Outdoor cooking with each unit having an opportunity to cook breakfast, lunch and supper out, was one of the popular camp activities.
Campfires were held each evening in the many different inviting spots of the camp site. The closing campfire featured Viking campers, the oldest girls, serenading from a floating barge out in the lake. All campfire and dramatics were under the direction of Miss Susan Huffaker.
Camp Clearwox was officially inspected and approved during the season by Miss Ruth Stephenson of the national Girl Scout staff, Mrs. Leon Lassus, of Salem for the regional Girl Scout committee, and Mrs. Charles D. Byrne of Eugene an interested volunteer inspector.
