

Cottage Grove Girls Wave With Waves

The new enlistees in the Douglas WAVE platoon left Eugene on Sunday for S. naval training center for reserves in New York city. Miss Mary Gasper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gasper, Miss Radtke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Radtke, and Miss Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter, are the three who formerly lived in this platoon and also included two Misses Hazel and Helen daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wells of Eugene. Both girls graduated from the Cottage Grove school, Hazel in the class of 1934 and Helen in the class of 1935.

Reported by Mrs. Percy Lee Mall of Diston route, Cottage Grove, are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday, October 26, at the McFarland maternity home and has been named Vicki Lee. The baby was born at 10:30 a. m. and weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces. The mother is Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Cottage Grove. The baby was born at 10:30 a. m. and weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces. The mother is Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Cottage Grove.

Reported by Mrs. Percy Lee Mall of Diston route, Cottage Grove, are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday, October 26, at the McFarland maternity home and has been named Vicki Lee. The baby was born at 10:30 a. m. and weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces. The mother is Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Cottage Grove.

Reported by Mrs. Percy Lee Mall of Diston route, Cottage Grove, are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday, October 26, at the McFarland maternity home and has been named Vicki Lee. The baby was born at 10:30 a. m. and weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces. The mother is Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Cottage Grove.

Reported by Mrs. Percy Lee Mall of Diston route, Cottage Grove, are the parents of a daughter, born on Thursday, October 26, at the McFarland maternity home and has been named Vicki Lee. The baby was born at 10:30 a. m. and weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces. The mother is Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Cottage Grove.

ONE YARD PATTERN

by Anna Adams

Little outfit for sweet little girls. Pattern 4647. One yard jacket plus jumper. Blouse one piece. Embroidery transfer. Pattern 4647 comes in toddlers' sizes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. Size 2, 3 and 4, takes 1 yard. Size 5 and 6, takes 1 yard. Price, 25 cents in coins. Send 25 cents in coins to the Register-Guard, Pattern Dept. Print plain-size. NAME, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP. Send FIFTEEN CENTS more to the Anna Adams Fall and Winter Pattern Book, full of new, fabric-saving styles. Free return for hat and muff-bag sent right in book.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail loose order or stamps larger than 3c. Be sure to use that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order. PLEASE DO... Use stamps of money order if possible, or if you must use cash, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. Be sure that your envelope is sealed tightly.

McKenzie River Club Plans Dance

VIDA—McKenzie River Active club is sponsoring a dance in the Vida hall on Nov. 4, starting at 9 o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Carol Lansberry orchestra, with Mrs. Rosalie Clark playing the piano. Tickets will be on sale at the door. Everyone of the community is invited to come.

Filbert picking has been on in full force in the Vida community during the past week. B. F. Goodpasture and Sons have been all harvested and pupils from the McKenzie high school, accompanied by their teacher, Mr. Campbell, harvested the orchard of Carl Baker in a day and a half.

First Lieutenant and Mrs. John Zimmerman were surprised recently when former school friends and other friends called at the home of John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman for a charivari for the newly married couple. Later everyone went to the Vida hall where dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served. John Zimmerman married the former Jean Raymond in Eugene on Oct. 13. Following a trip, which included a visit with John's brother, Ward, in Bremerton, Wash., the couple returned to the home of John's parents.

John Zimmerman, who is a First Lieutenant and bombardier pilot, is home on furlough after returning to the United States from Romania where he was held as a German prisoner. He expects to leave Nov. 5 for California where he will be assigned to further service. Mrs. Zimmerman will accompany her husband.

Religious Services Arranged At Grove

COTTAGE GROVE — Several special religious services will be held this week at the Catholic church, Wednesday, Nov. 1, is the feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation, with masses at 7 and 8 a. m. Thursday is All Souls day, when the souls of all the departed are commemorated. Masses will be at 7, 7:30 and 8 a. m. Friday is the first Friday of November, with devotions and mass at 8 a. m.

The Study club will meet at the parish house on Thursday at 7:30 p. m., to discuss further the subject of a "Just and Lasting Peace."

Members of the Research club and their husbands enjoyed a Halloween costume party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shortall on Saturday evening. The evening was spent playing Halloween games. Late in the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Leases Building — George Foster has leased the Godard building formerly occupied by S. L. Godard as a carpenter shop. Mr. Foster will devote his time to cabinet work and to box making.

Chief Petty Officer Pete Nelson, who has spent the past 18 months in the Aleutians, is spending a 30-day leave with his family here.

Harold Mackin, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, has been promoted from Lt. (jg) to lieutenant. He also has been assigned to a new ship in the Pacific fleet.

Bud Morris, R. M. 3-c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Morris, arrived in Cottage Grove recently for a 30-day leave. He has spent the past 11 months at sea duty with the navy in the Atlantic. He has visited many places of historic interest and many countries.

Mrs. Edna Blue, executive chairman of the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, has announced that Mrs. Walter A. Woodward, of Black Butte road, Cottage Grove, has "adopted" May Allen. She is an 11-year-old British girl.

TO HONOR THREE — LOWER CAMP CREEK — Honoring three young men of the community who will leave for branches of the service within the week, a potluck supper for all residents of the community will be held Friday at 7 p. m. at the community hall. Those to be honored are Dale Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Chase, who leaves Saturday for the merchant marine; Frank Wilets, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilets, and Robert Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Watson, both leaving in a few days to enter the army. The event is sponsored by their parents and friends.

Bailey Hill Area Oversubscribed

BAILEY HILL — The national war fund and community chest drive has gone over the top in the Bailey district by more than 100 percent. The quota was $300 and $626 have been turned over to the chairman, Mrs. Edward Ekman, and one area has not yet turned in its contributions. Those assisting Mrs. Ekman are Fred Knox, Mrs. E. H. Moore, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. Carl R. Pfeiffer, Mrs. M. H. Stewart, and Mrs. William Petersen.

The local Teacher-Patron organization is giving a carnival at the Four Oaks grange hall Saturday evening, Nov. 4. The evening of fun and entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock. Besides the usual carnival attractions there will be pie, hamburgers, and coffee for sale. Part of the proceeds will be used for playground equipment.

Glen Kerbrock, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kerbrock, has been home on leave from a naval training school in California.

Virgil Fettes, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fettes, has also been home on leave from Farragut base.

Crow Grange Sets Meeting Wednesday

CROW — About 100 members and guests attended the booster night entertainment of Crow grange last week. Election of officers will be held at the next regular meeting on Nov. 1. Ladies are asked to bring sandwiches and pickles for lunch.

After opening exercises at last week's program, the lecturer, Mrs. Hazel Boehringer, presented a program consisting of song, America; welcoming address, the master, Carl Boehringer; reading of national master message, Mrs. Rebecca Gibson; piano solo, Diane Ford; introduction of the local school instructors by Mr. Starkweather, principal of Crow U. H. S.; explanation of the school bill on the ballot by Mr. Julius, principal of Woodrow Wilson Junior high school of Eugene; guitar and piano solo, Misses Hall and Lewis; reading, Wayne Canaday; piano solo, Bee Lewis; address, Alben Wheeler, and song, "God Bless America."

Following this a lunch was served, after which a social time, with games and dancing was enjoyed.

CLUB ENTERTAINED — WILLAKENZIE — The Willakenzie Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Monte Cross, the president of the organization, last week. Mrs. Cross re-appointed Mrs. Frank Harlow and Mrs. C. S. Caley on the flower committee for the coming year and Mrs. Carl Rutherford as work chairman for the year. The next meeting place will be announced later. Two guests, Mrs. Spangler and Mrs. M. Keyser, and several children were present.

Mrs. Josie Cauldwell, mother of Mrs. Hugh Mulloy, has returned to Phoenix, Arizona, after spending the summer in the valley.

W. H. Daughtry has returned home after spending several weeks in Texas, having been called there by the death of his father.

S. Sgt. Clinton E. Chittock, Mrs. Virgil Maharry, and little Sharon Chittock were honor guests at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rutherford on Friday night, all having birthdays. Those in

by Laura Wheeler

Easy knitting makes these handsome bags that add smartness to your wardrobe. Knitting that's tops in glamor. Take your choice — checkerboard in wool, stripes in cord, pattern 997 contains directions for knitting two purses, stitches. This pattern, together with a needlework pattern for personal or household decoration, FIFTEEN CENTS. Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for these patterns to Register-Guard, Needlecraft Dept., Eugene. Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS. Fifteen cents more brings you our New 32-page Needlecraft Catalog, 133 illustrations of designs for embroidery, knitting, crochet, quilts, home decoration, toys.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail loose order or stamps larger than 3c. Be sure to use that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with order. PLEASE DO... Use stamps of money order if possible, or if you must use cash, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. Be sure that your envelope is sealed tightly.

McKenzie Bridge Folk Assist Drive

McKENZIE BRIDGE — The McKenzie Ladies Rifle and Pistol club sponsored an old fashioned pie social and dance which was given at the old CCC camp at McKenzie Bridge on Saturday night last for the benefit of the Lane county war chest.

Pastries which were provided by the ladies of the community were auctioned for a grand total of $120.80 which will be turned over to the war chest. The event was well attended and music for the dancing was provided by local musicians under the direction of Lester Payne of Blue River.

From Irving

IRVING — Irving grange met in regular session last week with M. G. Kelso as master. E. J. Ward gave the legislative report and talked on some of the measures to be voted on in the November election. He gave a report on the sales tax and also the liquor bill. Mrs. Clara Maxwell reported at the next Home Economic club meeting on Nov. 8 would be cleanup day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester DeYoung were voted on and are ready for the degrees of the grange. It was voted by the grange to ask the ones from Santa Clara to help out again in putting on the third and fourth degrees. Will Bishop reported that he had written two new insurance policies. Mrs. Clara Flanigan had charge of the lecturer's program. Mrs. Mary Colgren gave a reading on the origin of Halloween. A roll call was given and each one was to tell of some trick or prank that he did when young. Mrs. Ethel Ross gave reading, "Grandfather's Halloween." Mrs. L. C. Ross will act as chairman of the lunch committee for November and she has asked the ladies to bring sandwiches and coffee cream. Lunch last week was served by Mrs. Ethel Ward as chairman.

MOSSBY CREEK NEWS — Mountain States Power company is extending its line up Mossby Creek for several miles and will begin setting poles this week. The voters in the Brumbaugh precinct will vote at the Shields-Walker schoolhouse again this year.

Max Tuller of California, has been visiting at the Lee Dugan home for the past week. Miss Fay Lebow of Tacoma, who has been at home two weeks caring for her mother and new baby brother, has left this week for her work at Boeing aircraft.

Mrs. Tressa Tuller of Eugene, visited over the week-end at the Lee Dugan home. Also Sergeant John Dugan, who had been reported missing in action over Europe, visited the Lee Dugans and also his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dugan, all of Waldon.

The Mossby Creek home extension-unit club will meet next week November 9, at the home of Mrs. Frank Bradford at Knox Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson have received word from their son, Pvt. Paul Anderson that he is at New York and waiting sailing orders.

Staff Sergeant Dale D. Blackmoor has left for Santa Monica, Calif., after spending a 21-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Blackmoor.

FROM DRAIN — Mrs. George Montgomery of Jacksonville, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ida Patchen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gardner had as recent guests their son-in-law and daughter, warrant officer, Dwight Cottingham and wife. He is home on furlough after almost two years service in the south Pacific.

Mrs. Galvin Sumner and children, and her sister, Mrs. Jean Woolfolk, teacher in the grade school, have moved into the Goodmans house in south Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brookhart have gone to eastern Oregon on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rossiter have moved into their own house in east Drain, which was vacated recently by the Harry Powells. The fire department was called out recently to the Winstanley home, when an oil stove exploded. Not much damage was done.

Mrs. Madeline Russell has been visiting relatives in Portland the past week. The Sew and So club will meet Thursday at Mrs. Anne Burdett's home. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.

AT DEXTER — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald O. Parker of Wichita, Kansas, who visited his parents have returned home. They visited their relatives in Los Angeles and arrived here by plane. They will make their home in Augusta, Kansas until spring. Mrs. Ida Williams spent the first of the week visiting her son, B. M. Williams and family in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Williams of San Francisco were also there. Mr. and Mrs. McCracken have had word their son, Mac, is quite ill with pneumonia in southern Calif.

MEETING POSTPONED — STAFFORD — The Sunshine club meeting will not be held this week, having been postponed until the third Wednesday of the month.

attendance besides the guests were Mrs. Etta Jane Chittock, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Maharry, Virgil Marry and Donna and Diana, Mrs. Glen McCall, Mrs. Clinton Chittock, Harold, Robert and Beth Rutherford and Claude Secord.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

At Wendling

WENDLING — Mrs. Stanley Quigley was hostess to the Junior Mothers' club recently at her home. Plans were made for finishing the quilt made by the club which is to be raffled in the near future. Mrs. Myrtle Fulton won the prize of the evening. The next meeting will be at the hall on November 8. The quilt will be quilted at that time. Mrs. Albert Smith will be hostess.

Birthday club at her home recently, Bridge was the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. Ethel Hoflein won high score. Mrs. Walter Petersdorf won low, and Mrs. Carl Abercrombie won the traveling prize. First Sgt. and Mrs. Everett Squires have left for Santa Barbara, Calif., where First Sgt. Squires will be re-assigned. He has spent the past month here with his wife and son, Nickie, and other relatives.

The Senior Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jeff Abell, Wednesday evening, Nov. 1. Mrs. Will Carbell has returned to her home at Dierks, Ark., following a three weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Warren. The Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Tom Bilderback, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2, for the work and business meeting. All ladies interested are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Aldous have received word that their son, Eddie Aldous, SOM, 2-c, has undergone a major operation. He is in a hospital at Pearl Harbor. Eddie is reported "getting along well." The island of Kythera, off the southern shore of Greece, is of volcanic origin. Jupiter, largest of the planets, could contain 1,300 bodies the size of the earth.