MR. FARMER
 Do you believe in reciprocity?
 Of course you do. Do you know that Stickle is the only man between Portland and Ashland that bought hogs every Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the month of May, June and July, when the big surplus run was on? He took care of the hog grower, never refusing a hog, always paying all he could, always hunting a market for them all the way from Seattle to San Francisco. He would buy one or 100 when the packing houses and butchers were forced to fore they would take your hogs.
 Sometimes weeks ahead and sometimes some of the butchers did not take them when you had reservations made.
 Now the worm has turned. Everyone needs hogs. Now I ask you one fair question: "Who should the farmer sell his hogs to?"
 The man that takes care of him, the man that takes them from hand to mouth regardless of the price.
 On your way to town with hogs think it over. Don't let anyone tell you they are paying more for hogs than Stickle.

F. H. STICKLEY
