

Methodist Minister Announces Program

STAGE GROVE—Rev. Frank Smith, minister of the Methodist church, announces that the church will have a series of "Earth's Coming" in the evening of the month. In the evening of the month, the church will have a series of "Earth's Coming" in the evening of the month. In the evening of the month, the church will have a series of "Earth's Coming" in the evening of the month.

Joe Smith was hostess to members of the Christian church at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Beldier was in charge of the service. Mrs. Beldier was in charge of the service. Mrs. Beldier was in charge of the service.

Harry Metcalf was hostess to the La Comus club at the home of G. B. Pitcher on Tuesday afternoon. Following a dessert, the club will meet on Nov. 6 at the home of Mrs. T. C. Wheeler.

SELECTS—The Friendly Neighborhood held its first meeting in the church annex, last night. A potluck lunch was enjoyed by 11 members. Following new officers were elected: president, Mrs. Myrtle K. vice president, Mrs. Joyce secretary and treasurer, Rhoda Kittell. Mrs. Lillian was appointed club reporter. The next meeting will be Nov. 8 with all women invited.

WONGOLEUM RUGS—A wide variety of patterns. Furniture Co.

ZEMACOL—Guaranteed Relief From Poison Oak. Any Wise Drug. 2 Broadway 769 W. 6th

J. C. Hicks—VETERINARIAN. River Road Ph. 918-J-2

Florsheim SHOES—FOR MEN AND WOMEN. BURCH'S 1660 Willamette

FAIRBANKS RIDING STABLES—SADDLE HORSES FOR HIRE. 4000 Highway, 1/2 mile past ahead crossing, or take 4th and watch for sign. Phone 3984. Open Daily. Evenings and Sundays

Zenith Hearing Aid DR. ELLIOTT—Optometrist. 87 East Broadway Phone 419

For Health...
Korn's 100% WHEAT BREAD

DANCE TONIGHT
JOHNNY BRENNAN AND HIS 10 PIECE BAND... FEATURING THE BLIND PIANIST
Admission 75c. including tax
Eugene Armory

Ehrman Giustina Home For Visit

PLEASANT HILL—Mr. and Mrs. Ehrman Giustina are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Giustina at Pleasant Hill. Ehrman, who is in the aviation corps of the navy, is on leave from east coast patrol. He will be here until the last of the month.

Miss Dolores Giustina, a graduate nurse, has joined the army nurse corps and is waiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Giustina, for her call. Donald Hammond, naval aviation machinist mate, has been home on furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hammond of Pleasant Hill. He leaves Sunday to report at San Diego. He has been at Beaufort, South Carolina, for his training.

Phil Bartholomew of Springfield has purchased part of the Allen Wheeler farm at Pleasant Hill. Captain and Mrs. Earl McLeod leave Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLeod as far as Modesto where Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will visit her sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Laird of Colville, Wash., and Mrs. W. M. Hoppe of Winlock, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laird of Portland who were at the Laird home during the illness and death of "Grandpa" P. N. Laird, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. Doris Jordan and baby boy, James Almon, are with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jordan of Pleasant Hill.

P-TA MEETS—The Bethel P-TA held a short business meeting recently after which there was a reception for the teachers. Each teacher was introduced and presented with a white gardenia. Mrs. Ruth Lambert, past president, also was given a gardenia, as appreciation of her work in the past years.

The Bethel P-TA held its regular meeting last week at the school house. There were 33 parents and teachers present. The hot lunches were discussed and due to lack of funds and proper facilities it was voted to have only the milk project this year, and to use those funds available to equip the school for a proper hot lunch program next year. Mrs. Byron C. Barnes was the room mother in charge of the meeting with Mrs. Elton Nielson, program chairman. Mrs. Alfred Larson was chairman for the refreshments, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Bleth and Mrs. Helen Jacobs. The program consisted of a dance number by Miss Joan Bleth, a piano solo by Miss Phyllis Nielson; Misses Harriet Johnston, Barbara Nielson and Deloris Stadler, song, accompanied by Miss Phyllis Nielson at the piano; a violin trio, by the same girls. Coffee and cake were served by the refreshments committee.

SELL STORE, HOME—WALTON—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Eaton, who have owned the store here for six and one-half years, have sold their home and store to Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Surcamp. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton have lived in this community for many years and will be missed by their many friends. They have bought a home in Notti and will leave soon. Mr. Eaton will still drive to his work. Mr. and Mrs. Surcamp formerly lived in Springfield and had a meat market in the Paramount market there.

Kyanize
ALL PURPOSE VARNISH
Ammonia and Waterproof
LIGHTNING'S
1151 Willamette Phone 1216

NU-ENAMEL
Looks Best—Stays Best
SIGWART'S

Zenith Hearing Aid
DR. ELLIOTT
Optometrist
87 East Broadway Phone 419

Kuppenheimer Clothes
The Man's Shop
BYRON & KNEELAND
32 East 10th

STANDARD OPTICAL CO
820 WILLAMETTE

OLAFSEN'S NEWEST!
AYTINAL
Multiple Vitamin
CAPSULES
Bottle of 25 79c
8 important vitamins in each tiny capsule.
100 Capsules $2.35

HIRON'S EVERYBODY'S DRUG
366 Willamette

Dance Planned By Legion Auxiliary

OAKRIDGE—The Cascade Unit of the American Legion auxiliary is sponsoring a dance in the Legion hall, Saturday, Oct. 28. It is a public dance and everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Grace Rodgers of Portland is visiting her brother, Frank Neal, and Mrs. Neal. Another guest at the Neal home is Mrs. Sallee Neal.

Three local inductees have left for Camp Lewis for assignment in the army. They are Gordon Jacobson, Willard Thayer, and Philip Dimick. All three men are firemen on the S. P. railroad.

Plan Paper Drive
The Oakridge grade school is sponsoring a paper salvage drive, Friday, Nov. 3 from 12 to 3 p.m. Those making donations are asked to tie the newspapers and magazines in bundles; flatten the cardboard; and place paper on curb where it can readily be seen from the street.

Wayne Edward Waythman was a recent visitor in Oakridge from Farragut, Idaho where he has just finished his boot training. He was the guest of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Starr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beatty are in San Francisco where Mr. Beatty is a patient in the S. P. hospital. The Beatty children are in Oswego at the home of Mr. Beatty's brother.

Beaman Brockway and Jimmy Templin of Yakima, Wash., were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henson. Both of the young men are with the navy. Mr. Brockway is a nephew of the Hensons.

Pvt. Hobart Clark was here recently from Camp Roberts, Calif., to visit his wife and family before leaving for Fort Maryland from where he will be sent to foreign service.

Cpl. Harvey McFarland has left for Lemoor, Calif., from where he will be assigned to foreign duty with a combat crew. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McFarland and has just finished a flight school in Yuma, Arizona. He is a navigator on a B-29. He has been at the home of his parents on a short leave. While here he visited relatives in Eugene and Portland.

Beeson Injured In Holland Action

REEDSPORT—Pvt. Chester H. Beeson of the U. S. army was injured in Holland on Oct. 5, according to word received here during the past week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beeson, of Winchester Bay.

Friends of City Recorder H. C. McCrea of Reedport, were happy to learn of the rescue of Mr. McCrea's cousin, Sec. Lt. Harry J. Skinner, who, with 82 other officers and men, were rescued by MacArthur's men at Leyte. Mr. Skinner was with MacArthur at Corregidor and was captured there. Last word from him was a regular prisoner of war postal card which was received in September, 1943.

T. Sgt. Max Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kruse, of Reedport, is at home on leave following 20 months service on the Alcan highway in Canada.

Miss Yvonne Traylor, daughter of Mrs. H. M. McCabe, is enjoying a visit in Reedport from her studies at Providence school of nursing, Seattle where she is a member of the U. S. cadet nurse corps.

Other servicemen visiting in Reedport include Pvt. Robert Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Walker, of the Schofield district; PFC W. E. Thacker, brother of Mrs. Virgil Wroe, of the Smith River district, who has been in the Aleutians for the past 20 months; Pvt. Roy Hakki, son of Matti Hakki, who has been stationed on the east coast since his induction last January; Aster Lacey and Private Marvin Arthur of Camp Robinson, Arkansas.

REBEKAH MEET
ELMIRA—At the regular meeting of Loyal Rebekah lodge at Elmira, plans were made to initiate a class of candidates for Lorane Rebekah lodge Nov. 18. The lodge decided not to have a potluck supper the first meeting in November, but to have refreshments after lodge the evening of the special meeting.

Grove Rebekahs Visit At Creswell

CRESWELL—Seventeen members of the Cottage Grove Rebekah lodge made a fraternal visit to honor Rebekah lodge at the regular meeting Wednesday evening. Two other visitors were present and 22 local members. Mrs. L. H. Brown presided at the meeting. Two applications for membership by initiation were presented. The first nomination of officers for next year was held. Plans were made to have the entertaining committee of each meeting also do the janitor work for that time until a permanent janitor can be secured. The visiting group presented a program of friendship and victory numbers followed by group singing and a gift was presented the lodge. Refreshments were served in the dining room with Mrs. Robert Sellers and Mrs. Rex Gwyther in charge assisted by Mrs. R. F. Scott, Mrs. G. N. Post, and Mrs. L. H. Brown. Special greetings were sung for Mrs. C. I. Kent whose birthday anniversary was that day.

Miss Mildred Simons, recently retired missionary from India and a co-worker for many years of Mrs. C. L. Camp, pastor of the Methodist church and her husband, the late Rev. C. L. Camp, will speak at the Methodist church Sunday evening. All friends are invited to attend.

Paul Harvey, army air cadet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harvey was home on leave last week.

Robert Fox, A. S., is home on leave from Seattle, Wash., where he is attending the University of Washington.

Visits From Portland
Mrs. C. H. Mimmaugh of Portland is visiting at the home of her son, J. L. Mimmaugh. Mrs. J. L. Mimmaugh was called to Portland by the illness of her father.

Mrs. Nora Lee of Venice, Calif., was a recent guest of her cousins, Mrs. Dora Martin and S. C. Veatch. Other Sunday visitors were the John Veatch family of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Heaton and son, Dale, of Eugene.

Friends have received notes from Miss Elizabeth Tryon, formerly of Creswell, telling of her experiences during the recent hurricane on the Florida coast which also visited Orlando where Miss Tryon is now making her home. No one was injured but considerable property damage was done.

At Santa Clara

SANTA CLARA—The Santa Clara Ladies Aid society met this week. The three ministers, Willie White, Clifford Snyder and Jean Shelley, were luncheon guests. During the business meeting Willie White gave a short devotional talk. One project the ladies have to work for is to purchase an electric stove for the church. Plans were made to hold a silver tea Wednesday, Nov. 8, at 2 p. m. in the church parlor. This is to honor the new members of the church and the newcomers in the Santa Clara community. The ladies extend an invitation to all Mrs. E. C. Hart, Mrs. Moulter and Mrs. H. R. Bendshader are the committee. The society also voted to buy material to make baptismal robes. There will be a basket dinner Sunday, Oct. 29, following the morning service, this being the last day of the evangelistic meetings.

IN DELIGHT VALLEY
DELIGHT VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hassert have been called to Los Angeles by the death of the former's mother. Mrs. Hassert's mother, Mrs. Christian, who has been living with them, has left for an extended visit with other relatives in Los Angeles.

Recent guests at the Ernest Sears home were the sisters of Mrs. Sears, Mrs. I. Knox of Salem and Mrs. May Hogate of Cottage Grove.

Thelma Moors has come from Whip, Wash., to make her home with her mother, Mrs. John Stoller, and attend Cottage Grove high school.

Mrs. Kenneth Zumalt and her mother, Mrs. Schietzer of Latham, recently spent several days visiting in Santa Cruz, Calif.

The Delight Valley school boys were victorious with their football game played with the Culp Creek school at Culp Creek, Wednesday afternoon.

First Lt. Cooper, now on a furlough at his home in Dorena, gave a talk to the pupils and teachers at the grade school recently. Lt. Cooper has spent the past two years in Panama.

Education is democracy's insurance. Provide better schools and lower your real property taxes by State aid for education—Vote 314 X YES. Paid by Lane Co. School Board Members and Teachers.

Lane County's lumber and farm produce go to market over roads maintained under the business-like management of Judge Hurd. His re-election will insure a continuance of this road program. Pd Adv by Hurd for Judge, Rm. 216 Miner Bldg.

-WANTED-
Fountain Girl
Some experience necessary. Pleasant working conditions and one of the best paid jobs in Eugene for this type of work.
Apply at Seymour's
Cafe-Coffee-Tea
AIR-CONDITIONED

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

TO HONOR SCOUTS
MOHAWK—Rev. Charles Paris, local pastor, will honor Girl Scouts in his message Sunday morning, Oct. 29, inaugurating local recognition of national Girl Scout week.

Reta Bruce, student at Monmouth Normal, visited her parents recently.

Marquardt Halloween parties are being given Saturday evening, Oct. 28, as follows: Young people of the community of the age of the intermediate and high school

Sunday school classes, at the Donald Kennedy's home; and those of the primary and junior classes at the Hufstader home.

Mrs. Acheson entertained members of the Helping Hand club recently. Nine guests and several members were present from here. The next meeting will be an afternoon one with Mrs. Grace Crowe, 1231 Main street, Springfield, Nov. 2.

Word was received last week by the parents of Leo Wallace that he had been wounded in the European war and had been brought back to a hospital in Spokane, Wash. A brother, Cleo Wallace, went up recently to visit him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McCornack have gone to Portland for an indefinite visit with relatives and friends.

MEETING SATURDAY
BAILEY HILL—Regular meeting of Four Oaks Grange will be held Saturday evening at the Grange hall.

The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Moore last week. It was voted by the club to hold an all day meeting at the Grange hall the first Wednesday in November for the purpose of preparing for the annual bazaar. Each member is to bring his own lunch.

The club has as a project the making of knitted and crocheted afghans for the Red Cross to be used by convalescents. All members are asked to look up bits of yarn they may have in their homes and bring it to the club.