Father Sohler Guest Speaker At Lions

COTTAGE GROVE — Due to a conflict in the manager's dates, Wayne L. Morse was unable to speak to the members of the Lions club and the Cottage Grove chamber of commerce, when they met for a joint meeting at the Rainbow cafe on Wednesday noon. The program chairman, George Hardy, introduced Father Louis Sohler, local Catholic parish priest, who talked on the subject, "My First Impressions of Cottage Grove." Father Sohler emphasized the need for "selling the community to newcomers." He pointed out that Cottage Grove's advantages are not advertised as they deserve, and too often its disadvantages are the most common topics of conversation. The speaker made several suggestions for a concrete program for improving public attitude and civic pride.

Hardy announced that next Thursday's meeting would include a report by one who has recently worked in one of the Japanese relocation centers. The speaker will present social problems caused by the intolerance of Americans toward citizens of Japanese ancestry. This meeting will be held at the usual time Thursday noon, October 19, at the Rainbow cafe.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid met Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors for the annual experience social. During the business meeting, Mrs. Roy Short presided. Mrs. A. J. Kammann lead the devotions, the topic being, "Vision." There were 45 ladies present for the meeting, as well as several guests. Following the business session, the meeting was turned over to the captains. Mrs. George Jacobsen was leader of the winning side. She was assisted by Mrs. A. W. Helliwell. This side made $140.75.

The captain of the other side was Mrs. Charles Beidler and her assistant was Mrs. George Bjorset. This side raised $138.40, making a total of $277.15. However, there is still more money to be turned in. This fund will be used for church work. At the close of the afternoon, refreshments were served by Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. Vinal Randall, Mrs. Eva Holderman, Mrs. Lila Veatch, and Mrs. Mabel Merryman. The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon to be served at one o'clock on Nov. 8. The losing side will be the hostess committee.

Donald Kabler has announced that the community cannery will operate on only one day of the week during the remainder of the season. Wednesday is the only day it will be available for use.

All school patrons and school board members are invited to attend a meeting on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at 8 o'clock in the Jefferson school. L. C. Moffit, county school superintendent, and a delegation from Eugene will be present at this meeting to explain and discuss the permanent state support fund measure to be voted on at the Nov. 7 election.

At the regular meeting of the Calvin Funk post of the American Legion held this week, preliminary plans were made for the annual Armistice program. Col. Edward Gotch, local delegate who attended the national convention at Chicago, gave a report of the resolutions approved by the convention. It was announced that the main Armistice address will be given by a speaker from the U. S. army. A potluck dinner will be held in the IOOF hall in the evening of that day to be followed by a dance in the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Clark have reopened their photo shop in Knickerbocker's store and will be opened for business Saturday. The Clarks operated a shop here until last February at which time they moved to Salem.

At Willakenzie

WILLAKENZIE — The Willakenzie Home Extension unit met at the grange hall on Wednesday. Miss Nellie Lyle was in charge of the demonstration on "Color Schemes and Home Decoration." She presented the "color wheel" to the ladies, which prepared them for the various color arrangements shown.

At the next meeting of the unit in November, Mrs. C. S. Calf and Mrs. Monte Cross will present their project, "War-time Entertaining and Buffet Meals." Mrs. Calf told of their demonstration, which made all want to be there to see and sample their work. Mrs. Calf and Mrs. Cross will prepare and furnish the entire meal in November for a small charge to each. Miss Lyle explained the use and advantages of the unit library, and Mrs. Gyneth Olson was appointed to be librarian. There has been another project added to the list of projects, that of "The technique of giving a book review." Mrs. Carl Rutherford, Mrs. Paul Wiser and Mrs. Graves will attend the class of instruction given in Eugene on Jan. 23. Miss Lyle told about the Christmas kit that would be here for the November meeting. This kit includes ideas, examples and patterns for quickly made Christmas gifts and will be of interest to all, so bring your paper, shears and pencils. The group decided to do some community service as a unit, and Mrs. Palmer Walls was appointed to get yarn at the Red Cross headquarters to be knit by the ladies. Mrs. Ellis Mahary was appointed as chairman of the "child care" committee, she to pick her helpers. Mrs. Paul Rasmussen, luncheon chairman announced that she has selected Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Thurman to assist her on her committee. She and her committee arranged and prepared for the day's luncheon. Mrs. Marxen announced that Mrs. Thelma Ware would assist her on the hospitality committee. The unit starts its meeting at 10:30.

From Waldport

WALDPOR — Senator Guy Cordon was in Waldport this week and addressed an audience at the Community hall. He reported first hand information regarding the request for harbor improvements. A letter from Congressman James W. Mott says progress is being made on the Alsea Bay harbor improvement project. Fishing has been extremely good on the Alsea during the past week, 50 to 100 boats being in use every day.

At Willagillespie

WILLAGILLESPIE — Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mitchell gave a winter roast Wednesday evening for a group of friends. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and son, Lon, Miss Daisy Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rinschen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gilbert, Carl Gilbert, Mrs. Joe Harrison of Poulbo, Wash., Mrs. Bill Hood, Julie and Don Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Scroggs and Lloyd Mitchell.

Two ball games played with Willakenzie gave the score 31 to 0 in favor of Willagillespie, and the second game 24 to 4 for Willakenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hood and children moved to Yoncalla where Mr. Hood has employment.

WENDLING MAN INJURED — Elmer Swafford was injured quite seriously Thursday morning, when the monorail he was driving at the Booth-Kelly plant, fell about 30 feet. He was taken to the Eugene hospital where it was found that no bones were broken, but he is suffering from shock and possible internal injuries. Mr. Swafford has been an employee of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company for approximately 20 years.
