Sporting News Honor Slats' Biggest Thrill

ATLANTA, Oct. 12. (AP)—The "biggest thrill" of his baseball career for Martin "Slats" Marion came when The Sporting News named him the National league's most valuable player in 1944. The St. Louis Cardinals' shortstop told a sports writer for the Atlanta Constitution. A native of Atlanta, Marion came here with his family for a visit. He left yesterday for his farm at Anteville, S. C.
