

Spies-Wechsler Wedding July 22; Reception Given

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Wechsler of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Yvonne Wechsler, to William E. Spies, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Spies. The wedding was a single ceremony the afternoon of July 22.

A reception honoring the couple was given that evening in the parlor at the Osburn hotel. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, the bride's parents, also Robert Kolar and LaRue Reynolds of Portland.

Miss Pauline Sullow had charge of the guest book. During the evening, Mrs. George Getty played piano numbers.

The serving table was arranged with white candles and a large wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Relatives and close friends of the couple attended the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Spies will be at home at Marquam Manor in Portland while Mr. Spies completes his studies at the University of Oregon medical school.

GREEN-WILSON WEDDING REPORTED

Large baskets filled with white gladioluses and pink and blue delphiniums, placed on either side of the fireplace, which was decorated with English laurel and white cathedral candles, formed the background for the wedding, Monday evening, July 24, when Miss Lela Virginia Wilson, younger daughter of Leon F. Wilson of Roseburg, was married to Robert Raymond Green, AOM 1-c, U. S. navy, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Green, also of Roseburg. Dr. Vance H. Webster of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. Laura Hunsaker, 710 Lawrence street, in the presence of close friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. S. H. Wilcox played softly on the piano and accompanied her daughter, Miss Janet Wilcox, who sang "Because." Miss Arles Green, sister of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. The bride party entered the room while the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece ensemble of dusty rose trimmed in matching lace at neck and sleeves. She wore hair ornaments fashioned of white carnations and carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of white gladioluses tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Miss Violet Falk was maid of honor and wore a blue afternoon dress. She carried a round shower bouquet of pink and white sweetpeas and gardenias and wore a coronet of pink sweetpeas in her hair.

Carl B. Perry, RDM 2-c, U. S. navy, Roseburg, was best man. Reception follows.

Following the wedding a reception was held. The table was covered by a white linen cloth and centered by a wedding cake, cut by the bride and groom. The cake was served by Mrs. Kenneth Crow, sister of the bride. Mrs. Roy Bell, Misses Jean Raymond, Marjorie Krebs, Audrey Ames, and Hazel Hanson assisted in serving. Miss Blythe Christensen poured and Mrs. Faye Donoho had charge of the guest book.

Those attending the wedding included: Leon F. Wilson, father of the bride, Mrs. Wilson and two children, Alycine and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Green, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blakely; Miss Arles Green; Mrs. Floyd N. Wilson and daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mr. Franklin Wilson, and Carl B. Perry, all of Roseburg; Mrs. George Crenshaw, Jr., sister of the bridegroom, from North Bend. Eugene guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Campbell; Mrs. Lela Lee and son, Robert; Mrs. Kenneth Crow; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Campbell and daughter, Betty; Mrs. Laura Hunsaker; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bell and son, Arthur; Glenn L.
