

Scout Troop Gives Party At Wendling

WENDLING—The senior Girl Scouts gave a friendship shower recently at the scout cabin, honoring Mrs. Darrell Stolberg, their former leader. After the gifts were opened refreshments were served to the following: Wilma Jones, Betty Racy, Mary Lou Steinberger, Eylene Pattie, Marjorie Rains, Barbara Rogers, Clara Sanson, Margaret Mix, Josephine Warner, Irene Grant, Audrey Keeler, Teress Kuykendall, Maxine and Donna Johnson, Louise Plant, Rose Ann Steinberger, Mrs. Darrell Stolberg, and Mrs. Larry Kelly the scout leader; Miss Delores Rains and Miss Jeanne Matteson assistant leaders; Mrs. Clyde Starr and Mrs. Loren Rains who are members of the scout committee. Mrs. Vern Eastman and Mrs. Wesley Racy are also members of the committee but were unable to attend.

At the Ladies' Aid meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Larsen recently plans were completed for the cooked food sale and bazaar. It will be held at the Booth-Kelly store Friday, Dec. 8, 9 a. m. Those appointed to help with the bazaar and food sale were: Mesdames Cora Bilderback, Clara Pattee, and Gail Byers. Eight members were present and two visitors. The visitors were Mrs. H. E. Conover and daughter, Lorreen. The next meeting will be a silver tea and will be held at the home of Mrs. Catherine Annabell.

Mrs. Jack Dillon has returned home following a visit with her son, Sgt. David Dillon of Camp Rucker, Alabama. Enroute home she visited her daughter, Mrs. Burt McConnell a Wac, at Santa Monica, Calif. Another son, Wayne Dillon, S-2-c, who has recently returned to San Francisco, from the south Pacific, accompanied her home. He has a 23-day furlough.

P-T-A Reports Gains

The P-T-A membership chairman, Mrs. Hazel Quigley, reports that the kindergarten and second and third grade rooms won in the membership drive, each room getting the same number of members. Due to illness in Mrs. Quigley's home, the treats that were promised the winners will be given at a later date. There are 80 members in the P-T-A to date.

The Junior Mothers' club met at the home of Mrs. Albert Smith recently, in the form of a "hard times" party. Mrs. May Yong and Mrs. Marie Worden were welcomed as new members. The prizes of the evening were won by Mrs. Pearl Aubin, Mrs. Marie Worden, and Mrs. Wilma Saunders. The next meeting will be at the hall, Wednesday, Nov. 29. Mrs. Wilma Saunders will be hostess.

The Wendling grade school has received the following library books this year: "Cascos," by G. L. Adshard; "Heath's Car Be Fun," by Munro Leaf; "The Peddler's Clock," by Mabel Keith Bunt; "Topsy-turvy Family," by Emma L. Brock; "Sing for Christmas," by Opal Wheeler; "The Cat Next Door," by Bira Shepard; "Wilderness Champion," by Joseph W. Lippincott; "Linda Marsh," by A. L. De Leeuw; "Sensible Kate," by Doris Gates; "Jerry Goes Fishing," by Florence Battle; "Water to Burn," by Adam Allen; "Two Logs Crossing," by W. D. Edmonds; "Rusty Wants a Dog," by Huber and others; "First the Flower, then the Fruit," by J. M. Lucas; "Mary Poppins Opens the Door," by P. L. Travers; "Derry the Wolfhound," by M. S. & H. L. Johnson; "The Girl Without a Country," by Martha Lee Poston.

TO MEET TUESDAY

WALTERVILLE—Walterville Grange will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the hall. Election of officers is scheduled for that evening.

Welcome Rebekah lodge met last week. The lodge made arrangements for family night to be held Nov. 30 at the hall. This is the fifth Thursday evening and no lodge meeting is scheduled for that evening. A potluck lunch will be served. Election of officers places in the chairs for the coming six months Renee Crabtree, noble grand; Mrs. Bob Marquardt, vice grand; Hortense Long, secretary, and for the year, Hazel Hubbard as treasurer.

Children in this vicinity who read the comic books will be interested in knowing that in the October number of King Comics there is an article on the pet post page telling of Rodney West and his war dog, Rodney was a former resident of Thurston and now lives at San Mateo, Calif., and visits his aunt, Mrs. N. C. Weist and family and his grandmother, Mrs. Prosser, at Walterville every summer that he can get here. Rodney is the war dog owned by Rodney and he gave him for war service expecting to get him returned when his war service is over. Butch went A.W.O.L. the second night in camp after breaking his chain and Rodney was called in to help hunt for him. Because of a hard rain storm they had no luck finding him and Rodney went a second time, finding Butch, who seemed glad to be returned to camp.

Committees For Club Announced

MAPLETON—The Point Terrace Garden club met last week at the home of Inga Mason with Mettie Gibson as assistant hostess. The meeting opened with singing of America and the giving of the pledge. As this was election month roll call was answered by giving names of some former president.

Committees appointed by the new president were as follows: Program—Pearl Ellingson, Harriet Epperson, Lenora Griffin, Ways and means—Myrt Staehle, Olive Johnson, Sophia Nicole, Sick + Franchetta Frederickson, Rose Mason, Mary Mahan. Membership—Lena Holman, Carrie Frederickson, Inga Mason, Beautification—Pearl Ellingson, Rose Wright, Myrtle Seavers, Publicity—Golda Binder, Consulation, By-Laws—Lyndal Ellingson, Mary Epperson, Lois Pence. Musician—Lyndal Ellingson.

It was agreed that the Christmas meeting be held Dec. 14 at the home of Franchetta Frederickson with potluck lunch. A motion was made to have a grab bag with price limits set at 50c and 75c.

H. E. Club Holds Recent Election

SANTA CLARA—Mrs. C. D. Chezem was hostess to the Home Economics club Friday afternoon, with 15 members present. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Clarence Sederlin being named chairman; Mrs. M. K. Emmons, vice chairman; Mrs. E. C. Hart, secretary; and Mrs. E. G. Vogt, treasurer. Outgoing officers were Mrs. Tony Reinholdt, chairman; Mrs. Roy Overgaard, vice chairman; secretary and treasurer both being re-elected. The treasurer reported $122.94 clear for the year's work.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. G. Vogt Dec. 15, with a covered dish lunch at 1 o'clock. This will be the Christmas party and gifts will be exchanged. Also, all members are to bring some gift suitable for the children's home at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Baldwin returned home last week from Sacramento, Calif., where they had spent a week visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

At Yoncalla

YONCALLA—Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston assisted by Mrs. Herbert Hogan entertained the members of the Yoncalla Women's Study club at her home recently. A two-course luncheon was served. The meeting was opened with singing "Star Spangled Banner" and "America." Roll call was answered to with embarrassing moments. Mrs. Ervin Rice read a paper on American Homes and used as her topic "The Cultivation of Plants." Mrs. Leslie Chapman had the art lesson, followed by Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey's talk on health, using as her topic, "Tears." Fourteen members and the following guests were present: Mrs. Sam Smith of Roseburg; Mrs. Pearl Harvey of Oakland; Mrs. Workman of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Zanger and Mrs. Fred Kruse.

The W.S.C.S. of the Yoncalla Methodist church met recently with the president, Mrs. Perry Smith, presiding. The meeting was opened with group singing, followed by the scripture reading. The treasurer reported $78 cleared at the election-day dinner.

Plans were made to hold their regular Christmas bazaar on December 6, starting at 2 p. m. and continuing through with a tamale supper at 6 o'clock and a program at 8 p. m. There will be several booths with fancy work, candy, etc. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, and Mrs. Gertrude Stoute are in charge of the program. Mrs. Harold Turpin and Mrs. Cassius Rychard are in charge of the grab-bags and Mrs. George Edis is in charge of the fancy work. Donations of any fancy work will be appreciated. Mrs. Avery Laswell is in charge of the young people's candy booth.

The Assembly of God church has had several improvements recently. The floor has been sanded and varnished, and new rugs have been put down.

LULU GRACE MILLER

SHEDD—Mrs. Lulu Grace Miller, 69, died at her home near Shedd, Nov. 11, after a long illness. She was born at Grand Island, Neb., on Jan. 30, 1875 and came to Oregon at the age of six years. She married John P. Miller in 1899. He died on Sept. 19, 1943. The following children survive: Mrs. Grace Buckingham, Bellfountain; Mrs. Nina Bales and Mrs. Annabelle Keller, Shedd; Mrs. Elizabeth Barber, Corvallis; Mrs. Bessie Montgomery, Albany; Mrs. Dollie Seufert, Tangent; Dale Miller, Lebanon; Russell and Harold Miller, Shedd, also 13 grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Ruby Walker, Enterprise, and Mrs. Anna Wicks, Albany; two brothers, George Millhollen, Oakville and Claude Millhollen, Fresno, Calif. The funeral service was on Wednesday at the Oakville church, Rev. E. J. Clark officiating. Pallbearers were T. R. Sprenger, William Brown, R. W. Brown, William Lamar, Glenn Curtis and George Githens. In charge of the floral offering were Mrs. Robert Lindsay, Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. T. R. Sprenger. Mrs. Lois Sherer and Mrs. Allie Sherer sang. Burial was in the Oakville cemetery.

1945 Officers For JC Grange Elected

JUNCTION CITY—Junction City Grange met recently.

Election of officers was held and the following were named for the ensuing year: Master, Roscoe Paine; overseer, Ralph Smith; lecturer, Mabel Lorang, secretary, Dick Thom; steward, Milo Nelson; gatekeeper, Albert Johnson; assistant steward, Ralph Witcher; lady assistant steward, Josephine Wither; Ceres, Bernice Thom; Pomona, Viola Schooling; Flora, Emily Wilde; chaplain, Jennie Gribkov; executive committee, Earl Jager, O. M. Miller, Jim McMullen; pianist, Reva Clarke.

The next regular meeting will be held Nov. 24 at 8 p. m. A program and pie social will be held after the meeting. Ladies are to bring pies. Mrs. O. M. Miller, Fern McMullen, and Martha McMullen are on the serving committee.

Jasper Grangers List New Officers

JASPER—Jasper grange held its regular meeting last week. Regular committee reports were given by the agricultural and legislative committees. The home economics club report was given by Ruby Shelly who reported that the next meeting would be a potluck supper with the YGA having charge of the tables. Janitors for next meeting are to be Mr. and Mrs. Lantz, Mr. Howes, a state deputy was in attendance and gave a talk on membership. The annual election of officers was held with the following results: master, Bert Fegles; overseer, Clem Cummins; lecturer, Gladys Fegles; steward, Harry Brown; secretary, Iris Black; chaplain, Ida Cook; assistant steward, Lawrence Wheeler; lady assistant steward, Grace Jones; treasurer, Dean Beales; gatekeeper, Everett Chase; Pomona, Oreta Wheeler; Ceres, Doris Wheeler; Flora, Wanda Cummins; executive committee, Bob Veltum, Fred Cook, and Jew Wheeler; musician, Maude Brown.

New Officers In Lodge Are Reported

COBURG—Diamond Rebekah lodge No. 89 met last week. Seven candidates were initiated into the lodge. They were Lorene Parris, Annett Fox, Mary M. Looney, John Knott, Roy P. Stolsig, LeRoy Stallings, and Donald Stolsig.

Election of new officers was held. Those named are: Edna May Woodruff, noble grand; Evelyn Wiggins, vice-grand; Velma Stolsig, secretary, and Vadura Green, treasurer. Announcement was made of the sealed bid sale on Dec. 7. Every member is to bring some article to be sold to the highest bidder. Other lodges visiting for the evening were Springfield 10, Eugene 1, Portland 1, Colorado 1, and Lebanon 1. Fifty-five members were present. After lodge a lunch was served and talks were given by some visitors and the new members, John Knott acting as toastmaster.

Silver Tea Set

MONROE—Mrs. Mary Daugherty, president, reports that the members of the Monroe Mothers association are sponsoring a silver tea, to be held at the grade school Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 22. Proceeds will be added to the funds of the association, and are to be used to help out with the expenses to be incurred in getting the hot lunch project underway at the grade school. A cook and helper have been secured, both of the Monroe community. The kitchen has been finished, and the serving of hot lunches will begin just after the Thanksgiving holidays.

In connection with the silver tea, Mrs. Edna Wood, principal of the grade school, has prepared a Thanksgiving program, consisting of a play, songs, and readings. Throughout the afternoon the kitchen will be open to the public.

FROM WESTFIR

WESTFIR—The Westfir parents and teachers club met at the schoolhouse Friday, with pupils of Miss Minnie Miller's and Mrs. Cullen's room giving the program. The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Harold Savage. The following committees were appointed: ways and means, Mrs. Donald Shepard; auditing committee, Mrs. Sam Montgomery and Miss Minnie Miller. Mrs. Charles Godsey was appointed to confer with the district superintendent in regards to hot lunches for the school children. Miss Janet Lee Ramsdell is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. G. U. J. Ramsdell in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. D. Logan, Mrs. C. F. Goas, Mrs. Martin Elam, Mrs. William MacMahan, Mrs. Arthur Bullis, and Miss Jean Neff attended a reception given by Creswell Star chapter in Creswell Thursday evening. Mrs. Goas sang vocal solos during the evening.

AT VENETA

VENETA—Harold Bowman has been home on furlough and is visiting his wife and two sons. He has been stationed at Camp Walker, Texas, for the past five months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jock Bowman of Veneta. Patsy Kelly has returned to her home after spending the past five months with her father in Veneta, Calif.

Veve Holland gave a dinner party at her house Sunday in honor of her two grandsons, Harold Bowman and Junior McIntire. There were 23 guests present for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. John Steinke called at the home of Mrs. Veve Holland recently.

Eagles Planning For Social Meeting

COTTAGE GROVE—At a recent business meeting of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles, plans were made to have a social meeting on Nov. 22, instead of a regular business session. Late in the evening, a chili feed was enjoyed by the members.

The friendly club met at the home of Mrs. Mark Morgan on Friday afternoon. Following dessert, a regular business meeting was held. The members voted to prepare a Christmas box for the soldiers in camp hospitals. Plans also were made for the Christmas party. The club will hold its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Newton Land on Dec. 19. Mrs. Veve Collier was a guest at the meeting.

Entertain Group Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Caldwell entertained for an informal evening of music at their home on Saturday evening. During the evening Mrs. George Hardy sang several solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Caldwell. Arthur Mason, Mr. L. C. Hart also played numbers on the piano and electric guitar. A men's quartet composed of Mr. Caldwell, Larry Levens, Frank Brown, and Robert Graham, also sang. Late in the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kabler, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mason, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. William Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bricher, Mrs. Bellani of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Levens, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham.

Mrs. J. F. Finneran announces that the Red Cross surgical gauze classes will be held as usual until further announcement. The Cottage Grove unit has a large supply of materials on hand which are to be used.

9:30-11:30 a. m.—The Red Cross surgical gauze classes will meet in the Masonic temple.

1:30-4:30 p. m.—The Red Cross surgical gauze classes will be held in the Masonic temple.

8 p. m.—The Fraternal Order of the Eagles will hold a social meeting in the Eagles hall.

8 p. m.—The Moose lodge will meet in the Phillips hall.

Shedd Items

SHEDD—Rev. J. A. Hall has returned from Virginia where he visited relatives and is at his home in the Peoria neighborhood.

Mrs. Pool and sister, Mrs. Floyd Bulman, are in Rapid City, S. Dakota, visiting their father, who is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fox are the parents of their first daughter, born Sunday at the Lebanon hospital. The little girl has six older brothers. She has been named Pearl.

Shedd high students sponsored a carnival in the gymnasium recently, proceeds from which will be used for school activities. A program was given including orchestra selections, a vocal duet by Nancy Pugh and Joan Oxford; instrumental duet by Betty Davis and Vernon Elliott; vocal solos by Mildred Nichols, with piano accompaniment by Vernon Elliott, and a short play.

The Drain and Shedd high school football teams played here on Friday. Shedd won 25 to 18. The Priscilla club met at the home of Mrs. Ellamay Pugh last week, with 16 members present. The first home demonstration meeting that the club is sponsoring is to be held at the school house in the home economics room on Dec. 1. "Fewer Colds" is to be the topic. Mrs. Ruth Roberts presented the contest with the prize going to Mrs. Dorothea McKinley. Refreshments were served. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Yola St. John.

CARNIVAL SUCCESS

CRESWELL—The faculty and members of the student body of the high school are appreciative of the loyal support given at the carnival Friday evening. The total receipts were $559, 376 of which came from the sale of refreshments sold by the Parents club. Since the freshmen class sold the most tickets their candidate, Beverly Hancock, was crowned queen by the business manager of the class, Bill Lamb, with Joyce McDonah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. McDonah, serving as crown bearer. The princesses were Eleanor Fox of the senior class, Margay Satter of the junior class, and Joyce Everson of the sophomore class. Moving pictures supplied by the Bonneville office in Eugene were a feature and four shows were given. Several out-of-town visitors were present. The prize went to R. C. Claghorn, Jr. Jack H. Gruber, principal, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Hopper, teachers assisted the students with the program of the evening.

AT FALL CREEK

FALL CREEK—Wednesday of last week marked 50 years of married life for Mr. and Mrs. George Rice. They had a quiet observance of the day with a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Campbell are here from Napa, Calif., at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Taylor. They are expecting to locate on the Gregory place on Little Fall Creek.

R. M. Taylor was called to Seattle by a phone message saying that Mrs. Taylor who is in a hospital there, is not so well.

TO OBSERVE THANKSGIVING

JASPER—The Jasper Christian church will observe Thanksgiving on Sunday with a program during the morning services followed by a basket dinner. Kenneth Johnson will present a musical program, following the dinner.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

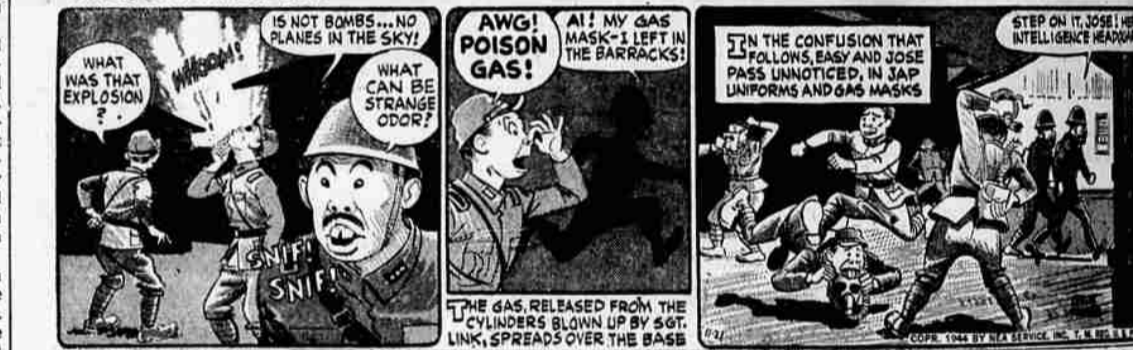

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIF

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

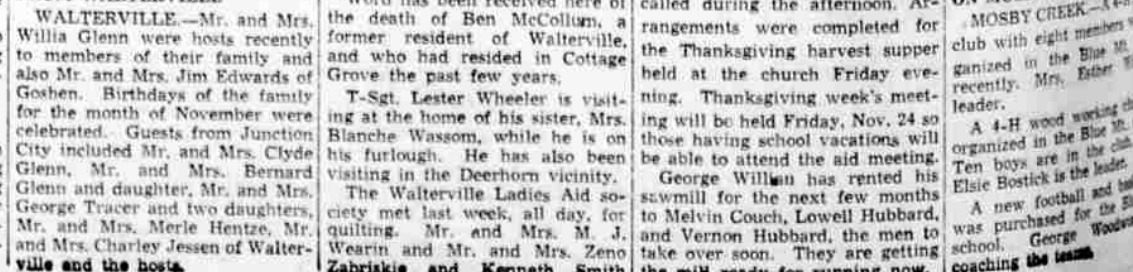

ALLEY OOP

OUT OUR WAY

FROM WALTERVILLE

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Word has been received here of the death of Ben McCollum, a former resident of Walterville, and who had resided in Cottage Grove the past few years. T-Sgt. Lester Wheeler is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Blanche Wasson, while he is on his furlough. He has also been visiting in the Deernhorn vicinity. The Walterville Ladies Aid society met last week, all day, for quilting. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weir and Mr. and Mrs. Jeno Zabriskie and Kenneth Smith called during the afternoon. Arrangements were completed for the Thanksgiving harvest supper held at the church Friday evening. Thanksgiving week's meeting will be held Friday, Nov. 24 so those having school vacations will be able to attend the aid meeting. George Willson has rented his swimmill for the next few months to Melvin Couch, Lowell Hubbard, and Vernon Hubbard, the men to take over soon. They are getting the mill ready for running now.

ON MOSBY CREEK—A 4-H wood working club with eight members was organized in the Bluff area recently. Mrs. Esther... leader. A 4-H wood working club organized in the Bluff area. Ten boys are in the club. Elsie Bostick is the leader. A new football and basketball team was purchased for the school. George Woodman is coaching the team.