Confucius say: "Ball game not won until final out made!"

Manager Frank Fassett must have poured some of the Chinese sage's wisdom into the thoughts of his Snellstrom Braves at Civic stadium field Sunday afternoon. The Braves went into the final frame against the champion Hills Creek Hillbillies training 7-0, and with only one hit off the right-hand deliveries of Pitcher Bill Elder, but won the game by an 8-7 count in one of the screwiest but most thrilling Cascade league baseball battles of the season.

The Snellstrom triumph came in the nightcap of a doubleheader that featured the opening of the second-half league season and moved the Braves into a first-place deadlock with the Miller Lumbermen, who thumped the Springfield Cardinals 6-3 behind the four-hit pitching of Chet Simpson in the opener.

The twin bill started a busy program for the current week, which includes a doubleheader Tuesday afternoon and a night game Friday prior to another twin bill next Sunday.

Sweiger Gives no Earned Runs

The Giustina Reds, champions of the first half, were idle Sunday, but will take part in the Fourth of July diamond tandem. The Lumbermen, who trailed the Reds by a single game in the first half, gave warning to the favorites that they would again be pennant contenders by beating Springfield ace hurler, Bill Sweiger. The lanky soldier from Camp Adair didn't allow a single earned run, however, as the Lumbermen bunched their hits with Springfield errors in two innings to score the win.

The Lumbermen tallied three runs in the second when Jack Walton led off with a single, went to second on a misplay in the outfield and went to third on a passed ball. A squeeze play failed and Walton was out at the plate. Dan Moran was safe on an error and Bud Brewer walked. Bill Reeves singled to fill the bases. Simpson flied out, Moran scoring after the catch. Zed Merrill was hit by Sweiger to again fill the bases. Elbert Dixon was safe on an error at second while two more runs scored.

Simpson's support wasn't too good, and a walk issued to Freeman Squires and two errors produced a Springfield run in the last of the second.

The other Miller runs came in the fourth, when Brewer was hit by Sweiger, went to second on Reeves' single and was advanced to third with the bags filled after Bill Fulps juggled Merrill's grounder at short. Dixon then advanced all runners, scoring Brewer with a sacrifice bunt. The other two runs came in on Bill Moye's single through short.

Billies Face Mound Veteran

The only earned run of the game came in the last of the fourth when Squires nailed a screaming triple between left and center, and scored on Ned Hale's single to right. He walked, went to second on a passed ball, to third on Warberg's infield out, and scored when Reeves threw wide of first on Hale's grounder to third.

A Springfield threat in the seventh was nipped by a fast double play, keystoned by Moye.

Joe Kralovich, Western International and Mexico National league pitcher before entering the army, hurled for the Snellstrom Braves, and was greeted by two hits in the first inning—that failed to produce a Hills Creek run. After two hitless innings the Billies staged a typical spree that produced six hits, including four triples and five runs. Two more markers came in the fifth when Dutch White, who had already smashed out a single and a three-bagger, doubled with one away. He scored on Glen Cox' single ahead of Dick Wright, who gained the paths on an error.

The Billies were able to collect but one more hit in the final two frames. But with Elder hurling one-hit ball in six frames—a single by Ranny Smith in the second—it didn't appear possible the champs would need more runs.

Starts 8-Run Rally with Homer

Dick Sprick was hit by a pitched ball to open the inning, but was called back by Umpire Charles Christiansen, who ruled he had failed to attempt to avoid the pitch. The Corvallis youth promptly clouted the ball over Centerfielder Dick Wright's head for a homer. Norv Libby walked and went to third on Bill Shear's double between left and center. Smith fanned, but Dick Rodiger singled to score Libby and send Shear to third. Joe Oakes popped to second for the second out. Kralovich hit to short, but Buckingham missed the throw at second on the force play, allowing Shear to score with run No. 3 and put men on first and second. Fassett singled between left and short, scoring Rodiger and sending Kralovich to third. George Fischer singled to left, scoring Kralovich, Fassett stopping at second.

With five runs already across the plate and the tying run on first, Elder retired in favor of Joe Kocer as Sprick came to the platter for the second time in the inning. He singled to left, scoring Fassett and moving Fischer to second. Norv Libby slugged a short fly to center which went through Wright as he attempted to make a fast play on the first bounce.

Bond Basebal Game Tonight

Leading players of the Cascade baseball league will gather at Civic Stadium Monday night to vie in an exhibition game in the interest of Lane county's 5th war loan campaign.

The program will open at 7 o'clock when Lt. Ernest Childers and T-Sgt. Charles "Commando" Kelly make personal appearances and give short talks regarding their experiences in the invasion of Italy—that resulted in their decoration with the congressional medal of honor.

The 50-piece 70th division band from Camp Adair will also be on hand and will play throughout the contest.

Players will be auctioned off to the highest bidders in war bonds—the purchasers designating on which team their players will compete—Lumber or Labor, to be managed by Frank Graham and Bun Kelsay, respectively.

Admission to the game will be: $25 war bond purchase for adults; $1 in war stamps for children 12 years of age and under.

Kovacs Beats Tilden In Benefit, 6-4, 6-4

NEW YORK, July 3. — (U.P.) — Frank Kovacs, clown prince of tennis from Menlo Park, Cal., now a private in the army, defeated Bill Tilden, former world champion, 6-4, 6-4 here Sunday in a Red Cross benefit match.

Tilden, displaying his old time form on his service, thrilled the 6000 fans at Forrest Hills with 15 blistering aces. Tilden, now 51, forced his younger opponent throughout the match despite the fact that Kovacs played almost errorless tennis.

Tilden's superiority in service, however, could not match Kovacs' tremendous power from the baseline nor his greater court covering ability.

Hughson Scores 12th Mound Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press

Cecil "Tex" Hughson, towering Texan twirler of the Boston Red Sox, is traveling at a faster pace than he did in his record-breaking year of 1942 when he won 22 and lost six to lead American league pitchers.

The 6-foot-3 righthanded ace won his 12th victory of the season Sunday, more than any American league hurler, blanking the league-leading St. Louis Browns with six hits to give the Red Sox a 1-0 triumph in the opener of a twin bill. The Red Sox also won the nightcap 3-2 in 11 innings to climb to within a game and a half of first place.

Grimes' Three Errors Costly

Hughson, beaten only three times, has pitched 126 innings and has gone the route 12 times in 15 starts. His 62 strikeouts is a better average than his 113 whiffs which led the loop in '42. A sore arm hampered him last year when he won 12 and lost 15.

The St. Louis Cardinals, leaders in the National league, won two games from Brooklyn to extend the Dodgers' losing streak to six straight. The Cards won the first 2-1 in 14 innings on Johnny Hopp's single with the bases full. The redbirds also took the second 4-2.

A crowd of 35,984 saw the Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees divide their twin bill. The White Sox won the first 7-3, scoring four runs in the 10th, aided by Oscar Grimes' three errors. A wild throw by Catcher Vince Castino in an attempt to double up Tuck Stainback for the third out allowed Bud Metheny to scamper home with the winning run in the ninth of the finale for a 7-6 Yankee victory.

Keltner Hits 'Seven for Eight'

Cleveland won two games from Washington, 4-3 in 10 innings and 6-3. Ken Keltner got seven hits in eight at bat, including a homer. His 10th-inning single scored Lou Boudreau with the winning run in the opener. Steve Gromer won his first major league game in the nightcap.

Johnny Allen pitched a three-hitter for the first Giant shutout of the season, 3-0, as New York and Cincinnati split even. Rookie Casimir Konstanty won his third straight for the Reds in the opener, 4-1.

Detroit and Philadelphia swapped shutouts. The Tigers, behind Dizzy Trout's eight-hit pitching, took the first 8-0 and the Athletics the nightcap 2-0 behind Jesse Flores' four-hit twirling.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies got an even break in their two games, Chicago winning the first 8-1 with Bob Chipman giving up five hits, and the Phillies taking the second 4-2 behind Ken Raffensberger.

Nate Andrews pitched the Boston Braves to a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh in the first game, but the second was halted by Pennsylvania's curfew after eight innings, with the score tied at 5-5.

Parks Upsets Katonen in Non-Title Wrestling Tilt

By DON MOTTER

Followers of the grunt and groan wrestling art were well rewarded Saturday night at the Pearl Street arena where Paavo Katonen met Herb Parks in a non-title match.

Parks was in amazingly good form and displayed wrestling ability that heretofore had not been noticed. He closely resembled a jumping jack. No sooner would he hit the canvas, but he would be on his feet again, plowing right into Katonen. In fact, he was so fast and moved so quickly Katonen became bewildered by the whole thing. However, the coast champ did manage to put his famous hangman's hold on Parks to win the first fall in 15 minutes.

Parks came back in for the second fall and took it in exactly four minutes with a leg stomper. Then the wrestling got plenty rough. Parks kept his tempo at a rapid pace and took the last and winning fall in three minutes with another leg stomper and a jackknife. Needless to say the crowd went wild and cheered loudly as Parks left the ring.

Incidentally, George Wagner made an unscheduled appearance at the beginning of the main event. Dressed in a subdued business suit, he entered the ring and proceeded to challenge all three men for the dirty deal he got last Saturday. Wagner and Katonen exchanged a few blows and Wagner, getting nowhere fast, eventually left the arena.

The semi-final featured the rough-and-tumble Italian villain, Tony Morelli, and Silent Rattan, popular deaf and dumb matman from Oklahoma. Rattan took a rugged beating for the most part of the match, but finally turned the tables and gave Morelli a beating—but hard. For 30 minutes the two men wrestled like mad, but there were no falls, so Referee Eelton Owen declared the match a draw.

Ivan Jones, wrestling instructor at the YMCA in Portland, and Jack Lipscomb, artist supreme in illegitimate forms of skullduggery, were featured in the opening bout. Despite Jones' clean fighting and breaking away, Lipscomb never missed an opportunity to get in or under some eye gouging and plenty of hair pulling and choking. At one point, Jones' neck was bleeding from being constantly choked by Lipscomb. Referee Owen had a tough job on his hands keeping Lipscomb from making the bout a bloody affair.

Lipscomb took the first fall in 17 minutes with a body press. Jones tried vainly to get the second fall, but Lipscomb wasn't of the same opinion, and as no further falls were taken before the 30-minute time limit was up, Lipscomb was declared the winner of the opening bout.

Piluso, Rattan Sign For Tuesday Match

Ernie Piluso and Silent Rattan have been signed by Matchmaker Don Owen for a 45-minute special match on the Fourth of July wrestling show at the Pearl street arena Tuesday night.

The dynamic Portland Italian and the methodic deaf-and-dumb grappler from Oklahoma are expected to give local fans a stellar scientific exhibition — in marked contrast to the rough-and-tumble team match which will feature the holiday show.

Herb Parks, who was so impressive in scoring a victory over Coast Champion Paavo Katonen here last Saturday, will team with Milt Olsen in a tandem tussle against a pair of accomplished villains—Jack Lipscomb and Billy McEuin.

Lipscomb, the "Hoosier Hot Shot," and McEuin, the kidney-punching Texan who still holds the southwest light-heavyweight championship, are rated the most potent team wrestlers in the business.

Reserved seat tickets for the show are now on sale at the Club cigar store ticket agency—and the inevitable capacity crowd is expected for the holiday event.

Beavers Beaten Twice by Oaks

(Associated Press)

The San Francisco Seals clung to a slim half-game lead in the Pacific Coast baseball league today but they face a battle to retain that position this week as they meet the tough Oakland Acorns, who have won their last four series.

The Seals lost the lead Saturday but regained it Sunday with a 9-4 win over the San Diego Padres followed by a 3-all tie, while the Acorns were drubbing Portland 7-1 and 2-1.

The tie game at San Diego resulted when officials called the contest during the eighth inning at the agreed time to permit the Padres to catch a train. The Seals were leading 5-3, but the score reverted to the seventh-inning tally.

Oakland easily won the opener of its doubleheader with the Beavers, but was forced to go 10 innings to win the scheduled seven-inning affair, dropping the Beavers to a sixth-place tie with Los Angeles, three games off the pace.

Seattle also won a double bill with Los Angeles. The Rainiers took the 10-inning opener 4-2 and the nightcap 4-0.

The Sacramento Solons and Hollywood split, the Solons winning the opener 3-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Guy Fletcher while the Stars pulled the nightcap out of the fire with two runs in the seventh frame for a 2-1 win.

In addition to the Seals-Oakland series this week, San Diego will play at Sacramento, Seattle at Portland and Los Angeles at Hollywood. All teams will open Tuesday with doubleheaders.

McSpaden Rallies to Deadlock Hogan In Chicago Golf Tourne

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO, July 3—(AP)—Lieut. Ben Hogan, determined to make a successful comeback in tournament golf after a recess of almost two years, and Jug McSpaden, the leading money winner of the season, met today in an 18-hole playoff for the Chicago Victory National championship.

In one of the most amazing finishes in golf history, McSpaden Sunday overcame a five-stroke deficit on the last nine holes by shooting five birdies to tie Hogan at the end of the regular 72-hole tournament with 273—11 strokes under par.

The winner will draw $3000 war bonds plus a certain percentage of the total gate in addition cash. The loser will take a second prize of $1750 in bonds plus some extra folding money.

Hogan, winner of the 1941 Chicago Open and the 1942 PGA America championship, has the law of averages for him and a troublesome hook against him. But about time he won a playoff, for he has lost three since 1941. However, he has never faced McSpaden in a playoff.

Jug, whose domination of the winter circuit has given him $30,100 in winnings, is regarded as one of the greatest pressure players in the business. Last summer he beat Buck White in a playoff for the Tam O'Shanter title, and last winter he defeated Byron Nelson in a playoff for the Phoenix Open crown.

In third place with 276 was Nelson, followed at 280 by Johnny Revolta and Sam Byrd. Chet Kocsis of Detroit had a six-stroke margin over his nearest rivals for amateur honors by posting a 2

• Through the dawn mists looms a Jap island and the Marines are dressing for battle. On the voyage down, they had relaxed in shorts and skivvies — the "fatigue uniform" used so much that Corps specifications demand the utmost in comfort and long wear.

• Make sure of comfort, fit and wear in your own underwear. Ask for Hanes by name. During the past 43 years, Hanes has specialized in knitting underwear that looks good and feels good on you. Fine workmanship gives you long service and satisfaction — at moderate cost.

• From coast to coast, millions of men prefer this well-known brand. If sometimes your dealer's stock is low, he should have more soon. Hanes production is serving both our fighters in the field and men at home. . . . P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, N. C.
