

Guard Show, Set At Florence

FLORENCE—A big bond rally show will feature the Fourth anniversary for Florence and all nearby western Lane county communities.

The coast guard unit here will be on the show.

Starting at 1 p. m. Tuesday will be a parade of the coast guard personnel and equipment.

Following that there will be a band and beach cart drill on the dock at Lincoln street on river.

The show by the coast guard and other features lined up. At 4 p. m. there will be a concert by a military band from Camp.

A street dance is planned in the evening with a coast guard orchestra furnishing the music.

A life boat, shot full of holes, other life-saving equipment has drifted in from the sea forming an unusual exhibit during the rally.

Admission is extended to all residents and others in the region over the holiday and to take in the rally and show, announces J. C. Ponsler, heads the bond drive work in the area.

Education Bible School Concluded

ELMIRA—Elmira's daily vacation Bible school closed with a program in the evening. The program was invited. Forty-three students were enrolled, with an average attendance of 31. The program consisted of choruses and story work. The primary class of the juniors presented a review play, both taken from the Acts. A contest for find-sentence passages was held. The winner was the winner of the contest. The winner was the winner of the contest. The winner was the winner of the contest.

Wendling News

WENDLING—Several of the Wendling Boy Scouts have been competing in building bird houses this spring. Jimmy Ryan won the prize for meeting most of the requirements. Those inspecting and judging the houses were Larry Kelly, Seth Byers, and Delmar Pattee.

Johnny Osburn, AS, Farragut, Ida, is on leave, and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mollie Osburn, and other relatives here.

Mrs. Edith Jordan and daughter, Naomi, and Karen, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Smith at Glendale, Calif.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the AFL will be postponed until Monday, July 10. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Blanche Starr as announced previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauer and daughters, Jeanne and Gloria, of Portland, and Mrs. Bond of Eugene were dinner guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Allen. The Bauer family were former residents here.

Junior Miss Pattern

JUNIOR MISS PATTERN—Breasy sunrock that's strict! Pattern 4817 uses the new waistline to give young figure a lovely line. Cute bolero included. Pattern 4817 comes in Junior sizes: 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 17. Size 13, sundress, 21-23 in. Contrasting bolero, $4.95.

SIXTEEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard, Dept. Write plainly SIZE, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

SEVEN CENTS more brings the Anne Adams new, larger pattern book of easy-to-sew Summer styles. Free pattern and right in the book.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail money orders or stamps larger than 50 cents with pattern orders. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Number and Size are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and enclose with pattern. Be sure that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Santa Clara School Reports Election

SANTA CLARA—The Santa Clara school board held an election for one new director and school clerk. M. J. Thompson was elected director for three years, and O. A. Thompson, clerk.

Mrs. Minnie Wheeler is recently for her home in Seattle after visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guthrie, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Chapman and son, Robert, and daughter, Nancy, from Myrtle Creek visited at the home of Mrs. C. A. DuRette, Tuesday.

Clarence Hultgreen, Doris Jessen, and Francine Shores will return home Sunday from the 4-H camp at Fall Creek.

Vacations Listed At Reedsport Firms

REEDSPORT—Summer vacations have been announced by a number of local firms. Those closing for the coming week are the Bernhardt Furniture company, which will be closed from Saturday evening, July 1, to the morning of Monday, July 10; Reedsport Cleaners, who also will be closed from July 1 to July 10; the Rainbow cafe, from July 3 until July 10, during which time repairs will be made; the Frank L. Taylor Hardware company and Umpqua Building Supply Co., from July 2 to 9, both dates inclusive; and the M. & J. market and Umpqua market, both of which will be closed on July 3 and 4. Local mills will also be closed throughout the week while repairs are underway.

Robert Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butler, has arrived in Reedsport for a visit with his family following 18 months service in the South Pacific with the U. S. coast guard.

Other recent servicemen visitors were Fleming Wampler, of the U. S. coast guard, formerly of Gardiner, and now stationed in Seattle, and Sgt. Woodrow Cardwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cardwell, of Reedsport who has returned to duty at Camp Stewart, Georgia.

Sgt. and Mrs. James Barnes (Ruby Barnett) are expected in Gardiner early this week by Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left Savannah, Georgia, Saturday, and plan to visit in Pendleton with Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walsh (Peggy McWillis) announce the birth of a daughter on Tuesday, June 27, at Keizer hospital, North Bend. The baby is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren McWillis of Reedsport. Mr. Walsh is a member of the U. S. coast guard and has been stationed at the Umpqua station for the past year or more.

FROM BLUE RIVER

BLUE RIVER—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Winthrop Sheffers of Portland are vacationing on the upper McKenzie, and doing some fishing. Sheffers is an artist and is spending much of his time painting while here. The Gump galleries of San Francisco has a collection of his work for inspection.

Vernon McClure, left this week for the navy.

Guests at Forbes' Holiday farm are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lundborg and son, Bradford, of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Smith of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodes of Eugene visited old friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schulze have had word that a son was born June 24, to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulze of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Raymond Stone and Mrs. Orval Dyer have returned from a trip to Portland.

Guests at the George Dyer home are Mrs. Dyer's nephew, Melvin Curtis, and Joe Mello of Monterey.

Smith Ely says that good fishing reports continue to come in from fishermen from Blue River to the headwaters of the McKenzie, and also on the South Fork.

Japanese-American Plans To Wed Coed

SEATTLE July 1.—(UP)—Gordon K. Hirabayashi, 24, Japanese-American who lost in the U. S. supreme court his fight against the army evacuation order for Japanese and Japanese-Americans, and currently faces a new federal charge of failing to return a selective service form, obtained a marriage license application form in Spokane yesterday to wed an American girl.

The girl is Miss Esther Schmoes, 20, former University of Washington co-ed and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schmoes of Seattle.

Beaver Boys' State Officers Announced

CORVALLIS, July 1.—(UP)—James Cummings, Parkrose, is governor of Beaver boys state.

Other Oregon boys elected to state positions in the week-long citizenship training course include Phillip Janz, Salem, superintendent of public instruction; Dan Brown, Klamath Falls, and Warren Brown, Klamath Falls, state senators; Stone, Klamath Falls; Bob Wagers, Don Cox, Beldon Owens, Blair McCabe and Sam Barker, all Salem, representatives; Richard Dennis, Salem, supreme court justice.

A man gets four-tenths of an inch shorter every 10 years after 40.

The riflebird gets its name from the whizzing cry it utters.

Sunday Celebration Set At Tahkenitch

REEDSPORT—The Umpqua station and Siltcoos beach patrol station of the U. S. coast guard will hold a pre-Fourth of July celebration and picnic at Lake Tahkenitch resort near Gardiner, on Sunday, July 2. The entertainment will open at 11 a. m. with the playing of the national anthem as the colors are raised. Games and contests will be held for young and old, with swimming races, log rolling, tug of war, horseshoe pitching, beach cart drill, resuscitation, capsize drill, semaphore exhibition, etc., will be demonstrated by the coast guard members. The Umpqua coast guard orchestra and Hill Billy band will provide music for dancing throughout the afternoon and evening. War bonds will also be sold to swell the total for western Douglas county. The public is invited to attend this celebration.

Grange Plans Picnic

July Fourth will be celebrated at the Smith River grange hall by a public picnic which is being sponsored by the grange. A baseball game, swimming, sports and contests of all kinds will follow a basket lunch at noon. An orchestra has been secured to furnish music for dancing in the evening.

Janice Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts, of Smith River, was elected master of the state juvenile grange formed at the recent convention of the state grange held at Grants Pass. Among other honors won by the Smith River juvenile grange was first place for their flower book, and first place for their essay, "Oregon Trails," written by Mary Elizabeth Roberts, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts. Elizabeth also received a substantial cash award for her entry. Mrs. Bert Roberts is matron of Smith River grange and also is Pomona in the Pomona grange.

SCHOOL ELECTS

ELMIRA—Elmira Union High school held its annual election this week. The budget was accepted as posted. Kenneth Horn was elected director for five years. The outgoing director is Wallace Cadby.

Pvt. Ralph Woodward is home on a week's furlough, visiting relatives and friends. He returns to a camp in Texas before being sent overseas.

Word has been received that John Bown is in the infantry, taking his training in an army camp in Texas.

Nellie Mae Kaiser was helping her father, Jeff Martin in the hay when the team ran away. She received a dislocated shoulder and several scratches and bruises.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Tomas K. Bown. The club tackled comforts for Mrs. Ed Riensche. The club is gathering clothing for the Greek Relief. Next meeting is to be with Clara Swift.

RIVER ROAD NOTES

ALAN MARSHALL'S eleventh birthday was held Tuesday afternoon at his home. Refreshments were served to the following friends: Jack Wilhelm, Dorothy Gilkinson, Lloydene Hurt, Bob Bomart, Shirley Sparks, Norma Lee, Jack Martin, Lonavene Marshall, Viola Crenshaw, and the honor guest, Alan Marshall.

Mrs. Adrian Shirley (Catherine Reed) is home on a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McKeed. She has been in Missoula, Mont., where her husband was in training for a pilot in the army air forces.

PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

WOLF CREEK—There was a surprise gathering at the Ben Jeffers home on June 29, the occasion being Mr. Jeffers' birthday. Those attending were Mrs. M. D. Jeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jeffers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marconia Hall and family, James Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jeffers and family, Mrs. Wilson Rogers and daughters of Powers, Edward Jeffers of Lewiston, Idaho and the honor guest and hostess, Mr. Jeffers received many gifts. Refreshments were served.

DEXTER ITEMS

DEXTER—The Dexter Baptist week day Bible school closed with a program and picnic last week. Misses Faye Wilson and Mary Kenney conducted it this year, assisted by Betty Jean Sutton and Rose Parker.

Mrs. Berenice Frigate of Oakland, Calif., has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Berenice Jones. They visited other relatives in Salem.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS—George Foster recently spent several days at the Benton Shrenk home in Albany where he did some work for Mr. Shrenk who purchased the Motel Ablany auto court.

Charles Gierau has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Habinek, in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred Wheeler, of Kennelwick, Wash., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Pete Tonole.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Cottage Grove have rented Mrs. Marion Dewey's house, while Mrs. Dewey is employed for the summer at Olympia, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McNew recently had a long distance telephone call from their daughter, Vivian, in Camp Upton, New York, telling them that she had received a transfer to Fort Lewis, and would be home for two days before going there.

Mrs. Tirzah Jackson, of Gresham, was a recent house guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. M. Brown.

Misses Joanne Premazzi and Shirley LaBlue have left for a visit in California with relatives. They expect to stay with Miss LaBlue's aunt, Mrs. Gussie McMaster, at Live Oak, and to visit also the Louis Premazzi family at Sacramento.

Elmira Grangers Report Meeting

ELMIRA—Elmira grange met last week. The committee reported. The grange insurance report was by Mr. Lusk, which was a report on the amounts paid out for losses in the state for the last year. He has written several insurance plans since the first of the year.

The home economics committee report was by Mrs. Beas Christopher, chairman. She reported meeting recently with Mrs. W. L. Ainsworth. Sewing was done for the hostess. The "mystery box" was started at this time. The next meeting is to be with Mrs. Sills to sew.

Mrs. Myron Blackwell had a written report on various topics of interest from the state grange. She attended the teacher's school and brought back many points of interest. Mr. Blackwell gave a report of doings at the state grange. Of particular interest were reports on various resolutions. He was one of the committee members. He gave a report on the grange and foreign affairs; also helpful suggestions on post-war planning by the granges for our service men.

The lecture hour was a service in honor of boys in arms. Mrs. Beas Christopher read the list of names of the boys whose parents belong to the grange. A song was sung by all.

A surprise number was given by the three graces: Grace Whiting, Flo Male and Beas Christopher. Four cakes were auctioned off to Mr. Ainsworth, netting $28 to go toward the kitchen fund. The supper committee next meeting is to be Mr. and Mrs. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Emery.

Janice Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts, of Smith River, was elected master of the state juvenile grange formed at the recent convention of the state grange held at Grants Pass. Among other honors won by the Smith River juvenile grange was first place for their flower book, and first place for their essay, "Oregon Trails," written by Mary Elizabeth Roberts, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts. Elizabeth also received a substantial cash award for her entry. Mrs. Bert Roberts is matron of Smith River grange and also is Pomona in the Pomona grange.

FROM BLUE RIVER

BLUE RIVER—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Winthrop Sheffers of Portland are vacationing on the upper McKenzie, and doing some fishing. Sheffers is an artist and is spending much of his time painting while here. The Gump galleries of San Francisco has a collection of his work for inspection.

Vernon McClure, left this week for the navy.

Guests at Forbes' Holiday farm are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lundborg and son, Bradford, of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Smith of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodes of Eugene visited old friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schulze have had word that a son was born June 24, to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulze of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Raymond Stone and Mrs. Orval Dyer have returned from a trip to Portland.

Guests at the George Dyer home are Mrs. Dyer's nephew, Melvin Curtis, and Joe Mello of Monterey.

Smith Ely says that good fishing reports continue to come in from fishermen from Blue River to the headwaters of the McKenzie, and also on the South Fork.

SCHOOL ELECTS

ELMIRA—Elmira Union High school held its annual election this week. The budget was accepted as posted. Kenneth Horn was elected director for five years. The outgoing director is Wallace Cadby.

Pvt. Ralph Woodward is home on a week's furlough, visiting relatives and friends. He returns to a camp in Texas before being sent overseas.

Word has been received that John Bown is in the infantry, taking his training in an army camp in Texas.

Nellie Mae Kaiser was helping her father, Jeff Martin in the hay when the team ran away. She received a dislocated shoulder and several scratches and bruises.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Tomas K. Bown. The club tackled comforts for Mrs. Ed Riensche. The club is gathering clothing for the Greek Relief. Next meeting is to be with Clara Swift.

RIVER ROAD NOTES

ALAN MARSHALL'S eleventh birthday was held Tuesday afternoon at his home. Refreshments were served to the following friends: Jack Wilhelm, Dorothy Gilkinson, Lloydene Hurt, Bob Bomart, Shirley Sparks, Norma Lee, Jack Martin, Lonavene Marshall, Viola Crenshaw, and the honor guest, Alan Marshall.

Mrs. Adrian Shirley (Catherine Reed) is home on a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. McKeed. She has been in Missoula, Mont., where her husband was in training for a pilot in the army air forces.

PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

WOLF CREEK—There was a surprise gathering at the Ben Jeffers home on June 29, the occasion being Mr. Jeffers' birthday. Those attending were Mrs. M. D. Jeffers, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jeffers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marconia Hall and family, James Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jeffers and family, Mrs. Wilson Rogers and daughters of Powers, Edward Jeffers of Lewiston, Idaho and the honor guest and hostess, Mr. Jeffers received many gifts. Refreshments were served.

DEXTER ITEMS

DEXTER—The Dexter Baptist week day Bible school closed with a program and picnic last week. Misses Faye Wilson and Mary Kenney conducted it this year, assisted by Betty Jean Sutton and Rose Parker.

Mrs. Berenice Frigate of Oakland, Calif., has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Berenice Jones. They visited other relatives in Salem.

AT THORNTON CORNERS

THORNTON CORNERS—George Foster recently spent several days at the Benton Shrenk home in Albany where he did some work for Mr. Shrenk who purchased the Motel Ablany auto court.

Charles Gierau has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Habinek, in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Fred Wheeler, of Kennelwick, Wash., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Pete Tonole.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Cottage Grove have rented Mrs. Marion Dewey's house, while Mrs. Dewey is employed for the summer at Olympia, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McNew recently had a long distance telephone call from their daughter, Vivian, in Camp Upton, New York, telling them that she had received a transfer to Fort Lewis, and would be home for two days before going there.

Mrs. Tirzah Jackson, of Gresham, was a recent house guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. M. Brown.

Misses Joanne Premazzi and Shirley LaBlue have left for a visit in California with relatives. They expect to stay with Miss LaBlue's aunt, Mrs. Gussie McMaster, at Live Oak, and to visit also the Louis Premazzi family at Sacramento.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

MUST HAVE A ROOM IN THERE UP THOSE STEPS-- BUT WHO ARE THEY?

WHAT ON EARTH IS THAT?

OH, VERY WELL! IT'S USELESS TO CONTINUE THE HOAX! JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE.

OH, VERY WELL! IT'S USELESS TO CONTINUE THE HOAX! JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT THEM EASY!

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT THEM EASY!

HEY! I KNOW WHO THAT GUY IS! I'VE SEEN HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPERS. LOTS O' TIMES!

JUST WALK ALONG CASUALLY, SWEETHEART-- AS IF WE'D BEEN MARRIED FOR YEARS.

OH, JUST A JAM SANDWICH

A JAM SANDWICH?? WHY, I CAN SEE EGG, PICKLE, SAUSAGE, BEANS, BANANA, PICCALILLI, CHEESE AND ONION

THAT'S RIGHT-- ALL JAMMED TOGETHER

AND LEAPIN' LIZARDS! LL-LOOK, SANDY! IT'S SINSIN! HE'S ONE OF 'EM!

YOU RECOGNIZE ME, OF COURSE

MIGUEL DON WAYNE, THE MOVIE STAR!

BUT-- BUT-- ON THE SCREEN--?

RIGHT O' THEM! NICE HAIR!

SWELL! WE'LL ENCOURAGE THIS SORT OF THING. THE NATIVES CAN BE A HELP IN ROUNDING UP JAPS STILL HOLDING OUT IN THIS VICINITY!

EGAD TWIGGS! GAZE AT THESE RELICS-- A BATTERED KNOB FROM A BRASS BED THAT JAKE TRIED TO SELL ME FOR A GOLD NUGGET-- ONE OF HIS DIAMOND RINGS, OF PURE WINDSHIELD GLASS-- HAK-KAFF!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Marquardt have gone to Iowa on business. They plan to be gone 3 weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Marquardt spent several days at the coast this week.

WORK ON WATER SYSTEM

CRESWELL—Work on the city water system at Creswell will be done Saturday and Sunday. Mayor E. A. Green warns that no irrigation should be done on these days, as the auxiliary pump will be the only one in use.

SCOUTS TAKE TRIP

BETHEL—A group of Boy Scouts from Troop 52 went on a camping trip Saturday and Sunday. They went to Hill Creek, four miles from Oakridge. The boys were Jim Smith, Rex Stinchcomb, Jimmie Stinchcomb, Jimmy Barnes, David Dana, Frankie Eastman, Arnold Teleford, Milton Belousac. They were accompanied by scout leaders Laude Barrell, Bill Stidher, Harry Ford, Jim Williams, and Jerry Lambert.