

CITY NEWS NOTES -

DOING

p. m.—Active club meeting, hotel.

m.—Veterans of Foreign meeting, Knights of Pythias.

Students at the university summer session are planning a picnic Friday evening at 6 o'clock on the quad. Swimming, and other amusements will be held in the gym. Summer session members of the club are urged to attend.

Ann Kirkpatrick who is engaged to be married, was at the hotel to spend the July 4 holiday with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Hall.

Mrs. W. B. Sanders and daughter, Joan, have returned from a vacation trip to California, and are at Santa Cruz and points.

Ann Alnutt, former Eugene high school student and a student in the school of journalism at the university, is in the office of PBX at Earl Carroll's production restaurant in Hollywood.

She has made her home in the past five years, being employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company for years. She was accompanied by Wendell Kaufman (Florine), Mrs. Kaufman is with her husband who is stationed at Corvallis, charging him with larceny. He was locked up in the Lane county jail and taken to Corvallis Thursday by Deputy Sheriff C. M. Lilly of that city.

Howard Conkle of the state tax commission and Marvin Helland of the state board of forestry were here from Salem Thursday and called at the office of County Assessor Stevens, gathering data on certain forest lands. They were on their way to Roseburg.

The Disabled American Veterans will sponsor a carnival circus at the county fairground, Aug. 1 to 5. The county court Thursday made an order granting the organization permission to use the grounds. The proceeds will go to the veterans' relief fund.

I SAW—On the Fourth of July up at McKenzie Bridge camp, two men eating fish they had caught at Fern Ridge dam late the night before. I know because I cooked them.—P. J. J. R. Davidson, business agent for the Eugene International Woodworkers of America (CIO), will attend a meeting of the Columbia River district council to be held at Portland Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Flinn of San Francisco are in Eugene visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tilley. Mrs. Minnie Miller, who has been house guest of the Tilley's for the last two weeks, returned to her home in San Francisco, Wednesday.

R. D. MacLay, assistant forester in the Eugene office of the West Coast lumbermen's association, left Wednesday for the Linn county area where he will spend the rest of the week examining logging operations.

Townsend club No. 1 will hold a semi-modern dance Friday from 9 to 12 p. m. at the Silver Spray hall, 24 Seventh Avenue west, with music furnished by the Silver Spray band. The public is invited to attend.

Dan W. Young, assistant county agent, was at Veneta Thursday to supervise the unloading of a carload of lime for the farmers of that community. A carload of the material, 55 tons, is being unloaded Thursday and Friday for eight farmers. J. B. O'Farrell has charge of the work.

Miss Jean Starker, food preservation assistant in the office of Miss Nellie C. Lyle, county home demonstration agent, was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday and is expected back Friday. On Wednesday, July 12, at 8:30 p. m. she will be at the Franklin grange hall to show to the people of that community a technicolor motion picture, "Canning the Victory Crop," put out by the bureau of human nutrition and home economics of the United States department of agriculture. She will appear at a similar meeting at the Junction City grange hall Friday evening at 8:30 and Hebron grange hall Saturday evening at the same hour.

The sedan and trailer driven by Leonard Ross Mathews, Thurston, Thursday at 6:30 a. m. at Thirtieth and High, collided with the sedan of Sidney Elmer Russell, 2720 Potter, city police report. The impact from the crash was so great, officers said, that the Russell car was turned over and slid clear to the curb on its right side.

Oria Comer Burton, 24, of 1050 Fifth Avenue west, is in the city jail charged with being on streets and alleys "after hours." She was arrested at 3:30 a. m. Thursday in a downtown restaurant.

Arrested Wednesday night by city police and charged with drunkenness were Arthur Frederick LeBerge and Fred H. Sixt. Released Thursday, after being held on the same charge, was Arne Peterson, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Melvin L. Thaxton, route 4, has told city police of the loss of his small navy-cloth purse containing $59.

B. L. Brewer, route 2, reports loss of his dark brown sewed-leather Mexican billfold.

Eugene Heart, Creswell, has been missing from his home since last Thursday. Eugene police have been informed. He is described as being 17, six feet three inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has blue eyes and medium complexion.

A minor fire at 47 Tenth Avenue east Wednesday evening is listed in the city fire department records.

Miss Margie Robinson, injured three weeks ago in an auto accident in Portland, is greatly improved and has returned to Eugene to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Roskamp.
