's; Buck Shaw of Santa Clara, and Francis Schmidt, ex-Ohio State and Idaho coach.

Luark Scores Oakway Ace

E. W. Luark, former member of the Oakway eight-man golf team who has recently returned to Eugene as a claim agent for the Southern Pacific, came within one stroke of tying the 18-hole record at the Oakway course over the week-end—aided by a hole in one.

Playing in a fivesome with Carl Cunningham, Mrs. George Kinney, Mrs. Vern Culp and Mrs. Luark, the ace golfer holed out his tee shot on the 135-yard sixth hole with a No. 8 iron. The ace gave him a 31 for the nine holes and 64 for the 18, one under the record held jointly by Ford Young and Don Leal.

The Oakway "blind bogey" tournament winner was not decided Monday because of several additional tabulations to be made, but will be announced later, according to George Babcock, Oakway manager.

Oaks Sweep Series Against Portland

(Associated Press)

The San Francisco Seals held a firm three-game lead in the high-pressure Pacific coast league baseball race today, thanks to a doubleheader sweep over the San Diego Padres, 2-1 and 3-2.

The twin win gave the Seals six out of seven games in a series which lifted them from third place to the top as the other first-division three teams lost their series.

The revitalized Oakland Acorns, who won six straight from Portland, tightened the pennant chase.

Oakland shut out Portland Saturday 7-0 and defeated the Beavers twice Sunday, 3-1 and 7-4. Portland dropped into a tie with Hollywood for third after starting the week as league leader.

Los Angeles won the Seattle series, taking the nightcap Sunday 1-0 after dropping the opener 3-2. Seattle won Saturday 5-3.

The tailend Sacramento Solons grabbed three games from Hollywood over the week-end, winning 7-5 and 5-2 Sunday.

This week's schedule, opening Tuesday, again pits the top-half teams against the lower section nines.

Oakland will return to Seattle and Los Angeles to Portland in the first split week of the season. The clubs will play three games in the north and then switch to the south with games scheduled at Oakland and Los Angeles Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Sacramento goes to San Francisco for three days, then the teams switch to Sacramento for four more contests. San Diego will start the week at Hollywood and will entertain the Stars for four days at San Diego.

Byron Nelson Cops Golf Title

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., June 19.—(U.P.)—The unerring iron shots which have made Byron Nelson one of golf's highest paid professionals paid off again today—$2666.66 worth.

For [illegible] Byron boosted his bankroll by [illegible]at much as he won the Red Cross Open at Wykagyl Country Club Sunday and the shot that allowed him to pick up the marbles was the same that gave him the 1939 National Open title.

Nelson, the transplanted Texas from Toledo, O., would seem from his final round of 71 for a 76-hole total of 275 to have won with ease. For Sgt. Vic Ghezzi was four fat blows away when the field retreated to the clubhouse. But once again it was those long irons, firing with the precision of a machine gun, that gave Nelson the big blue chips.

The win boosted Nelson ahead of Sammy Byrd and second only to Jug McSpaden in yearly winnings with a total of $14,341 compared with the "Jug-Haid's" $15,100.

Third behind Ghezzi came Mike Turnesa, with 284, while Jack Patroni of Manchester, Vt., and Gene Sarazen tied at 285. Then came McSpaden with 286; Craig Wood, 287; Herman Barron, 289; Tony Manero and Sam Byrd, 291's; Morrie Gravatt, Williamsport, Pa., Jim Johnson, Detroit, and Willie Goggin, all 292; Henry Ransom, Houston, Tex., Tony Penna, and Bud Lewis, all 293; Joe Turnesa, 294; and Pal Runyan, and Pat Circelli, both of New York, each 295.

That accounted for the money—but most of it went to that Nelson iron shot.

Segura combined with Talbert to win the doubles title, defeating Hubert Marire and Hobart Wrobbel of Detroit, 6-1, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1. Pauline Betz of Los Angeles, who was dethroned in women's singles by Dorothy May Bundy of Santa Monica, Calif., paired with Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., to win the doubles title from Mary Arnold of Los Angeles and Catherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind., 8-6, 6-3.

The driving and hole-in-one contests planned for the Laurelwood golf course Sunday afternoon were postponed until [illegible] Sunday because of unfavorable weather conditions.

GOODYEAR TIRES ARE STILL THE BEST TIRES MADE!

Facing facts, you need tires. Facing facts, we've got them. Not the husky, mile-eating Goodyears we had before the war, but the best tires made today. They're good looking, (just like the pre-war Goodyear DeLuxe) and with good-going over paved roads, at Victory speeds, they'll go a long way. So, bring your certificates to Goodyear and get the most miles for your money under existing conditions.
