

New Teacher For Elmira School Hired

ELMIRA — Mrs. Madge Guile has been given a contract for the extra teacher at Elmira grade school. A representative of Red Oak school was present at a meeting with a petition to be signed, asking that the boundary board set a date for voting on the petition to change boundaries.

Mrs. Dial Linn will be at Reva Kayser's to give music lessons Wednesday morning, Aug. 9. Anyone interested in taking lessons may register at that time.

The Jitney supper and play at the grange hall were well attended and $51 were cleared.

Word has been received that Billy Alley, a former graduate of Elmira high school, is a gunner on a tank destroyer somewhere in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Kayser had as guests recently Lt. and Mrs. Henry Wise, and Erma Bryant from Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Bryant, Franklin; Nina Bush, Eugene, and Mrs. Irene Abbott. A dinner was served honoring Lt. Henry Wise, who is leaving for Camp Shelby, Miss. His wife is going to be with him while he is stationed there.

Murell Inman and Frank Deming are combining in the Elmira community.

Shedd Woman Hurt In Unusual Accident

Shedd — Mrs. A. Hawkins narrowly escaped serious injury recently while attempting to drive some hog from the garden with the help of a dog. The dog ran at the pig, frightening them. One became entangled in a wire fence and when pulled loose it ran, entangling Mrs. Hawkins in the wire and cutting her quite badly on one leg. She was reported to be recovering.

A large amount of grain is being hauled in daily to local warehouses. A good crop of spring grain is also expected.

L. N. Starnes took a load of fat lambs to market this week. Pastures this year have been somewhat better than they were last year although they are getting dry now.

Behn picking will start sometime this month at the Hawkins patch north east of town.

FROM BLACHLY

BLACHLY — Mrs. Myrtle Blachly returned home this week from California. Her niece, Betty Smith of Pomona, Calif., came home with her for a visit.

A shower was held this week at the home of Mrs. Lillian Worthington in honor of Mrs. Vance Abbey.

Sergeant C. J. Demmick and wife visited his sister, Mrs. Averill Rust, and family here a few days this week.

Mac Lindsay, seaman 3-c, spent a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lindsay, before returning to his base in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Dylinger and family from Oakland, recently visited relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Syphers and son of Grants Pass visited relatives here recently.

Clinton Walls of the U. S. army visited his mother, Mrs. Olga Syphers, here recently.

Mrs. Bert Van Selus and Mrs. Norman Baker are going to Seattle this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Averill Rust and daughter, Betty, Sgt. C. J. Demmick, and Mrs. Demmick visited at Yachats recently.

AT SHEDD

SHEDD — Donald Margason, who is in the service, has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Margason.

F. J. Starnes has bought the Ruth property east of the highway just south of Shedd and intends to make his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Danner and daughters, Kay and Dale, are home from their summer vacation. They spent a part of the time at the coast and part at Blue River, where they visited Mrs. Danner's sister, Mrs. Brice.

C. J. Shedd, well known retired business man, is seriously ill in the Lebanon hospital.

Two disastrous field fires occurred near Shedd recently. One on the George Willett place destroyed about 360 sacks of grain. The other, which started on the Solomon place and spread to the Lyle Chance place, burned about 30 acres of standing grain.

Mrs. Eugene Danner has completed her summer course at O. S. C. and is visiting relatives.

CLUB MEETS

FOX HOLLOW — Helping Hand club met with Lela Whitmore the past week for an all-day meeting. A quilt was tied for the hostess. Hostess prize was won by Nina McBeth. For entertainment there were phonograph music, poem read by Martha Whittington and a guessing contest. Prize in this contest was won by Olive McBeth. Wynona Simmons was taken in a member of the club. Next meeting is to be at Maggie Jolly's home, Aug. 31.

AT WILLAGILLESPIE

WILLAGILLESPIE — The Willagillespie Girl Scouts who enjoyed a week's outing at Camp Cleavon, are Virginia Simons, Josephine Greco, Shirley, Helen and Betty Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olson of Jefferson visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis. Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Lewis are sisters.

The average amount of electricity in a lightning flash is far less than the amount that can be stored in a single battery.

Road Makes Coast Home Accessible to Cars for First Time

FLORENCE — When two autos visited the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Karnowsky on Duncan Slough recently it was the first time that such vehicles had ever visited the place, although the Karnowskys have been residents there for at least 60 years. The reason for this is that until recently the Karnowsky home place has been accessible only by boat from Cushman, a distance of about seven miles. The Sweet Creek road has been completed through now by the county and the forest service which made possible the appearance of the autos at the Karnowsky place, although this means a round-trip from Florence of some 60 miles, much longer than by the old river route.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Newcomb have returned from Los Angeles and Hollywood, where they had spent the past month visiting at the homes of their daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Stone and Mrs. Harper Goff and their son, Keith. Mr. Newcomb is Western Lane county's road supervisor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hilton are here from Springfield for a visit of several days with old friends. The Hiltons were residents of Florence prior to 1938 when Mr. Hilton conducted one of the local grocery stores, selling out to the Carrick firm.

When the Siuslaw port commission met this week at the office of its secretary, Charles L. Graden, arrangements were made to lease the city dock here for a period of one year to the Callison firm of Eugene for the purpose of packing and shipping forest materials from here for the use of florists. The lease was to take effect as of Aug. 1. All members of the port commission were present at this meeting.

Members of the volunteer Sunday school class of the Evangelical church held their monthly social this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mardock, at which a brief business session featured the election of two new officers to fill vacancies caused by removals from the community. The new officers are Bob Gourley, who was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Alvin Faris, who was elected secretary-treasurer. Games and singing followed the business session and refreshments concluded the evening. Present were Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Waggoner, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gourley and children, Mrs. John Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Day and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Faris and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mardock and children.

A fried chicken dinner at Cleavox lake recently celebrated Francis Eastburn's birthday, with the following in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Le Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Horn and son, Earl (Swede) Eastburn, S-1c, who is here on a 12-day leave from the navy, his fiancée Miss Elina Gibson of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Eastburn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McNeal have returned home from a two months stay in Portland where he was a patient in the Veterans' hospital, undergoing an operation there. He is now reported greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams were here this week and left with their last load of household goods to their new home in Ashland which they purchased the fore part of July. Mr. and Mrs. Williams had resided a few miles north of town for the past nine years, coming from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fairchild of Portland are Florence newcomers and are employed at Hotel Florence, he as chef and she as a waitress.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. (Slim) Walcott and son, who formerly resided here, are visiting old Florence friends and looking for a location on the Siuslaw river. They resided here from 1932 to 1940 while operating a gas station. Currently residents of Milwaukie, he has been serving as sergeant at the Vancouver, Wash., barracks while Mrs. Walcott has been city treasurer of Milwaukie.

Donald Morgan has had a crew of men busy reroofing and painting his home in the eastern part of town. A porch has been re-modeled, new sills laid and quite extensive repairs made.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Faris changed residences this week when they moved into the Geer property near the Walter Brynd home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pellinen and two children have taken up residence in one of the new houses completed recently at Mapleton in the federal housing project there. Pellinen is employed in the Siuslaw Forest Products mill in that town. The family came here several months ago from Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morten and daughter, Beverly Ann of North Bend have moved here, occupying the Isa Bergman residence.

STAFFORD NOTES

STAFFORD — Mrs. Ivadell Smith and son of Berkeley, Calif., have returned home after spending three weeks at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Berry of El Monte, Calif., are visitors at the home of Mrs. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Edgell, and at the home of Mrs. Berry's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edgell of Eugene.

Bean picking is pretty well under way in the valley. About all families in the valley are represented in the bean yard.

Feather-weight balsa wood, imported from Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Guatemala and Ecuador is used for life rafts, mine floats and life preservers.

Session On Surgical Dressings, Tuesday

WENDLING — The Welfare club members and their families will hold a potluck dinner at the hall, Tuesday, Aug. 8, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, chairman of surgical dressings in the Red Cross Lane county chapter, will be a dinner guest. She will instruct the ladies who wish to learn more about folding the Red Cross bandages. More women and girls are urged to come and help each Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon.

Donald Swofford tripped on a chain, while working in the planer shed at the Booth-Kelly plant, and cracked a bone in his foot.

Mrs. Beryl Crow and son, Billy, of Corvallis, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Abell.

E. A. Maycumber of Eugene, has purchased the old Booth-Kelly bakery, and is dismantling it. He plans to move the lumber to his property and use it for building purposes.

Mrs. Jesse Almasie of Greenleaf, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cora Douglas, also visiting her sister, Mrs. Charley Peck.

The Welfare club will meet Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 8, at the home of Mrs. Unas Raines.

The Methodist Ladies Aid work and business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Herb Ryan, Thursday afternoon, Aug. 10, 2:00 o'clock.

At a recent meeting of the officers and teachers of the Methodist church and Sunday school, it was decided to have a contest in the Sunday school. It was also decided to hold the board of education meetings the last Friday of each month. Ralph Quigley was chosen as a new member on the music committee, to replace Mrs. Hattie Peterson who has moved to Eugene.

Sgt. David A. Zinslerling of Camp Atterbury, Indiana, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mackey, Sgt. Zinslerling and Mrs. Mackey are cousins.

Bert Johnson of Portland, and his mother, Mrs. George Johnson of Eugene, visited at the home of several of their friends here recently. They were former Wendling residents.

Trent Items

TRENT — Helping Hand club will meet Wednesday afternoon on the school grounds, and there will be a potluck supper at 6:30 for the families.

Donovan Kimball had his foot badly mashed Thursday and several stitches had to be taken. No bones were broken.

Thurman Williams is here on a leave from the navy.

Stanley Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wheeler, fell from a hay rack in such a way as break both bones in his right arm just above the wrist. A cast was put on his arm.

Mrs. Neva Dahl has sold her place here to a family in Springfield, taking the Springfield property as part payment. Both families are moving to their new homes this week-end.

LEABURG ITEMS

LEABURG — Brian Gillespie, who is in the U. S. army air force, visited with relatives in Leaburg recently. Those enjoying his visit were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fountain, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Mundell. Brian is a nephew of Mr. Fountain and Mr. Gillespie, and grandson of Mrs. Mundell. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vint Gillespie, live in Eugene.

Wayne Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hansen, has returned home after spending part of the summer at Junction City where he was employed.

Several from this vicinity are picking beans at Endicott's bean yard.

Mrs. Guy Mattson and Miss Evelyn Mattson of Coquille have been visiting with Mrs. Mattson's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattson.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Morris and family have returned home after a vacation spent at Newport. They were accompanied by Mrs. Morris' son, Darwin Waterman, who is home on leave from the U. S. navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Rennie of Eugene visited recently with Mrs. Rennie's sister and family, Mrs. Lee Fountain, and her father, J. K. Minney.

AT MARCOLA

MARCOLA — Mrs. F. L. Lund recently received a letter from her son, Kenneth J. Martin (Jimmy Martin), who is now with the army engineers in New Guinea. He says he is well and getting along O. K. under the conditions there. He tells of how their clothes are wet and smell moldy most of the time from the swamps, rain and mud in which they travel and work.

The committee reports that a little more than $51 have been donated for the purchase of the service flag which will be ordered at once.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS

MAPLETON — The July meeting of the Point Terrace Garden club was held at the home of Carrie Fredericksen last week, with Francetta Fredericksen as assistant hostess. Mrs. Lucy Graham led a discussion on fuchsias. The club planned a gift shower for Mrs. Georgia Moriarty, a member who is ill. Fifteen members and four visitors were present. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mary Epperson on Aug. 17.

The air conditioning plant for the Capitol, Senate and House of Representatives at Washington has a daily refrigerating capacity equivalent to the melting of a block of ice 50 feet by 50 feet—or the height of a seven story building.

Navy Man Visits Home on Coast

FLORENCE — Lt. Cmdr. H. H. Koppang arrived Friday forenoon from Oakland, Calif., for a week's visit with old friends here. Mr. Koppang, who is now serving his 44th year in Uncle Sam's navy, first made his home in this community on the North Fork in 1910, where he still has one of the really fine ranches of the community. For the past 18 months he has been inspector of the supply corps for the navy in the 12th district at San Francisco. Mrs. Koppang did not accompany him north on this trip.

Mrs. Marshall Murray and son, Kenneth, have returned to their home here from Alturas, Calif., where they had spent the past six weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Stanley.

Sunset Rebekah lodge honored one of its younger members, Mrs. Margaret Nordahl, by a shower following the regular first of the month lodge meeting Thursday night. More than 40 members and visitors were present. The honor guest's mother and sister, Mrs. George Burbach and Mrs. Virginia Bernhardt, of Mapleton, assisted in unwrapping and distributing the gifts. A large cake, iced in white and lettered in rose "greetings to Margaret" featured the refreshment hour. A visitor of the evening, who gave a talk was Mrs. Wesley Thompson of the Canby Rebekah lodge.

Several six-months committees were appointed and Mrs. Velma Hanson was given thanks for presenting a toy cart to hold the station wagon offering taken later and which is a home project of the assembly president for this year.

Mrs. Harland Scherer of Portland has arrived for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Murray, while awaiting definite information as to whether her husband, who is now stationed in Mississippi, in the army, is to be transferred elsewhere. The Murrays' younger daughter, Miss Bernice, arrived earlier in the week to spend the summer at the parental home, after attending school at Corvallis.

Dan Cooper and Tim Stone represented the Florence Consolidated grade schools board at a recent meeting of the Cushman school board at which time it was decided by the latter board that the first and second grade pupils of the local school should attend there again during the 1944-45 school year because of the lack of room at the local grade school facilities for caring for the combined enrollment of the eighth grades.

At Waldport

WALDPOR — The Waldport Library association has received a gift of several hundred books from the people of Seal Rock. Owing to a change in ownership of the store building there was no place available to carry on the library at Seal Rock.

The war department has sent out notices of a public hearing to be held at the Waldport community hall Aug. 15, at 1 p.m., when arguments in favor of harbor development will be heard. A survey was made in 1914 and during the past 30 years several attempts were made to get favorable action but without success.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rickard and son have returned to Portland after spending some time at the L. J. Rickard home here.

After a stay of several months in California Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hayes and family have returned to Waldport and purchased a home from Dr. W. T. Johnson.

Mrs. Amy Banta, age 79, died last week at the home of her son, Harold, at Baker. She was the widow of Isaac Banta, who served many years as marshal of Waldport.

The postmaster, William Goff, applied to the P. O. department for a new flag. On being informed that none was available Mr. Goff bought a new one himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank King of Portland have bought the J. C. Plankinton cabins at Wakonda beach three miles below Waldport on the coast highway.

The Waldport fire department answered a call from Sea Crest village recently but the coast guard had the fire out before the equipment could make the long run.

Sam Dolan appeared this week before the state fish commission in an effort to get an adequate adjustment of the oyster situation in Lincoln county which has been the object of much legislation during the past few sessions of the state legislature.

Word reached Waldport recently of the death of Mrs. Hattie Phelps, who has been helping take care of her daughter at the St. Vincent hospital at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hall spent several days in Portland this week transacting business connected with the Waldport Public Market. A number of prefabricated houses being transported from Siletz to Gardiner have created considerable interest as they passed through town.

LODGE MEETS

COBURG — Diamond Rebekah lodge No. 89 met in regular session Thursday evening. Catherine Swango, good of the order chairman announced that a sealed bid sale would be held at the next regular meeting. At this time all members are asked to bring some article—jar of fruit or some food to be sold. Proceeds of this sale will be used for improvements in the hall. After lodge a lunch was served to 22 members.

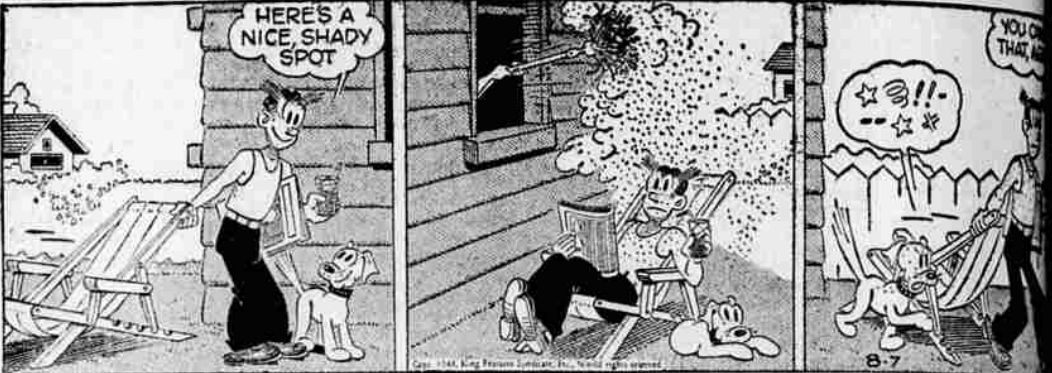

Most nuts are more digestible when roasted than when eaten raw.

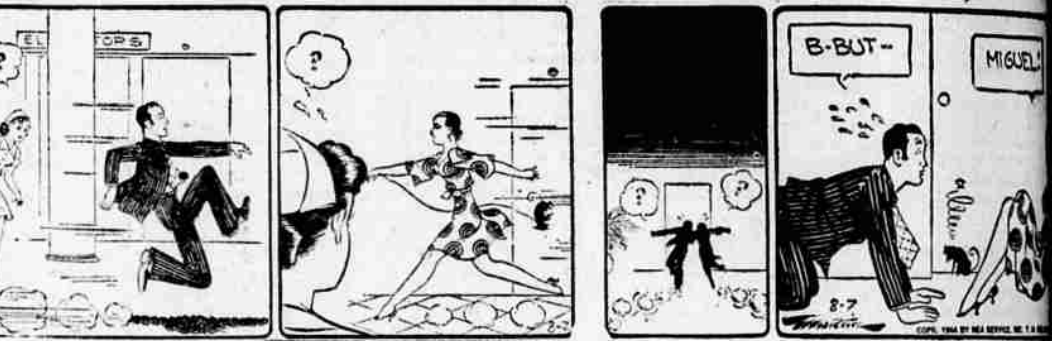

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

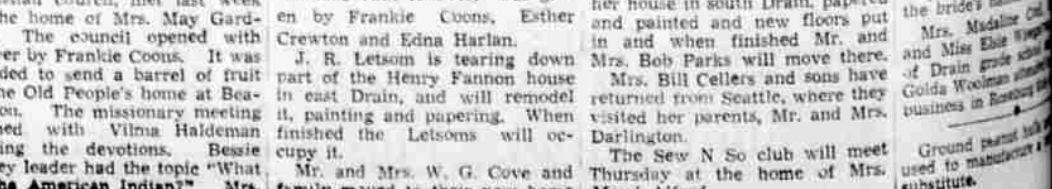

KING SOLOMON'S CATS

ALLEY OOP

HELP!

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Drain Items
DRAIN—The Women's Council and Missionary society of the Christian church, met last week at the home of Mrs. May Gardener. The council opened with prayer by Frankie Coons. It was decided to send a barrel of fruit to the Old People's home at Beaverton. The missionary meeting opened with Vilma Haldeman leading the devotions. Beanie Lakey leader had the topic "What of the American Indian?" Mrs. Powell read an article, "Indian Missions—tomorrow," and a general discussion followed. A play, "Indians Talk It Over," was given by Frankie Coons, Esther Crewton and Edna Harlan. J. R. Letson is tearing down part of the Henry Fannon house in east Drain, and will remodel it, painting and papering. When finished the Letsons will occupy it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs. Beulah Loken is having her house in south Drain, papered and painted and new floors put in and when finished Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks will move there. Mrs. Bill Cellers and sons have returned from Seattle, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darlington.

The Sew N So club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cove and family moved to their new home in east Drain last week and the W. G. Cove home, which they have purchased.

Mrs