No Need To Crimp Hallowe'en Frolics, OPA Declares Here

By RUTH PORTER

Come out from under last year's Hallowe'en decorations before you decide to call one of the kids' favorite holidays off, says the information division of the OPA. Junior can be as gruesome as on any other Hallowe'en, and at no greater cost than last year, according to OPA. Some doubt is indicated about the stability of cider prices, but OPA says to check on that price, too, before going ciderless.

The arm-chair statists are right for once when they forecast a harder-hit Pacific coast after Germany collapses, agrees OPA, and reports that this will mean less cotton than ever for domestic uses. So-o-o OPA cautions, cheat the rag bag a little longer and let daughter, sister or any other right-sized female relation inherit that too-tight cotton dress.

Latest news for the family cook and hostess is mostly encouraging, for no more false fillers will be needed for chowders, due to OPA's making all fish chowders and soups point-free. Release of more black pepper is expected soon following OPA's raising the price ceiling to wholesalers. Butchers are supposed to appreciate this particularly, but it's open season on heavy sneezers once again.

Hostesses and gourmets now may observe an improvement in that after-dinner touch—the after dinner mints. OPA promises that they will be more flavorful, because increased quotas of peppermint oil are being released for civilian manufacture by the war food administration. But the chewing gum situation in the land of bobby-sock brigades will continue, consoles OPA, as long as small Dutch and French com-

'Taps' To Replace Armistice Parade

There will be no street parade in Eugene on "Armistice" day, Nov. 11, it has been announced by the commanders' council of the several war veterans' organizations, which has charge of plans for the organized observance of the day.

Instead of the usual parade, a number of buglers will be stationed at different downtown street intersections and at 11 a. m. "taps" will be blown. While this is being done all businessmen and their employees and the public in general are being asked to stand in silence for two minutes until after "taps" has been sounded.

The commanders' council, consisting of the commanders and past commanders of all veterans' organizations of the county, has for the past number of years had charge of Armistice day plans. Ever since the close of World War I a street parade has been held on this day.

Winter Plans To Be Made By Scout Group

Reviewing summer activities and making plans for the fall and winter, the Lane district committee of the Oregon Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, (member agency of the Lane county community and national war fund) will meet at noon Friday at the Eugene hotel.

A complete report on Camp Lucky Boy, summer training camp of the Oregon Trail Council, will be made at the meeting, Walter H. Banks, district committee chairman, announced.

Reports from the organization and extension committee, the commissioner staff, and the advancement committee will also highlight the meeting, Banks said.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

The war stories I like best, Judge, are the ones by the special writers overseas who live right with our troops. They give us a better idea of how our men react to things going on over there and back here at home.

"I agree with you, Sam. I never miss one of those stories in the papers or magazines. And there's one thing those writers seem to agree on no matter where they are stationed with our men . . . and that is that the men who have left their homes and families to go away and fight this war don't want to come back and find that prohibition has been put over on them while they were away . . . either nationally or locally. They have heard about the attempts being made and they resent it bitterly."

"I agree with them, Judge, even though I don't happen to drink myself. Furthermore, I don't think it's fair for us at home to be making any major changes while 10,000,000 of our fighting men are away and have no chance to express their opinions."

WASTE PAPER SAVERS! Honor Our Heroes on American Legion HONOR ROLL DAY

There's probably one name on our local Honor Roll which has a special meaning for you . . . a name that stands for someone far away.

Here's how you can pay a real personal tribute to that name . . . and the service man or woman it honors. Save waste paper for that person . . . dedicate it on the American Legion's Honor Roll Day!

The American Legion has been asked by the War Production Board to lead the local waste paper drive. Waste paper is the No. 1 critical war material. It makes or wraps thousands of war items. To make this year's 8,000,000-ton goal is going to take a lot of cooperation from every patriotic citizen!

That's where you come in. Be ready when a Legionnaire asks you to bundle your waste paper for collection. Do your part for your service man . . . help to make or wrap the food, medicines and munitions he needs to win!
