The Miller men will have the situation well in hand, as far as second half standings in the Cascade league go. The Giustina Reds will charge them next Sunday, when they are scheduled to meet the Miller men. Their equals the Snellstrom Braves stood on the side lines Sunday and caught their breath for the important meeting with Hills Creek Wednesday night. Victory for the Braves Wednesday would again force them up to a tie with the Millers, but a loss—well, who likes to talk about those things? And next Sunday, it will be an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, for somebody has to lose blood when the Lumbermen and Reds get together.

Giustina won the first game of Sunday's doubleheader, waxing the Hills Creek club 6-2, and Manager Glen Younger's team put on a five-run sixth inning spree to turn back a reborn Springfield outfit, 5-3.

Archie Hayes, talented Red southpaw, was in fine fettle as he kept his six hits well divided and sent ten Billies down via the KO route. But the old past master was equally stingy with hit giving, and except in the last two innings, Giustina could never say they were in a hitter's paradise.

Ed Brauner's Reds scored in the second, two times, on a sacrifice and three errors, and the game was without incident until Faubion, of the Giustina outfield, poled out a long waltz for the circuit and chased teammate Carl Stevenson home in front of him. The Reds scored also in the fourth and the sixth, Johnny Dunn, who had his share of the batting cake with a "two for two" day, tripled and came home when Burt Avery squeezed him in.

Hills Creek scored once in the fifth and sixth. Mauney walked and came all the way home on Virg Gross' single and a center-fielder's error. In the sixth, Dell Hoff doubled, and scored on George Roberts' single.

The second contest was by far the classiest and for a while, in fact right up to the last Miller batter, it looked as though the Cards were going to pull an upset. They scored twice in the second, Cliff Ralish singled to center, and went to third on Bill Reeves' overthrow of first that put pitcher Bill Swieger on.

Ed Thenell, after a put out, smartly and nicely doubled his buddies home.

The Lumbermen tied it up in the second and third, one up in each frame. Chet Simpson was safe on an infield hit, went to second and third on a sacrifice and an overthrow and was squeezed home by Albert Dixon. In the second, Bud Nurte singled to center, and went to second on a passed ball, being sent home on Don Moran's single that went through the box.

However, the Cards came right back and scored another in the fourth. Ralish again singled, and went to the keystone sack on an error, coming home on Dale Thomas' hit.

But the Miller nine bunched three hits off four errors and shoved across five runs.

Batting as well as pitching star of the game was Simpson, who had three for three, and whiffed six batters, gave up but six widely scattered hits, and didn't issue a base on balls.

Bill Swieger, Camp Adair soldier, and Springfield twirler, also looked good while singing his swan song. The tall gangly lad gave up seven hits, fanned four and like Simpson gave no free tickets to first. Swieger, along with Mark Lewis, sent Giustina hurler, leave Camp Adair during the week for army duty elsewhere.

Talbert Wins Title In Chicago Tennis

RIVER FOREST, Ill., July 17.—(UP)—Bill Talbert, Indianapolis tennis star, took all three titles in the men's division in a smashing climax to the Chicago open tournament at the river forest tennis club yesterday.

Talbert took the singles with a 6-0, 6-2, 6-0 victory over Norm Bickel, Oak Park, former Big Ten champion, and then paired with Nick Buzolich, six-foot, seven-inch basketball star from Pepperdine college, to down Karl Hodge and Harold Weise, veteran St. Louis pair, in straight sets 6-1, 6-4, 6-3 for the doubles crown.

For his third crown, Talbert, who lost the national clay court, tri-state and western tournament finals to Francisco "Pancho" Segura, Ecuadorian star, teamed with Shirley Fry, Akron, O., to beat Mary Arnold and Buzolich of Los Angeles in straight sets 6-4, 6-2 in mixed doubles.

Miss Arnold won the women's singles title by defeating Dorothy May Bundy, Santa Monica, Calif., 7-5, 9-7.

Segura, who was forced out of the tournament with a torn ligament in his left ankle, received in the western final at Neenah, Wis., appeared yesterday for a one-set exhibition match with Thane Halstead, Wheaton, Ill., which he won 6-0.

Portland Wins Doubleheader

Ad Liska and Roy Helser were too much for the San Francisco Seals yesterday, Liska pitching the Portland Beavers to a 5 to 2 win in the first game of a doubleheader and Helser winning a 2 to 1 eight-inning coast league nightcap.

Helser's shutout pitching string was stopped at 23 innings by the Seals as they gained their line run in the sixth frame. The win gave the Beavers a five to two margin in the series and skidded the Seals into a tie for third place.

Seattle moved up alongside San Francisco with a sweep of its doubleheader with Hollywood, winning the opener 4 to 1, and the afterpiece, 6 to 5, after losing four of the first five games of the week's series.

Los Angeles trimmed Sacramento twice, 3 to 1 and 4 to 3, for five to three edge in the series. It was the first series the Solons have lost in six weeks.

League-leading Oakland also took a twin bill, defeating San Diego, 5 to 0 and 6 to 3, for a six to one series margin.

Elton Owen Wallops Wagner; Morelli, Lipscomb Fight Draw

By DON MOTTER
A jam packed arena was on hand to witness the main event at the Pearl street arena Saturday night, starring Eugene's own Elton Owen and George Wagner.

The fans were wild in their applause for Elton Owen as he entered the ring, and equally as wild with their boos when George Wagner made his entrance in a black velvet robe, lined with blue satin, padded shoulders etc. (this is not a fashion column).

As usually Wagner made a grandstand and scene stealer play when he carefully folded this gem of a robe, caressing all the wrinkles out and in general making a big fool of himself. Elton Owen was in top shape and looked it. Tonight he was going to show Wagner who was the better wrestler and make up for the fouling he received last week when his back was turned.

And he did! Owen closely resembled the 'green hornet' in his lightning tactics and in just 60 seconds Wagner was flat on his back and Elton Owen had the first fall to his credit with a bear hold and reverse swing. The room almost was blown off by the shouting of the fans.

Wagner was so confused, he didn't know what happened and immediately screamed "I've been robbed." But referee Bill Konke assured him he was mistaken and Wagner yelled there would be no mistake in the next fall. Wagner took the second fall in 10 minutes. But, only after pouring on all the meanie tactics he knew and a few more added and thrown in for good measure. Wagner pulled Owen's hair at every opportunity, but not once did Owen pull Wagner's hair, which should be some sort of a record or something.

You can imagine what the last fall was like. Each man knocking himself out, flying leaps, in and out of the ropes, each desperately trying to take the last and winning fall. But Wagner made one flying leap too many, and this time he missed and landed on the ropes face forward. Elton Owen saw his opportunity and took advantage of it and with a body press, Wagner was an easy victim. In 8 minutes Elton Owen took the last and deciding fall. The crowd went wild in their approval of the winner.

The semi-final featured Tony Morelli and Jack Lipscomb. This bout supplied many thrills for the wrestling fans and gave poor referee Bill Konke a beating. Jack Lipscomb never missed a chance of hitting Konke and giving him a very bad time. This looked like it was going to be a bloody bout and perhaps a few broken bones.

No holds were barred and both men took advantage of it. Morelli took the first fall in 9 minutes with a body press. Lipscomb took a choke hold. However there were the second fall in 8 minutes with minute time limit was up and no other falls taken, and the 30 Referee Konke declared the bout a draw.

Paavo Katonen and Bill Konke wrestled in a non-title bout in the evening. Referee Elton Owen officiating. Konke, strangely enough, took the first fall in 1 minute with a head scissors. Katonen took the second fall in 15 minutes with a leg stomper and the last and winning fall in 6 minutes with his famous 'hangman's deathlock'. This bout was good clean wrestling and both boys shook hands when the bout was over, which is most unusual.

Torres, Ortiz and Guerra—whose departure made Washington's already feeble pennant hopes blacker than the darkest night—elected to return to their Cuban homes and subject themselves to army calls there.

A fourth Cuban rookie infielder Pedro Gomez, decided to stick with the club and register in this country. Gomez and Alejandro Carrasco, veteran relief pitcher from Venezuela, are the only Latin-Americans left on the squad. Carrasco wasn't involved in the draft directives.

Several months back, Washington club conversation sounded like an inter-American confab.

"Naturally, I hate to see these boys go," president Clark Griffith, baseball's "old fox," said last night, "but it's an order from a war agency."

St. Louis Browns Maintain Slim Margin By Defeating Indians

By JOE REICHLER
The St. Louis Browns, en route home today for their second eastern road trip, still are perching at the top of the standings, giving every indication they are the team to beat for the American league flag.

They wound up their stay abroad by capturing both games of a double header from the Cleveland Indians, 8-7 and 2-1, before 32,553, with both games going 12 innings. The double win gave the Browns a record of 10 wins and 10 losses on their trip, after having dropped four of their first six games.

The sweep increased the Browns' first place lead over the New York Yankees to two full games. Second Baseman Don Gutteridge featured in both victories. He scored the winning runs in the 12th innings of each game, tallying in the opener on George McQuinn
