17th Farm Platoon At Cottage Grove

Lane county's 17th platoon of school students to work in the bean fields has been organized at Cottage Grove by Donald Kabler, Smith-Hughes instructor in the high school there. The platoon has a membership of 50 students, all over 12 years of age. Leader of the new group is Miss Irene Inlow, teacher in the Cottage Grove schools.

A call is being issued by Kabler for students to form an additional platoon. All applicants must be 12 or older and they can leave their applications at the Cottage Grove community cannery or they may see Kabler personally. Transportation will be furnished. Adults interested in transportation to a field for picking may also contact Kabler.

Five of the Eugene platoons were in the fields adjacent to the city Friday and it is expected that most of the others in the Eugene-Springfield area will be called for duty next week.

Teen-age Dance

The weekly dance for teenagers, sponsored by the Eugene recreation commission, will be held again at Woodrow Wilson junior high school this Saturday night, it is announced by Harry Davis, commission director.

It is planned to alternate these weekly dances between Wilson and Roosevelt junior highs, but repairs on the building at Roosevelt have prevented any scheduling of the dances there so far this summer. A small admission charge is made to pay for records and expenses. The dances are open to all young people of high and junior high age, and are held from 8:30 to 11:30.

Women in Armed Forces Get Benefits of Bill

Women in the uniformed services have all the benefits conferred on veterans of world war II in the "GI bill of rights" recently signed by the President, Lt. Wilma Thomas in charge of the Eugene WAC recruiting office said Thursday, explaining that discharged members of the WAC will come under these important provisions:

1. Tuition, while finishing school or college, up to $500 per year and $50 per month for living expenses if single, and $75 per month if married, if under 25 years of age at time of enlistment or induction.
2. Jobless pay of $20 a week for 52 weeks in the first two years after discharge.
3. Government guarantee up to 50 per cent of 4 per cent interest loans amounting to $2,000 or less for buying or building homes, farms or business properties.
4. Preference in qualification for civil service positions.
5. Maximum of job opportunity in field of gainful employment.

In addition to mustering-out pay already passed by congress, all women of the armed forces are eligible for national service life insurance up to $10,000. The war is eligible for pension, should she be disabled because of her service. She is eligible for all benefits of the veterans administration.

Bean Platoons Get Hurry-up Call to Job

Two hurry-up calls for bean-picking platoons Nos. 11 and 14, to report for work Saturday morning, were issued Friday by Miss Lovina Wilson, farm labor assistant. Mrs. Glyde Tallman is leader of No. 11 and Mrs. Edith Weigant leader of No. 14. The members of these platoons are to report at the Irish Swartz parking lot at Tenth Avenue west and Charnelton street at 7 a. m.

There is an urgent need for 25 beet pullers Saturday, July 29, at the Joe DeRosa and Peter Evonuk farms, it was announced Friday at the farm labor office.

Calls for 75 more regular bean pickers to begin work Monday, July 31, have come in. These pickers will work for Dan Allen, Dale Kingsley, Don Kingsley and L. D. Erickson.

Vandals Damage Portland Church

PORTLAND, July 27.—(AP)—Police today sought vandals who attempted to burn down the Peninsular avenue Evangelical church. Two fires were set in the church, Ivan Saunders, chairman of the board of trustees, told police last night after he discovered the arson attempts. In one room Sunday school papers were piled on a bench and set on fire. A Bible was hacked with a kitchen knife. Oil was poured over the floor and on curtains in another room and the curtains set afire. The flames in both rooms died out before extensive damage occurred. Vandals a month ago desecrated the Bible and sacristy of the Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church, and two teen-age boys later confessed to the damage.
