Miss Mabel Wood of the home-economics department of the University of Oregon, and Miss Gerd Hanson, chairman of the Oregon Federation, are at Marshfield, where they are scheduled for a meeting Monday evening to interview prospective University of Oregon students.

The annual Harlow Tandy clan picnic will be held at Deadman's Ferry Sunday, Aug. 13. Basket dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Charlotte Parr, secretary at the city school's office, has returned from her vacation.

County Treasurer Grace Schiska Monday received from Justice of the Peace J. E. Murphy at Junction City $53.70, which is the amount of fines collected in his court during the month of July.

Mrs. M. E. Calvert, who lives on the Lurane route west of Cottage Grove, was a visitor in Eugene Monday.

A petition has been received in the office of L. C. Moffitt, county school superintendent, calling for an election in the Elmira and Red Oaks school districts on the question of consolidating the two. The boundary board will set a time for the election. The Red Oaks district lies immediately north of the Elmira district.

A 16-year-old boy from Baker, Montana, is in the Lane county jail, awaiting word from his parents. He was picked up on a Southern Pacific freight train in the Eugene yards.

The seal was broken and a boxcar entered by an unknown person at the Pacific Fruit and Produce company Sunday evening, according to city police. The foreman reported to police that this happened several times in as many weeks, and that considerable produce has disappeared. A preliminary checkup shows that one crate of oranges was taken Sunday.
