

Creswell School's Carnival On Friday

CRESWELL—The student body of the high school is sponsoring a carnival at the school gymnasium Friday evening, Nov. 17, beginning at 8 o'clock. Keith Kerr is general manager. Each class has a candidate for queen and the class selling the most tickets names the queen. The seniors are sponsoring Eleanor Fox, business manager Junior Anderson, Beverly Hancock, freshmen manager Bill Lamb. Many concessions will be in operation.

Mrs. Olive Parlin is hostess at the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Taylor. Mrs. E. W. Hoagland presided at the meeting and conducted the devotions. Mrs. Parlin reported on clothing sent to the missionary school at the Haines House in Alaska. Mrs. C. H. Harold, Mrs. K. B. Melton, and Mrs. Hoagland were appointed to have charge of a missionary table at the aid society bazaar. Mrs. Melton was elected secretary to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Catherine Dorris who wished to retire. Mrs. James Hayes presented the program on Iran and the Southern Mountains. A letter was read from a missionary from Iran who was returning home on a victory ship with a message to the churches of America. Other articles on the Moslem country and the Southern Mountain schools were read by Mrs. Melton, Mrs. Harold, Mrs. Hoagland, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. George Kelson, Mrs. David Francis, Mrs. Parlin and Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Parlin served refreshments.

Jennie Workinger

SHEDD—Mrs. Jennie Workinger, aged 80 years, died Wednesday, at her home after a long illness. Funeral services were Friday afternoon at the Williams United Presbyterian church, the pastor, Rev. E. J. Clark officiating.

Mrs. Workinger was born in 1864 at Blairsville, Penn. She married G. L. Workinger on Aug. 22, 1885. They came to Oregon the next year and made their home on a farm near Shedd. Mr. Workinger died eleven years ago. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Ira Soule, of Lebanon, Mrs. Laura Hurd, Olympia, Wash., Miss May Workinger, Corvallis, and Miss Edna Workinger of Portland, three sons, Gerald Workinger of Shedd, Frank Workinger of Corvallis, and George Workinger of Halsey; nine grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Chester Taylor of Homer City, Penn., two brothers, Joseph G. Gibson of North Albany, and Harvey Gibson of Blairsville, Penn.

WEDDING NEWS

WEDDING—Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swafford were Teddy Leavitt, Jr., Miss Emma Jean Clark, and Miss Suzie Nichols, all from Eugene.

Mrs. Helen Willis and baby daughter are visiting at the home of the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roberts; also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Rogers. Mrs. Willis was formerly Miss Helen Cline and resided here about three years ago.

Gene Pattee, A. S., of Farragut, Ida, has a five-day leave and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pattee. His wife and two children, who have been living in Eugene with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wildish, since Mr. Pattee entered the service, are here with him. This is the first time he has seen his baby daughter.

The Ladies' Aid sewing committee which was recently appointed, met at the home of Mrs. Seth Byers, last week, and worked on bazaar articles. The regular Ladies' Aid meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16, the place to be announced later.

WEDDING—A group from the Bible Standard church chartered Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans recently. After the charivari games were played and refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott, Clifford Scott, Mrs. Ben Grant, Miss Irene Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Cleave and family, Mrs. Helen Willis of Lorane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods, Sr., David Sisler, Mrs. Gladys Scott, Mrs. Paul Brunner, Mrs. Harry Warner and family, Rev. and Mrs. H. Gear, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods, Jr., Sylvia Dunn, Tessie Callison, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Kloak, Edna Darrell and Ruth Kloak, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Goodman and son, Francis, and Duane Woods.

The following ladies served on the election board Tuesday: First clerk, Mrs. Bill Sayles; second clerk, Mrs. Catherine Annabell; third clerk, Mrs. Darrell Stolberg; judge, Mrs. Grover Sumner. The counting board included: chairman, Mrs. Charles Chandler; first clerk, Mrs. John Downing; second clerk, Mrs. Charles Hoffen; third clerk, Mrs. Ole Bunch; and judge, Mrs. Bill Harris. There were 250 votes cast in Wendling.

The Welfare club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Atwood, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conover and daughter, Lorreen, have moved from B-row to the Roger Gwynn property on the south side of town.

The abrasive, rottenstone, is produced only in Pennsylvania.

Holiday Dinner Set At Waterville

WATERVILLE—Next Friday evening, Nov. 17, the members of the Presbyterian church congregation and the other groups of the church are having a Thanksgiving dinner at 7:30 o'clock in the social room of the church. All are invited to attend the dinner. Committees have been appointed to see to tables and table cloths and other things about the supper. No charges are being made, each family to bring its own supper. Games will be played and visiting enjoyed following the supper.

Captain and Mrs. George Marx who were visiting Mrs. George Marx and son, Robert, in this vicinity last week, left for Vancouver, Wash., where Captain Marx is now in Barnes hospital, having taken sick while on his visit here. Captain Marx is in this section on furlough after about three years service in the Pacific area.

At Marcola

MARCOLA—A. R. Hopkins reports about his sons who are in the service. Paul, who has been in England for some time is now some where in France. Richard is on a boat that just recently docked at New Orleans and Wallace is at Seattle attending officers' school. He has just completed a course in Philadelphia and returned to Seattle.

Merle Fischer visited relatives and friends here recently. He left for Montgomery, Alabama where he has charge of a government lumber yard.

Riley Garrison was called to McMinnville recently by the illness of his brother, Arthur Garrison, who was in the hospital there. On Monday he received word of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Lena Logan at Klamath Falls and he left that night to see her.

Mrs. Cecil Tippeny of Tacoma, Wash., has returned to her home after spending about 10 days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones.

Mr. Laura Murdoch fell recently, breaking her arm quite badly.

Those serving on the election boards here were: on board 1, Harry Smith, Ernest Mabe, J. B. Schroll, Hazel Downing and Irene Walters; on board No. 2, Nell Price, Wilma Maxwell, Ilma Faust, Ethel Pope and Nellie Garrison. There were 335 ballots cast. Seventeen were absentee ballots.

The Friendly sewing club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Hazel Downing.

Mrs. Clifford Johnson has returned home from Ocean Side, Calif. She plans to take Jimmy and return there soon, if Mr. Johnson isn't shipped away.

Walter Scott has returned home from the hospital and is around on crutches now.

Mrs. Minnie Fisher has also returned from the hospital.

Word has been received by Mrs. Hazel Green from her brother, Wesley Frazier that he was in a hospital. He had been injured when the aircraft carrier Princeton was sunk.

Hubert Libby, on leave, has been visiting his family here and was to leave for Shoshone, Calif., where he would be located. The family plans to go there soon.

AT BELLFOUNTAIN

BELLFOUNTAIN—Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Weiss made a business trip to Portland last week to complete the deal for a farm in eastern Oregon, near Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Weiss and their son Ernest, expect to leave in about two weeks for their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wethern of Los Angeles have purchased the Weiss farm east of Bellfountain and have moved into a small house on the place. They, with their two small children officially will take possession as soon as the Weiss family leaves for their new home.

Mrs. Harrison Wallace has received word that her husband has been sent to Selbert, Alabama, for his basic training in the U. S. army. Wallace left recently for service.

Herman Nusbbaum went to Ft. Lewis, recently for service in the U. S. armed forces. According to a telephone message to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nusbbaum, he expects to take his basic training at a camp in Arkansas.

WESTFIR NOTES

WESTFIR—Ladies serving on the election board for the general election were Miss Phyllis Lunsberry, Mrs. D. Logan, Mrs. Kenneth Farrier, Mrs. Martin Elam and Mrs. Arnold Rym.

The Westfir Welfare circle met at the church basement last week with Mrs. Walter Cummings, president, presiding. The meeting was opened by repeating the Lord's prayer.

The treasurer reported $136.44 cash on hand in the treasury. Mrs. C. F. Goss was elected as vice president to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. A. Peterson who has moved away. It was decided to discontinue serving refreshments at the meeting at present. The date for the annual bazaar will be Nov. 28, at the show hall. Various booths will be opened for auction, food sale, and games for children. There will be a program prior to the sale. Mrs. C. F. Goss was appointed on the program committee; Mrs. S. E. Coffman on the popcorn booth; Mrs. L. Fox, quilt, food booth; Mrs. Chester Arthur, food booth; Mrs. George Shepherd, Mrs. Chester Arthur served refreshments. The circle meets every two weeks and all members are asked to attend.

District Meeting Of Rebekahs Reported

ELKTON—The thirty-eighth convention of district No. 11 of the Rebekah lodge was held recently in the IOOF hall, guests of Umpqua Rebekah lodge No. 173. The meeting was called to order by chairman, Frances Heddon. Ida Thomas and Agnes Hudson seated the convention officers, who were presided with corsages and gifts by two small girls, Doris Moore and Claudia Binder, who were dressed in old-fashioned dresses of the Rebekah colors of pink and green. Ethel Bailey, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, and other officers of the grand lodge were presented to the convention by Madeline Russell.

An address of welcome was given by Mabel Rader, and a response was given by Gertrude Hatfield of Roseburg. Past chairmen were presented to the convention, and were given gifts by the chairman, Frances Heddon. These gifts were presented by the flower girls, as a song was sung by Barbara Tarnowski, Lucille Moore, Mona Rydell, and Erda Chestnut. Anna Bauer sang a solo, after which the meeting was closed by the Umpqua lodge. A basket luncheon was served by Madeline Russell, Gladys Stewart, and Lila Alldridge.

Lodge re-opened at 1:30 p. m. Erda Chestnut played an accordion solo. Madeline Russell read a paper. Secretary's reports and good-of-the-order chairmen's reports from the various lodges were read. Dorothy Smith of Roseburg sang.

Next Meeting Set

It was decided that the next convention be held at Myrtle Creek. Next year's officers were elected as follows: Josie Pruner, chairman; Capitola Abbott, vice-chairman; Oma Keller, secretary; Leona Slack, treasurer. Ethel Bailey, president, gave the address of the afternoon, and she and the chairman, Frances Heddon, were presented with gifts from the convention. Riddle lodge gave readings. The new convention officers were seated. Twenty members were present from Roseburg, five from Riddle, one from Sutherlin, two from Gardiner, six from Cottage Grove, and twenty-two from Elkton.

In the evening a dinner was served in the lodge dining room by the ladies of the Methodist W. S. C. S., after which Umpqua Rebekah lodge held a special meeting. President Ethel Bailey made her official visit. Mrs. Lois Clough and Miss Donna Rydell joined the lodge by initiation. President Bailey complimented the drill team on its impressive work. She addressed the lodge, and she and the noble grand, Rose Henderer, were presented with gifts by Esther Gates. A skit, "Emergency Exit" was given by Edith Gates, Ben Morganti, and Edith Adams. Refreshments were served by Iris Haines. Seventy-six members and guests were present.

The W. S. C. S. met at the Methodist church Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Blankenship led in prayer. Miss Mabel Shoen introduced the speaker, Miss Simmonds, who spent 37 years in India and who gave an interesting address, telling of conditions there and of the need of more missionaries.

The Priscilla club met recently at the home of Mrs. Agnes McDonald. Mrs. Ellen Zimmerman was in charge of the contest. Mrs. Dorothea McKinley was prize winner. There were 14 club members present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mary Jacobs of Bend is here visiting relatives.

Cpl. and Mrs. John W. Pugh and little daughter, Carolyn, have returned to Ohio after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison of Ash, Swale and Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh of Shedd.

A reunion of the Pugh family was held Sunday at the local Methodist church with 36 members of the family present, a number coming from a distance.

The Shedd and Halsey grade schools football teams played at Halsey Thursday afternoon. Shedd won 18 to 0.

CHURCH GROUPS MEET

REEDSPORT—Mrs. Albert Perkins of Gardiner was hostess recently for the November meeting of the guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church. The petition of the Gardner church, previously an unorganized mission, to become an organized mission having been accepted, Mrs. A. F. Smith, Mrs. Harold Grubb, and Mrs. Cecelia Anderson were appointed members of the mission board to represent the guild. Men members of the committee will be appointed by Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell, at an early date. Attending the guild meeting were Rev. Mr. Lewis of Marshfield, rector at the Gardner church; Mrs. Otto Weaver, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Henry Sagaberd, Mrs. Frank Sagaberd, Mrs. Yuba Angus, Mrs. Grubb, Mrs. Minnie Graham, Mrs. Howard Cole, Mrs. I. A. Janelle, Mrs. George Perkins, Mrs. Ivan Gay, and the hostess.

St. Ann's Discussion club held its first meeting of the fall series last week at the Tibury residence in Gardiner. Those attending were Mrs. Nels Somers, Mrs. C. R. Elliott, Mrs. Sophie Pellegrin, Mrs. Jack Johannes, Mrs. Waldemar Knudsen, Mrs. George Richmond, Mrs. W. G. Benson, Mrs. Any Calkins, Mrs. John Unker, Mrs. Frank Sigola, Mrs. Frank Brucker, Miss Bess Richards and Rev. Mr. Killian. Meetings will be held each Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock at the Knudsen apartment at Thompson's Hotel in Reedport.

AT FRANKLIN—The C. I. club met Thursday, all day, with Mrs. Hodson. A club quilt was bound and Red Cross sewing done. Plans were made for the club's Christmas party and gift exchange to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christensen on Dec. 14, for a 7 o'clock potluck supper.

R. T. Stingley made a trip to Castle Rock, Wash., a few days ago, where he visited with his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Stingley and Shirley.

Miss Jean Troudel has gone to Junction City where she will work while attending high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodson entertained recently honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips on their 39th anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Johnson, Barbara and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Hodson and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Short recently moved to Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Atherton visited their son and family, Norman Atherton at Gold Beach recently.

Butter was made by some tribes in Tartary by filling a skin bag with milk, tying it to a saddle and dragging it over rough ground by way of churning.

Mill At Latham Has New Owners

LATHAM—The Fred Harris mill was sold last week to Harris & Morris, formerly of Springfield. A crew of men are reconditioning the mill and getting it ready to operate. It will be partly electrified.

O. A. Nichols attended an insurance meeting in Corvallis last week. Mrs. Nichols accompanied him.

Thelma Moors is staying at the Overgaard home and attending high school.

The schools will not be in session Monday, Nov. 13, due to teachers institute.

Mrs. Mary Boswell took Mrs. Lillian Porter's place on the election board. Latham cast 325 votes out of 413 registered.

Shedd Notes

SHEDD—Joseph Bennett of Shelburn is here visiting his brother, Isaac Bennett.

A 4-H club banquet will be held here on Wednesday evening. The community meeting of November was held recently in the gymnasium. Orchestra music and several other musical numbers formed a part of the program. Miss Lucille Shedd gave a reading, and there were some short plays. A reception for the teachers was given. After the program refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. E. Aubrey entertained the Patter club last week at the home of Mrs. Max Aubrey. Mrs. Cyrus and Mrs. Renfro of Albany gave talks on the work of the Red Cross. Mrs. Dick Duncan won the contest prize. Refreshments were served.

Margaret Pugh and her twin brothers, Keith and George, whose birthdays occur on the same day, were given a supper party at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris George.

Communion services were held recently at the Shedd United Presbyterian church. Rev. J. Boyd Patterson, superintendent of the synod of the Columbia, preached the sermon, Ralph Miller, Michael Coon, and R. W. Brown, elder from the Oakville United Presbyterian church, assisted with the service.

The W. S. C. S. met at the Methodist church Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. A. Blankenship led in prayer. Miss Mabel Shoen introduced the speaker, Miss Simmonds, who spent 37 years in India and who gave an interesting address, telling of conditions there and of the need of more missionaries.

The Priscilla club met recently at the home of Mrs. Agnes McDonald. Mrs. Ellen Zimmerman was in charge of the contest. Mrs. Dorothea McKinley was prize winner. There were 14 club members present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Mary Jacobs of Bend is here visiting relatives.

Cpl. and Mrs. John W. Pugh and little daughter, Carolyn, have returned to Ohio after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison of Ash, Swale and Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh of Shedd.

A reunion of the Pugh family was held Sunday at the local Methodist church with 36 members of the family present, a number coming from a distance.

The Shedd and Halsey grade schools football teams played at Halsey Thursday afternoon. Shedd won 18 to 0.

AT FRANKLIN—The C. I. club met Thursday, all day, with Mrs. Hodson. A club quilt was bound and Red Cross sewing done. Plans were made for the club's Christmas party and gift exchange to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christensen on Dec. 14, for a 7 o'clock potluck supper.

R. T. Stingley made a trip to Castle Rock, Wash., a few days ago, where he visited with his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Stingley and Shirley.

Miss Jean Troudel has gone to Junction City where she will work while attending high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodson entertained recently honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips on their 39th anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Johnson, Barbara and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Hodson and Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Short recently moved to Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Atherton visited their son and family, Norman Atherton at Gold Beach recently.

Butter was made by some tribes in Tartary by filling a skin bag with milk, tying it to a saddle and dragging it over rough ground by way of churning.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

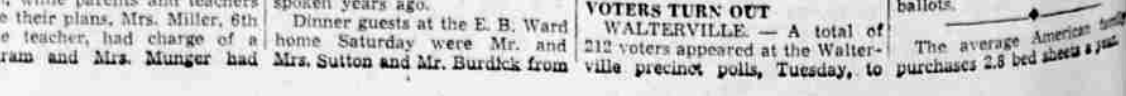

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

PHILOMATH ITEMS

PHILOMATH ITEMS