Toastmasters Club Talks Recorded

Recordings of speeches at the last Toastmasters club meeting in the Eugene hotel were on file today and are available to the speakers so they can listen to their own voices and discover ways to improve their delivery. The records were made by R. Grant Crakes, deputy governor, and were played after the meeting.

At the Tuesday night meeting, presided over by Dr. R. E. Walstrom, president, with John Quiner as toastmaster, the following spoke: Jud Compton, "Junior Toastmasters"; George Hedding, "Selfishness"; Bob Bertsch, "Enemies of Advertising"; Linley Lutz, "Wendell Willkie's 'One World'"; Dr. Walstrom, "Opportunities for Toastmasters."

H. F. McDaniel was topicmaster, and this part of the program members discussed what they would do if they were president of the United States. Fred Brenne was critic for the five main speakers.

Bertsch was inducted as a new member by Elmer Gustafson, vice-president.

Religious Leaders Confer On Campus

Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, president of the national conference of Christians and Jews, and Dr. Max Radin of the University of California, and Father Joseph Vaughn of Loyola university, members of the conference, were on the University of Oregon campus Friday afternoon to confer with students and staff members. Announcement concerning these visitors was made Thursday by Orlando John Hollis, acting president of the university.

Dr. U. S. Mitchell, regional director of the conference, and Betty Britton Sale, executive secretary of the Oregon chapter, accompany the conference members.

Purpose of the conference is to promote religious tolerance.
