

Annual Sale of Group Arranged

Auxiliary to the Disabled American Veterans will handle the annual forget-me-not sale, August 4 and 5, on Eugene streets. This is the first year the women's group has taken charge of selling the little "reminders" flowers which bring in funds for use in rehabilitation of disabled veterans. Need for such funds is growing at rapid rate, it is said, as veterans of the present war return. The funds mainly are used to assist in putting through veterans' cases, to insure just treatment.

Headquarters for the two-day sale will be established on the north balcony of the J. C. Penney company store. The Navy Mothers club will assist the auxiliary in its selling.

REBEKAH EVENT PLANNED WEDNESDAY

Quarterly celebration of all birthdays of members which occurred or will occur during June, July and August will be a part of the social session of the Eugene Rebekahs, Wednesday evening, at the I.O.O.F. hall, following the business session at eight o'clock. This will mark the first night of the contest between opposing teams of the lodge, in which attendance plays a large part. Refreshments will be served by a committee composed of members whose names begin with Z, A and B. Misses Vera and Vivian Anderson are co-chairmen of the committee.

Further appointments to standing committees, made by the new noble grand, Mrs. George Mast, include Mrs. E. H. Bray, Mrs. Marvin Jackson, and Mrs. W. F. Gilstrap, to the east side visiting committee, and Mrs. Genevieve Nettleton as Theta Rho adviser. Miss Ruth Murtha was installed as outside guardian at a recent meeting.

MATTSON-ARMSTRONG WEDDING JULY 22

At a four o'clock ceremony performed in the Church of God on Saturday afternoon, July 22, Miss Dorothy Armstrong was married to Cpl. Verne Mattson of the United States marine corps. The double ring ceremony was read by the bride's father, Herbert Armstrong before the altar flanked with palms and baskets of pink gladioluses, and in the presence of about fifty friends and relatives. Preceding the service Mrs. James Gott, sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning" accompanied by Mrs. Dean Morrow at the piano and by Dwight Armstrong on the violin. Mrs. Morrow played the wedding march from Lohengrin for the processional and Mendelssohn's for the recessional.

The bride wore a white lace gown made with a sweetheart neckline, long full sleeves, tight bodice, full skirt, and a short train. Her finger tip veil was a white net and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink roses and white gladioluses.

Miss Vera Scott was maid of honor and her dress was of pink taffeta, floor length, also made with a sweetheart neckline and short full sleeves. Her bouquet was of white gladioluses.

James Goh was best man and Lloyd Bissell and Kenneth Geiger were ushers.

Mrs. Armstrong, the bride's mother, wore a navy suit, white blouse and navy straw hat. Her corsage was of gardenias and yellow rosebuds.

The bridegroom is the son of Willard T. Mattson of Tacoma, and is on a thirty day furlough from Camp Pendleton. The couple are spending a week at the beach then plan to leave for Oceanside, Calif., to make their home.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Eva Armstrong and uncle Dwight Armstrong of Mulino and Walter Dillon of Oregon City, another uncle.
