These are the characters, with Willoughby, (George Northam), the not-too-condescending butler, and Pearl, (Ladelle Hougلum), a retiring housemaid.

Harried Guests

The Russian guests not only are destitute, having been evicted from their rooms in the city, but have over them the threat of arrest for a worthless check which they gave the landlord; only by financing a play they have written can they hope to escape their difficulties.

It is soon evident that between Nikolai and Natasha there has been more than casual friendship, and Helen's jealousy is aroused.

Enough of the story!—But oh, those delightful, mirth-provoking situations with which the play is filled! The tired Mr. Fields, submitting to Natasha's massage of his neck, wincing and jerking under it, yet striving politely to follow Tonia's flights of fancy; the furious squabble which closes the first scene, as the Russian temperaments clash; Grandmother Field's slightly tipsy state at the evening party for her birthday; the hilarious bedroom scene, where the irrepressable Larry does a drunken strip-tease; Nikolai on his knees before the scornful Natasha; Tonia's distress over her feeling for Fields and his misunderstanding; Olga's staunch defense of her Americanism and independence; the wonderful poison scene—these are bits to remember, but the whole thing is filled with color and enjoyment.

Dorothy Parks and Laura Nidever were directors of the play; Ken Griffith, production manager; Horace Robinson had charge of lighting; Valetta Arthurs and Pat Colerick, of properties; Roger Hougلum and Bruce Nidever, music; Mary Krenk, costumes. Lois Newman was chairman of the box office; Hazel Lyle of ushers, and Lucille Titus of refreshments. Orangeade was served at intermission. The performance will be repeated Friday and Saturday nights.

Tule Lake Jap Police Resign; More Sought

TULE LAKE, Calif., July 21.—(U.P.) — Japanese internees at the Tule Lake segregation center were asked by Project Director Ray R. Best to begin election today of a new police force from among their members after a mass resignation late yesterday of 72 colonial police.

The resignation of the Japanese police, all residents of the camp, left the center without internal protection except for 44 war relocation authority internal security police, and came as a climax to a gradual disintegration of the force since the unsolved murder July 2 of Yaozo Hitomi, general manager of the cooperative enterprises of the center.

The force at one time numbered 115, WRA said. The police said they resigned because they had received threats against their lives.

Meanwhile two U. S. citizens of Japanese descent were arrested at the center for violation of federal sedition and conspiracy laws, and were being held today in Eureka, California, facing charges of aiding residents of the Heart Mountain center, Wyo., in avoiding U. S. military service. They had been transferred last fall from the Heart Mountain center, WRA said.

Governor Of Hawaii Relinquishes Title

HONOLULU, Hawaii, July 21—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson last night relinquished the title of military governor of Hawaii and said his office would be continued under the name of office of internal security.

The change does not end Hawaii's martial law status, now under attack in U. S. courts.

General Richardson said in a statement:

"I believe that the title has served its purpose and I have decided that all necessary security measures under the present modified form of martial law can adequately be taken care of by issuance of directives or orders by virtue of my title of commanding general of the central Pacific area."

(In San Francisco on July 1 the U. S. circuit court of appeals heard charges that the military in Hawaii had without necessity usurped civil law and that rights of citizens were trampled upon, while the government countered with assertions that martial law in the islands was necessary to security and that acts of military courts were legal and valid.)

The king salmon has been known to weigh as much as 100 pounds.

Parents In Jail—Indian Child Goes On Warpath

PORTLAND, July 21—(AP)—A three-year-old Indian boy was back on the Warm Springs reservation today after going on the war path in the city jail.

The leather-lunged youngster whooped and howled his protest at being held in the jail while waiting for his parents who were jailed on drunk charges. Judge John Seabrook sentenced the parents to six months each, suspended on condition they return to the reservation.

An infant sister of the boy spent the day happily in her papoose basket, unmoved by her brother's protests or her parents' troubles.

London-Washington Flown in 18 Hours

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(U.P.)—A four-engined Douglas C-54 army transport plane this week completed the first non-stop flight from London to Washington, covering the 3,800-mile route in exactly 18 hours, the war department revealed today.

The big plane's average speed was a fraction over 211 miles per hour. The pilot, Maj. Henry T. Myers of Tifton, Ga., said he did not try for a record, but took advantage of tail winds wherever possible.

The hop was the longest on record for an army transport and is believed to exceed any flown by a combat plane, possibly excluding the mammoth B-29 Superfortress bomber. Flight records for the B-29s have not been made public but the longest bomber mission of the war is some 2700 miles in the Pacific.

Myers and the same crew blazed a new 3,200-mile air trail from India to Australia last year while carrying a party of senators on a tour of war areas. Capt. Elmer F. Smith, Clearwater, Calif., was copilot.

EARLY RESIDENT DIES

PORTLAND, July 21—(AP)—One of Oregon's earliest native white residents, Mary Ann Farr Rauch, will be buried tomorrow. Born near Oregon City in 1851, she died Tuesday. The Rev. E. A. Smith, a pioneer minister, will officiate at the funeral.

Acute Egg Shortage Felt In Portland

PORTLAND, July 21—(U.P.)—An acute shortage of top quality eggs is evident on the Portland dairy market today with general receipts still slipping.

Most of the butter supplies are being moved to the government.

Egg and butter prices remain unchanged.

CHANNEL WEATHER POOR

LONDON July 21—(U.P.)—A high northeasterly wind, reaching gale force at times, swept the channel early today stirring up a turbulent sea. The barometer dropped sharply along with the temperature, the sky over the strait was blanketed by clouds, and visibility was poor.

Before using dates, even though they are packaged, wash them well in warm water.

New York Markets

NEW YORK, July 21—(UP)—Heavy selling continued on the New York stock exchange today for the second consecutive session and about $500,000,000 was pared from the value of all listed stocks.

Trading was active and volume topped a million shares for the 29th consecutive full session. Selling was prompted by caution growing out of the confusion created by the fall of the Japanese cabinet and yesterday's attempted assassination of Adolf Hitler.

All sections of the list joined the selloff, which got under way in the steels and rails. Late prices in the steel group were down a point or more in Bethlehem, U. S. Steel and Wheeling Steel. Atlantic coastline, Pere Marquette, and Southern Railway preferred were down a point or more in the carriers.

New York City's 900,000 school children and 33,000 teachers are housed in nearly 1,000 buildings.

Pilot Can't Shake His Own Plane's Shadow

SEATTLE, July 21 — (AP) — Lt. E. E. Ogren brought from the Aleutians today the strange story of how he tried to escape an aerial phantom over Paramushiro and found it was only his own plane's eerie shadow.

The 29-year-old Arkansas City, Kans., pilot is a member of the self-styled "Empire Express" raiders, a section of which has returned to the states.

"I was right over the target," he explained in an interview, "when I happened to glance over my shoulder and saw another plane flying formation with me. None of us had encountered any night flyers over Paramushiro before, but I thought the Jap had pulled a surprise on us.

"It certainly looked as if this plane was ready to make a run on me. I tried all sorts of evasive action until I noticed that it was following my every move. Then I realized I was running away from my own shadow."

The shadow was cast against a cloud by the beam of a Japanese searchlight.
