Lumbermen Win 4-3 In 10 Innings; Warren Hurls Reds To 2-Hit Win

Virginia Dare Beaten On Squeeze Play

PORTLAND, July 31—The Miller Lumbermen, one of the top teams in the Eugene Cascade Baseball league, advanced into the semi-finals of the 1944 Oregon semi-pro baseball tournament here Sunday night with a thrill-packed 4-3 triumph over the favored Virginia Dare club, No. 2 Portland semi-pro entry.

Manager Glen Younger's Eugene club is scheduled to meet Reliable Shoe of Portland, 21-4 victor over Vanport Studios, in one of Monday night's semi-final clashes. Commercial Iron and McElroy's, both of Portland, are slated to meet in the other Monday game—the winners of the two games meeting Tuesday night for the state pennant won by Camp Adair last season. The Ironmen disposed of the Portland Air Base 10-7 and the Dancers downed the Marine Air Wingers of Corvallis 14-3 in other Sunday night games.

The Miller-Virginia Dare contest, scheduled for seven innings, went to the last of the tenth before a squeeze play gave the upstate club the victory.

Brewer Hurls Five-Hitter

Bud "Cocky" Brewer, former Pacific coast league righthander and a 20-game winner for Salem in the Western International a couple of years ago, gave the star-studded Portland team only five hits while his mates were hammering Hank Reisbick for 12 safeties.

Brewer gave six bases on balls, which accompanied three errors to put the pitcher in some bad holes at various times during the game. After allowing three runs in the opening frame, however, he pitched shutout ball.

Brewer helped himself at the plate, too. In the seventh and last scheduled inning, trailing 3-2, he blasted out a single. With two out, Billy Moye, ace shortstop, connected for a one-bagger to score Brewer with the tying run. The game went two and one-half scoreless innings before the winning run scored.

Simpson's Bunt Wins Game

With none away, Doc Taylor, subbing for Elbert Dixon at first, was safe on the only Portland error of the game. Shaken by the fumble, Reisbick promptly walked Jack Walton and Johnny Dunn to fill the bases. Chet Simpson, who is expected to pitch Monday and who took Bob Dunn's left-field position in the eighth, dumped a perfect bunt down the first-base line to score the winning run.

The Portlanders started off impressively, Totsi opening with a single. J. Peccia walked and Jim Keesey flied out. George walked and A. Peccia fanned. With two away and the bases packed, Brewer hit Hare to force in the first run. Swank followed with a single, scoring the other two runs for the Virginia Dares.

The Lumbermen scored their initial tally in the fourth on consecutive singles by Cliff Baxter and Zed Merrill. The second run came in the fifth when Del Hoff singled, advanced on Dixon's sacrifice bunt, and scored on Moye's single.

Tony Morelli Scores Win Over Lipscomb In Brawl

By DON MOTTER

The "roughhouse classic" of the season, featuring Tony Morelli and Jack Lipscomb in the main event at the Pearl Street Arena Saturday night, brought Eugene wrestling fans to their feet several times amid loud screams, jeers and boos. The two fistic-minded athletes battled toe-to-toe every minute of the bout, even though it was one of the quickest matches of the season.

Lipscomb, the Indiana "hot shot," lost no time in living up to his famous reputation of meanie tactics and floored Morelli in just four minutes. This was accomplished by an airplane spin that even had the fans groggy. Lipscomb whirled Morelli around at least eight times, which should be some sort of a record as Morelli is not especially light.

Referee Bill Konke, pinch-hitting for Elton Owen, took his usual beating from Lipscomb and spent most of his time watching the affair as the two men attempted near murder. Morelli took the second fall in five minutes with his very famous "Morelli Wind-up," which looks much like a pitcher winding up for that first strike.

With one fall apiece, the last fall was plenty wild and wooly—but very brief. In fact it was finished in three minutes, Morelli the winner with a body press. Lipscomb was unhappy about the decision and attacked Konke, and the fans got an added fight for their money. As Konke was on the verge of passing out from a strangle hold by Lipscomb, Morelli took Lipscomb by the hair and threw him completely out of the ring to the great delight of the fans—and reluctantly Lipscomb went to his dressing room.

The semi-final was a non-title bout between Paavo Katonen and the tough Irishman from Oklahoma—Pat O'Dowdy. Katonen, looking most fit and every part the champ, gave O'Dowdy a terrific workout. Katonen, wrestling clean and always breaking clean, was in direct contrast to Irishman O'Dowdy. Pat never missed an opportunity to throw a punch to the kidneys or the mid-section and least of all applying his strangle hold on the champ. Seventeen minutes of thrilling wrestling was exhibited before first fall was taken by O'Dowdy with a half Boston Crab. Katonen really poured it on in the next fall and lost no time in knocking O'Dowdy into near submission and then getting his famous "hangman's deathlock," in about five minutes of fast wrestling. However, there were no other falls taken before the 30-minute time limit was up, so Referee Konke declared the match a draw.

Tex Porter and Billy McEuin opened the show and set the stage for the main event. In fact, the entire program was predominately of the meanie type. And McEuin and Porter are A-1 examples. Porter took the first fall in 12 minutes with an arm bar. McEuin walked away with the second fall in just two minutes with a half inside Boston Crab, resulting from kidney punches to Porter. This had an effect upon Porter, because he knocked the stuffin's out of McEuin in the last fall in six minutes with a pile driver. The winner of the opening event—Tex Porter.

Pauline Betz Wins Seabright Net Title

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 31.—(AP)—Miss Pauline Betz of Los Angeles once more justified her National No. 1 singles position Sunday by winning the Seabright lawn tennis and cricket club's 56th annual invitation tournament over a field of 16 star entries.

Miss Betz, who wears the United States Lawn Tennis Association's crown for the second time, defeated Miss Margaret Osborne, San Francisco, in the final round by 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, the champion's first three-set match of the tourney.

The San Franciscan had her revenge in the doubles finals. She and Miss A. Louise Brough, Beverly Hills, the National doubles champion team, defeated Miss Betz and Doris Hart, Miami, 6-2, 6-3.

Lawmen's Golf Play Goes On

The Lane county law enforcement officers' gold tournament got fairly underway last week, with two of the first flight matches being completed. Wilson defeated Dietz, 1 up and Tuller beat Whitt by the margin of 3 up.

The remainder of the first flight competition must be played off by the end of this week.

The tourney is a handicap affair, with the handicaps being apportioned differently for each pairing. They are determined by assessing the man with the lowest qualifying score of the two with the number of strokes equal to the difference in the two qualifying scores divided by two.

In order to make a complete first round bracket, three men must play two rounds instead of one.

A consolation bracket will also be established, with the winner being awarded third place in the tournament.

Fair Board to Collect $4000 from Dog Races

Shy Huntington, local member of the state racing commission, announced here Saturday that the Lane county fair board could expect some $4000 from the state commission as its "cut" in profits from the dog races now being staged in Portland. The dogs have paid all "obligations" in the first half of its meet, according to John Abbett, commission auditor.

Phillies Get Pitcher

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—(U.P.)—The Philadelphia Phillies announced today that John Ralph Fick, lefthanded pitcher recently discharged from the U. S. coast guard, had joined the club, while Bernie Mussill, righthanded relief hurler, had been released on option to Utica.

The Giustina Reds, behind the two-hit pitching of John Warren, defeated the Springfield Cardinals 11-0 in a single nine-inning Cascade baseball league game at Civic Stadium Sunday.

While the Reds were playing errorless ball and landing on two Card pitchers for 13 hits, the Springfield club gave a poor exhibition afield. Despite six errors, the high-scoring game was played in the fast time of one hour and 39 minutes.

Ed Brauner's Reds are now in an excellent position for an outright league pennant—and a triumph over the dangerous Hills Creek Hillbillies, 1943 league champions, at the Stadium Wednesday night would clinch the crown for the Giustinas. A defeat Wednesday, more than an outside possibility, would send the Reds into a second-half playoff against the winner of next Friday night's schedule finale between the Miller Lumbermen and Snellstrom Braves.

Two Cardinals Reach Second

Warren, the veteran righthander, gave a stellar mound performance. Only 30 batters faced him in the nine innings, and only two advanced as far as second base—Erie Cornett after a walk and infield out in the first inning, and Dale Thomas on a double in the second.

The Giustina pitcher allowed only one free base while striking out eight.

Butch Walls, reserve outfielder who entered the lineup due to the absence of Third-baseman Johnny Dunn and Outfielder Juel Faubion, was the leading hitter with "three for five," including a triple. Allie Cooper, contender for the league batting championship, collected two doubles in four trips. Carl Stevenson, who set a 1944 league record with six putouts in centerfield, and Warren, also garnered two hits each.

The Reds tallied three runs in the first inning off Cliff Westerdahl, young righthander from Long Island. Elvan Pitney singled, went to third on Cooper's double and scored when the pitcher played home on Avery's sacrifice bunt. Cooper scored on Stevenson's infield out and Avery tallied on a bad throw at third.

Cards Make Two Double Plays

Walls' single, a passed ball and two infield balls scored another run in the second—one of Springfield's two double plays cutting the rally short.

A walk, Avery's double and singles by Stevenson and Walls scored two more in the third when Walt Peerson took over the mound duties from Westerdahl. Warren's single, a sacrifice, an error and an infield out scored another in the fourth.

Four hits, including two scratch infield singles, and an error gave the Reds runs Nos. 8 and 9 in the fifth. A twin killing again aided the Cardinals. Two hits and a hit batsman gave the Giustina club its final two runs in the sixth.

It was the final game of the season for the Cardinals who lost their eighth straight second-half contest after upsetting the Reds 5-1 late in June. The Springfield club has been managed by Dale Thomas, on the field, and Jim Primrose on the business side.

San Francisco's Ann Curtis Sets World Swimming Records

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31—(AP)—Comely Ann Curtis, San Francisco's 18-year-old swimming champion, today holds as many records as her years.

The 155-pound mermaid splashed through Fleishhacker pool in the Pacific association AAU championships Sunday to shatter two world and four American records.

Faced at the start by her sister Sue, 17, she bettered the 880-yard and 800-meter records held by R. Hveger of Denmark and the U. S. records for 440, 880 and 1000 yards and 800 meters in the women's free-style.

If her international records are accepted, she will be the first U. S. girl to hold a world swim record in 15 years.

Miss Curtis was clocked at 5 minutes 26.5 seconds for 440 yards to better the 5.30.1 Mary Ryan of Louisville, Ky., set in 1940 at Portland, Ore.

At 880 yards in 11:08.6, Miss Curtis bested the 11:16.1 world record Miss Hveger established in Stockholm in 1937. Her time for that stretch disposed of another world mark—the 800 meters—set in Copenhagen in 1936 by Miss Hveger at 11:26.4.

The San Franciscan's time likewise topped the U. S. 800-meter time of 11:15.6 set by Nancy Merki of Portland, Ore., at Highpoint, N. C., in 1941, and Miss Ryan's 11:26.4 record for the 800-yard long course achieved at Portland in 1940.

She continued on to a new American time of 12:42 for 1000 yards, shattering the 13:23.8 feat by her swimming ideal, Helene Madison of Seattle, at New York City in 1931.

Bucky Walters Stopped Again

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press)

Two weeks ago, after blanking the St. Louis Cardinals for his 15th victory of the Cincinnati Reds' first 77 games, it was an even bet that Bucky Walters would win 30 games this year. Now it appears that he will have a difficult time winning 20.

The Redlegs' ace righthander failed Sunday in his fourth attempt to notch his 16th win as the New York Giants bumped him for 10 hits for his fifth defeat, 8-0, in the first game of a doubleheader.

The Reds rebounded after garnering only five hits off Rube Fischer in the opener to take the nightcap 9-3 and gain a split. Frank McCormick hit a pair of homers, driving in five Redleg runs in the afterpiece.

Browns Hold Biggest Lead

The St. Louis Browns increased their first-place lead over the Boston Red Sox to 4½ games, their biggest lead since the first week of the season, by sweeping a twin bill from the Washington Senators, 2-1 in 10 innings and 7-3.

Don Gutteridge starred in both games, his 10th-inning double ring the two winning runs in the opener, and his three hits playing a big part in winning the second game.

After Rookie Tommy Warren snapped the St. Louis Cardinals nine-game winning streak by pitching the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 10-4 first game victory, the Cards came back to win the nightcap 9-7 in 11 innings. Red Sanders paced the Cards with a three-run homer. Dixie Walker's ninth-inning homer forced the game overtime.

The New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers divided a doubleheader before the day's largest crowd, 47,936 paid admissions, the Yankees winning the opener 10-2 and the Tigers annexing the nightcap 13-7. Hank Borowy won his 13th game, ending the Yankees' five-game Brigg Stadium losing streak, and Hal Newhouser gained his 16th triumph in the finale.

Cubs Near First Division

The Chicago Cubs made it six straight by taking both ends of a twin-bill from the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2 and 11-2 to climb to within a half game of the first division.

The Red Sox lost a full game to the Browns by splitting a twin-bill with the Cleveland Indians, the Red Sox coming from behind to win the opener 5-3 and the Tribe grabbing the finale 3-2, when Manager Lou Boudreau doubled home the winning run in the ninth.

With Alva Javery snapping a six-game losing streak by hurling a two-hitter, the Boston Braves swept a double bill from the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-4 and 2-0. Catcher Stu Hofferth got "four for four" for the Braves in the opener.

Bill Dietrich turned in his 12th victory as the Chicago White Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics halved their two games, the Sox winning the first 6-4 and the Mackmen, behind Jesse Flores' seven-hit pitching, taking the second 3-0.

Seedings Made in National Junior Tennis Tournament

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 31.—(UP)—Robert Falkenburg of Hollywood, and Buddy Behrens of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., have been seeded number one in the national junior and boys' tennis championships, tournament officials announced tonight prior to the opening of the 29th annual tourney at the Kalamazoo college courts.

Falkenburg, stationed at Chanute field, Ill., holds the national junior tennis title. He is the brother of actress Jinx Falkenburg.

Other seeded players in the junior division included, in this order: Bernard Bartzen, San Angelo, Tex.; Herbert Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Ed Ray, Sinton, Tex.; John Shea, Los Angeles; Edward McGarth, Brooklyn; Robert David, Chicago, and Al Watson, Short Hills, N. J.

The week-long tournaments get under way Monday, concluding Saturday.

Bernard Bartzen Cops Net Crown

MILWAUKEE, July 31—(U.P.)—Playing a steady and brilliant net game, Bernard (Tut) Bartzen of San Angelo, Tex., national interscholastic singles king, won the western junior boys' tennis title Saturday with a five set victory over Herbert Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., 4-6, 6-1, 6-4, 4-6, and 6-1.

Maypher Joins All-Star Squad

Bill Maypher, University of Oregon football and basketball player, will compete with the Collegiate All-Stars against the Chicago Bears in the annual benefit grid classic at Dyche Stadium, Chicago, August 30, according to John A. Warren. Maypher's freshman and varsity coach at Oregon.

The 200-pound Spokane, Wash., center, now in charge of the community swimming program at Wallace, Idaho, represented Oregon in the East-West Shrine football game in San Francisco last January 1. He played center for Warren's Oregon Frosh in 1941 and center and blocking quarter for Warren's 1942 varsity. He was a member of the varsity basketball squad last winter. He is expected to enter the pro grid ranks following the All-Star game, although only a junior in "football eligibility" at Oregon.

Oregon was represented in the Chicago classic last fall by Tackle Dick Ashcom and Guard Floyd Rhea.

Portland Beavers, Seattle Split Coast Loop Doubleheader

(Associated Press)

Third-baseman Bill Cox of the Sacramento Solons rapped out six hits off San Diego pitchers Sunday and two of them accounted for runs which gave the Solons both ends of a Coast league doubleheader.

A tenth-inning double by Cox sent Jack Angle home to win the opener 6-5, and tripled Gene Handley home in the sixth inning of the next game for a 1-0 victory.

The Hollywood Stars took possession of third place with another double win over the Oakland Acorns. The Stars had to come from behind three times in the free-hitting opener to come up with a 10-7 win, then settled the nightcap by scoring five times in the first inning for a 5-2 victory.

Seattle and Portland split a couple of shutout games, Seattle taking the opener 2-0, but losing the second game 1-0 in 10 innings. Hal Turpin did a two-hit trick for the Rainiers and Portland's Roy Helser twirled a three-hitter. The loss dropped Seattle to seventh as Portland won 9-2 Saturday night.

San Francisco finished the week one game behind the league-leading Los Angeles Angels after splitting a doubleheader with the Angels. Los Angeles won 9-4, and the Seals the

Bizerte Wins, Jockeys Star At Longacres

SEATTLE, July 31.—(AP)—Bizerte of the Circle V stable captured the Renton Handicap mile by three-quarters of a length from Lavengro yesterday to earn ranking as one of the favorites in next Sunday's Washington Derby, but it was the antics of a pair of jockeys that captured the Longacres customers' eyes over the week-end.

In Sunday's racing, Grant Zufelt was up on four winners. Georgie Koyk stole the show Saturday when his left rein broke and the jockey held his horse in line with one rein and a grasp on the blinkers.
