The Stars scored once in the fourth when Walton doubled and scored on Smith's hit. When the fifth inning was over the Stars were just one tally behind. Simpson walked to open the inning, and went down on Smith's second hit, scoring on George Fischer's single. Brewer singled to send in Smith, and Fischer and Brewer scored on Dutch White's hit.

Then in the sixth, thanks to Smith's beautiful sacrifice bunt, they tied it up. Simpson tripled again, and Ranny laid down a most beautiful bunt, for a perfect squeeze.

However, the Reds went one up on the Stars when they tallied in the seventh. Caviness blooped a double to right and came home on Hayes' single.

Champ Reds Deadlock Count

The last of the eighth saw the Stars surpass the Reds, when they pushed across two runs. Moye singled and stole to second, scoring on Walton's hit to left. Simpson sent Walton to third with his single. Smith, after a bunt failed, hit to Dunn who overthrew to Catcher Taylor and Walton scored handily after being caught in a hot box.

The Reds again tied it up in the ninth. Robertson singled and went to third on Caviness' single. Taylor then hit to left to score him. (About this time everyone was going nuts with excitement, including yours truly).

Brewer flied out to open the do-or-die bottom half of the ninth for the Stars. But Hoff was safe when King fumbled his high fly, and he went to third. White singled, but all runners were kept on base. Moye then walked, and the stage was set for something big to happen — Mr. Walton through.

Portland Bevos Win Two From Rainiers

(Associated Press)

Five shutout games were pitched Sunday as the eight members of the Pacific coast league exerted pressure to remain in the running during the next four, and final, weeks of play.

A double blanking was recorded as first-place Los Angeles and Oakland split a double bill. The Angels won the opener 5-0 behind the stingy three-hit hurling of Red Adams. Manny Salvo pitched one-hit ball as the Acorns took the nightcap 1-0.

Portland, 7½ games behind the leader and in third spot, defeated Seattle twice, 4-3 and 4-0. The winning pitchers were Roy Helser in the opener and Marino Pieretti in the colsing shutout.

Ray Harrell was credited with a 3-0 four-hit victory over the San Francisco Seals in the second game of two with second-place Hollywood. The Stars won the opener 3-1 as Pinchhitter Jil Hill doubled in the ninth to clean the loaded bags.

San Diego defeated Sacramento 6-2 and 1-0. The second game result was to the credit of Frank Dasso, who scored the Padres' second-inning run and pitched scattered seven-hit ball.

Portland put on the best series record of the week, winning five of seven games with Seattle.

Hamilton Beats Nelson In PGA

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 21.—(U.P.)—Bob Hamilton, the "Hooster Hot-Shot" from Evansville, Ind., held golfdom's most coveted crown today after the biggest upset in the 26-year history of the Professional Golfing association's championships had transformed him from long-shot chump to PGA champ.

A 10-1 underdog in the betting, Hamilton, who nearly missed entering the tourney because of travel restrictions, defeated Veteran Byron Nelson of Toledo, Ohio, one-up Sunday before a gallery of nearly 7000 which followed the match over tricky Manito course. Hamilton climaxed the play on the 36th and final hole to take first prize money of $3500. Nelson, one down to the surprising 28-year-old Hamilton, fired a beautiful birdie three in a desperate effort to send the match into extra holes. But Hamilton, showing championship mettle, matched Nelson's birdie to retain his slim advantage and gain the championship.

Heart-Breaker for Nelson

The defeat was a heart-breaking one for Nelson, a top-flight star of the past decade and a PGA finalist in 1939, '40 and '41, and winner only once, in 1940.

The result of the final round was typical of the tourney, which saw upsets become frequent with such name stars as Harold "Jug" McSpaden, golf's top-money winner this year; Sammy Byrd, former New York Yankee baseball player and top-notch links competitor; Ed Dudley, PGA president, Craig Wood, Tony Manero, Jimmy Hines and others fall by the wayside to comparative unknowns.

Hamilton, who first planned to fly to the tournament, but when reservations couldn't be arranged almost decided to skip the event, advanced to the finals with a one-up victory over George Schneiter of Salt Lake City, Utah. Nelson gained the final round with a lopsided 8-and-7 triumph over Charles Congdon of Tacoma, Wn.

Match Close Throughout

The finalists finished the morning round all square, each posting cards of 36-34—70, two under par. But Hamilton went ahead on the first hole of the afternoon round and was never headed. After winning the 19th, Hamilton halved the next three in par, but went two-up on the 23d when his six-foot putt dropped for a birdie. Nelson cut the margin on the 555-yard 26th with a birdie, but Hamilton regained his lead on the 29th when Nelson missed a four-footer.

Nelson birdied the 428-yard 30th to cut the lead again, and squared the match on the 515-yard 33d when he hit the green on his second and got down in two putts.

The Hoosier regained his lead on the 205-yard par three 34th, where he sank a tough, uphill putt for a birdie deuce. They halved the 35th, and when Nelson's birdie wasn't good enough on the final hole, that was the match.

Defending Champion Sammy Snead, who won in 1942 (the tournament was not held last year) was unable to leave a naval hospital to defend his title.

Higbe Knocked Out, Mungo Loses in Meet

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 21.—(U.P.) Camp Livingston, La., downed Lowry Field 3-2 in the National semi-pro baseball tournament Sunday after the Colorado soldiers had knocked Kirby Higbe, formerly of the Brooklyn Dodgers, from the box.

Higby got credit for a victory, but was batted out in the eighth on two singles and a triple. Ed Albosta, once of the Pittsburgh Pirates, came in to quell the riot and give the Louisiana team a ticket into the fourth round.

Sherman Field of Leavenworth, Kan., turned in a 2-1 victory over Camp Atterbury, Ind., in the second game. Atterbury used Van Lingle Mungo, noted National league strikeout ace, on the mound.

Portland Softball Teams Show Class

SEATTLE, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Portland softball teams were well on their way toward monopolizing both regional titles today with the men's crown already going to the Rose City's Colored Merchants and the Lind-Pomeroy squad holding a 50-50 chance of capturing the girls' division.

The Colored Merchants came through the male play without a defeat, downing Skyroom Grill of Seattle 3-0 in the finale as Bob Willis hurled two-hit ball.

Portland Jrs. Reach Finals

BILLINGS, Mont., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Aberdeen, S.D., and Tuscon, Ariz., American Legion junior baseball teams, were to meet tonight to determine which squad will play Portland, Ore., in the championship game of the sectional tourney under way here.

Portland went to the finals by defeating Tucson 8-3 Sunday night after the Arizona team had squeezed out a 4-3 victory over Aberdeen in an afternoon game opening the series.

Under the double-elimination system, the two losers were scheduled to meet again for the right to compete in the finals.

Portland confined all of its scoring to the first three innings in the night contest. Six Tucson errors contributed to the Oregonians victory, although the Arizona team led in hits 10 to 8.

Piluso, Katonen Draw In Mat Tilt

By RAY COLLINS

Followers of the grunt-and-groan wrestling art were well rewarded Saturday night at the Pearl street arena when Paavo Katonen drew with Ernie Piluso, who substituted for Ben Sherman, in a non-title match.

The scheduled match had been a title affair, but because of the substitution the belt was not involved.

Piluso was in amazingly good form and displayed wrestling ability that had not been noticed before. He kept Katonen on the move, and the pace was beginning to tell on the champ when he managed to put his famous "hangman's hold" on Piluso to take the first fall in 27 minutes.

Piluso came back to the ring to take the second fall after throwing off the famed hangman's hold several times and worked on Katonen with a series of head-locks that left him plenty groggy. Piluso took the fall with a body press in 22 minutes.

The bout was a draw, but it was a debatable point, for Katonen was back in the headlock when the final gong sounded. Needless to say, the crowd cheered long and loudly as both contestants left the ring.

The semi-final between streamlined Jack Kiser and Elton Owen was about the cleanest grappling seen in some time. The bout went to Kiser, who took the one and only fall in 19 minutes. The pace was originally set by Owen, and although he was in good shape he let it lag. Kiser made him stay with it. After Owen applied a series of armlocks, Kiser turned the tables and took Owens with a backward body slam.

The following 11 minutes were filled with good fast action, with Owen literally dripping puddles of sweat. The bout ended with the sounding of the bell and the wrestling fans gave them a big hand as the contestants shook hands and left the ring.

Pat O'Dowdy from Oklahoma and Milt Olsen shared honors in the opening bout.

The first fall went to O'Dowdy in eight minutes with a Boston crab. Olsen came back vowing vengeance and swore to take O'Dowdy apart. And so, with body slams and a final body press he took the second fall in eight minutes.

The final fall lasted just two minutes, with O'Dowdy using every meanie trick in the book until he threw Olsen out of the ring and jumped on him. Referee Davidson sent him back to the ring and started to help Olsen into the ring when O'Dowdy slid under the ropes to deliver a savage head-kick to Olsen. Referee Davidson awarded the fall and also the bout to Olsen.

The score was 6-4, 6-3.

Red Sox Cut Browns' Lead

By Joe Reichler
(Associated Press)

Visions of an all-St.Louis World's Series for the first time in the major league may be just that—a vision.

The pennant-hungry Browns of St. Louis watched their first-place lead dwindle to a mere 3½ games over the Boston Red Sox as they bowed twice Sunday to the cellar-dwelling Washington Senators 4-2 and 12-1 to suffer their fourth straight defeat, their longest losing streak of the year.

Previously Luke Sewell's men had never dropped four in a row, although they lost three straight on five separate occasions.

Leonard Stops Brownies

Dutch Leonard had little trouble defeating the Browns in the opener, limiting them to four hits. The Senators pounded three Brownie hurlers for 17 hits to win the nightcap. Early Wynn, pitching his last game for Washington before entering the navy, was the winner, his eighth victory of the season.

The Red Sox became a definite pennant threat by vanquishing the Cleveland Indians twice, 8-6 and 11-4. They pounded out 26 hits in the twin bill, 16 of them in the nightcap. Bob Johnson, Jim Tabor and George Metkovich hit homers, Johnson's being his 15th to tie him for the league lead. Rookie Rex Cecil won his second game in the finale.

The Detroit Tigers joined the dog-fight for the flag by sweeping a pair from the New York Yankees, only five games away from the Browns.

Dizzy Trout gained his 20th triumph in the nightcap as he helped his own cause with a two-run homer, his fourth of the season. Trout joins his teammate Hal Newhouser as the only 20-game winners in the majors.

The Pittsburgh Pirates increased their second-place National league lead over the third-place Cincinnati Reds to two games by conquering the Brooklyn Dodgers twice, 10-7 and 7-1. Jim Russell hit a pinch-hit homer with the bases full in the seventh inning of the opener.

Four Dodgers — Bobby Bragan, Luis Olmo, Whitlow Wyatt and Acting-Manager Charlie Dressen —were banished from the games for arguing.

Medwick Hits "Seven For Eight"

After losing the opener to the Chicago Cubs for their 13th straight defeat, thus tying the longest losing slump in Giant history, the New York Giants, behind Bill Voiselle's five-hit pitching, ended their slump in the second, 3-1. It was Voiselle's 15th victory. Joe Medwick got seven hits in eight at bats.

Rookie Woody Rich pitched the Boston Braves to a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals for his first National League victory, after the Cards had drubbed the Braves 15-5 in the opener.

The Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago White Sox divided a twin-bill, the Sox winning the opener 3-2 and the A's grabbing the aftermath 8-3.

Bucky Walters pitched and batted his way to his 18th victory as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 in a 12-inning opener of a twin-bill! The Phils won the second 4-1.

Klamath Sailors Trim Eugene Club, 17 to 3

KLAMATH FALLS, Aug. 21. (AP) —Big Jim Olsen, former San Diego Padre hurler, handcuffed a Eugene semi-pro baseball club with six hits while his Klamath naval air station mates pounded out a 17-3 victory over the hapless valley invaders here Sunday afternoon.

Seventeen hits, eight of them extra base blows, doomed the Eugene nine to defeat, but the Cascade league players ran up the score against themselves by making four costly errors while their pitchers gave up nine walks.

Portland's Cody Kids Set New Mark In Medley Relay

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 21.—(AP) Charley Sava, Ann Curtis' swimming coach, says his blonde San Francisco pupil is only beginning to show what she can do.

The star of the Crystal Plunge club finished her unprecedented grand-slam Sunday by winning the 800 meters, her fourth free-style title in the three-day National A.A.U. championships.

Miss Curtis' achievements overshadowed the Multnomah Athletic club's record-breaking effort in the 300-meter medley relay and the Indianapolis Riviera club's team championship.

Multnomah set a mark of 3:58.8 to displace the 4:01.4 championship record set by the New York city W.S.A. in 1940.

Riviera, paced by versatile Joan Fogle, scored 43 points to take team honors. Multnomah was second with 28 and Crystal Plunge third with 25.

Mrs. Jane Dillard Kittleson won her third straight 100-meter breast-stroke crown in 1:25.3.

The three-meter springboard diving event went to Anne Ross, the graceful Brooklyn girl, who also won her third straight victory in the National.
