Tanks Defeat Warships In Strange Fight

WITH BRITISH FORCES IN HOLLAND—(U.P.)— One of the most fantastic battles in Holland has just ended in a victory for Canadian forces.

It was an engagement between tanks and warships—and the tanks won.

But the episode also had another strange angle. It almost never happened, first, because the report of a Canadian scout car platoon commander was not believed immediately; and second, because the Germans mistook the Canadians for nazi paratroopers.

The incident began when a Canadian company reached the Dutch village of St. Pillipsland and received a report that a German naval force was less than 2 miles away, in Zijpe harbor of Schouwen island.

The platoon commander decided to investigate. He climbed a water tower, from where he saw figures in German naval uniforms strolling on the jetties at Zijpe and a German flag flying on what appeared to be a conning tower.

The commander reported his findings but they were not accepted immediately and he withheld further action until later in the afternoon when a brigadier arrived.

After the brigadier arrived and confirmed the Canadian commander's report the platoon started moving up with tanks and one 17-pounder, two 6-pounders, and two 3-inch mortars. Just before dusk, the Canadians opened a bombardment. The enemy guns attempted to reply but were silenced in 10 minutes.

During the night, mortar flares lit up the harbor. In the morning, 43 men with three officers pushed off from St. Phillipslanid in a fishing schooner, a cutter, and a police boat and landed behind Zijpe harbor under cover of a second barrage.

In the harbor were 3 sunken landing craft and a blazing ship of the corvette type, surrounded by a sea of flaming oil. Despite the fires, the "naval" force boarded the ship — "AF92"— which once carried 50 to 60 men, two 88's, and two 4-barreled 20-cc guns.

On the bridge, which had been shattered by the 17-pounder, lay the body of the German naval commander, his hands in his pockets. Beside him lay the ship's log, with the last entry—"Versunken."

The engagement cost the Germans 20 dead, including three or four officers, and 8 wounded.

Yanks Buy 30,000 Gallons Of Perfume

PARIS—(U.P.)—Thirty thousand gallons of expensive French perfume, costing $16,000,000 and wrapped in 3,000,000 Christmas packages are flowing through U. S. army postoffices to every nook and corner of America.

The perfume will be worth from three to five times as much in America as it is in France, although prices here are about 100 per cent above pre-war figures.

Corn and tomatoes from Lane county's gardens will soon disappear from the stalls at the public market. Monday morning's heavy frost, the first of the season, will put an end to the arrival of these products. Both have been maturing unusually late this year, due to the absence of frost and heavy rains.

NEW YORK MARKETS
By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—(AP)—Led by aircrafts and motors, the stock market today suffered its first stumble since Nov. 3.

While liquidation never was particularly impressive, sufficient offerings cropped up to put the turnover in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 shares, one of the largest in more than two months. Prices wavered after a moderately steady start and near closing losses of fractions to a point or so were well in the majority.

The approach of the Associated Press 60-stock composite to the 7-year highs of last July tended to revive speculative and investment caution owing to the feeling that considerable stock might be for sale in this area.

Prominent on the offside the greater part of the proceeding were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, United Aircraft, Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Du Pont and American Can. Contesting the shift at intervals were Goodrich, International Harvester and Owens-Illinois.

Bonds were irregularly lower.

Dow-Jones

Preliminary closing Dow-Jones stock averages: industrial 146.97, off 1.11; railroad 41.87, off 0.50; utility 25.34 off 0.27; 65 stocks 53.03, off 0.48.

Lutherans To Aid New Guinea Hospital

CHICAGO—(AP)—The Women's Missionary federation of the American Lutheran church has allocated $75,000 of its 1945-46 biennial budget to rebuild the bombed-out Amele hospital at Finschhafen, New Guinea.

The federation allocated $310,000 for various projects, including the New Guinea hospital and $100,000 for two training schools for pastors. Sites for the proposed schools remain to be selected. The federation said they would be in southern Texas and Alabama.

ATLANTIC CITY

Republic's first big musical will probably appeal more to those who can remember the colorful era from 1913 to 1920 during which the action takes place.

Film sketches the career of a publicist-producer and his efforts to put Atlantic City's pier on the map. His many money-making schemes constantly keep him quarreling with his wife, but love triumphs over adversity.

Chief recommendation and criticism is the fact that the picture is too well dated. When Fox does one of its historical musicals, which is as good a name as any for that type of film ("Sweet Rosy O'Grady," "Hello, Frisco, Hello," "Coney Island"), it is careful to modernize everything until the old-timers probably couldn't recognize either the scenery or the characters. Republic, on the other hand, has kept banjos in the orchestras and has used several famous old acts, including Belle Baker, Joe Frisco, Gallagher and Shean and Van and Schenck.

Constance Moore and Brad Taylor carry the leads, and Jerry Colonna and Charley Grapewin carry the rest of the cast. Louis Armstrong does some fine trumpeting. Production, musical score and photography are only average.

Fair musical; high school students will probably find it dull; those who can remember the roaring twenties will like it; Three Stooges, Li'l Abner cartoon.
