

Improvements At Florence

RECENT—New lasting side-walk has been laid in several of the city within the past few days. The new highway is under the bridge here with a layer of gravel sealed with a layer of oil, making for much smoother riding. The new sidewalk has been laid on the street in front of the Carrick properties of the Carrick property, the Band Box beauty store, the Tanner barber shop, the B. & M. Grill. This is a sidewalk of approximately 100 feet. The session Thursday evening, the state assembly president, Ethel Bailey of Roseburg, an official visit and Sunset and nine new members, the single class to be taken in its history. In addition to Bailey, there also were Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Mrs. J. Wilson, the assembly vice president, and Mrs. Clara Kimball, from Bandon. The attendance of 88 included also a delegation from Mignon lodge, Mapleton number. There were other guests in addition to members of Sunset present. Mrs. Peterson to the president and husband and to the vice president in behalf of Sunset. The candidates taken in at this time were Mesdames Laurene Neva Welby, Stellanah Wood, Luttrell Stonefield, Mrs. Beatrice Gibson, Laughlin, Sara Gudge, and Parsons. Besides the assembly present, visitors and speakers during the day were Mrs. Janet Kyle; Mrs. J. Frederickson, Mapleton; Margaret Howard, member of the local chapter, and others. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Local firemen were called out two times two hours recently, the first being at Mrs. Sara Anderson's and the second being a fire near the city library. Damage resulted from either the latter could have been costly. Incidentally, the only was "enjoying" one of the rare hot, dry days for the area, the usual ocean breeze absent.

Novel—Lucy Herring received a letter addressed recently to her son, Arlo, seaman in the U. S. Navy. The address on the envelope was made up of a map of the city, showing only Portland, Ore., Sluslaw river, and 101 W. A signboard in the lower corner of the letter pointed to the city and a heavy black arrow pointed to the Sluslaw river. The letter was addressed to the upper left-hand corner was "From Mommie's little girl, Sluslaw." All this was in the letter, in pen. The climax was furnished by the map's outlines with black pencil. The clever was the result of a bet wouldn't be delivered. The first class Lois Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of the North Fork, turned to her marine duties for a four-day visit home. In the marine corps women's base at Edenton, North Carolina. On the trip across the water to visit the home folks.

BUT ONE YARD

William Baker, who has spent some time in service in Alaska, is home on furlough. Fred Savage, seaman 1-c, is visiting with relatives and friends here. He has been at Treasure Island, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Troxel have received word that their son, LaVern Troxel, is now stationed at Camp Wolters, Texas; also that their youngest son, Delbert, has just left for Ft. Lewis. Donald Wiltsie is now in naval training at Farragut, Idaho.

VISIT IN REEDSPORT

REEDSPORT—Cpl. Roy J. Kock was a Reedspoor visitor last week from Camp Beale, Calif., en route to a new camp in Oklahoma. Lt. Henry O. Wise, U. S. army, and Mrs. Wise of Eugene were Reedspoor visitors last week at the home of Lt. Wise's mother, Mrs. Dewey Abbott. Lt. Wise has been in the Aleutians for the past 20 months, and has been transferred to Mississippi. PFC Kenneth Wise, U. S. marine corps, younger son of Mrs. Abbott, also was a local visitor recently, missing his brother by 24 hours. Pvt. Wise has been transferred to North Carolina following 30 months of service in the south seas. Staff Sgt. Paul A. Leppanen, U. S. army, has arrived for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uno Leppanen, while recuperating from an operation undergone at an El Paso, Texas, hospital. Lawrence Smith, A. S. U. S. navy, having recently finished his basic training at Camp Farragut, Idaho, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Smith, of Booth.

here, she is reported to have traveled by cargo plane as far as Youngtown, Ohio.

Warren E. (Buck) Vaughan, in Uncle Sam's army, has been home on furlough this week from Fort Lewis.

Scouts Entertain Dads With Supper

WENDLING—The scout master, Jack Dillon, and the Boy Scouts of troop number 77, gave a supper at the park for the scouts' fathers and the troop committee. The supper was cooked on the new fireplace, which was built by the scout master and the scouts. About 30 persons attended.

Considerable repair work and remodeling are being done at the Open Bible Standard church. The roof and the song book racks at the back of the seats are being repaired. The class rooms and the interior of the vestibule are being remodeled.

Mrs. Lola Kelly has been selected as Girl Scout leader, to replace Mrs. Darrell Stolberg, who has been their leader for several months and has now resigned.

Mrs. C. O. Stolberg, Mrs. Hilda Sayles, Mrs. Ollie Dillon, and Mrs. Darrell Stolberg were given a party at the ladies' room at the hall recently in honor of their birthdays. It was given as a surprise at the close of the Red Cross surgical dressings class. Gifts were given to the four honored ladies. Refreshments were served to 19. The hostesses were: Mesdames Amanda Wright, Bessie Sumner, Catherine Annabell, and Mary Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holm and daughter, Shirley, have returned from Vermillion, S. D., where they have been visiting for the past month with Mrs. Holm's mother.

Miss Lillian Redkey of Klamath Falls was a guest recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stolberg.

Two Classes Set To Make Dressings

FALL CREEK—Because of the great need for surgical dressings the Red Cross workers are to have two days here at Fall Creek next week. They are to meet on Wednesday and Friday. There were 25 present this week and 13,000 dressings were folded.

Mrs. Duncan of Camas, Wash., mother of Mrs. Royal Carpenter, is visiting here now. Mrs. Kenneth Wiscarsen is visiting her people at Hillsboro. She was accompanied by her two little sons, Otis and Albert, and her sister and brother of that place who have been visiting here.

Mrs. George Rice has been making an extended visit at Brownsville.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA—Jane Hitechen and baby have gone to Louisiana to spend some time with her husband, Hitechen, who is in training there.

A Jap rifle, taken in New Guinea and sent to Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bell by Julian Miller, is on display at the Frank Freeman store.

Mrs. Fred Wright and son, Dale, made a trip to Portland about Dale's enlistment in the marines. Clifford Johnson spent a few days here on leave after boot training at San Diego. He has returned to San Diego.

The Methodist church has been newly decorated inside and given a new coat of paint inside and out. Fifteen was put on the walls and ceiling. There were several ministers who came and did the work. The ladies of the church furnished their dinners at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson of Springfield and daughter, Mrs. Clita Staggert, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Root were visitors recently at the Nettie Neil home.

William Baker, who has spent some time in service in Alaska, is home on furlough. Fred Savage, seaman 1-c, is visiting with relatives and friends here. He has been at Treasure Island, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Chancy Troxel have received word that their son, LaVern Troxel, is now stationed at Camp Wolters, Texas; also that their youngest son, Delbert, has just left for Ft. Lewis.

Donald Wiltsie is now in naval training at Farragut, Idaho.

REEDSPORT PREPARES FOR RODEO, AUG. 26-27

REEDSPORT—Following a trip to Eugene and Roseburg in connection with the coming rodeo to be presented by the Reedspoor division of the Douglas county mounted police, E. G. Dunn, captain of the group, announces that plans have been made with the Christensen Bros. Rodeo Co., for the appearance here on Aug. 26 and 27, of a number of outstanding riders and ropers. Among them will be Jerry Ambler, of Calgary, Canada; George Nelson, Wamie, Ore.; and Bart Clennan, Bob Christensen, Mel Hale, and Stub Barthlemay, of White Salmon, Wash., bucking horse riders; Ted Perkins, of Arizona; Shorty Rutledge, of New Mexico; Dee Hinton, of Texas; and Joe Talbot, of Walla Walla, Wash., calf ropers. Bulldozers will include Red Allen of Miles City, Mont.; Barney Willis, of New Mexico; Joe Mandes of Visalia, Calif.; and Bill Markley and Harry Christensen, of Eugene. Bareback riders will include Tom Wood of White Salmon; Jack Bobby Wilkinson, of Texas; Jack Sherman of Klamath Falls; and Slim Thompson and Larry Daniels, of Baker, Ore. Elmer Holcomb, said to be the best bullfighter and rodeo clown also will appear with the Christensen company for the rodeo.

Fred Sollars was installed as president of Lumber and Sawmill Workers local 2824, A. F. of L., at a meeting held recently, and other officers for the ensuing year are: M. H. Wrenn, vice-president; H. R. Husen, recording secretary; Elmer Samson, financial secretary; Charles Walls, treasurer; Merle Warren, conductor; Lew Weiss, warden and M. H. Catterlin, trustee.

The past president, Charles Walls, of Local 2824, acted as installing officer when new officers of the Ladies' auxiliary No. 282 of the A. F. of L. were installed.

They are: Mrs. Fred Bates, president; Mrs. Lessie McKay, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Gregory, secretary; Mrs. Medford Fuller, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Sollars, conductress; Mrs. Marlie Levins, warden and Mrs. Elmer Samson, three-year trustee. Welcomed as new members were Mrs. Clarence Hull and Mrs. Elwyn Samson.

A new plumbing shop has been opened in the Anderson building in Reedspoor, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Broyles and son, Robert, Jr. The Broyles, formerly of Dallas, Texas, will operate under the firm name of Broyles & Son.

J. F. McKINLEY

SHEDD—J. F. McKinley, a resident of the Shedd community for many years, died at his home Wednesday night following a lingering illness. Funeral services were in Albany on Saturday.

Surviving are his widow; one son, Lyle McKinley of Shedd; four daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Thompson, Miss LaVerne McKinley, Miss Donna McKinley, and Mrs. Loyd Forrester, of Tangent.

District Rebekah Session Reported

MAPLETON—The 18th annual convention of district No. 28 Rebekahs, met in Mapleton the past week. The meeting opened at 1 p. m. with Mignon lodge No. 105 in charge. After lodge was opened the chairs were surrendered to convention officers, who were seated by Sunset lodge No. 114. Francetta Frederickson was chairman and Velma Leach, vice-chairman; Lillian Wheeler, secretary; and Vesta Mead, treasurer. Meeting adjourned at 5 p. m. At 8 p. m. Mignon No. 105 held a special meeting in honor of the president, Mrs. Bailey. The degree work was put on, conferring the degree to Mrs. Wallens and Mrs. Kohler of Swishome. Mrs. Ethel Bailey of Roseburg, president, and the vice-president, Marian Wilson, gave talks. The convention will be at Reedspoor next year as Gardiner has lost its hall and is uncertain about having one in time for convention.

Lodges represented were: Sunset No. 114; Florence, 17; Three Rivers No. 240; Reedspoor, 8; Riverside No. 200; Gardiner, 1; Roseburg No. 41; 2; Wash.; Bandon, 2; Gateway, 1; Ocean-side, 2; Mignon No. 105, 35.

Driving License Examiner Due

REEDSPORT—Examiners of operators and chauffeurs from the secretary of state's office will be at the Reedspoor city hall on Friday, July 28, from 9 a. m. till 2 p. m. Persons wishing permits or licenses are requested to call as early as possible on that date.

A successful dance was given Friday evening in the American Legion hall under the auspices of the Reedspoor Youth organization, proceeds of which will be used for equipping play lots and for extension work. President of the group is John Diehl, Jr.

The Sluslaw Boosters club has announced Miss Joyce Johnston, of Florence, as a contestant in the rodeo queen contest to be held in Reedspoor in anticipation of the rodeo to be presented by the Reedspoor division of the Douglas county mounted police on August 26 and 27. Others thus far announced are Miss Loma Catterlin, the candidate of the Gardiner Mill company; Miss Peggy Dye, candidate of the Lions club; and Gladys Sornes, candidate of the E. K. Wood Lumber company, of Reedspoor. The young lady having credit for the most entrance ticket sales will be selected queen of the rodeo, and the other contestants will become princesses. Prizes to be awarded the queen and her court will be announced shortly, and the sale of admission tickets will soon get underway.

Red Cross Sewing Work Is Resumed

LORANE—Red Cross sewing will be resumed at the church as there is now a call for more lap robes for hospitals.

A church party was held at the Christian church Thursday evening. These parties are held each two weeks on Thursday night.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Addison, July 15, at Sacred Heart hospital.

Sgt. Burton Kelly has been spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelly. He is stationed in North Carolina.

Marion Dunn, who has been in the merchant marine the past two years, is leaving Sunday for New York, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Herendeen are spending the week at the coast.

Drain News

DRAIN—Mr. and Mrs. I. A. McLean are in Portland this week on a buying trip. Mrs. Herman Peterson and Mrs. Marvin Tevapaugh are looking after the store during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cool have received a cablegram from their son, Harry Cool, Jr., that he had arrived safely, somewhere overseas.

Miss Mape, commercial teacher in Drain high school for the last two years, has resigned. The school board has accepted the resignation.

Mrs. Ruby Thomas and Mrs. C. A. Palo, and children, are home from Ashland where they completed the summer course at the Southern Oregon Teachers college.

Joanne Lyons, Pat Cornett, John Whipple and mother, Mrs. Winnifred Whipple, attended the Youth's Fellowship meeting at Fir Point. Mrs. Whipple acted as dean of women.

Ralph Parr has sold their property in south Drain to Andrew Sovenski, from California.

S. Sgt. Charles Ray Bishop has returned to Camp De Rutter, La., after a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Grace Moorman.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

WALTERVILLE—St. Sgt. Oscar Clement from Austin, Texas, has arrived home on a ten-day furlough and a few days traveling allowance both coming and returning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Clement of Springfield, Rt. 2.

DINNER FOR VISITORS

STAFFORD—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynolds entertained with a dinner at their home recently, honoring their daughter, Ivaldell, and her son of Berkeley, Calif., who are visiting at the Reynolds home.

Be sure your shoes fit well, as cramped toes that are insufficiently exercised will help weaken the metatarsal arch.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail home orders or stamps larger than 3c. Be sure to use that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Size are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Reedspoor Prepares For Rodeo, Aug. 26-27

REEDSPORT—Following a trip to Eugene and Roseburg in connection with the coming rodeo to be presented by the Reedspoor division of the Douglas county mounted police, E. G. Dunn, captain of the group, announces that plans have been made with the Christensen Bros. Rodeo Co., for the appearance here on Aug. 26 and 27, of a number of outstanding riders and ropers. Among them will be Jerry Ambler, of Calgary, Canada; George Nelson, Wamie, Ore.; and Bart Clennan, Bob Christensen, Mel Hale, and Stub Barthlemay, of White Salmon, Wash., bucking horse riders; Ted Perkins, of Arizona; Shorty Rutledge, of New Mexico; Dee Hinton, of Texas; and Joe Talbot, of Walla Walla, Wash., calf ropers. Bulldozers will include Red Allen of Miles City, Mont.; Barney Willis, of New Mexico; Joe Mandes of Visalia, Calif.; and Bill Markley and Harry Christensen, of Eugene. Bareback riders will include Tom Wood of White Salmon; Jack Bobby Wilkinson, of Texas; Jack Sherman of Klamath Falls; and Slim Thompson and Larry Daniels, of Baker, Ore. Elmer Holcomb, said to be the best bullfighter and rodeo clown also will appear with the Christensen company for the rodeo.

Fred Sollars was installed as president of Lumber and Sawmill Workers local 2824, A. F. of L., at a meeting held recently, and other officers for the ensuing year are: M. H. Wrenn, vice-president; H. R. Husen, recording secretary; Elmer Samson, financial secretary; Charles Walls, treasurer; Merle Warren, conductor; Lew Weiss, warden and M. H. Catterlin, trustee.

Driving License Examiner Due

REEDSPORT—Examiners of operators and chauffeurs from the secretary of state's office will be at the Reedspoor city hall on Friday, July 28, from 9 a. m. till 2 p. m. Persons wishing permits or licenses are requested to call as early as possible on that date.

A successful dance was given Friday evening in the American Legion hall under the auspices of the Reedspoor Youth organization, proceeds of which will be used for equipping play lots and for extension work. President of the group is John Diehl, Jr.

The Sluslaw Boosters club has announced Miss Joyce Johnston, of Florence, as a contestant in the rodeo queen contest to be held in Reedspoor in anticipation of the rodeo to be presented by the Reedspoor division of the Douglas county mounted police on August 26 and 27. Others thus far announced are Miss Loma Catterlin, the candidate of the Gardiner Mill company; Miss Peggy Dye, candidate of the Lions club; and Gladys Sornes, candidate of the E. K. Wood Lumber company, of Reedspoor. The young lady having credit for the most entrance ticket sales will be selected queen of the rodeo, and the other contestants will become princesses. Prizes to be awarded the queen and her court will be announced shortly, and the sale of admission tickets will soon get underway.

Red Cross Sewing Work Is Resumed

LORANE—Red Cross sewing will be resumed at the church as there is now a call for more lap robes for hospitals.

A church party was held at the Christian church Thursday evening. These parties are held each two weeks on Thursday night.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Addison, July 15, at Sacred Heart hospital.

Sgt. Burton Kelly has been spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelly. He is stationed in North Carolina.

Marion Dunn, who has been in the merchant marine the past two years, is leaving Sunday for New York, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Herendeen are spending the week at the coast.

Drain News

DRAIN—Mr. and Mrs. I. A. McLean are in Portland this week on a buying trip. Mrs. Herman Peterson and Mrs. Marvin Tevapaugh are looking after the store during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cool have received a cablegram from their son, Harry Cool, Jr., that he had arrived safely, somewhere overseas.

Miss Mape, commercial teacher in Drain high school for the last two years, has resigned. The school board has accepted the resignation.

Mrs. Ruby Thomas and Mrs. C. A. Palo, and children, are home from Ashland where they completed the summer course at the Southern Oregon Teachers college.

Joanne Lyons, Pat Cornett, John Whipple and mother, Mrs. Winnifred Whipple, attended the Youth's Fellowship meeting at Fir Point. Mrs. Whipple acted as dean of women.

Ralph Parr has sold their property in south Drain to Andrew Sovenski, from California.

S. Sgt. Charles Ray Bishop has returned to Camp De Rutter, La., after a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Grace Moorman.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

WALTERVILLE—St. Sgt. Oscar Clement from Austin, Texas, has arrived home on a ten-day furlough and a few days traveling allowance both coming and returning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Clement of Springfield, Rt. 2.

DINNER FOR VISITORS

STAFFORD—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynolds entertained with a dinner at their home recently, honoring their daughter, Ivaldell, and her son of Berkeley, Calif., who are visiting at the Reynolds home.

Be sure your shoes fit well, as cramped toes that are insufficiently exercised will help weaken the metatarsal arch.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail home orders or stamps larger than 3c. Be sure to use that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Size are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Little Orphan Annie

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOF

OUT OUR WAY

DEERHORN ITEMS

DEERHORN—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson were hosts recently at a dinner party in honor of Mr. Johnson's brother, T/S Raymond A. Johnson, who is home on a 28-day furlough which is the first furlough home in 3 years, he having been with the engineers in the Aleutians and a year in Alaska during that time. Invited guests were the honor guest, Raymond, his fiancée, Miss Elinor Ohmen, of Willakenzie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Muriel Johnson, Donald and Dorothy Johnson, Billy and Virginia Johnson all of Route No. 2 Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Everett Wearin and the hosts, all of Deerhorn.

Those attending the Seven Day Advent camp meeting from Deerhorn, at Gladstone, which is an annual event each summer, are Mr. and Mrs. George Conklin and daughters, Sharon and Eunice, Mr. and Mrs. Smetzer and daughter, Betty, Mr. Smetzer's mother, Mrs. Grace Morris, Miss Leota Estes of National City, Calif., who is a

There! The Charge Is Set!

GASOLINE ALLEY

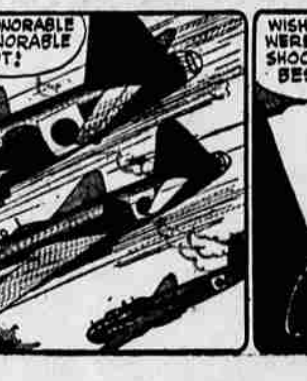

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOF

OUT OUR WAY

DEERHORN ITEMS

DEERHORN—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson were hosts recently at a dinner party in honor of Mr. Johnson's brother, T/S Raymond A. Johnson, who is home on a 28-day furlough which is the first furlough home in 3 years, he having been with the engineers in the Aleutians and a year in Alaska during that time. Invited guests were the honor guest, Raymond, his fiancée, Miss Elinor Ohmen, of Willakenzie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Muriel Johnson, Donald and Dorothy Johnson, Billy and Virginia Johnson all of Route No. 2 Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Everett Wearin and the hosts, all of Deerhorn.

Guest at the Morris home while on her vacation from nursing, Mr. and Mrs. George Tompkins, burned down at Bellfontaine.

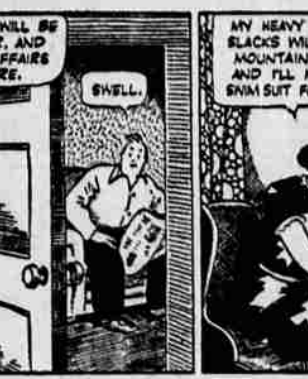

NEWS OF CROW—Mrs. Leonard Bloom's sister from California has been visiting at the Bloom home and has left for Idaho to visit other relatives. Joy Bloom accompanied her on the trip.

Mrs. Paul Bloom has received

That Freak! That Great! Escaped! But He, Or The Brat, Can Not Stop Us Now!

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOF

OUT OUR WAY

DEERHORN ITEMS

DEERHORN—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson were hosts recently at a dinner party in honor of Mr. Johnson's brother, T/S Raymond A. Johnson, who is home on a 28-day furlough which is the first furlough home in 3 years, he having been with the engineers in the Aleutians and a year in Alaska during that time. Invited guests were the honor guest, Raymond, his fiancée, Miss Elinor Ohmen, of Willakenzie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Muriel Johnson, Donald and Dorothy Johnson, Billy and Virginia Johnson all of Route No. 2 Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Everett Wearin and the hosts, all of Deerhorn.

Guest at the Morris home while on her vacation from nursing, Mr. and Mrs. George Tompkins, burned down at Bellfontaine.

NEWS OF CROW—Mrs. Leonard Bloom's sister from California has been visiting at the Bloom home and has left for Idaho to visit other relatives. Joy Bloom accompanied her on the trip.

Mrs. Paul Bloom has received

Tomorrow We Strike! And This Nation Will Be Ours!

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

