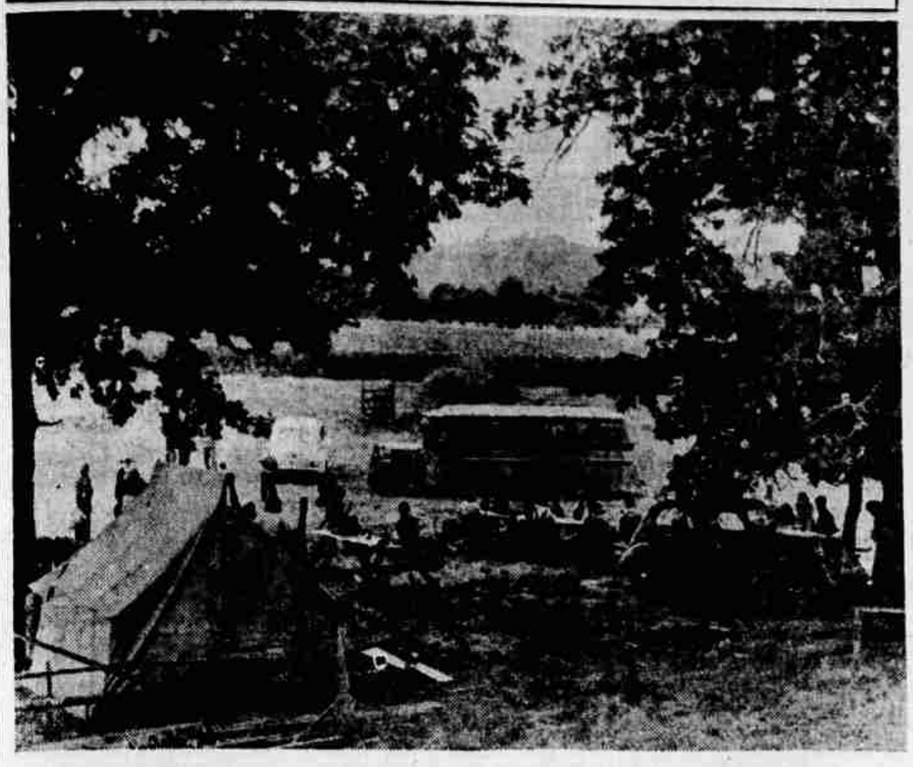
Comfortable Lunching Place Provided Workers



COMFORTABLE LUNCHING PLACE PROVIDED WORKERS—This is not a weekend picnic, but a platoon of young Willamette valley bean pickers who have been provided restful facilities for their noon lunch period. Between 80 and 100 platoons of these youngsters under 18 years old are helping in this year's record bean harvest. Experience during the past three years has shown, according to the state farm labor office, that a well-balanced, adequate lunch, good drinking water, and a comfortable place for rest and refreshments are important factors contributing to the welfare of the children farm workers. These same factors often determine how much the youngsters will pick per day and how many days they will remain on the job.

'Bean Brigades' Get Praise For Work

If bean pickers were given "E" awards, stars, or any other formal recognition, between 2500 and 3000 Willamette valley youngsters who are members of the "bean brigades" in some 80 to 100 organized youth platoons certainly would be making the headlines.

At least that's what Russel M. Adams, assistant state farm labor supervisor in charge of youth activities, believes. He wouldn't leave out the additional thousands of youngsters, nor the thousands of women, who are working independently in harvesting Oregon's record-breaking acreage of snap green beans, either.

Tons and tons of beans are rolling into the canneries from nine Willamette valley counties. Most of them are being picked by children and women.

Platoons, consisting of 30 to 40 youngsters under 18 years of age, are setting some good records this year, Adams reports. Each platoon has an adult leader who not only looks after the welfare of the picker but supervises the picking. When picking begins early in the morning, the lunch hour is often advanced as early as 10:30, or brief mid-morning rest periods are set aside for snacks.

Most farmers provide cool, shady spots where the youngsters can rest while they eat. This, along with adequate supplies of cool drinking water and other comfortable facilities, has paid dividends in boosting picking averages and in keeping more children on the job throughout the season, Adams reports.

Grain Field Fire Burns Walnut Grove

Fire in a threshed field west of the Bonneville substation plant Monday called out the Bethel fire department and an Eastern Lane Fire Patrol association suppression crew.

The fire swept across approximately eight acres and through a walnut orchard before being brought under control. It was reported that most of the damage was to the nut crop.

B. C. Barnes, secretary of the Bethel fire department, stated that the fire probably originated from a combine which was in the field.

Mrs. Eliza Milliorn

Mrs. Eliza L. Milliorn, 68, of 790 Nineteenth Avenue west, died Monday at a local hospital. She was a native Oregonian, born May 3, 1876, at Heppner, as Eliza Wigle. Her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Spaulding, were pioneers who crossed the plains by ox-team in 1836 to settle in the Oregon territory at what is now Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. Milliorn spent her girlhood in the neighborhood of The Dalles, moving later to Prineville, where she was married about 50 years ago to Frank B. Milliorn. From Prineville, the Milliorns moved to Goshen, where they resided for 15 years, coming to Eugene about a year ago.

Surviving Mrs. Milliorn are her husband; one daughter, Mrs. John W. Schroeder of Tillamook, and one brother, John Wigle of Prineville. She was a member of Central Presbyterian church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m., at the Branstetter-Simon mortuary, with interment in the Masonic cemetery.

Twins Born Here to Soldier in Guinea

There'll be a celebration somewhere in New Guinea when Private Ted E. Jones of Eugene receives word of the birth of twin sons, fine husky boys, Monday, Aug. 7, to his wife here. The babies have been named Ronald and Donald. Mrs. Jones is the former Joyce Brown, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Brown, 3141 South Willamette street.

Russia has developed hard and soft wheat which can be grown on either irrigated or non-irrigated land.

Fire Patrol Radio Receiver Is Moved

The radio receiver of the Eastern Lane Fire Patrol association, now located in the building of the Booth Kelly Lumber company, will be moved to a location on the top of Skinner Butte, it was announced Tuesday by Jim Walker, fire warden.

Object of the relocation, according to Fire Warden Walker, is to eliminate local static which interferes with communications between his headquarters and association fire camps and lookouts. A relay system from the butte to the Booth Kelly building will be installed, he said.

W. F. Sanders, radio technician from the state forestry department, is making the change for the association. Walker estimates that the new system will be working in 10 days.

Five Hunters Fined $250 For Spotlighting Deer

Pleading guilty to the charge of hunting deer with a spotlight, five men, three of them living in Eugene and two in Springfield, were fined $50 each by Justice Howard M. Brownell Monday afternoon.

Harold Orville Chappelle, Vadrin Orville Hayes and Wilbur William Nash, all of Eugene, and George Milton Higgins and Norval Eugene Shannon of Springfield, were arrested Sunday night in the hills near the village of Mohawk by Clair Williams, state police officer in charge of game law enforcement. Williams said that each had a spotlight and a rifle and that one of them took a shot at a deer but missed.

Feds Crack Down on Car Drivers Minus Stamps

Motorists, delinquent in purchasing the federal auto tax stamp, were warned Tuesday by Fred L. Huber, Eugene deputy collector in charge of internal revenue, that his staff was apprehending stampless car drivers in this area.

Huber stated that the internal revenue department is not as lenient this year as formerly because it assumes that motorists now are familiar with the tax law.

Penalties are being levied on motorists failing to buy the stamp when their cars are being used on public highways, Huber revealed.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Aug. 8—(AP)—Junior stocks, mainly motors, again held the speculative play in today's market while many veteran leaders found difficulty in attracting buying attention.

Low-priced automotive issues, together with other specialties selling under $10, monopolized the ticker tape from the start as merger talk refused to down and optimism for large-scale post-war car demand operated in high gear. A number of early gains of fractions to a point were reduced or converted into losses near the close. Transfers ran to around 1,100,000 shares.

Recording peaks for 1944 or longer were Hupp Motors, Martin-Parry and Aviation Corp. Ahead the greater part of the session—some failed to maintain their advantage—were Packard, Graham-Paige, General Realty, N. Y. Central, Southern Railway, Bethlehem and Sears Roebuck. Occasional losers were U. S. Steel, Santa Fe, General Electric, General Motors, Westinghouse and Goodrich.

Dow-Jones Averages

Preliminary closing Dow-Jones stock averages were: industrial 144.99, off 0.33; railroad 40.70, off 0.18; utility 24.01, off 0.06; 65 stocks 51.90, off 0.15.

Sales totaled 1,270,810 shares compared with 1,071,960 yesterday.

Curb transactions totaled 274,075 shares against 273,070 in the previous session.

Dow-Jones closing bond averages: 40 bonds 101.74, up 0.01; 10 1st grade rails 109.41, off 0.16; 10 2nd grade rails 79.79, up 0.09; 10 pub util 110.41, up 0.06; 10 indus 107.34, up 0.04.

Shorts Taboo For Women In Texas Town

MONAHANS, Tex.—(AP)—Women in shorts are taboo on the streets of Monahans these days. In case some shapely—or otherwise—female appears in such attire, she is sent home, and quickly.

The city council passed the ordinance as an "emergency" and, strange to relate, the measure has been popular, even with the women.

Mayor Ed Duffey of this town of 4,000 was in favor of it "because so many women call every day and ask us to put a stop to shorts on the street."

July 21 the policeman was ill and the mayor had to act as law enforcement officer.

"Mother nature helped me," he related. "It was cool and cloudy that day and the girls stowed away their shorts and came out in slacks and sweaters."

When a woman appears on the streets in shorts she is told to "go home and get some clothes on." There have been no arrests and no woman has had to be warned more than once, officials said.

"There's a place for women's shorts and bare midriffs maybe but that place isn't on the streets of Monahans," Councilman J. B. Middleton declared in early summer.
