

McKenzie Grange New Officers

McKENZIE BRIDGE.—Following a basket dinner at the Willamette Grange on Saturday night, the new officers of the McKenzie Bridge Grange were elected. The officers are: President, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Vice President, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Secretary, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; and the new birthday association will be held at the church Sunday, November 12, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. W. L. Wheeler. The dinner was held at the Willamette Grange on Saturday night, and the new officers were elected. The officers are: President, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Vice President, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Secretary, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; Treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler; and the new birthday association will be held at the church Sunday, November 12, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. W. L. Wheeler.

Legion Auxiliary Assists Hospital

REEDSFORT.—A book and cigarette shower for the Klamath Falls marine hospital and for patients at the Roseburg facility, respectively, was held at the November meeting of the Reedsport unit American Legion auxiliary last week. At that time approximately 70 volumes of books and eight cartons of cigarettes were received for shipment to the hospitals. Cash donations also are being asked for books for the marine library and they may be handed to Mrs. Edgar B. Stevens at the Stevens grocery. Anyone wishing to donate books may leave them at the Reedsport furniture store where they will be packed and mailed. Donations of $5.00 each to the organization's hospital and child welfare Christmas cheer funds were voted, and a donation of $5.00 also was ordered sent to the Roseburg facility to defray expense of a ward or birthday party. Seven completed hospital wheel chair jackets and two feather pillows and covers for the Roseburg hospital were displayed by Mrs. Wright, who is the sewing chairman, who announced that seven more jackets would be completed and mailed at an early date. Plans were announced for the annual Legion and auxiliary Armistice breakfast to be held on Nov. 11 in the Reedsport American Legion hall between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. Christmas gifts were reported sent to approximately 250 local overseas service men and women.

Young People Work On Teen Age Canteen

COTTAGE GROVE.—During the past week-end, a group of Cottage Grove young people, under the supervision of William Pyle and Robert Graham, worked on the room to be used for the teen age canteen. The room is being remodeled. A new section of flooring has been put in and the complete floor is being sanded. Electric wiring is being modernized, with facilities made ready for an electric cooler and a juke box. This week the room will be calimined; signs will be painted and furniture installed. Other necessary improvements will be made. Those who helped at this work included: Sharon Hoyer, Ivan Hoyer, Dick Clark, Karen Madison, Betty Ramala, Robert Glenn, Dean Daugherty, Mark Morgan, Bob Bauder, Mollie Turpin, Shirley Hughes, Herbert Fetter, Irene Schaffer, Fritz Bradford, Don Morrison, Bruce Johnson, and Moose Event. On Saturday evening, the members of the Cottage Grove Moose lodge were guests of the Eugene lodge. Since it was the evening for this city's lodge to entertain at the weekly dance, a floor show was presented by the local group. This program consisted of tap dances by Miss Irene Schaffer, accompanied by Miss Betty Bagley, Miss Barbara Houser, accompanied by Miss Schaffer. The numbers were enjoyed very much by those who attended. Thursday Calendar: 12:00 noon.—The Lions club will meet at the Rainbow cafe for the weekly lunch and meeting. 1:30 p. m.—The Social Twelve club will meet at the home of Mrs. Bessie Sutcliffe for dessert. 2:00 p. m.—The Baptist Missionary society meets at the home of Mrs. Truman Clark. 8:30 p. m.—The A. V. H. Dinner club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hogate, with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Layne as hosts. 7:30 p. m.—The Service Guild of the Methodist church will meet at the church for a no-hostess meeting.

Dinner Will Be Given At Walerville

WALERVILLE.—Walerville's ladies' aid society is sponsoring a Thanksgiving dinner at 7:30 o'clock November 17, in the social room of the church and members of the aid society and church congregation and their families and any others who wish to attend are invited to bring their dinner and enjoy the evening. Games will be played by the young people after dinner. The regular quilting will be held Thursday at the church with the business session at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Donald Alexander and daughter Lois left Sunday morning for Vallejo, Calif., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hills and expect to see Donald Alexander, seaman 2-c. They plan to stay about two weeks. Miss Jeanne Rogers of Eugene visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Peters, Sunday afternoon and Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Peters are planning on moving this week to their new home near Springfield. Preaching services were held Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church with Rev. R. E. Clark speaking. Following the service Rev. Harold Roberts, synodical executive of Oregon, presented three rolls of films with pictures of "Our Wonderful World," "Chicago Zoo," and a sermon by Rev. Ironsides. About 30 remained for the social hour. The U. S. flag purchased for the church by the Anderson Memorial Sunday school was hung for the first time on the new pole. The base is made from myrtle wood and presented by Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie in honor of their three sons who are serving in the army and navy and who were active in church service when in this vicinity.

Wolf Creek Club Has Regular Meeting

WOLF CREEK.—The Justamere club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Nellie Shaw for its regular bi-monthly meeting and also to honor Mrs. Florence Fry for a birthday shower. Mrs. Fry received many beautiful and useful gifts. Many who could not attend sent gifts. Those present for the all-day meeting were: Viola Farmer, Irene Fry, Mae Wildansen, Annette Cowden, the hostess, Nellie Shaw and the honor guest, Mrs. Florence Fry. The Wolf Creek school district 105, gave $10 to the national war fund. The Justamere club also gave $10. Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeYoung and son Billie, of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cowden. The ladies are sisters. Mrs. Dama Damewood and Sandra have been visiting with Mrs. Damewood's parents, the Husseys, of Grants Pass the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wildansen were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Johnson of Thurston. Their nephew, Elmer Johnson, has recently returned from 31 months spent in the south sea battle area. Elmer is receiving a medical discharge because of injuries received in that zone. He is well-known here as he stayed several times with the Wildansens.

Creswell Events Of Week Listed

CRESWELL.—Mrs. W. W. Lower's birthday anniversary was observed at a potluck supper Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lower, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Schwering and daughter Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dersham, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bartel and son Royce and Mr. and Mrs. Traxler and daughters Bobbie and Beverly Traxler. A company of 40 members of the Christian church congregation were present at a basket dinner following the morning service honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Jones who have supplied the church during the vacation of the pastor Carroll McKickel. Mr. McKickel took over the work Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Ransdell and daughter, Bonnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Thomson of Swiss-home were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coleman. Mrs. Ransdell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman. To Meet Thursday: The regular meeting of the Presbyterian missionary society will be held Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Olive Parlin will serve as hostess and Mrs. J. Hays will present the lesson. Marjorie Westlake, daughter of Mrs. Lillie Westlake, is a recent member of the WAYS from this district. She has gone to New York City where she will be in training at Hunters College. Cecil Bragg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bragg and co-partner of the Camas Lumber company, left recently for his boot training in the navy at Farragut, Idaho. His wife and son are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lower. Miss Frances King returned to teaching in the grade school Monday following a week off with illness. Mrs. W. O. Spencer substituted for her.

AT CEDAR FLAT

CEDAR FLAT.—At the Grady Morton home in Cedar Flat, Saturday evening, the young people gathered for a party following the Halloween season and dancing and games were enjoyed. Refreshments were served. Those attending were Betty Mortenson, Kenneth and Paul Gallion, Don Votsberger, Teddy Plummer, Dorothy Mortenson, Alice Mortenson, and Darrell Mortenson. A group of young people was entertained last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bivens for Halloween, and games and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour when refreshments were served to the following: Darrell Mortenson, Alice Mortenson, Dorothy Mortenson, Betty Mortenson, Paul Gallion, Kenneth Gallion, Mil-dred and Lester Bivens, Teddy Plummer. AT WALERVILLE: Results of the war fund returns for this vicinity were: Mrs. Clint Smith, $70.50 and Mrs. Deas, $28.50, solicitors for the Walerville vicinity; and for Cedar Flat, with Mrs. Elsie Stern soliciting, $58.50. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page and Mrs. Elizabeth Page were hosts last week to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCue and their house guest, Mrs. Maude Helzer of Seattle, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. McCue are in Eugene from San Bernardino, called here by the serious illness of Mr. McCue's sister, Miss Nannie McCue.

AT CEDAR FLAT NEWS

CEDAR FLAT.—Lieutenant Winnifred Endicott arrived home at the first of the week from training school in Texas where he has been the past several months to visit his wife and daughter and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Endicott, of Cedar Flat. Mrs. Endicott and daughter will accompany him on his return to Florida where he will be stationed. They expect to leave Nov. 6. Lieutenant Endicott has been in U. S. army service for several years. A family dinner was given at the J. B. Endicott home, and guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Endicott and their daughter: Lynn Endicott and three children: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Endicott and the hosts.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE THAT MRS. BLEATING HART IS A DIRTY OLD...
AH-AH-OH! WATCH IT, JANE!
WE MUST NOT CALL PEOPLE NAMES...
OH, BUT MAMA! SHE'S AWFUL! ALL TH' KIDS KNOW HOW SHE TREATS ANNIE!
YES-- BUT CALLING PEOPLE NAMES DOES NO GOOD-- WE MUST THINK OF SOMETHING--
MAMA! WHY CAN'T I HAVE A PARTY AND INVITE ANNIE?
WONDERFUL! WE'LL DO IT JANE-- ON SATURDAY!

GASOLINE ALLEY
NOW THAT ELECTION IS OVER, I HOPE THE SECRETS AND MYSTERIES AROUND THIS HOUSE ARE OVER, TOO!
SECRETS, MYSTERIES!
OF COURSE, YOU WOULDN'T KNOW! YOU AND NINA!
WE TALK ABOUT MANY THINGS, WALT. A LOT OF THEM WOULDN'T INTEREST YOU IN THE LEAST.
THESE THING GO AGAIN-- ANOTHER LAUGH BEHIND MY BACK!

BLONDIE
Z-Z-Z
Z-Z-Z
DAGWOOD, YOU'RE JUST A LAZY GOOD-FOR-NOTHING LOAFER.
YES, DEAR.
AFTER I FINISH MY NAP I'LL DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES
BOOTS, HENRY TOLD ME ROD CAUGHT THE MEN WHO STOLE OUR CAR--
HE ALSO TOLD ME ROD IS A CHANGED PERSON LATELY, DOCTOR.
HEY, ROSIE! ANYONE HERE NAMED BOOTS? TELEGRAM FOR 'ER!
OH, IT'S FROM MY BOSS. MR. BLUFFINGTON! HE WANTS ME TO JOIN HIM IMMEDIATELY!

WASH TUBBS
HOPE I CAN GET INTO THIS MONKEY SUIT YOU BOYS GOT ME!
IT'S NEARLY DUSK, FELLAS-- TIME TO GET STARTED. IF EVERY MAN DOES HIS ASSIGNED JOB WELL TONIGHT, WE'LL COME THRU OKAY.
YOU'LL USE THIS RDX-- A NEW EXPLOSIVE I BROUGHT, SERGEANT. IT'S MORE POWERFUL THAN TNT AND STICKS WELL TO SURFACES. HERE ARE THE DETONATORS.
LOOKS LIKE A LAMP OF DOUGH!
TAKE ANOTHER LOOK AT TH' CAPTAIN, FELPS. AN' NEVER REMEMBER WHAT HE HAD TH' HEART TO ATTEMPT TONIGHT-- EVEN IF HE DON'T SUCCEED!

ALLEY OOP
AFTER ALL WE WENT THROUGH I GET OOP OUT OF EZION-GEBER. HE TURNS RIGHT AROUND AN' GOES BACK TO IT, TH' DOPE!
YEH, BUT IS IT WORTH TH' EFFORT HE'S GOING BACK INTO TO GET IT?
AND WITH AZRO'S SWORD TH' ONLY WEAPON BETWEEN 'EM.
WELL, WE COULDN'T GET INTO TH' CITY UNTIL TH' GATES OPEN ANYWAY!
I'M AFRAID WE'LL NEVER MAKE IT BACK BEFORE SUNUP!
YES, BUT THEY'LL HAVE A CHANCE TO SPOT US! AND WHAT WITH THE RUMPUSS WE KICKED UP GETTING OUT, THE WHOLE CITY WILL BE ON THE ALERT FOR OUR BLOOD!

OUR WAY
AND THERE WON'T BE A BIT OF FOOTBALL UNTIL EVERY ONE OF THEM IS CARRIED OUT!
HEROES ARE MADE-- NOT BORN.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE
GOOD MORNING! IF YOU'RE PARKING HERE FOR WHEATS, MISTER, PLEASE IDENTIFY YOURSELF-- ARE YOU MATOR, HOOPLE OR JUST ANOTHER DUMMY?
HO-HUM! BEFORE YOUR VOCAL CORDS CATCH FIRE FROM FRICTION, RUN YOUR EYES OVER PAGE TWO OF THIS PAPER-- HO-HUM!
THE DUMMY'S A NOBLE IDEA, MAJOR-- BUT WHY NOT EXPAND IT? YOU COULD MAKE A SWARM OF 'EM, AND RENT 'EM OUT AS FAT SCARECROWS, GRAND OPERA ESCORTS AND PROFESSIONAL SECRET-KEEPERS!
HE'S GOING TO WIN THE NEXT FEW ROUNDS.

ALPINE ITEMS
ALPINE.—Twelve ladies met at the Red Cross room Thursday to fold surgical dressings. A total of 766 dressings was folded. They now have a room in the I.O.O.F. building. It is hoped that more ladies will turn out for this work, as it is very much needed at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Neligh and Howland have gone to Grants Pass to visit, and Mr. Neligh will spend some time at the Springs. The P-T.A. met Friday. This was their regular meeting time, first Friday of the month. The program consisted of boxing and wrestling bouts by the local boys. The student body sold pies. Harry Bowersox had word from his brother Lynn, from Seattle that they would be leaving for Alaska, Monday. They are now serving hot lunches at Alpine school. Mrs. Ecker is cook and Mrs. Marie Irwin assists her. They cook lunches for 94 pupils. Each pays 30 cents per week.