Record Raid Made On Jan Naval Base

By United Press.
 Allied bombers, continuing intensive raids through the Pacific, were revealed today to have dumped a peak load of 188 tons of explosives on Ambona, former Dutch naval center in the East Indies, and to have struck new blows at a dozen other scattered enemy bases.

The Ambona raid was carried out Monday by more than 75 bombers and fighters which concentrated on the major port of Ambon and left it in flames. The enemy offered no resistance.

Air patrols again blasted Kace village on Halmahera in the series of neutralization raids on the enemy base 250 miles south of the Philippines. Other airmen attacked the port of Davao on Mindanao in the southern Philippines.

Other bases attacked included: Yap and Palau in the western Carolines; Paramushiro in the Kuriles; Iwo Jima in the Volcanos; Pagan and Alamagan in the Marianas; and enemy positions in the Marshalls.

It takes three dozen fresh shell eggs to make a pound of whole egg powder.

Mrs. Panageota Polalis

Mrs. Panageota Polalis, 63, of Marcola, died Monday at a local hospital following a brief illness.

A native of Greece, born at Valtete, April 16, 1881, she was married to John Polalis in 1904. They came to Marcola in 1931, where they have resided since on a small farm.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Louis and Vasile, both in Greece.

Funeral services were to be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. at the Poole-Larsen mortuary, Rev. E. S. Bartlam officiating, with interment in the new IOOF cemetery.

Mrs. Harvey Hilton

Funeral services for Mrs. Harvey Hilton will be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the Branstetter-Simon mortuary, Rev. Llewellyn O. Griffin officiating. Interment will be at Rest Haven Memorial park.

Have a "Coke" = Tudo Vai Bem (EVERYTHING'S SWELL)

... or making friends in Rio from the U.S.A. to Brazil is a long way, but you'll find many familiar things in both places. A friendly spirit for one. Coca-Cola for another. In Rio de Janeiro, to say "Have a 'Coke'" is to say "We're glad to see you, just as when you offer Coca-Cola to a guest in your own home. In many lands around the globe, the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola has become a friendly greeting between neighbors.

Coca-Cola
 the global high-sign

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
 It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
